

CONTESTS IN THE LEAGUES

Scranton Lost Saturday and Took the Same Dose Yesterday.

WILKES-BARRE DROPPED ONE

Buffalo Batted Out a Sunday Victory at the Eleventh Hour--Meany Pitched to Death--No Sunday National League Games Scheduled.

No games were played in the National league yesterday and those of Saturday did not materially affect the standing of any of the clubs, although the champion Baltimore in their own city were beaten in a six-inning game by their nearest competitors, the Cleveland.

In the Eastern league the only Sunday games were those of Scranton at Rochester and Wilkes-Barre at Buffalo. Meany was put in to pitch although he was in the box Saturday and it is not surprising that Scranton lost. Wilkes-Barre had the game won from Buffalo in the beginning, but could not stand the pace and suffered defeat.

SAME OLD STORY.

Rochester, N. Y., Sept. 8--Heavy hitting and rapid fielding were the principal features of the Rochester-Scranton game this afternoon. Meany, who is Manager Barrie's only available pitcher, was forced to go into the box again after a hard game on Saturday and consequently the local team batted him all over the lot. Hewitt pitched good ball and had support much better than that received by Meany. Rochester played better ball all the way through.

OUT OF THE FIRE.

Buffalo's Batting Streak in the Eighth Defeated Wilkes-Barre.

Buffalo, N. Y., Sept. 8--Buffalo and Wilkes-Barre played a free hitting and fast fielding game today. In view of the fact that the umpire, Doegher, was released from the league staff last night, Jack Rowe, the famous old-time ball player, was engaged to umpire and gave excellent satisfaction, not a kick on either side being made. In the first two innings Wadsworth was found for nine hits with a total of nineteen bases. He was out in the eighth on a run. Buffalo won in the eighth by heavy hitting by Bottenus, Drauby, Shearon and Wise, two doubles and two homers following in quick succession. Buffalo played an excellent game and Lewee, with his injured hand, put up a fine exhibition at short field. Attendance, 3,000. Score:

SATURDAY'S GAMES.

Scranton Couldn't Hit Hard Enough to Beat Rochester.

Rochester, N. Y., Sept. 7--For five innings Duryea pitched winning ball against Scranton, but in the sixth he became wild, and young Hewitt was substituted. Scranton led by one run until the last inning, when Keenan's triple, with Brookbridge on first and O'Brien's single won the game. Attendance, 400. Score:
