

TEN CENTS

Will Buy at Norton's 24 Sheets Good Note Paper And 24 Envelopes in a Box A Good Paper Cover Book By Standard and Popular Writer, Publisher's Price, 35 Cents, About 200 Titles in Selection, One of the "Little Classics," In Fancy Cloth Covers, Some of the Best Subjects Printed, Publisher's List Price, 35 Cents. A Pocket or Desk Blank Book, With Stiff Pasteboard Covers. A Fine Tablet of Writing Paper, A Good Hard Wood Pencil Box, A Large Pocket Dictionary in Cloth. These Bargains Can Be Seen In Our Large Window For a Few Days' Time.

NORTON'S, 322 Lackawanna Ave.

A Foe to Dyspepsia

GOOD BREAD USE THE Snow White FLOUR And Always Have Good Bread.

MANUFACTURED AND FOR SALE TO THE TRADE BY The Weston Mill Co.

PERSONAL.

J. A. Morris, of Wilkes-Barre, is in the city. H. O. Duerr, of South Bethlehem, is in the city. A. N. Kerr has reached home from New York city. M. R. Lockyer, of Wilkes-Barre, was here yesterday. E. R. Winn, of Montrose, spent yesterday in Scranton. A. P. Carrick, of Wilkes-Barre, was in Scranton yesterday. Attorney James J. O'Neill, of Carbonate, was here yesterday. Mrs. Morgan D. Davies, of McKeesport, is visiting North End relatives yesterday. A. R. Roberts, of Carbonate, was engaged on business here yesterday. Dr. C. R. Parke and J. P. Hoise went to Leesville yesterday to fish for bass. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McGraw, of Carbonate, spent last evening in this city. Mr. Rev. Bishop O'Hara and Rev. J. A. Millan were in Wilkes-Barre yesterday. Captain D. L. Meers, of Wilkes-Barre, called on old friends in this city yesterday. John Gardner, of Gouldsboro, was a caller at the county commissioners' office yesterday. Mrs. William Connell and Mrs. H. M. Edwards visited Mrs. Daniel Edwards, of Kingston, yesterday. The Misses Lulu Hamm, Tillie Amman and Maudie Bower, visited friends in Wilkes-Barre yesterday. Robert Knighton, of the Binghamton edition of the Elmira Budget, was in the city yesterday on business. B. J. Mooney, of Wilkes-Barre, formerly of the Scranton Times, was in the city calling on old friends yesterday. Colonel F. J. Fitzsimmons is ill at his room in the Scranton House, to which he has been removed from the hospital. Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Willetton, of Albany, and Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Hedges, of Englewood, N. J., are at the Wyoming. Miss Hortense Coyne, of Adams avenue, returned to Vinton station yesterday, to complete her musical studies. O. F. Spindler, traveling passenger agent of the Mexican National railway, was in the city yesterday and took a trip to Honesdale over the Gravity road.

SMOKER AT PROVIDENCE.

It Was Tended by Conductor A. S. Rowley to His Friends. Gentlemen friends to the number of forty were entertained at a "smoker" given by A. S. Rowley, conductor on the Providence line of the Traction company at his home on Main avenue and Wood street last evening. Good cigars, cards, music, singing and delicious refreshments served at a proper hour were among the enjoyments of the evening. It was in a manner an Old Fellow's gathering, members being present from all the different lodges in the city. Mr. Rowley, his wife and daughter were unceasing in their endeavors to make it pleasant for the guests. Speeches were made by J. T. Howe, W. Gaylord Thomas and others. Miss Rowley performed on the piano and the Electric City quartette sang. At 1 o'clock the guests departed, wishing Conductor Rowley all the joy possible in the future. The following persons were among those present: W. Gaylord Thomas, John T. Howe, Marshall Preston, Thomas McMillan, Louis Weltzel, Oscar Bedell, J. W. Loftis, P. P. Smith, Charles Van Nort, William Moore, George Parrott, George Millett, J. C. Dean, Elmer Conrad, R. S. Stone, J. U. Hopewell, O. E. Miller, C. G. Rogers, Albert Thomas, W. J. Appleman, G. Myers, Wade M. Finn, Professor J. C. Taylor, W. V. Handrick, W. C. Cowley, William Ward, George E. T. Davis, J. P. Cunningham, Frank Suydam, Ted Jones, Frank Sturdevant, W. G. Tiffany, Henry Brand, Binghamton; George W. Hughes and Louis Rehkap, Carbonate.

MINOOKA.

Mamie Connolly, the 19-year-old daughter of Peter Connolly, of Gilmore avenue, was taken to the Lackawanna hospital yesterday to undergo treatment for heart trouble. John Kirshanski, a Polandor, employed as a doorman at the new No. 1 shaft of the Greenwood Coal company, was slightly injured yesterday afternoon by being caught between two mine cars. The O'Connell council, Young Men's Institute, will meet tonight. It looks as if the South district Democrats are not hankering for a representation at the county convention. Patrick Glennon, of Pittston, circulated among Minooka friends yesterday.

The Darktown Fire brigade met with slight mishap Tuesday evening while turning from the Scranton parade. Their truck collided with a tie post, which demolished it.

The dressmaking parlors of Madame L'Amoureux, 512 Spruce street, are now open. She has just returned from the city, and is prepared to furnish the latest styles. Prices reasonable; satisfaction guaranteed.

