FIVE YEARS FOR POLLY.

Judge Archibald Heeds the Jury's Recommendation of Mercy.

As he intimated Saturday, when receiving the verdict of the jury, Judge Archibald took cognizance of the recommendation of mercy yesterday when sentencing Andrew Polly, who was found guilty of murder in the second degree for the kill of George Shemo. Five years was the punishment which he meted out.

In pronouncing sentence Judge Archibald said that while there were certain circumstances to show that the prisoner was guilty of nothing more serious than involuntary manslaughter, there was on the other hand a good deal that would induce him to begin in a passion, particularly the inhuman manner in which he treated his victim after the injuries had been inflicted.

FUNERAL OF WILLIAM HENDERSON.

Victim of Green Ridge Runaway Accident Interred Yesterday.

The last rites were performed yesterday afternoon over the remains of William Henderson, the 16-year-old boy who was fatally injured Monday, April 12th, by the running away of Hansel's delivery team at Green Ridge.

Rev. D. M. Kinter preached the sermon from the text "There is but a step between us and death," and made a strong appeal to the living to take warning and prepare to meet their God. The Albright avenue mission and the Providence Christian church Christian Endeavor society presented beautiful floral emblems. Interment was in Dunmore cemetery.

A sad circumstance connected with the affair was that when the parents visited the hospital Friday expecting to behold their son alive and improved in condition, they were informed that he had been dead half an hour.

TO LOBBY FOR REFORM.

City Solicitor Jas. H. Torrey Leaves for Harrisburg Today.

City Solicitor James H. Torrey leaves for Harrisburg today, where he, in conjunction with W. D. Crocker and A. A. Cockran, city solicitors, respectively, of Williamsport and Chester, will appear before the legislature in the interests of the Torrey tax collector bill and other measures approved by the municipal conventions held here in Reading and in Williamsport, last summer.

Mr. Torrey feels confident of the adoption of the bill which bears his name, as a canvass of the legislature revealed no opposition to it. The measure, it will be remembered, provides for one office in which all taxes, state, county, city, school and poor can be paid.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

Under this heading short letters of interest will be published when accompanied, for publication, by the writer's name. The Tribune will not be responsible for opinions here expressed.

His Position Was Misunderstood.

Editor of The Tribune.

Sir—Referring to A. W. Dickson's denial by his consent, for his name to be used in connection with the proposed wagon work in and about Scranton, I, as one of the committee who interviewed Mr. Dickson in regard to this matter, wish to say that I regret such misunderstanding occurred, also that Mr. Dickson considered it necessary to make the public statement which you have published, and which the public had nothing to do with.

Mr. Dickson's name was used as it was on account of my not understanding the position, as he has explained it to me since. I mistake his "approval and sympathy," as he says, "with Gospel wagon work" as his consent for the use of his name in this connection.

Mr. Dickson is satisfied that no attempt was made at imposition; and our former friendship and fellowship is in no way interrupted.

Respectfully,
G. L. Field,
