

NORTON'S BULLETIN.

Paine's Whist Boards, latest and best. We have all sizes and styles. Also Whist Cards; in large variety, by the pack or by the dozen. Games of amusements, all sorts, for old and young people.

Blank Account Books, all sorts and all sizes, from the vest pocket mem. to the largest Ledger, for all sorts business Stationery, everything desirable for the office, desk or counter, all the standard sorts and novelties, Choice Stationery for ladies' use. Engraving and Printing to order of Calling Cards and Invitations on short notice and right prices. See our Specimens and get prices. Fancy Goods at greatly reduced prices. Bargains in several lines to reduce stock.

M. NORTON, 322 Lackawanna Ave.

BUCKWHEAT FLOUR

The Finest BUCKWHEAT FLOUR We Ever Had in the Mill.

We Wholesale It.

The Weston Mill Co ABSOLUTELY WITHOUT PAIN

EXTRACTION OF TEETH WITH "ANAESTHETIC" FINEST DENTAL WORK IN THE CITY.

DRS. HENWOOD & WARDELL 36 LACKAWANNA AVE.

PERSONAL.

Miss Frances Kessler, of Brandt, is the guest of her brother, Alfred Kessler, on Madison avenue. Charles P. Krier, of Brown & Morris, architects, is in Pottsville on business. He will be absent several days. Misses Annie Donat and May Edwards, of South Rebecca avenue, have returned from a week's stay at Pottsville. A dinner was given Saturday night by Judge and Mrs. R. W. Archibald in honor of Mr. and Mrs. William Post. Harry Van Horn and Ben Keller, of the Green Ridge Wheelmen, are attending the bicycle show at Madison Square garden, home at 631 Jefferson avenue, this city. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Burdick, of Albany, N. Y., issued cards announcing the marriage on Wednesday last of their daughter, Sarah Frances, to H. W. Cross. After April 19 Mr. and Mrs. Cross will be at COUNTY W. C. T. U'S.

Will Meet in Mid-Year Convention in Wilkes-Barre This Week. The Women's Christian Temperance unions of Lackawanna and Luzerne counties will hold their mid-year convention at Wilkes-Barre in the First Presbyterian church, this week Wednesday and Thursday. On Wednesday evening the president of the Illinois union, Mrs. Louise S. Rounds, will deliver an address. No little interest is attached to the mid-year gathering by the local unions. A large attendance is probable.

ONE KILLED, ANOTHER WOUNDED.

Result of a Premature Explosion in Pancoast Mine. A premature explosion in the Pancoast mine at Throop Saturday morning killed John Adowick, a laborer, and injured Stephen Sheer, a miner. The latter's scalp was cut and arm lacerated. He was brought to the Lackawanna hospital. He is not seriously hurt.

When dizzy or drowsy take BEECH-AM'S PILLS.

BABY'S SHOES

Kicked them through again, has he? Well, bless his little heart it only goes to show he's healthy and vigorous. We're closing out a few little lots of shoes for little tots at just-what-we-paid-for-em—which is certainly less than you usually pay. For instance, all the 75 and 85 cent shoes of yesterday go this week at 50c.

SCHANK & SPENCER, 410 Spruce Street.

MYSTERIOUS ELIJAH PROPHET OF FIRE

That Stalwart Biblical Character Described by Rev. Dr. James McLeod.

STRONG AND INTREPID MESSENGER

Interesting Word Picture of How God's Word was Thundered in the Royal Court of Israel—Man Found by the Lord to Work His Purpose at a Critical Time—Lesson of a Singleness of Aim Embodied in Action—Deep Impression He Made.

A lecture on Elijah, the prophet, the first of a series on popular evening topics, was delivered by Rev. Dr. James McLeod last night in the First Presbyterian church. The discourse was an interesting word picture of the mysterious and stalwart prophet.