WORK OF THE PRESBYTERY

Fitz, the Young Negro Missionary, Receives His Ordination.

WISSWAESSER NOT ADMITTED

Advocates of the Scranton Minister Argued in Vain—Response to the Appeal of Rev. Dr. S. C. Logan—Carbonate Elder is Reprimanded.

The Lackawanna presbytery in session in Montrose has attracted considerable interest from the residents of the mountain borough, as shown in the large attendance at all the meetings. Yesterday morning's session opened with a prayer meeting. There were very earnest invitations and the service included timely remarks by Rev. Dr. C. E. Robinson of this city, and Rev. A. L. Denton, pastor of the Montrose church. Joseph Fitz, the young negro who will be a missionary to the Congo region in Africa, was ordained at 10 o'clock in the right hand of fellowship. It was an impressive scene and concluded with a benediction, the sun bursting upon the meeting and surrounding the young missionary's head as he arose from his knees, thus seeming to give him a benediction by Providence. The ordination prayer was offered by Rev. Dr. S. C. Logan, of Scranton, and the charge was delivered by Dr. Robinson, who has been Fitz's counsellor. The newly-ordained missionary left Montrose yesterday.

Dr. Logan's Appeal.

A paper on the foreign-speaking missionary society was read by Dr. Logan. It included remarks on churches in Tunkhannock, Honesdale, Scranton, Pittston and other places. Dr. Logan made an earnest appeal from other churches in the presbytery to perform the work so well begun, and suggested that from $2 to $10 be appropriated from the collections for domestic missions in the churches of the presbytery. The appeal resulted in an affirmative vote.

The case of Rev. C. L. Wisswaesser.

Of Scranton, who was accused of suddenly leaving his congregation and taking the west, was heard and the decision was against his reinstatement. Arguments pro and con were made in Scranton yesterday. The friends of Wisswaesser's friends maintaining his innocence of wrongdoing and others dissenting from anything approaching his being recognized by the presbytery. J. M. Nichol, a Carbonate elder, was reprimanded for not living a consistent Christian life, in that he had neglected his wife and children and had not lived up to his church vows. Rev. A. R. Roberts and Rev. J. B. Craven were received from the presbyteries of Milwaukie and Philadelphia, respectively. Vernon C. Byers was received as a licentiate from the presbytery of Chicago.

Cleaned as an Evangelist.

J. C. Campbell, a member of Memorial church, introduced by Rev. A. Mills, was examined for licensure as a local evangelist, and was admitted for one year. He will supply the Berea church during his studies with Mr. Mills as sponsor.

Members of the presbytery representation on the general assembly committee.

Members of the presbytery representation on the general assembly committee were appointed as follows: Revs. P. H. Brooks and Dr. F. E. Hodges and Elders Alfred Hand and J. W. Holtenback. Dismissions by request were made as follows: Rev. W. E. Faulkner to the Newton presbytery, and Rev. C. L. Junkin to the presbytery of New York. Rev. A. G. B. Brown, of Pittston, and Rev. C. Sewall were appointed a committee to prepare an obituary on Rev. Jos. Newell. Rev. Dr. Robinson, of Scranton, conducted the evening services. Rev. Dr. McLeod offered prayer and Rev. C. E. Lee, of Carbonate, preached a sermon on "The Kingdom of God is within you." Rev. Dr. McLeod and A. W. Dickson, of Scranton, gave talks upon foreign and domestic missions.

COMING ATTRACTIONS IN CITY THEATERS

"O'Hooligan's Masquerade" a three-act farce-comedy, will give its first production in this city at Davis' theater this afternoon and will continue to the attraction at the house for the remainder of the season. In the company that will produce it here are Gallagher and West, excellent comedians; W. B. Watson, German comedian, and the French character actor, Joseph Dime. The comedy will be interspersed with a brilliant collection of sparkling music, dancing, singing, solos, duets and quartets.

Frank Daniels is not a betting man.

It is to the effect that "The Wizard of the Nile" will have more justice girls engaged in its production than any comic opera that has ever been presented on this side of the Atlantic. Leonard Snider, prima donna of the company, has been selected as one of the pronounced beauties on the American stage. About Miss Louise Boyce it requires no argument to convince one that she is a striking figure. In the boy's costume she will wear in "The Wizard of the Nile." Every one who remembers Miss Boyce in the title role of "Sinbad" has not forgotten her attractive stage presence, and Mary Palmer was "a sign for sore eyes" as the title phrase puts it. The three youngest members of the cast of principal stage presence, and Mary Palmer was "a sign for sore eyes" as the title phrase puts it. The three youngest members of the cast of principal stage presence, and Mary Palmer was "a sign for sore eyes" as the title phrase puts it.

William Barry's Irish character re-creation.

In addition to the re-creation of realism and caricature, like the collaborations of Dickens and Cruikshank, Barry is in turn a naturalist and caricaturist. He looks the part and front of Irish delineators of the character type. His play, "The Rising Generation," will be presented at the Academy on Saturday evening, in a contrast of the social scale in a large city; matinee the folly of rearing children with a taut bridle and silver spoon.

"Sham Rhue" in which Joseph Murphy will open his two-night engagement.

at the Academy on Saturday night, is a somewhat different type of drama from his other great success, "Kerry Gow" but it is not by any means less interesting or less calculated to stir with pathos, cheer with laughter, or thrill with effective situation. In Larry, Mr. Murphy gives further proof of his excellence, both as actor and singer, and being supported by a carefully selected company, none who find amusement in a good Irish play, given at its very best, should miss this opportunity. "Kerry Gow" will be presented Wednesday night.

