THEY MARRIED AT BINGHAMTON

Miss Lizzie Jenkins Wedded to John J. Brown in June Last--New Officers of the C. M. B. A.--Men Arrested for Train Jumping.

An interesting marriage which has just come to light is that of Miss Lizzie Jenkins, the attractive daughter of Mrs. Hannah Jenkins, of North Pine Street, to John J. Brown, of the South Side, late of Luzerne & Koomp's drug store. The young couple left the city on June 29 for Binghamton, where they were secretly married. Mr. and Mrs. Brown returned home, the young lady going to her mother's home and Brown to his South Side abode. A few days ago Miss Jenkins acquainted her mother with what had occurred. It is thought that Mrs. Jenkins' condition to the match was the object of its secrecy. A Tribune reporter called at the Jenkins residence yesterday, but the family refused to discuss the marriage. On Tuesday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Brown left the city for Taylor, where they will reside in the future. Both of the young people are well known and their marriage has caused no little comment. Mr. Brown is now employed in a Taylor drug store.

Arrested for Threats.

Mrs. Sarah Mulcrain, of Twentieth street, was arrested yesterday afternoon by Constable Jerry Driscoll, on a warrant issued at the instance of Mrs. Ann Casey, a neighbor. The women have been enemies for some time past and during one of their quarrels a few days ago, Mrs. Mulcrain assaulted Mrs. Casey with her fists and, after using vile language, threatened to kill her. The case was heard before Alderman Johns, of the Fourth ward, yesterday afternoon and Mrs. Mulcrain was held in $300 bail to appear at the next court of quarter sessions.

Officers Elected.

The following officers of Branch 44, Catholic Mutual Benefit Association, have been elected for the ensuing term: President, Patrick Gallagher; first vice-president, Thomas Keane; second vice-president, Thomas Walsh; recording secretary, John B. McCann; assistant, Anthony J. Martin; financial secretary, John R. Barrett; treasurer, Morris T. Walsh; marshal, James O'Malley; guard, Thomas Judge; trustees, Matthew Shields, Dennis Madigan, James J. Durkin, James P. Durkin, William Haggerty.

Arrested for Train Jumping.

Constables Morgan and Lutz, employed by the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company, have been making strenuous efforts to abolish train jumping. Monday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday, they brought to the bar the Brothers Jay afternoon Commode a most decided in capturing and will be one of the four of the Four-leaf kind that makes a practice of jumping, out who has baffled the officers on several occasions. He was taken before Alderman Johns, of the Fourth ward, and being found guilty of the offense, was committed to county jail for a period of twenty days.

Nomination of Officers.

Robert Morris Lodge, No. 55, Order of American True Iovites, nominated the following officers for election two weeks hence: President, E. D. Jones; vice-president, William R. Lewis; recording secretary, David J. Davies; financial secretary, Gwilym A. Williams; treasurer, John J. Davies; steward, Joseph Evans; conductor, David Owens and Daniel Phillips; inside guard, John J. Jones and Benjamin Griffiths; outside guard, Roger Evans, John M. Jones, W. Gaylord Thomas, John R. Farr and Dr. J. J. Roberts; treasurer for three years, Dr. Roberts and Daniel J. Phillips; representatives to grand lodge, John H. Phillips and John Courier Morris.

The North Main avenue track is nearly completed and cars will be run over it in a short time. Dispatcher Herndon stated yesterday that the Swetland line would be disposed of. The cars will not be run to Providence yet, but will go as far as the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western crossing.
The Woman's Missionary society of the Abington Baptist association held their quarterly meeting on Thursday afternoon in the Scranton Street Baptist church. It was well attended. Devotional exercises were conducted and papers read by the ladies. A social was held in the evening.

IN THE WORLD OF SOCIETY

Winter Doings Among Prominent Leaders of the Season's Gaiety.

PARTIES, WEDDINGS AND TEAS

A large number of members of the Lackawanna County Medical society banqueted and held an annual meeting Tuesday night in the Hotel Terrace. Dr. J. M. Baldy, of Philadelphia, delivered an address, and Dr. A. J. Connell discussed a special trephining case. Those present were: Drs. Curwin and Taylor, of Wilkes-Barre; Dr. Brady, of Honesdale; Dr. J. M. Baldy, of Philadelphia; Dr. Stegner, of Bendham, and Drs. B. H. Throop, Wehlauf, Burnett, Allen, Gunster, Dean, Rea, Capwell, Gates, Williams, Barnes, O'Brien, Paine, Beddoe, Smith, Fisher, Van-Sickie, Roberts, Gardner, Wentz, Kennebeck, Roberts, Fulton, Rudisell, Park and Logan, of Scranton.

CLOSE OF THE MARKET.

It Was Very Successful and It Is Probable That It Upwards of $2,500 Will Be Realized.

The Market of the First Presbyterian church, which has been held in the Thirtieth Regiment armory, on Adams avenue, since Wednesday afternoon, closed last evening. The affair was one of the most extensive of its kind ever held in the city and closed with gratifying success. It was unofficially announced that the net proceeds will approach $2,500 and that this sum will be increased by a sale of the left-over articles, which will be displayed in the lecture room of the church next Friday or Saturday afternoon.