Dr. McLeod's text was from I Kings, xvii, 1. "As the Lord of Israel liveth, before whom I stand, there shall not be dew nor rain these years, but according to my word." He remarked that the lecture was only introductory and that notable events in Elijah's extraordinary life would be treated in subsequent discourses. Dr. McLeod said: "Of the good names recorded in the Bible, that of Elijah occupies a conspicuous place. From his fiery temperament as well as from the fact that, again and again, he called down fire from heaven, he has been called 'The Prophet of Fire.' The story of his life is more fascinating than any work of fiction and from beginning to end, it is full of suggestive surprises. If there be about his life an air of mystery, that does not, in the least, detract from its merit nor from its genuineness. The fact that Elijah lived and moved and acted, at times, under supernatural influences, is plainly recorded, and the record is true.

REV. DR. JAMES McLEOD.

TRUE BIOGRAPHY.

"We will do well to bear in mind that the great characters of the Bible are not overdrawn. The divine pencil paints from life. Inspired biography is not subject to revision or amendment. The holy men of old who were moved by the Holy Spirit, were under no temptation either to suppress or distort the truth. The life of Elijah is quite as strange as the life of Jonah, but that is no reason why either should be made the subject of cheap wit and of smart ridicule. The miracles recorded in the Bible are not put there for our amusement. On the contrary, they are profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction and for instruction in righteousness.

"The Bible writers neither exaggerate the virtues nor minimize the vices of men. They tell the plain unvarnished truth. God deals fairly, impartially, justly with every man's character. "When Pope said that England's greatest chancellor was the 'meanest of mankind' he was guilty both of cruelty and of injustice. The man who became the champion of the inductive philosophy; who feared God and regarded his fellow men; who erred most grievously but confessed his faults; the man who had come consulting Christendom his debtor, was not the 'meanest of mankind.' His defamer was not worthy to untie his shoe latchet.

"Secular biographies and obituaries are not always entirely trustworthy. But sacred biography is always true to the truth. The Spirit of God is not a lying spirit. Bearing this in mind, it may be instructive as well as interesting to note some of the more prominent points and events in the life of this extraordinary man—Elijah, the Tishbite.

EARLY LIFE OBSCURE.

"We know nothing of his early life. His home, his parents, his education, his lineage—are all buried in obscurity. He appears abruptly as 'Elijah, the Tishbite,' who was of the inhabitants of Gilead. But although abruptly introduced by the sacred biographers, he appears at once as a man of mark. His first sentence is a trumpet blast. 'As the Lord God of Israel liveth, before whom I stand, there shall not be dew nor rain these years, but according to my word.'

"No wonder the king and queen, and the whole nation were alarmed. The message came like a thunderbolt. It was a terrific utterance, and it was followed by terrific results. Dr. McLeod then described the age in which Elijah lived. Rough, wicked, idolatry—Elijah was the man for the times. He was 'another smoot' or vent-hole. He spoke a homely word. He denounced the 'big and gaj' and court and people, but he did it as the Lord's prophet. He was sent on a holy errand, and he fulfilled his mission to the letter.

"Elijah was a great reformer and a true hero—although, on one or two occasions, he showed a pitiful weakness. He was a man of like passions with us. But he was a man of lofty character, and of steadfast purpose, who was very jealous for the Lord God of hosts. He was a man who had mighty power in prayer. God honored him and He opened and closed the windows of heaven at his request. Though stern and unyielding he could yet be gentle and tender as a woman, and his kindness to a poor widow, and to a bereaved mother, and his devoted friendship to Elisha, prove him to be a true man.

THE CHARIOT OF FIRE. "His grand life made a deep impression on both earth and heaven. He longed, at one time for death, and yet he never died. The chariot of fire descended from heaven, for his benefit and for our instruction. At God's bidding Elijah stepped into that chariot and rode upward to glory."

SABBATH NEWS NOTES.