Miss Ethel Tucker, an actress of marked ability.

and her company of skilled players will hold the stage of the Academy of Music for all next week. In repertoire, Mr. Alfred Ayers, the celebrated oratorioist, says of Miss Tucker, "She is not only a clever actress, but she is also a womanly woman." Miss Tucker for the past few seasons has been starting with great success, in giving the people a good, wholesome entertainment at prices within the reach of all. Mr. Meldon, her present manager, has spared no effort or expense in surrounding her with a good company. Prices, 10, 20, 30 and 50 cents.

THREE MONTHS' SENTENCE.

Imposed on the Man Who Counterfeited a Trade Mark.

The Carter Medicine company has been engaged for the last month in running down a counterfeiter, who has been making and selling a counterfeit of its trademark "Carter's Little Liver Pills." Notices have appeared of these articles which the company has made. For a week past one of these cases has been on trial in the court of special sessions, before Justice Jerome, Jacob and Hayes. The prisoner was Thomas B. Hughes, a druggist at 281 Tenth avenue. On Wednesday the prisoner was found guilty and sentenced to three months in the penitentiary. In delivering the sentence of the court, Presiding Justice Jerome said: "Hughes, the court after a long and careful trial, has come reluctantly to the conclusion that you are a guilty man. The whole value of many of these articles which the company has made, for a week past one of these cases has been on trial in the court of special sessions, before Justice Jerome, Jacob and Hayes. The prisoner was Thomas B. Hughes, a druggist at 281 Tenth avenue. On Wednesday the prisoner was found guilty and sentenced to three months in the penitentiary. In delivering the sentence of the court, Presiding Justice Jerome said: "Hughes, the court after a long and careful trial, has come reluctantly to the conclusion that you are a guilty man. The whole value of many of these articles which the company has made, for a week past one of these cases has been on trial in the court of special sessions, before Justice Jerome, Jacob and Hayes. The prisoner was Thomas B. Hughes, a druggist at 281 Tenth avenue. On Wednesday the prisoner was found guilty and sentenced to three months in the penitentiary. In delivering the sentence of the court, Presiding Justice Jerome said: "Hughes, the court after a long and careful trial, has come reluctantly to the conclusion that you are a guilty man. The whole value of many of these articles which the company has made, for a week past one of these cases has been on trial in the court of special sessions, before Justice Jerome, Jacob and Hayes. The prisoner was Thomas B. Hughes, a druggist at 281 Tenth avenue. On Wednesday the prisoner was found guilty and sentenced to three months in the penitentiary. In delivering the sentence of the court, Presiding Justice Jerome said: "Hughes, the court after a long and careful trial, has come reluctantly to the conclusion that you are a guilty man. The whole value of many of these articles which the company has made, for a week past one of these cases has been on trial in the court of special sessions, before Justice Jerome, Jacob and Hayes. The prisoner was Thomas B. Hughes, a druggist at 281 Tenth avenue. On Wednesday the prisoner was found guilty and sentenced to three months in the penitentiary. In delivering the sentence of the court, Presiding Justice Jerome said: "Hughes, the court after a long and careful trial, has come reluctantly to the conclusion that you are a guilty man. The whole value of many of these articles which the company has made, for a week past one of these cases has been on trial in the court of special sessions, before Justice Jerome, Jacob and Hayes. The prisoner was Thomas B. Hughes, a druggist at 281 Tenth avenue. On Wednesday the prisoner was found guilty and sentenced to three months in the penitentiary. In delivering the sentence of the court, Presiding Justice Jerome said: "Hughes, the court after a long and careful trial, has come reluctantly to the conclusion that you are a guilty man. The whole value of many of these articles which the company has made, for a week past one of these cases has been on trial in the court of special sessions, before Justice Jerome, Jacob and Hayes. The prisoner was Thomas B. Hughes, a druggist at 281 Tenth avenue. On Wednesday the prisoner was found guilty and sentenced to three months in the penitentiary. In delivering the sentence of the court, Presiding Justice Jerome said: "Hughes, the court after a long and careful trial, has come reluctantly to the conclusion that you are a guilty man. The whole value of many of these articles which the company has made, for a week past one of these cases has been on trial in the court of special sessions, before Justice Jerome, Jacob and Hayes. The prisoner was Thomas B. Hughes, a druggist at 281 Tenth avenue. On Wednesday the prisoner was found guilty and sentenced to three months in the penitentiary. In delivering the sentence of the court, Presiding Justice Jerome said: "Hughes, the court after a long and careful trial, has come reluctantly to the conclusion that you are a guilty man. The whole value of many of these articles which the company has made, for a week past one of these cases has been on trial in the court of special sessions, before Justice Jerome, Jacob and Hayes. The prisoner was Thomas B. Hughes, a druggist at 281 Tenth avenue. On Wednesday the prisoner was found guilty and sentenced to three months in the penitentiary. In delivering the sentence of the court, Presiding Justice Jerome said: "Hughes, the court after a long and careful trial, has come reluctantly to the conclusion that you are a guilty man. The whole value of many of these articles which the company has made, for a week past one of these cases has been on trial in the court of special sessions, before Justice Jerome, Jacob and Hayes. The prisoner was Thomas B. Hughes, a druggist at 281 Tenth avenue. On Wednesday the prisoner was found guilty and sentenced to three months in the penitentiary. In delivering the sentence of the court, Presiding