SWINDLER AT WORK.

Succeeded in Getting $65 from Cleland. A clever swindler which was worked quite successfully in this city some years ago, was again perpetrated yesterday on Cleland, Simpson & Taylor, when the Globe warehouse.
A man without hat or coat came into the Globe store office before banking hours with $65 check drawn by the Scranton Supply and Hardware company, which he requested them to cash, saying that the Supply company had immediate need of the money. The check was cashed and no suspicions were aroused until the supposed supply company clerk was seen emerging with coat and hat from an adjoining hallway and hurrying up the street. Inquiry was quickly made at the Supply company's store, which was only two doors away, and no suspicion was aroused until the supposed supply company clerk was seen emerging with coat and hat from an adjoining hallway and hurrying up the street. ## WANTS A TALK METER.

Gabble of People Who Use Telephones Should Be Measured. "A crying need in the telephone business," said J. R. Malloy, of the Central Pennsylvania Telephone company, after an examination of the Washington telephone exchange, "is a talk-meter—that is, some sort of an automatic apparatus which will measure the length of time a call is made, and the number of calls or connections, each five minutes' conversation or fraction thereof being counted by a call. This gives subscribers rates in proportion to the use of their instruments. The city service recently introduced there is very much upon the principle of the long-distance service between cities."
"Do you consider this an advantage over the old system?"
"It is a regular 'talk' meter, with a stop clock for profanity, old jokes, and endearing names for the telephone girls. I think an arrangement of this sort would be more valuable than an automatic device for making the connections. Many a worthy talk would be cut short, many a detour but unprofitable confab nipped in the bud. If it is at one end of the line knew that she was keeping the tantalizing secret from the other end, at a rate of 10 cents for every five minutes she would disclose it more quickly and give the woman who wants to telephone to the doctor what has been up the baby's nose a chance at the line. The new young man who thinks the telephone girl's heart is filled with wild emotions when he says, 'My dear, you're looking well,' would proceed to business more quickly if he understood his 'slush' was being measured off by the yard. Some of the girls would be adopted to stop the effusive language over the wires. Seven hundred and fifty million telephone messages were sent over the wires last year, averaging about ten messages to every man, woman and child in the United States. Telegrams never exceeded one per head per year, but the telephone system may eventually entirely supersede the telegraph. In 1885 there was only one long distance line, extending between Philadelphia and New York. Today the system has 255,000 miles of wire and $77,500,000 is the estimated investment in telephone property. A comfortable home would go to the man who would invent a talk-meter."

AN OPINION OF WOOLEY.

Who Will Lecture at the Academy of Music Feb. 28. Of John G. Woolley, who lectures at the Academy of Music on February 28, Dr. Washford, president of Wesleyan university, says:
"He combines many of the best elements of Wendell Phillips and John B. Gough. His simplicity of style and his admirable command of English reminds me of those days when his speech at Philadelphia, in connection with the anti-slavery cause, was the wit or glow with the pathos of Gough, at the same time Woolley's speeches are marked by a breadth of statesmanship and an intellect of Christian philosophy which neither of those great orators equalled."

THEY LOVED WINE.

And They Stole a Quantity for Which They Are Now in Jail. Leon Pinkus and Charles Kishkunas, two Dickson Cluytites, were received at the county jail last night on the charge of larceny to await trial in court by reason of their failure to give bail for their appearance.
John Kishkunas is a wine fancier and he had in his cellar a fine assortment. They made their way to where it was and availed themselves of several bottles of wine. The articles which are missing before Justice of the Peace James J. Logan with the result as aforesaid.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