Mrs. Thiele, the soprano, sang yesterday at the First Baptist church. The Young Men's Christian association afternoon Gospel meeting was led by Miss Bessie Pile. Rev. Dr. J. S. Stewart, of Towanda, occupied the pulpit of the Green Ridge Presbyterian church. Rev. E. T. Irwin, of Shiloh Baptist church, preached the morning sermon in the First Baptist church. General Secretary Many conducted the afternoon Gospel service of the Young Women's Christian association. Rev. L. R. Foster, of Auburn Theological seminary, preached in the evening in the Washburn Street Presbyterian church. Rev. Dr. Thomas McLeod, of Brooklyn, N. Y., will next Sabbath exchange pulpits with his brother, Rev. Dr. James McLeod, of this city. The regular session of the Methodist Ministerial association of Scranton and vicinity will be held this morning at 10 o'clock in the Elm Park church. Rev. W. G. Simpson, of West Pittston, will be present and read a paper on "The Gospel Minister: Some Aspects of His Development."

COMPANY IS SUPPLYING LIGHT.

Temporary Plant of the Illuminating Company Now in Operation. The temporary plant of the Scranton Illuminating, Heat and Power company last night supplied all but a light power to the company's customers. Representatives of the company this morning left for a tour of inspection of modern electric plants in several cities preparatory to ordering an outfit of machinery for the new building. It is expected that the insurance losses will be adjusted tomorrow when a contract will be let for a building to be completed within sixty days. It will occupy the site and dimensions of the burned and temporary structures. As rapidly as the new dynamo and other machinery arrives it will be gradually installed and the temporary outfit as gradually removed.

REV. DR. JAMES McLEOD.

SCRANTON WHISTERS WON.

Had Eighteen Tricks to Spare in the Match at Binghamton. The Scranton Whist club obtained another victory Friday night at Binghamton. There were twelve players on each team and thirty-six hands were played. Play began at 8:30 o'clock, and was finished at 1:30. Scranton won by eighteen tricks, scoring 142 points against the Parlor City players' 138. The individual scores of the Scranton pairs were as follows: North and South—T. H. Dale and L. G. Laird, 25; C. A. Godfrey and H. C. Walling, 25; Eugene Healy and E. H. Davis, 25. East and West—F. A. Hintermeister and Thomas Evans, 25; C. R. Fuller and C. E. Fenman, 25; T. E. Otis and J. W. Dusenbury, 25.

BOYS' COSTLY MISCHIEF.

May Have to Pay Dearly for Their Theft of Brass. Eddie Lord, of Oxford street, and Robert Hand, of Luzerne street, may have to pay dearly for their theft of brass from dynamo in a Delaware & Hudson freight car on Friday. Alderman Millar held them to answer the charge in court. The Lord boy was committed to jail, but bail was obtained for young Hand.

The lads broke the seals of the freight car. In stripping the brass from the machinery they so mutilated the dynamo that it will cost several hundred dollars to repair them. They had been shipped here for use in the new plant of the Scranton Illuminating Heat and Power company.

DIED.

ROCHE—In Scranton, Pa., Feb. 7, 1897, May, daughter of John P. and Ellen Roche, of No. 11 Lackawanna avenue. Funeral Tuesday, Feb. 9, at 2:30 p. m., interment in Hyde Park Catholic cemetery.

MCALP—In Archbald, Feb. 5, 1897, Mrs. John J. McAlp. Funeral Monday afternoon at a regular high mass will begin in St. Thomas' church at 10:30 o'clock. Interment will be in the Archbald Catholic cemetery.

KENYON—In Blakely, Pa., Feb. 6, 1897, Mrs. Charles P. Kenyon, formerly of Washington, D. C. Funeral Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Services at the home. Interment in Union cemetery.

"I had erysipelas and nothing has helped me as much as Hood's Sarsaparilla. It has also relieved my husband of rheumatism which built us up after the grip." Mrs. Jesse Travis, Milford, Pa.