During the later hours of last evening a portion of the fancy, art and doll booth articles were sold at auction. The miniature dwelling house and grounds was sold for $61 to Williams & McAnulty. Under the auctioneering of Attorney John M. Harris and private sale some of the most valuable articles were disposed of as follows: Dordlinger punch bowl, $40, Charles Schlager; doll house, $35, Dr. A. J. Connell; Parisian table cover, valued at $25, Mrs. E. L. Fuller; oriental pillows, Attorneys W. D. Boyer and Ross Patterson. It is anticipated that many private sales will be made during next week previous to the public sale in the lecture room of the church.

The women having the executive management of The Market in charge expressed to a Tribune reporter their appreciation of the generous support of the public generally, but if casual remarks are any criterion the management is in turn entitled to compliment for giving such a well controlled and enjoyable object of patronage.

FOR A NEW TRIAL.

Argument of Counsel for Murderer Bezek Will Be Heard Next Friday.

Judge Edwards concluded not to sit in argument on Monday when the application of a new trial for Franz Bezek will be made by Attorneys A. J. Colborn, Jr., and G. W. Watson. Judge Edwards stated yesterday that the entire court would listen to the argument and that it would be heard next Friday morning at 9 o'clock.

DIAMONDS OF THOUGHT.

Our sympathy is cold to the relation of distant misery.--Gibbon.
Next to love, sympathy is the divinest passion of the human heart.--Burke.
The generous heart should seek a pleasure which gives others pleasure.--Thomson.
With the soul that over felt the sting of sorrow, sorrow is a sacred thing.--Cowper.
Shame on those hearts of stone that cannot melt in soft adoption of another's sorrow!--A. Hill.
More hopeful than all wisdom or counsel is one draught of simple human pity that will not forsake us.--George Eliot.
One of the greatest of all mental pleasures is to have our thoughts often divined, even and ourselves.--A. B. Scott.
Open your hearts to sympathy, but close them to dependency. The flower which opens to receive the light of day shuts against rain.--Beattie.
To rejoice in another's prosperity, is to give content to your own lot; to mitigate another's grief is to alleviate or dispel your own.--Lyon Edwards.
Our sympathy is never very deep unless founded on our own feelings. We pity, but we do not enter into the grief which we have never felt.--L. E. Landon.
To commiserate is sometimes more than to give, for money is external to a man's self, but he who bestows compassion communicates his own soul.--Mounford.
Sympathy wanting, all is wanting. Personal magnetism is the conductor of the sacred spark that puts us in human communion, and gives us to company, conversation and ourselves.--A. B. Scott.
No radiant pearl, which created fortune wears, no gem, that twinkling hangs from beauty's ears, nor the brightest stars, which night's blue arch adorn, nor rising sun, that glides the vernal morn, shine with such luster as the tear that flows down virtue's manly cheek for other's woes.--Darwin.

BASE BALL CHIRPS.

Lowe has signed a Boston contract. The other players previously signed are Long, Tucker, Silvette and McCurthy.
Joe Mulvey will play third base for the Brooklynians next year.
"Brownie" Murphy is not a winter grasshopper. He is a clerk in a Broadway stock broker's office, and dresses as if he had cornered Sugar and was long on Western Union. "Brownie" isn't large, but what there is of him is useful and lively.--New York Herald.
The Baltimore club drew, next to the New Yorks, the largest crowds of last season. An incidental way it was learned last week that one-third of the Baltimore club's profit for 1894 is $1,200. Therefore the Orioles cleared $30,000 on the season to this season the club lost a little over $80,000.
Louville is trying to get track of Whitehead, the third baseman of the Scranton club.

NEWS OF THE SOUTH SIDE

South Side Board of Trade Could Not Muster a Quorum.

DEATH OF JOSEPH RUDEWICK

One of the Best Known Polish Residents of the City Passes Away--Max Phillips Runs Down a School Boy, Painfully Injuring Him.
Since P. W. Gallagher resigned from the secretaryship, and membership also of the South Side board of trade, that organization has subsided into a shadow of its past self, and a very pertinent inquiry now seems to be: What excuse has the South Side board for living? Any meeting, for the past six or eight months, did not have more members present than just enough to constitute a bare quorum, and on several occasions no meetings were held, as was the case last night, because there was not a quorum present.
M. J. O'Toole is the present secretary, and for efficiency and progressiveness in attention to duty Mr. Gallagher did not surpass him, but it has been remarked by the members of the board that coincident with the retreat of Mr. Gallagher the decline began and has been kept up unremittingly since. Business of importance to the entire South Side was on for last night, but there was no meeting. That a board of trade in any community is hugely beneficial cannot be denied, but a board that is apathetic and slipshod is worse than no board at all. It is time for the absent members to make up their minds whether the board shall continue to do business or take in its sign and close up shop.

Small Boy Run Over.

While the children attending No. 3 school were playing yesterday morning at recess, some of the smaller ones got down on Cedar avenue and were romping around on the street. Max Phillips, the contractor, drove along quickly with a horse and two-wheeled gig and the "boobers" drug store horse struck the young son of Rev. J. C. Schmitt, of the Hickory Street Baptist church and knocked the youngster down, severely injuring him. The little fellow was unable to arise and had to be assisted to his feet. Even then he was unable to walk, and had to be carried into Dr. J. B. Aman's office, across the street, where his case was attended to.

Death of Joseph Rudewick.

Death has ended the useful career of Joseph Rudewick, the South Washington avenue Polish merchant, who was well known throughout the city as a most successful business man and one of the leading Polish citizens of the country. Mr. Rudewick was the first one of his nationality to engage in the grocery business in this city and by energy and enterprise he built up a trade which branched out considerably and yielded him an income that succeeded in building up a good sized fortune.
