The choir, under the direction of Professor Stockman, consisted of about sixty members and was aided by the Mozart orchestra under the direction of Professor Burnside. ARCHIBALD.

The sudden and cruel death of Miss Mary Walsh, of Pine street, as detailed in yesterday's Tribune caused great sorrow to the acquaintances of the deceased lady. There were few better known and none more respected than she. Being of a rather retiring disposition and of a religious nature, she mingled little with the world, but among those who knew her there were few who did not receive more genuine respect or esteem. She was entirely free from ostentation and strove in a humble way to lead a perfect life. She was generous and kind hearted, a devoted daughter and sister, and a true friend. Her death, which would be deplored under any circumstances, is immeasurably sad, coming as it did suddenly and accidentally, and the sorrow felt for the bereaved family is widespread and sincere.

Miss Walsh was a sister of Mrs. J. J. Jordan, Miss Rose Walsh and P. M. and M. J. Walsh, of Scranton; Mrs. P. F. Spellman, Misses Katie and Jennie Walsh and James J. and Thomas Walsh, of this borough. Her funeral takes place tomorrow. A high mass of requiem will be sung in St. Thomas' church and interment will be in the Catholic cemetery.

There is a large and elegant lot of articles on exhibition and arrangements have been made that will insure a happy time to those who take pleasure in the fair.

DEAD SOLDIER'S BIBLE.

Returned, After Many Years, to the Former Owner's Brother.

Somerset, April 19.—Daniel Trent, of this place, a few days ago presented Henry Wolford with a Bible he had picked up on the battlefield of New Market, Va., in 1862, and which had been the property of Wolford's brother, Valentine, who was slain in that engagement. Trent has preserved the book through all these years and only had the opportunity of restoring it to the living brother last week.

The Bible is a small one bound in black leather with gilt edges, and is in very good condition. Trent and the dead soldier were members of a forty-fourth Pennsylvania volunteers, commanded by the late Colonel Jacob M. Campbell, of Johnston.

A man may say or think what he pleases but just the same, personal appearance counts a big figure in success. A well-dressed, neat, clean, looking man, with the fresh countenance of health will outstrip the man who looks like a ghost. Many men neglect their personal appearance. Through neglect of the digestion their blood gets full of impurities and humors which show themselves on the face and body in the shape of skin affections, blotches, eruptions, eczema and scrofula.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery drives all impurities from the blood and cures all forms of skin affections. It is the great blood purifier, liver invigorator and flesh builder. It corrects all disorders of the digestion. Thousands have testified to its merits. Druggists sell it.

Wm. W. Bates, of Milton, Jackson, Co., Wis., writes: "I wish to say that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is the best medicine for the grip that I have ever tried."

"Health is the best endowment" and a health-preserver the best investment. Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser teaches women how to take good care of the health of every member of the family. It saves doctor's bills. It contains 100 pages, over 500 illustrations. Several chapters are devoted to the reproductive physiology of women and diseases that unfit young women for wifehood and young wives for motherhood.