Hood's Pills cure all liver ills.

WILL COMPLAIN OF MAYOR AND CHIEF

Constable Tim Jones Says They Abetted a Public Nuisance.

A STORY WITH TWO VERSIONS

The Question of Whether or Not a Society Can Run a Bar at a Ball Enters into the Case and May Claim Some Attention from Court—What the Various Interested Parties Have to Say.

The spectacle of the mayor and chief of police of this city being called before court to answer the charge of aiding and abetting a public nuisance is among the possibilities of today. Whether or not the court may see fit to summon these officials to answer the above charge is not known, but one thing is known and that is the charge will be made.

The complainant will be Constable Timothy Jones, of the Fifth ward. He avers that the charge is true and that he will make it and if given a chance, prove it in open court this morning. The public nuisance in question is the speak-easy of Mike Sharrack on Twenty-second street. Sharrack was arrested and indicted about a month ago for selling without a license and for running a disorderly house. Recently he built a hall in connection with his saloon and Saturday night it was opened with a grand ball. Before making the arrangements for the opening Sharrack went to County Detective Leysen and Constable Tim Jones to find out if it wouldn't be all right to dispense beer there as long as it was done by a society under proper auspices. The opening hall was to be given. The officials appealed to advised Sharrack that if he allowed intoxicants to be sold on his premises he would be making himself amenable to the law. Despite this warning he put in fourteen days and the opening hall was to be given. The officials appealed to advised Sharrack that if he allowed intoxicants to be sold on his premises he would be making himself amenable to the law. Despite this warning he put in fourteen days and the opening hall was to be given. The officials appealed to advised Sharrack that if he allowed intoxicants to be sold on his premises he would be making himself amenable to the law. Despite this warning he put in fourteen days and the opening hall was to be given.

SHARRACK AGAIN WARNED.

Constable Jones went to Sharrack's place Friday night and again warned him to desist. Sharrack said he had a right to sell as the society which was running the ball had a charter which gave them the right to have beer and whisky at their balls, just as they do in their halls over in town. He also said the mayor and chief of police knew it was all right because they had given him police protection. Mr. Jones found Patrolmen Saul and Peters on the ground in uniform and making inquiries. They had been sent to the place at Sharrack's request by Chief Robling. Constable Jones thereupon decided that when he made complaint of the affair he would include the mayor and chief of police and put them up at the top of the list among the principal offenders. When seen last night Constable Jones said: "We have orders from court that when we return a man for selling without a license and he continues to sell after being indicted, we are to arrest him for maintaining a public nuisance. That is what we propose to do in this case. The mayor and chief are guilty of aiding and abetting a public nuisance by encouraging the ball by furnishing uniformed officers to preserve order, after having warned by citizens that the place was a speak-easy. I will go before court this morning and complain of the mayor, chief and the proprietor of the place."

PROTEST WAS ENTERED.

"It is true a man came to me to protest against officers being sent to the hall. He said his name was Lynn and that he kept a saloon on Callahan's corner. I told him that I knew nothing whatever of the character of Sharrack's place, but that if he was a society, a chartered fraternal organization, was to run a ball in some hall on Twenty-second street, that they wanted a couple of officers to prevent disorderly characters from breaking in and disturbing the ball. This was commendable in them to my way of thinking and as is customary with every society making a similar request I assigned two day officers to do duty there. They were paid by the society. I suppose whatever they get into their own pocket according to custom that has been in vogue in the department for years."

Anthony Lunda, one of the members

MAJOR BARNARD'S SUCCESSOR.

Captains Stillwell and Fellows Are Mentioned as Candidates. To choose a successor to Major Montrose Barnard, of the Thirteenth regiment, an election will soon be held by the line officers, with whom the matter rests. An order for the election will be issued as soon as Major Barnard's resignation is accepted. Captain E. D. Fellows and Captain F. W. Stillwell are mentioned as candidates.