Justice Jerome said: "Hughes, the court after a long and careful trial, has come reluctantly to the conclusion that you are a guilty man. The whole value of many of these articles which the company has made, for a week past one of these cases has been on trial in the court of special sessions, before Justice Jerome, Jacob and Hayes. The prisoner was Thomas B. Hughes, a druggist at 281 Tenth avenue. On Wednesday the prisoner was found guilty and sentenced to three months in the penitentiary. In delivering the sentence of the court, Presiding Justice Jerome said: "Hughes, the court after a long and careful trial, has come reluctantly to the conclusion that you are a guilty man. The whole value of many of these articles which the company has made, for a week past one of these cases has been on trial in the court of special sessions, before Justice Jerome, Jacob and Hayes. The prisoner was Thomas B. Hughes, a druggist at 281 Tenth avenue. On Wednesday the prisoner was found guilty and sentenced to three months in the penitentiary. In delivering the sentence of the court, Presiding Justice Jerome said: "Hughes, the court after a long and careful trial, has come reluctantly to the conclusion that you are a guilty man. The whole value of many of these articles which the company has made, for a week past one of these cases has been on trial in the court of special sessions, before Justice Jerome, Jacob and Hayes. The prisoner was Thomas B. Hughes, a druggist at 281 Tenth avenue. On Wednesday the prisoner was found guilty and sentenced to three months in the penitentiary. In delivering the sentence of the court, Presiding Justice Jerome said: "Hughes, the court after a long and careful trial, has come reluctantly to the conclusion that you are a guilty man. The whole value of many of these articles which the company has made, for a week past one of these cases has been on trial in the court of special sessions, before Justice Jerome, Jacob and Hayes. The prisoner was Thomas B. Hughes, a druggist at 281 Tenth avenue. On Wednesday the prisoner was found guilty and sentenced to three months in the penitentiary. In delivering the sentence of the court, Presiding Justice Jerome said: "Hughes, the court after a long and careful trial, has come reluctantly to the conclusion that you are a guilty man. The whole value of many of these articles which the company has made, for a week past one of these cases has been on trial in the court of special sessions, before Justice Jerome, Jacob and Hayes. The prisoner was Thomas B. Hughes, a druggist at 281 Tenth avenue. On Wednesday the prisoner was found guilty and sentenced to three months in the penitentiary. In delivering the sentence of the court, Presiding Justice Jerome said: "Hughes, the court after a long and careful trial, has come reluctantly to the conclusion that you are a guilty man. The whole value of many of these articles which the company has made, for a week past one of these cases has been on trial in the court of special sessions, before Justice Jerome, Jacob and Hayes. The prisoner was Thomas B. Hughes, a druggist at 281 Tenth avenue. On Wednesday the prisoner was found guilty and sentenced to three months in the penitentiary. In delivering the sentence of the court, Presiding Justice Jerome said: "Hughes, the court after a long and careful trial, has come reluctantly to the conclusion that you are a guilty man. The whole value of many of these articles which the company has made, for a week past one of these cases has been on trial in the court of special sessions, before Justice Jerome, Jacob and Hayes. The prisoner was Thomas B. Hughes, a druggist at 281 Tenth avenue. On Wednesday the prisoner was found guilty and sentenced to three months in the penitentiary. In delivering the sentence of the court, Presiding Justice Jerome said: "Hughes, the court after a long and careful trial, has come reluctantly to the conclusion that you are a guilty man. The whole value of many of these articles which the company has made, for a week past one of these cases has been on trial in the court of special sessions, before Justice Jerome, Jacob and Hayes. The prisoner was Thomas B. Hughes, a druggist at 281 Tenth avenue. On Wednesday the prisoner was found guilty and sentenced to three months in the penitentiary. In delivering the sentence of the court, Presiding Justice Jerome said: "Hughes, the court after a long and careful trial, has come reluctantly to the conclusion that you are a guilty man. The whole value of many of these articles which the company has made, for a week past one of these cases has been on trial in the court of special sessions, before Justice Jerome, Jacob and Hayes. The prisoner was Thomas B. Hughes, a druggist at 281 Tenth avenue. On Wednesday the prisoner was found guilty and sentenced to three months in the penitentiary. In delivering the sentence of the court, Presiding Justice Jerome said: "Hughes, the court after a long and careful trial, has come reluctantly to the conclusion that you are a guilty man. The whole value of many of these articles which the company has made, for a week past one of these cases has been on trial in the court of special sessions, before Justice Jerome, Jacob and Hayes. The prisoner was Thomas B. Hughes, a druggist at 281 Tenth avenue. On Wednesday the prisoner was found guilty and sentenced to three months in the penitentiary. In delivering the sentence of the court, Presiding Justice Jerome said: "Hughes, the court after a long and careful trial, has come reluctantly to the conclusion that you are a guilty man. The whole value of many of these articles which the company has made, for a week past one of these cases has been on trial in the court of special sessions, before Justice Jerome, Jacob and Hayes. The prisoner was Thomas B. Hughes, a druggist at 281 Tenth avenue. On Wednesday the prisoner was found guilty and sentenced to three months in the penitentiary. In delivering the sentence of the court, Presiding Justice Jerome said: "Hughes, the court after a long and careful trial, has come reluctantly to the conclusion that you are a guilty man. The whole value of many of these