 Miss Scanlon, of Lafayette street, has returned from a two weeks' visit to New York.
 A. J. Colborn, Jr., returned from New York yesterday, where he had been engaged on professional business.
 Miss Eva Robin, of London, and Miss Ruth Vialovay, of New York, will assist at Professor Carter's concert on Thursday night at the Elm Park church.
 Miss Susie Morris, of the firm of Jenkins & Morris, milliners, of Spruce street, has returned from New York, where she spent some time studying the styles for the spring season. She was accompanied by Miss Jennie Morgan and Miss Ro-becca Davis, two of the trimmers of the firm.
 Rev. James McLeod, D.D., read a scholarship paper on "Fairhair's Life of Christ" before the Methodist ministerium at Elm Park church yesterday morning. The paper was replete with ripe thoughts upon this excellent standard work and the reverend gentleman's learned effort was highly appreciated by the clergy present.

SPECIALTY AT DAVIS'
 New York Uniques Three Days' Engagement Well Begun.
 A crowded house greeted the New York Uniques, who opened at three days' engagement at Davis' theater yesterday afternoon. The performance is replete with specialty artists whose work is very clever.
 The performance concluded with a farce, entitled "Razor Jim." The company's efforts were loudly applauded.
 On Thursday afternoon the "Police Patrol" will be seen at the theater.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.
 (Under this heading short letters of interest will be published when accompanied, for publication, by the writer's name. The Tribune will not be responsible for opinions here expressed.) Generous Mr. Danner.
 Editor of The Tribune:
 I desire through the columns of The Tribune to extend my sincere thanks to the friends who supported me at the recent Republican caucus in the Sixteenth ward for the office of select council and ask them to give the nominee of that caucus, Adam Schroeder, the same active support I would have received from them had I been the candidate. Joseph Danner.

PHYSICIANS AND SCIENTISTS
 Fail to Help Mrs. S. Whitney.
 Hillsboro Bridge, N. H.—There is no more highly respected resident of this village than Mrs. N. E. Whitney. Her long and serious illness and her remarkable recovery through the aid of Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy has made that medicine a necessity in many New Hampshire households.
 Mrs. Whitney in speaking about her sickness said: "I had been gradually falling in health for a number of years, and was told by my physicians that I was in the last stages of Bright's disease. I had been under the treatment at various times, of six physicians, two clairvoyants, and a Christian Scientist, but received no benefit from any of them. It seemed to me that every means of ever being cured had been tried except to use Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, which had been recommended. I purchased a bottle, and by the time I had used the second bottle I was greatly improved, and from that on I gained daily, and it was not long before I was doing my regular household work. No tonic can tell how I suffered from the three years before I used Favorite Remedy. My age is 56, and I now weigh thirty-five pounds more than I ever did. Favorite Remedy restored me to health and strength."
 As a prominent physician recently said: "Any one suffering from kidney or urinary troubles, rheumatism or dyspepsia, should use Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy; it will cure them if their disease is within the reach of medicine."

 Big Demonstration.
THE ORGANIZATIONS IN LINE
 All the Divisions of Both Branches of the Order Participated—Over Three Thousand Marchers—Plenty of Decorations and Music.
 Special Correspondence of The Tribune.
 Carbondale, March 18.—A clear sky and crisp, bracing air made the observance of St. Patrick's Day very enjoyable in this city today. The demonstration was under the auspices of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, Board of Erin, of the county, which invited the members of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, Board of America, to join with them in celebrating the anniversary of Ireland's national day.
 The old Pioneer City did its utmost to welcome and entertain the thousands of visitors who spent the day in the city. There was general, if not elaborate, decorations on the buildings along the line of march, but the people of the city did not simply content themselves with bedecking their homes with the Stars and Stripes and beautiful green and gold emblem of Ireland; they took a warm interest in their patriotic visitors and tried to make their visit to the city pleasant and agreeable.
 The visiting organizations began to arrive soon after 9 o'clock. About that hour the regular train consisting of six cars arrived on the Ontario and Western railroad from Scranton, each of which was crowded. Following this at intervals of fifteen minutes two special trains of ten cars each arrived on the same road and deposited hundreds at the station. Superintendent R. H. Williams was at the Scranton end of the line superintending the departure of the trains and Passenger Agent T. Filmore, personally accompanied the excursionists and saw that they were properly taken care of.
 Others came by the D. and H.
 Hundreds also arrived over the Delaware and Hudson railroad, and by 11 o'clock the last of the societies had arrived in the city and Grand Marshal James O'Hara, of Scranton, had organization ready to move a few minutes later.
 The column formed on River street and moved out to Dunlap, counter-marched to Wall, to Main, to Church, to Salem, counter-marched to Church, to Eighth, to Pike, counter-marched to Main, and passed in review at the city hall.
 The paraders presented an imposing and striking picture as they proceeded along Main street with waving plumes and nodding banners of green, contrasting with the Stars and Stripes.
 Grand Marshal O'Hara and his chief of staff, M. H. Griffin, led the column, followed by the aides: Captain J. H.
 Duggan, William McHale, M. Muldoon, Martin Ferguson, Miles McAndrew, T. J.
 Bilbow, M. T. McHale, John Killgallon, John T. Flaherty.
 Then came carriages containing Revs. T. P. Coffey, J. J. Curran, W. A.
 Nealon, J. L. Griffin, T. P. Coffey, Archibald, P. J. McManus, of Green Ridge; John O'Toole, of Providence; Mr. J. H. Devine, president of the Catholic Total Abstinence union; City Treasurer Gramer, City Solicitor Stuart, City Clerk McMillan, Councilmen Spencer, Pennington, McDonough, Kelly, Lofgren, O'Brien and Gannon, Anthony McAndrew, president; William Dawson, vice-president; A. P.
 O'Boyle, recording secretary; Jeremiah O'Sullivan, financial secretary; Patrick Jordan, treasurer of the county board of America, all of Scranton; C. T.
 Boland, county delegate of Scranton; P. J. McDonald, of Scranton, secretary, and P. H. McGrover, of Simpson, treasurer of the county board of Erin; National Treasurer Battie, Owen Haggerty, Thomas Carroll, P. J. Dunleavy, P. J. Lynn, Dennis O'Leahy, P. J.
 O'Boyle, W. J. Foley, P. J. Lynett, P. E.