TAKEN SUDDENLY ILL.

Mrs. L. Davenport of Franklin Avenue Was Overcome While Sitting in a Doctor's Office. About 8:30 o'clock last night a middle-aged woman, poorly clad, came into Dr. Stevens' office on the second floor of the Koempel building, corner of Washington avenue and Linden street, and asked permission to wait there until Dr. Lewis Frey, whose office is next door, might return. After mentioning her to a sofa, Dr. Stevens returned to attend a patient in an inner room, whence he had been called by the woman's knock at the door. Less than five minutes had passed when his attention was again attracted to the outer room by a succession of quick and loud rappings and looking out he saw his strange visitor pounding on the floor with her umbrella and grasping her throat with her other hand as if she was choking. Before the doctor could reach her side she fell back on the sofa unconscious. An examination verified his first surmise that the woman was suffering from oedema of the lungs, an affection which blocks the passage and causes strangulation.

LAUDANUM PROVED FATAL.

Young Gurrell Dies from Self-Administered Poison. Martin Gurrell, the young bartender who took two ounces of laudanum at the St. Cloud hotel Friday night, died Saturday morning shortly after 5 o'clock. The remains were removed to Paul's undertaking establishment and prepared for burial, after which they were conveyed to the home of his parents on Van Buren avenue, from where the funeral will take place this afternoon. As Coroner Longstreet was one of the attending physicians no inquest was held. No cause has yet been assigned for Gurrell's act. Rumor has it that he was jilted by a young lady to whom he had been paying attentions, but this could not be verified.

MAJOR BARNARD'S SUCCESSOR.

Captains Stillwell and Fellows Are Mentioned as Candidates. To choose a successor to Major Montrose Barnard, of the Thirteenth regiment, an election will soon be held by the line officers, with whom the matter rests. An order for the election will be issued as soon as Major Barnard's resignation is accepted. Captain E. D. Fellows and Captain F. W. Stillwell are mentioned as candidates.

MAJOR BARNARD'S SUCCESSOR.

Captains Stillwell and Fellows Are Mentioned as Candidates. To choose a successor to Major Montrose Barnard, of the Thirteenth regiment, an election will soon be held by the line officers, with whom the matter rests. An order for the election will be issued as soon as Major Barnard's resignation is accepted. Captain E. D. Fellows and Captain F. W. Stillwell are mentioned as candidates.

MAJOR BARNARD'S SUCCESSOR.

Captains Stillwell and Fellows Are Mentioned as Candidates. To choose a successor to Major Montrose Barnard, of the Thirteenth regiment, an election will soon be held by the line officers, with whom the matter rests. An order for the election will be issued as soon as Major Barnard's resignation is accepted. Captain E. D. Fellows and Captain F. W. Stillwell are mentioned as candidates.

MAJOR BARNARD'S SUCCESSOR.

Captains Stillwell and Fellows Are Mentioned as Candidates. To choose a successor to Major Montrose Barnard, of the Thirteenth regiment, an election will soon be held by the line officers, with whom the matter rests. An order for the election will be issued as soon as Major Barnard's resignation is accepted. Captain E. D. Fellows and Captain F. W. Stillwell are mentioned as candidates.

MAJOR BARNARD'S SUCCESSOR.

Captains Stillwell and Fellows Are Mentioned as Candidates. To choose a successor to Major Montrose Barnard, of the Thirteenth regiment, an election will soon be held by the line officers, with whom the matter rests. An order for the election will be issued as soon as Major Barnard's resignation is accepted. Captain E. D. Fellows and Captain F. W. Stillwell are mentioned as candidates.

MAJOR BARNARD'S SUCCESSOR.

Captains Stillwell and Fellows Are Mentioned as Candidates. To choose a successor to Major Montrose Barnard, of the Thirteenth regiment, an election will soon be held by the line officers, with whom the matter rests. An order for the election will be issued as soon as Major Barnard's resignation is accepted. Captain E. D. Fellows and Captain F. W. Stillwell are mentioned as candidates.