articles which the company has made, for a week past one of these cases has been on trial in the court of special sessions, before Justice Jerome, Jacob and Hayes. The prisoner was Thomas B. Hughes, a druggist at 281 Tenth avenue. On Wednesday the prisoner was found guilty and sentenced to three months in the penitentiary. In delivering the sentence of the court, Presiding Justice Jerome said: "Hughes, the court after a long and careful trial, has come reluctantly to the conclusion that you are a guilty man. The whole value of many of these articles which the company has made, for a week past one of these cases has been on trial in the court of special sessions, before Justice Jerome, Jacob and Hayes. The prisoner was Thomas B. Hughes, a druggist at 281 Tenth avenue. On Wednesday the prisoner was found guilty and sentenced to three months in the penitentiary. In delivering the sentence of the court, Presiding Justice Jerome said: "Hughes, the court after a long and careful trial, has come reluctantly to the conclusion that you are a guilty man. The whole value of many of these articles which the company has made, for a week past one of these cases has been on trial in the court of special sessions, before Justice Jerome, Jacob and Hayes. The prisoner was Thomas B. Hughes, a druggist at 281 Tenth avenue. On Wednesday the prisoner was found guilty and sentenced to three months in the penitentiary. In delivering the sentence of the court, Presiding Justice Jerome said: "Hughes, the court after a long and careful trial, has come reluctantly to the conclusion that you are a guilty man. The whole value of many of these articles which the company has made, for a week past one of these cases has been on trial in the court of special sessions, before Justice Jerome, Jacob and Hayes. The prisoner was Thomas B. Hughes, a druggist at 281 Tenth avenue. On Wednesday the prisoner was found guilty and sentenced to three months in the penitentiary. In delivering the sentence of the court, Presiding Justice Jerome said: "Hughes, the court after a long and careful trial, has come reluctantly to the conclusion that you are a guilty man. The whole value of many of these articles which the company has made, for a week past one of these cases has been on trial in the court of special sessions, before Justice Jerome, Jacob and Hayes. The prisoner was Thomas B. Hughes, a druggist at 281 Tenth avenue. On Wednesday the prisoner was found guilty and sentenced to three months in the penitentiary. In delivering the sentence of the court, Presiding Justice Jerome said: "Hughes, the court after a long and careful trial, has come reluctantly to the conclusion that you are a guilty man. The whole value of many of these articles which the company has made, for a week past one of these cases has been on trial in the court of special sessions, before Justice Jerome, Jacob and Hayes. The prisoner was Thomas B. Hughes, a druggist at 281 Tenth avenue. On Wednesday the prisoner was found guilty and sentenced to three months in the penitentiary. In delivering the sentence of the court, Presiding Justice Jerome said: "Hughes, the court after a long and careful trial, has come reluctantly to the conclusion that you are a guilty man. The whole value of many of these articles which the company has made, for a week past one of these cases has been on trial in the court of special sessions, before Justice Jerome, Jacob and Hayes. The prisoner was Thomas B. Hughes, a druggist at 281 Tenth avenue. On Wednesday the prisoner was found guilty and sentenced to three months in the penitentiary. In delivering the sentence of the court, Presiding Justice Jerome said: "Hughes, the court after a long and careful trial, has come reluctantly to the conclusion that you are a guilty man. The whole value of many of these articles which the company has made, for a week past one of these cases has been on trial in the court of special sessions, before Justice Jerome, Jacob and Hayes. The prisoner was Thomas B. Hughes, a druggist at 281 Tenth avenue. On Wednesday the prisoner was found guilty and sentenced to three months in the penitentiary. In delivering the sentence of the court, Presiding Justice Jerome said: "Hughes, the court after a long and careful trial, has come reluctantly to the conclusion that you are a guilty man. The whole value of many of these articles which the company has made, for a week past one of these cases has been on trial in the court of special sessions, before Justice Jerome, Jacob and Hayes. The prisoner was Thomas B. Hughes, a druggist at 281 Tenth avenue. On Wednesday the prisoner was found guilty and sentenced to three months in the penitentiary. In delivering the sentence of the court, Presiding Justice Jerome said: "Hughes, the court after a long and careful trial, has come reluctantly to the conclusion that you are a guilty man. The whole value of many of these articles which the company has made, for a week past one of these cases has been on trial in the court of special sessions, before Justice Jerome, Jacob and Hayes. The prisoner was Thomas B. Hughes, a druggist at 281 Tenth avenue. On Wednesday the prisoner was found guilty and sentenced to three months in the penitentiary. In delivering the sentence of the court, Presiding Justice Jerome said: "Hughes, the court after a long and careful trial, has come reluctantly to the conclusion that you are a guilty man. The whole value of many of these articles which the company has made, for a week past one of these cases has been on trial in the court of special sessions, before Justice Jerome, Jacob and Hayes. The prisoner was Thomas B. Hughes, a druggist at 281 Tenth avenue. On Wednesday the prisoner was found guilty and sentenced to three months in the penitentiary. In delivering the sentence of the court, Presiding Justice Jerome said: "Hughes, the court after a long and careful trial, has come reluctantly to the conclusion that you are a guilty man. The whole value of many of these articles which the company has made, for a week past one of these cases has been on trial in the court of special sessions, before Justice Jerome, Jacob and Hayes. The prisoner