[Under this heading short letters of interest will be published when accompanied, for publication, by the writer's name. The Tribune will not be held responsible for opinions here expressed.]
EXPLANATION FROM W. S. MILLAR. Editor of the Tribune:
"Sir:—In justice to the voters of the First district of the Eighth ward I desire to correct or rather modify a statement which appeared in one of the columns of your staunch Republican paper this morning. My friend, Dr. O'Malley, and myself, 'the true, had some hot words at the polls as we always do, he being an enthusiastic Democrat and I an enthusiastic Republican, but to the credit of the voters of the First district, never have the police been required to be called to settle the little or big disputes that occur at election, nor was yesterday an exception to the rule."
Mr. A. Raub, the undertaker, did telephone to police headquarters for an officer without the knowledge or consent of the election board. The officer, who took it in good faith, entered the same for the purpose of voting instead of entering the rear room where the election was held from the alley entrance. There was no riot in the First district yesterday, nor was there a call for police protection by any member of the board or any one identified with the voters of the district. W. S. Millar, Scranton, Pa., Feb. 19, 1896.

HIS CONDITION SERIOUS.

Kaffer May Die from the Wounds Inflicted by Sam Toni. THE LATTER AGAIN IN JAIL.

Taken Into Custody at Old Forge by the County Detective—Dr. Stegner Having Certified that the Injured Man Was in a Critical Condition.

County Detective Thomas Leshon and Constable Timothy Jones went to Old Forge last night and arrested Sam Toni, the Italian who shot John Kaffer, about three months ago. Toni was out on bail furnished in the sum of $300 by Joseph Turresco to answer the charge of felonious wounding; but Kaffer is in a very dangerous condition in danger of death, so that the Italian may have to stand trial for murder.
Dr. Adam Stegner, of Randolph, has certified that Toni is in a very dangerous condition. He was shot twice in the hip, and at first the wounds were not considered serious. They closed up and at large amount of suppuration formed internally. At a late hour last night Kaffer was quite low at his parents' home on Wyoming avenue, Green Ridge.

GUNNING FOR HIS WIFE.

Colored Man from Pittston After His Recenter Home. Last Saturday night on returning from town Sherman Reed, a colored man, living in Pittston, discovered that his wife had decamped taking with her all the money in the house. He did not intend to return in a hurry. Reed started out immediately to look for her, first providing himself with a 38-caliber revolver. He was out for a week when he discovered her in the house of a friend, Richard Gregory, of Dix court, and according to Mrs. Reed's story he pulled the revolver on her and threatened to shoot her.
She ran to the police station which is only a few yards away and sought the protection of the police. Reed and Dyer, who after hearing her story, went back with her and arrested her violent spouse. He was locked up pending a hearing before Justice of the Peace James J. Logan, who merely asked his wife what she was doing there and when she disclaimed a reply she went into an adjoining room and sat down.

RECOUNT WILL BE ASKED.

Election in Lackawanna Township Disappoints Some Democrats. There will be an investigation into the manner in which the vote was counted in the Northeast district of Lackawanna township. The recount has sprung from the large vote polled by William H. Fern, one of the candidates for supervisor.
The returns show that James Ward and Fern are elected supervisors, the former's total vote being 493, and the latter's 390. Patrick Coyne received 284 votes in the office of assessor, and Adam Fasshold received 353 votes. The two highest candidates are the victors on this. The court will be petitioned.
John McCrindle, Patrick Foley and Dennis O'Leahen are elected school directors, and Patrick Fitzhery treasurer.

THIEVES' BIG HAUL.

Hundreds of Dollars Worth of Optical Goods Stolen from Shimbros Bros. Shimbros Bros' optical goods store at 405 Spruce street, was robbed of $400 or $500 worth of goods during Tuesday night. Entrance was gained by way of the cellar which was reached through the trap door on the sidewalk which was left unbolts. By standing on a box the thieves were enabled to break through the flooring under the show window. They made a hole about eighteen inches square through which they were able to force their way into the store. Simpson thinks that it was the work of boys.
Dr. Shimbros can only estimate his loss at $400. The articles which are missing are gold spectacle rims, field and opera glasses and telescopes. They left no clue behind.

O. AND W. AGAIN SUFFER.

Robbers Loot Their Priceburg Depot This Time. Thieves broke into the Ontario and Western depot at Priceburg some time during the early hours of yesterday morning and made away with a large quantity of plunder, including several thousand dollars worth of goods of various values with their contents. Entrance was gained by forcing a window in the office.
Agent Melhouse reported the matter to the company's detectives and the work of tracing the thieves was begun without delay. This company has suffered extensively from these depredations and will not spare trouble or expense in running down the thieves.