MAJOR BARNARD'S SUCCESSOR.

Captains Stillwell and Fellows Are Mentioned as Candidates. To choose a successor to Major Montrose Barnard, of the Thirteenth regiment, an election will soon be held by the line officers, with whom the matter rests. An order for the election will be issued as soon as Major Barnard's resignation is accepted. Captain E. D. Fellows and Captain F. W. Stillwell are mentioned as candidates.

MAJOR BARNARD'S SUCCESSOR.

Captains Stillwell and Fellows Are Mentioned as Candidates. To choose a successor to Major Montrose Barnard, of the Thirteenth regiment, an election will soon be held by the line officers, with whom the matter rests. An order for the election will be issued as soon as Major Barnard's resignation is accepted. Captain E. D. Fellows and Captain F. W. Stillwell are mentioned as candidates.

MAJOR BARNARD'S SUCCESSOR.

Captains Stillwell and Fellows Are Mentioned as Candidates. To choose a successor to Major Montrose Barnard, of the Thirteenth regiment, an election will soon be held by the line officers, with whom the matter rests. An order for the election will be issued as soon as Major Barnard's resignation is accepted. Captain E. D. Fellows and Captain F. W. Stillwell are mentioned as candidates.

of the society, was seen concerning the affair. He was anything but pleased at the action of Lynn and Constable Jones. "The whole trouble," said he, "is that Lynn is jealous of Mr. Sharrack and is trying to prevent him from getting a license, as it will take away a good deal of his trade. Our society used to have its headquarters at Lynn's hall, but he was insulating to us on several occasions and we decided to leave. Mr. Sharrack agreed to build a hall for us and we gladly accepted the offer. Last night we opened our hall and like other societies do in the halls over town, we ran a refreshment booth. Our society is a beneficial organization with 156 members, 111 of whom are citizens."

Saturday night while the ball was in progress a constable named Pilger came along with a warrant from Alderman Horst's office charging Sharrack with having sold liquor on February 5. He went with the officer to Alderman Konny's office, waived a hearing and entered bail in the sum of $300 for his appearance at court.

TAKEN SUDDENLY ILL.

Mrs. L. Davenport of Franklin Avenue Was Overcome While Sitting in a Doctor's Office. About 8:30 o'clock last night a middle-aged woman, poorly clad, came into Dr. Stevens' office on the second floor of the Koempel building, corner of Washington avenue and Linden street, and asked permission to wait there until Dr. Lewis Frey, whose office is next door, might return. After mentioning her to a sofa, Dr. Stevens returned to attend a patient in an inner room, whence he had been called by the woman's knock at the door. Less than five minutes had passed when his attention was again attracted to the outer room by a succession of quick and loud rappings and looking out he saw his strange visitor pounding on the floor with her umbrella and grasping her throat with her other hand as if she was choking. Before the doctor could reach her side she fell back on the sofa unconscious. An examination verified his first surmise that the woman was suffering from oedema of the lungs, an affection which blocks the passage and causes strangulation.

LAUDANUM PROVED FATAL.

Young Gurrell Dies from Self-Administered Poison. Martin Gurrell, the young bartender who took two ounces of laudanum at the St. Cloud hotel Friday night, died Saturday morning shortly after 5 o'clock. The remains were removed to Paul's undertaking establishment and prepared for burial, after which they were conveyed to the home of his parents on Van Buren avenue, from where the funeral will take place this afternoon. As Coroner Longstreet was one of the attending physicians no inquest was held. No cause has yet been assigned for Gurrell's act. Rumor has it that he was jilted by a young lady to whom he had been paying attentions, but this could not be verified.

MAJOR BARNARD'S SUCCESSOR.