was Thomas B. Hughes, a druggist at 281 Tenth avenue. On Wednesday the prisoner was found guilty and sentenced to three months in the penitentiary. In delivering the sentence of the court, Presiding Justice Jerome said: "Hughes, the court after a long and careful trial, has come reluctantly to the conclusion that you are a guilty man. The whole value of many of these articles which the company has made, for a week past one of these cases has been on trial in the court of special sessions, before Justice Jerome, Jacob and Hayes. The prisoner was Thomas B. Hughes, a druggist at 281 Tenth avenue. On Wednesday the prisoner was found guilty and sentenced to three months in the penitentiary. In delivering the sentence of the court, Presiding Justice Jerome said: "Hughes, the court after a long and careful trial, has come reluctantly to the conclusion that you are a guilty man. The whole value of many of these articles which the company has made, for a week past one of these cases has been on trial in the court of special sessions, before Justice Jerome, Jacob and Hayes. The prisoner was Thomas B. Hughes, a druggist at 281 Tenth avenue. On Wednesday the prisoner was found guilty and sentenced to three months in the penitentiary. In delivering the sentence of the court, Presiding Justice Jerome said: "Hughes, the court after a long and careful trial, has come reluctantly to the conclusion that you are a guilty man. The whole value of many of these articles which the company has made, for a week past one of these cases has been on trial in the court of special sessions, before Justice Jerome, Jacob and Hayes. The prisoner was Thomas B. Hughes, a druggist at 281 Tenth avenue. On Wednesday the prisoner was found guilty and sentenced to three months in the penitentiary. In delivering the sentence of the court, Presiding Justice Jerome said: "Hughes, the court after a long and careful trial, has come reluctantly to the conclusion that you are a guilty man. The whole value of many of these articles which the company has made, for a week past one of these cases has been on trial in the court of special sessions, before Justice Jerome, Jacob and Hayes. The prisoner was Thomas B. Hughes, a druggist at 281 Tenth avenue. On Wednesday the prisoner was found guilty and sentenced to three months in the penitentiary. In delivering the sentence of the court, Presiding Justice Jerome said: "Hughes, the court after a long and careful trial, has come reluctantly to the conclusion that you are a guilty man. The whole value of many of these articles which the company has made, for a week past one of these cases has been on trial in the court of special sessions, before Justice Jerome, Jacob and Hayes. The prisoner was Thomas B. Hughes, a druggist at 281 Tenth avenue. On Wednesday the prisoner was found guilty and sentenced to three months in the penitentiary. In delivering the sentence of the court, Presiding Justice Jerome said: "Hughes, the court after a long and careful trial, has come reluctantly to the conclusion that you are a guilty man. The whole value of many of these articles which the company has made, for a week past one of these cases has been on trial in the court of special sessions, before Justice Jerome, Jacob and Hayes. The prisoner was Thomas B. Hughes, a druggist at 281 Tenth avenue. On Wednesday the prisoner was found guilty and sentenced to three months in the penitentiary. In delivering the sentence of the court, Presiding Justice Jerome said: "Hughes, the court after a long and careful trial, has come reluctantly to the conclusion that you are a guilty man. The whole value of many of these articles which the company has made, for a week past one of these cases has been on trial in the court of special sessions, before Justice Jerome, Jacob and Hayes. The prisoner was Thomas B. Hughes, a druggist at 281 Tenth avenue. On Wednesday the prisoner was found guilty and sentenced to three months in the penitentiary. In delivering the sentence of the court, Presiding Justice Jerome said: "Hughes, the court after a long and careful trial, has come reluctantly to the conclusion that you are a guilty man. The whole value of many of these articles which the company has made, for a week past one of these cases has been on trial in the court of special sessions, before Justice Jerome, Jacob and Hayes. The prisoner was Thomas B. Hughes, a druggist at 281 Tenth avenue. On Wednesday the prisoner was found guilty and sentenced to three months in the penitentiary. In delivering the sentence of the court, Presiding Justice Jerome said: "Hughes, the court after a long and careful trial, has come reluctantly to the conclusion that you are a guilty man. The whole value of many of these articles which the company has made, for a week past one of these cases has been on trial in the court of special sessions, before Justice Jerome, Jacob and Hayes. The prisoner was Thomas B. Hughes, a druggist at 281 Tenth avenue. On Wednesday the prisoner was found guilty and sentenced to three months in the penitentiary. In delivering the sentence of the court, Presiding Justice Jerome said: "Hughes, the court after a long and careful trial, has come reluctantly to the conclusion that you are a guilty man. The whole value of many of these articles which the company has made, for a week past one of these cases has been on trial in the court of special sessions, before Justice Jerome, Jacob and Hayes. The prisoner was Thomas B. Hughes, a druggist at 281 Tenth avenue. On Wednesday the prisoner was found guilty and sentenced to three months in the penitentiary. In delivering the sentence of the court, Presiding Justice Jerome said: "Hughes, the court after a long and careful trial, has come reluctantly to the conclusion that you are a guilty man. The whole value of many of these articles which the company has made, for a week past one of these cases has been on trial in the court of special sessions, before Justice Jerome, Jacob and Hayes. The prisoner was Thomas B. Hughes, a druggist at 281 Tenth avenue. On Wednesday the prisoner was found guilty and sentenced to three months in the penitentiary. In delivering the sentence