This is the gist of a circular received by Chief of Police Simpson from a Cincinnati

STAGE VERSION OF TRILBY.

Given Last Night at Academy by One of Brady's Company.

Changes Enhance the Dramatic Interest of the Drama—Edwin Brandt in the Role of Svergelg—Marion Grey is Trilby.

IT DIFFERS FROM THE STORY.

Paul Potter's dramatization of the much talked of story, "Trilby," was seen at the Academy of Music last evening. The drama depicts somewhat from the lines of Ed Maurier's story of the pet of the Latin quarter of Paris, but by doing so better dramatic effects are secured. From the sketches of Ed Maurier, Mr. Potter has evolved a play full of interest and action; one that by its own right would have commanded a place on the stage even if Trilby's story fame had never been heard of.
The company that presented the drama last night is under the management of W. A. Brady, and it gave a very creditable production of Mr. Potter's stage story. Edwin Brandt, a young actor who has many warm admirers in this city, was seen in the role of Svergelg. It is a most difficult one for any actor to essay, but Mr. Brandt succeeded so well in reproducing the appearance, manner and movement of the strange, weird musician that he was rewarded with the enthusiastic applause of the audience. His work was particularly reserved for the evening, devoid of the ranting with which a less discriminating actor would have sullied the creation.
Marion Grey is not an ideal Trilby in appearance, though in figure she closely resembles Virginia Harned, who created the role. Miss Grey is a very clever young actress and made a most favorable impression by her work last night. In the scenes where she was supposed to be under the mesmeric influence of Svergelg, she was particularly good. Harrison Armstrong as Tully, and George D. MacIntyre as the Laird, looked and acted the characters they assumed, and Edwin Brandt made a very acceptable Little Billee. Other members of the company whose work contributed to the success of the performance were Douglas Lloyd, Jay Wilson, Eric B. Collins, C. B. Ford and Elizabeth Brainerd.

COMING ATTRACTIONS.

Cosgrove and Grant's comedians will make merry in their Jolly farce comedy, "The Dazzler," at the Academy Saturday night. During the past summer the piece has been re-written, new music and specialties introduced, and the piece brought strictly up to date. Comedians who are comic, girls who are pretty and singers who can sing, and dancers who can dance abound in this season's "The Dazzler." The realism of song and opera have been invaded by the managers, and their prizes shone forth like a new and added lustre as part of the merit of the farce. The piece is no stranger to our theatre-goers, but many surprises await them in this season's production of "The Dazzler." Will West, the popular vocalist of Tommie Atkins fame; George Leslie, Ida Marie Rodgers and a dozen other clever people.
On Saturday evening we will have with us the unquestioned leader of American comedians at the Academy of clean and wholesome comedy, Ed Smith Russell. Mr. Russell will appear as Hob Acres in R. Brinsley Sheridan's family comedy, "The Rivals." The critics without exception speak handsomely of Ed Russell's production of "The Rivals." It is a singular unanimity of opinion in this instance among these analytical gentlemen that only one of the comedians with evident cordiality. It is said that as Hob Acres Mr. Russell does make a most promising success. Looking over the list of comedians now on the American stage, but few names are worth lingering over. It is true that there are many who are loud in the public voice, but few whose work entitles them to a permanent place in the annals of the American stage. Of the few Mr. Russell occupies the foremost position.

Will Not Go as a Delegate-at-Large to the National Convention.

Indianapolis, Feb. 19.—The effort of Republican politicians to induce Mr. Harrison to go as a delegate-at-large to the national convention has been met by a very decided refusal of the ex-president.

The friends of Senator Allison want him on the floor of the convention to second the nomination of the Iowa man, whom he is understood to favor, but it is estimated that his refusal to serve as a delegate is based chiefly on the fear that his action might be construed into soliciting votes for himself rather than for Senator Allison.