Captains Stillwell and Fellows Are Mentioned as Candidates. To choose a successor to Major Montrose Barnard, of the Thirteenth regiment, an election will soon be held by the line officers, with whom the matter rests. An order for the election will be issued as soon as Major Barnard's resignation is accepted. Captain E. D. Fellows and Captain F. W. Stillwell are mentioned as candidates.

MAJOR BARNARD'S SUCCESSOR.

Captains Stillwell and Fellows Are Mentioned as Candidates. To choose a successor to Major Montrose Barnard, of the Thirteenth regiment, an election will soon be held by the line officers, with whom the matter rests. An order for the election will be issued as soon as Major Barnard's resignation is accepted. Captain E. D. Fellows and Captain F. W. Stillwell are mentioned as candidates.

MAJOR BARNARD'S SUCCESSOR.

Captains Stillwell and Fellows Are Mentioned as Candidates. To choose a successor to Major Montrose Barnard, of the Thirteenth regiment, an election will soon be held by the line officers, with whom the matter rests. An order for the election will be issued as soon as Major Barnard's resignation is accepted. Captain E. D. Fellows and Captain F. W. Stillwell are mentioned as candidates.

MAJOR BARNARD'S SUCCESSOR.

Captains Stillwell and Fellows Are Mentioned as Candidates. To choose a successor to Major Montrose Barnard, of the Thirteenth regiment, an election will soon be held by the line officers, with whom the matter rests. An order for the election will be issued as soon as Major Barnard's resignation is accepted. Captain E. D. Fellows and Captain F. W. Stillwell are mentioned as candidates.

MAJOR BARNARD'S SUCCESSOR.

Captains Stillwell and Fellows Are Mentioned as Candidates. To choose a successor to Major Montrose Barnard, of the Thirteenth regiment, an election will soon be held by the line officers, with whom the matter rests. An order for the election will be issued as soon as Major Barnard's resignation is accepted. Captain E. D. Fellows and Captain F. W. Stillwell are mentioned as candidates.

MAJOR BARNARD'S SUCCESSOR.

Captains Stillwell and Fellows Are Mentioned as Candidates. To choose a successor to Major Montrose Barnard, of the Thirteenth regiment, an election will soon be held by the line officers, with whom the matter rests. An order for the election will be issued as soon as Major Barnard's resignation is accepted. Captain E. D. Fellows and Captain F. W. Stillwell are mentioned as candidates.

MAJOR BARNARD'S SUCCESSOR.

Captains Stillwell and Fellows Are Mentioned as Candidates. To choose a successor to Major Montrose Barnard, of the Thirteenth regiment, an election will soon be held by the line officers, with whom the matter rests. An order for the election will be issued as soon as Major Barnard's resignation is accepted. Captain E. D. Fellows and Captain F. W. Stillwell are mentioned as candidates.

MAJOR BARNARD'S SUCCESSOR.

Captains Stillwell and Fellows Are Mentioned as Candidates. To choose a successor to Major Montrose Barnard, of the Thirteenth regiment, an election will soon be held by the line officers, with whom the matter rests. An order for the election will be issued as soon as Major Barnard's resignation is accepted. Captain E. D. Fellows and Captain F. W. Stillwell are mentioned as candidates.

MAJOR BARNARD'S SUCCESSOR.

Captains Stillwell and Fellows Are Mentioned as Candidates. To choose a successor to Major Montrose Barnard, of the Thirteenth regiment, an election will soon be held by the line officers, with whom the matter rests. An order for the election will be issued as soon as Major Barnard's resignation is accepted. Captain E. D. Fellows and Captain F. W. Stillwell are mentioned as candidates.

MAJOR BARNARD'S SUCCESSOR.

Captains Stillwell and Fellows Are Mentioned as Candidates. To choose a successor to Major Montrose Barnard, of the Thirteenth regiment, an election will soon be held by the line officers, with whom the matter rests. An order for the election will be issued as soon as Major Barnard's resignation is accepted. Captain E. D. Fellows and Captain F. W. Stillwell are mentioned as candidates.