 Postmaster Nealon, Dr. T. C. Fitzsimmons, Patrick Byrne, T. J. Savage, Hugh Price, M. S. J. Ballagher, Thomas

 bondale.

AT ST. PAUL'S CHURCH HALL.

 Presented Last Night.
 A dramatic entertainment under the auspices of St. Paul's Literary and Dramatic association, of St. Paul's parish, Green Ridge, was held in the Irish comedy entitled "Quiet Family." Benjamin Bible, a cross huswife, were the central characters. The impressed upon the assembly.

 The lodge was organized eight years ago with fourteen members, and has now a membership of 140, and at the death of each a sum of $2,000 will be

POOL ROOM WAS RAIDED Center Street Gamblers Escape with More Speed Than Grace.
FLED WITHOUT COATS OR HATS
 County Detective Leysbon Makes a Great Haul at the Electric News and Money Transfer Company—He Confiscated All the Apparatus.
 Officers of the law yesterday swooped down upon the pool room conducted for the past two years at 207 and 300 Center street under the name of the Electric News and Money Transfer company, and three individuals connected with it were arrested, and all of the blackboards, charts, papers, etc., found in the place were confiscated, and, except the telegraph instrument, are securely locked in the office of District Attorney John R. Jones, in the court house. The ticker was turned over to the manager of the Western Union Telegraph company.
 The raid was made yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock by County Detective Leysbon, accompanied by Detectives before Alderman Wright. He was assisted by State Detectives Anthony Scanlon, Jr., of this city, and Holland, of Beech Haven. Two warrants, a search warrant, and one for running a gambling house, were procured, and Mr.
 Leysbon, accompanied by Detectives Scanlon and Holland, visited the place.
 It was at an hour when the pool room was in full blast, but the gamblers suspected that trouble was in store for them, and it is said that a "spotter" was kept on the lookout. The three officers took different paths so as not to arouse suspicion and they met together at the entrance almost unawares to the denizens inside. But the frequenters just got the right tip in time.
 They Took Leg Bail.
 County Detective Leysbon was the first to enter and the panoramas spread before his gaze were well calculated to make him smile. Every available avenue of escape was a picture frame for a disappearing coat tail. The approach of the officers was the signal for a stampede and before any of the men playing the races could be captured every one of them had hid himself out of sight.
 But the individuals connected with the rooms stood their ground and were taken in tow by the officers. They are Joseph Gleason, of New York, manager; Edward Gleason, his nephew; M. S.
 Jordan and Charles H. Dreher, who presided at the telegraph instrument.
 They were brought before Alderman Wright and they waived a hearing, each furnishing bail in the sum of $500.
 Dr. William Hargerty qualified as their bondsman. Attorneys O'Brien and Kelly were engaged to represent the pool room men, and a legal battle will be fought to determine whether or not this concern can legally carry on business.
 What They Claim.
 They allege that the company is chartered under the laws of the state of New Jersey, and that they are engaged in legitimate business. The headquarters is at room 23, No. 19, Broadway, New York. A. J. McDonough is represented as the president and Joseph J. Gleason, manager. At that place news from racetracks at Alexander, Va., and other points on the southern circuit are received in the winter time; in summer business is done on the northern tracks. Sub-agencies are established at Bridgeport, Conn., and Harrisburg, Allentown, Wilkes-Barre and Scranton, in this state. Dispatches from headquarters are daily received.

CELVED AND SUCKERS MAKE BETS ON THE RACES.
 Notice was given last Thursday that the rooms on Center street would be closed, and therefore the gamblers were on their guard. It is said that the institution did a business amounting to $300,000 during the last two years in this city. On last Saturday the amount banked is reported to have been $1,800.
 The story goes that two brothers of this city have, since this octopus spread its tentacles here, lost $20,000; and that a prominent merchant was forced recently to liquidate a bill of $1,570 his young son contracted by gambling his money. The case will go before this week's grand jury.