of the court, Presiding Justice Jerome said: "Hughes, the court after a long and careful trial, has come reluctantly to the conclusion that you are a guilty man. The whole value of many of these articles which the company has made, for a week past one of these cases has been on trial in the court of special sessions, before Justice Jerome, Jacob and Hayes. The prisoner was Thomas B. Hughes, a druggist at 281 Tenth avenue. On Wednesday the prisoner was found guilty and sentenced to three months in the penitentiary. In delivering the sentence of the court, Presiding Justice Jerome said: "Hughes, the court after a long and careful trial, has come reluctantly to the conclusion that you are a guilty man. The whole value of many of these articles which the company has made, for a week past one of these cases has been on trial in the court of special sessions, before Justice Jerome, Jacob and Hayes. The prisoner was Thomas B. Hughes, a druggist at 281 Tenth avenue. On Wednesday the prisoner was found guilty and sentenced to three months in the penitentiary. In delivering the sentence of the court, Presiding Justice Jerome said: "Hughes, the court after a long and careful trial, has come reluctantly to the conclusion that you are a guilty man. The whole value of many of these articles which the company has made, for a week past one of these cases has been on trial in the court of special sessions, before Justice Jerome, Jacob and Hayes. The prisoner was Thomas B. Hughes, a druggist at 281 Tenth avenue. On Wednesday the prisoner was found guilty and sentenced to three months in the penitentiary. In delivering the sentence of the court, Presiding Justice Jerome said: "Hughes, the court after a long and careful trial, has come reluctantly to the conclusion that you are a guilty man. The whole value of many of these articles which the company has made, for a week past one of these cases has been on trial in the court of special sessions, before Justice Jerome, Jacob and Hayes. The prisoner was Thomas B. Hughes, a druggist at 281 Tenth avenue. On Wednesday the prisoner was found guilty and sentenced to three months in the penitentiary. In delivering the sentence of the court, Presiding Justice Jerome said: "Hughes, the court after a long and careful trial, has come reluctantly to the conclusion that you are a guilty man. The whole value of many of these articles which the company has made, for a week past one of these cases has been on trial in the court of special sessions, before Justice Jerome, Jacob and Hayes. The prisoner was Thomas B. Hughes, a druggist at 281 Tenth avenue. On Wednesday the prisoner was found guilty and sentenced to three months in the penitentiary. In delivering the sentence of the court, Presiding Justice Jerome said: "Hughes, the court after a long and careful trial, has come reluctantly to the conclusion that you are a guilty man. The whole value of many of these articles which the company has made, for a week past one of these cases has been on trial in the court of special sessions, before Justice Jerome, Jacob and Hayes. The prisoner was Thomas B. Hughes, a druggist at 281 Tenth avenue. On Wednesday the prisoner was found guilty and sentenced to three months in the penitentiary. In delivering the sentence of the court, Presiding Justice Jerome said: "Hughes, the court after a long and careful trial, has come reluctantly to the conclusion that you are a guilty man. The whole value of many of these articles which the company has made, for a week past one of these cases has been on trial in the court of special sessions, before Justice Jerome, Jacob and Hayes. The prisoner was Thomas B. Hughes, a druggist at 281 Tenth avenue. On Wednesday the prisoner was found guilty and sentenced to three months in the penitentiary. In delivering the sentence of the court, Presiding Justice Jerome said: "Hughes, the court after a long and careful trial, has come reluctantly to the conclusion that you are a guilty man. The whole value of many of these articles which the company has made, for a week past one of these cases has been on trial in the court of special sessions, before Justice Jerome, Jacob and Hayes. The prisoner was Thomas B. Hughes, a druggist at 281 Tenth avenue. On Wednesday the prisoner was found guilty and sentenced to three months in the penitentiary. In delivering the sentence of the court, Presiding Justice Jerome said: "Hughes, the court after a long and careful trial, has come reluctantly to the conclusion that you are a guilty man. The whole value of many of these articles which the company has made, for a week past one of these cases has been on trial in the court of special sessions, before Justice Jerome, Jacob and Hayes. The prisoner was Thomas B. Hughes, a druggist at 281 Tenth avenue. On Wednesday the prisoner was found guilty and sentenced to three months in the penitentiary. In delivering the sentence of the court, Presiding Justice Jerome said: "Hughes, the court after a long and careful trial, has come reluctantly to the conclusion that you are a guilty man. The whole value of many of these articles which the company has made, for a week past one of these cases has been on trial in the court of special sessions, before Justice Jerome, Jacob and Hayes. The prisoner was Thomas B. Hughes, a druggist at 281 Tenth avenue. On Wednesday the prisoner was found guilty and sentenced to three months in the penitentiary. In delivering the sentence of the court, Presiding Justice Jerome said: "Hughes, the court after a long and careful trial, has come reluctantly to the conclusion that you are a guilty man. The whole value of many of these articles which the company has made, for a week past one of these cases has been on trial in the court of special sessions, before Justice Jerome, Jacob and Hayes. The prisoner was Thomas B. Hughes, a druggist at 281 Tenth avenue. On Wednesday the prisoner was found guilty and sentenced to three months in the penitentiary. In delivering the sentence of the court, Presiding Justice Jerome said: "Hughes, the court after a long and careful trial, has come reluctantly to the conclusion that you are a guilty man. The whole