MAJOR BARNARD'S SUCCESSOR.

Captains Stillwell and Fellows Are Mentioned as Candidates. To choose a successor to Major Montrose Barnard, of the Thirteenth regiment, an election will soon be held by the line officers, with whom the matter rests. An order for the election will be issued as soon as Major Barnard's resignation is accepted. Captain E. D. Fellows and Captain F. W. Stillwell are mentioned as candidates.

MAJOR BARNARD'S SUCCESSOR.

Captains Stillwell and Fellows Are Mentioned as Candidates. To choose a successor to Major Montrose Barnard, of the Thirteenth regiment, an election will soon be held by the line officers, with whom the matter rests. An order for the election will be issued as soon as Major Barnard's resignation is accepted. Captain E. D. Fellows and Captain F. W. Stillwell are mentioned as candidates.

MAJOR BARNARD'S SUCCESSOR.

Captains Stillwell and Fellows Are Mentioned as Candidates. To choose a successor to Major Montrose Barnard, of the Thirteenth regiment, an election will soon be held by the line officers, with whom the matter rests. An order for the election will be issued as soon as Major Barnard's resignation is accepted. Captain E. D. Fellows and Captain F. W. Stillwell are mentioned as candidates.

MAJOR BARNARD'S SUCCESSOR.

Captains Stillwell and Fellows Are Mentioned as Candidates. To choose a successor to Major Montrose Barnard, of the Thirteenth regiment, an election will soon be held by the line officers, with whom the matter rests. An order for the election will be issued as soon as Major Barnard's resignation is accepted. Captain E. D. Fellows and Captain F. W. Stillwell are mentioned as candidates.

MAJOR BARNARD'S SUCCESSOR.

Captains Stillwell and Fellows Are Mentioned as Candidates. To choose a successor to Major Montrose Barnard, of the Thirteenth regiment, an election will soon be held by the line officers, with whom the matter rests. An order for the election will be issued as soon as Major Barnard's resignation is accepted. Captain E. D. Fellows and Captain F. W. Stillwell are mentioned as candidates.

MAJOR BARNARD'S SUCCESSOR.

Captains Stillwell and Fellows Are Mentioned as Candidates. To choose a successor to Major Montrose Barnard, of the Thirteenth regiment, an election will soon be held by the line officers, with whom the matter rests. An order for the election will be issued as soon as Major Barnard's resignation is accepted. Captain E. D. Fellows and Captain F. W. Stillwell are mentioned as candidates.

MAJOR BARNARD'S SUCCESSOR.

Captains Stillwell and Fellows Are Mentioned as Candidates. To choose a successor to Major Montrose Barnard, of the Thirteenth regiment, an election will soon be held by the line officers, with whom the matter rests. An order for the election will be issued as soon as Major Barnard's resignation is accepted. Captain E. D. Fellows and Captain F. W. Stillwell are mentioned as candidates.

MAJOR BARNARD'S SUCCESSOR.

Captains Stillwell and Fellows Are Mentioned as Candidates. To choose a successor to Major Montrose Barnard, of the Thirteenth regiment, an election will soon be held by the line officers, with whom the matter rests. An order for the election will be issued as soon as Major Barnard's resignation is accepted. Captain E. D. Fellows and Captain F. W. Stillwell are mentioned as candidates.

woman whose calamitous experience he was about to announce. He developed, however, that it was Mrs. Moody's servant, Mrs. L. Davenport, a widow, aged 48 years, whose husband was remembered as having kept a green grocery and market in the central city and on the West Side during many years.

Mr. Moody very humanely directed that the woman be brought to his house, but as she had, in the meantime been removed to the hospital and was being treated there by three physicians, he acceded to the advice that she be not disturbed. The Moodys did not know that Mrs. Davenport was afflicted with any