value of many of these articles which the company has made, for a week past one of these cases has been on trial in the court of special sessions, before Justice Jerome, Jacob and Hayes. The prisoner was Thomas B. Hughes, a druggist at 281 Tenth avenue. On Wednesday the prisoner was found guilty and sentenced to three months in the penitentiary. In delivering the sentence of the court, Presiding Justice Jerome said: "Hughes, the court after a long and careful trial, has come reluctantly to the conclusion that you are a guilty man. The whole value of many of these articles which the company has made, for a week past one of these cases has been on trial in the court of special sessions, before Justice Jerome, Jacob and Hayes. The prisoner was Thomas B. Hughes, a druggist at 281 Tenth avenue. On Wednesday the prisoner was found guilty and sentenced to three months in the penitentiary. In delivering the sentence of the court, Presiding Justice Jerome said: "Hughes, the court after a long and careful trial, has come reluctantly to the conclusion that you are a guilty man. The whole value of many of these articles which the company has made, for a week past one of these cases has been on trial in the court of special sessions, before Justice Jerome, Jacob and Hayes. The prisoner was Thomas B. Hughes, a druggist at 281 Tenth avenue. On Wednesday the prisoner was found guilty and sentenced to three months in the penitentiary. In delivering the sentence of the court, Presiding Justice Jerome said: "Hughes, the court after a long and careful trial, has come reluctantly to the conclusion that you are a guilty man. The whole value of many of these articles which the company has made, for a week past one of these cases has been on trial in the court of special sessions, before Justice Jerome, Jacob and Hayes. The prisoner was Thomas B. Hughes, a druggist at 281 Tenth avenue. On Wednesday the prisoner was found guilty and sentenced to three months in the penitentiary. In delivering the sentence of the court, Presiding Justice Jerome said: "Hughes, the court after a long and careful trial, has come reluctantly to the conclusion that you are a guilty man. The whole value of many of these articles which the company has made, for a week past one of these cases has been on trial in the court of special sessions, before Justice Jerome, Jacob and Hayes. The prisoner was Thomas B. Hughes, a druggist at 281 Tenth avenue. On Wednesday the prisoner was found guilty and sentenced to three months in the penitentiary. In delivering the sentence of the court, Presiding Justice Jerome said: "Hughes, the court after a long and careful trial, has come reluctantly to the conclusion that you are a guilty man. The whole value of many of these articles which the company has made, for a week past one of these cases has been on trial in the court of special sessions, before Justice Jerome, Jacob and Hayes. The prisoner was Thomas B. Hughes, a druggist at 281 Tenth avenue. On Wednesday the prisoner was found guilty and sentenced to three months in the penitentiary. In delivering the sentence of the court, Presiding Justice Jerome said: "Hughes, the court after a long and careful trial, has come reluctantly to the conclusion that you are a guilty man. The whole value of many of these articles which the company has made, for a week past one of these cases has been on trial in the court of special sessions, before Justice Jerome, Jacob and Hayes. The prisoner was Thomas B. Hughes, a druggist at 281 Tenth avenue. On Wednesday the prisoner was found guilty and sentenced to three months in the penitentiary. In delivering the sentence of the court, Presiding Justice Jerome said: "Hughes, the court after a long and careful trial, has come reluctantly to the conclusion that you are a guilty man. The whole value of many of these articles which the company has made, for a week past one of these cases has been on trial in the court of special sessions, before Justice Jerome, Jacob and Hayes. The prisoner was Thomas B. Hughes, a druggist at 281 Tenth avenue. On Wednesday the prisoner was found guilty and sentenced to three months in the penitentiary. In delivering the sentence of the court, Presiding Justice Jerome said: "Hughes, the court after a long and careful trial, has come reluctantly to the conclusion that you are a guilty man. The whole value of many of these articles which the company has made, for a week past one of these cases has been on trial in the court of special sessions, before Justice Jerome, Jacob and Hayes. The prisoner was Thomas B. Hughes, a druggist at 281 Tenth avenue. On Wednesday the prisoner was found guilty and sentenced to three months in the penitentiary. In delivering the sentence of the court, Presiding Justice Jerome said: "Hughes, the court after a long and careful trial, has come reluctantly to the conclusion that you are a guilty man. The whole value of many of these articles which the company has made, for a week past one of these cases has been on trial in the court of special sessions, before Justice Jerome, Jacob and Hayes. The prisoner was Thomas B. Hughes, a druggist at 281 Tenth avenue. On Wednesday the prisoner was found guilty and sentenced to three months in the penitentiary. In delivering the sentence of the court, Presiding Justice Jerome said: "Hughes, the court after a long and careful trial, has come reluctantly to the conclusion that you are a guilty man. The whole value of many of these articles which the company has made, for a week past one of these cases has been on trial in the court of special sessions, before Justice Jerome, Jacob and Hayes. The prisoner was Thomas B. Hughes, a druggist at 281 Tenth avenue. On Wednesday the prisoner was found guilty and sentenced to three months in the penitentiary. In delivering the sentence of the court, Presiding Justice Jerome said: "Hughes, the court after a long and careful trial, has come reluctantly to the conclusion that you are a guilty man. The whole value of many of these articles which the company has made, for a week past one of these cases has been on trial in the court of special sessions, before Justice Jerome, Jacob