Jackson Street Baptist Treasury Enriched by Book Collections.

Some time ago the Ladies' Aid society of the Jackson Street Baptist church issued seventy-eight books, which contained spaces for dime contributions amounting to five dollars. Several of the members and many of the children undertook to have them filled and many of them succeeded. Arrangements were perfected for the reception of the books last evening, and while the sums were being recorded by a committee, a programme of much merit was rendered.

DEACONS' SOCIAL TONIGHT.

Something new in the way of church entertainment will be afforded the members of the church and congregation at the Scranton Street Baptist church this evening. The deacons, B. G. Beddoe, Charles Corless, John Owens, Randolph Jones, William Morris, W. C. Davis and C. P. Ashman, will be the entertainers, assisted by the pastor, Rev. S. F. Matthews. Mrs. Randolph Jones and Miss V. Jones, vocalists. The affair will be a fraternal gathering of the members and Mr. Corless' address will refer to the spiritual interests of the church. Deacon Owens will tell how to promote the material interests of the church, and the other laymen will have something to say pertaining to the welfare of the church. Mrs. Randolph Jones and Miss V. Jones will sing and instrumental music will be furnished by others. Mr. Matthews will respond to the addresses of the deacons and refer to "The Seven Fold Characters." The members of the church and congregation are especially requested to be in attendance. Social intercourse will follow the entertainment and refreshments will be served.

SIMPSON M. E. CHURCH NEWS.

The fortieth anniversary of the Sunday school of Simpson Methodist Episcopal church will be observed on Sunday, May 9. A testimonial will be presented to Mrs. H. P. Krigbaum, who has taught a class in the school during all these years. An effort is being made to have all the ex-superintendents of the Sunday school in attendance.

PROVIDENCE.

Mrs. Tillie Marly and son Robert, both of Braker street, were arrested yesterday on charges preferred by James Matzon. When given a hearing last evening before Alderman Roberts Marly was charged with having committed an assault and battery upon the prosecutor. The trouble arose over the throwing of a stone through the window of Matzon's residence by some mischievous boys, among them was young Marly, and he was charged as being the guilty one and was captured by Matzon, who held him in custody until his mother came to his rescue. It was alleged by the prosecutor that she administered a severe drubbing on him for thus treating her son. At the hearing the boy firmly established his innocence and was allowed to go, but his mother was compelled to furnish bail for her appearance before the alderman for a further hearing Friday evening.

SOUTH SIDE SOCIAL.

Forteen Friends Banquet and Make Merry in Natter's Hall Last Evening.

The "Fourteen Friends," a band of men organized for no other purpose than to make things sociable in this corner, world gave a delightful banquet last evening in Natter's hall, on the South Side. The assemblage more than comfortably filled the hall. Everything was free as far as the invited guests were concerned. The banquet hall was laden with a bounteous repast, the lighter refreshments were in abundance, there was music for dancing by Guth's orchestra, the decorations were costly and all was paid for by the "Fourteen Friends." The enjoyable time has seldom been witnessed on the South Side. Those Fourteen Friends were everybody's friends and merriment went on without even tiring it self. Giving a list of those present it is proper to lead with the Fourteen Friends. As will be noticed there are more than fourteen—the original number are the first mentioned: B. F. Moore, Philip Shuer, William Naegeli, John Schmidt, H. F. Westphal, Thos. Duffy, James Best, Andrew J. Best, Walter Nape, James K. Stocum, Chas. Deising, Peter Yous, Charles Neils, C. M. Zitzelman, John Brooks, Albert Heier, William Schwenker, William Godshall, George Wirth and F. C. Ehrhardt, John Parsons, William Peuster, Siebold and Daniel Graer, of Buffalo, N. Y. Mr. Schuer was chairman of the evening; Messrs. Moore, Duffy, J. Best and Godshall were the invitation committee; Messrs. J. Best, Nape and H. J. Best were the refreshment committee, and the reception committee was composed of Messrs. Moore, Neils, Zitzelman and Brooks.

GREEN RIDGE.

John Corley was arrested and brought before Alderman Bailey on Monday for stealing picks and shovels of Frank Moran, of Dummore. He was held in $200 bail to appear at court. James Atterton, for years the capable manager of Spencer's store, has resigned. Mr. Atterton has been canvass for the Republican nomination for register of wills. He has been succeeded by Orman Cox. The office effects of Dr. Dwight Church were sold yesterday at the instance of the late Martin Weber, of Ridge house, on a block of the Green Ridge road, on a block of the Green Ridge road. Constable Black conducted the sale. An oak desk, which Dr. Church purchased of the late E. C. Dimmick for $40, was sold to Attorney Carmalt for $1. An $85 bookcase went to Will Horn for $2. Charles P. Jones bought the drugs and case for 50 cents.

SOUTH SIDE.

CARELESSNESS.

Often Causes No End of Suffering. Probably half the people who see this article suffer from Piles. It is one of the commonest diseases and one of the most obstinate. People have it for years and just because it is not immediately fatal they neglect it. Carelessness causes no end of suffering. Carelessness about so simple a thing as piles has often caused death. Hemorrhage occur from no apparent cause and loss of blood causes death. Hemorrhages occur during surgical treatment, often causing death. Piles are simple in the beginning and easily cured. They can be cured even in the worst stages, without pain or loss of blood, quickly, surely and completely. There is only one remedy that will do it—Pyramid Pile Cure. It allays the inflammation immediately, heals the irritated surface and with continued treatment reduces the swelling and puts the membranes into good, sound, healthy condition. The cure is thorough and permanent. Druggists sell the Pyramid Pile Cure at 50c. Send for free book on cause and cure of Piles by addressing Pyramid Co., Albion, Mich.

OBITUARY.

The little 5-year-old son of Mrs. Thomas Talbot, of Mayfield, who has been suffering for a few days with diphtheria, died yesterday morning. Funeral will take place this afternoon at 3 o'clock. Interment will be made in Archbald cemetery. Mrs. Joseph Goodpied died at her home in Rendham Tuesday night. She was 28 years of age and is survived by a husband and four children. RILEY EDWARDS' DERBY HAT. Alderman Wright Yesterday Allowed Him $3 for It. Riley Edwards, the horseman, once upon a time owned a derby hat. Possibly he owned more than one, but that has nothing in particular to do with this story, for it was "a derby hat" that figured conspicuously in a case that was aired before Alderman Wright yesterday. W. F. Walters was the defendant in the proceedings, and Walters a few weeks ago sued Edwards before Alderman Howe and succeeded in collecting salary to the amount of $20.75. Then Riley bought him of the hat and said that it might furnish a means of getting back at Walters, for Walters had once worn that self-same hat. A warrant was sworn out before Alderman Wright yesterday for the recovery of "a derby hat," valued at $3. Walters denied the theft and said that in returning through some old boxes one day he found the hat, all battered and soiled. He smoothed out the wrinkles of age and then asked Edwards for it. "Do with it what you will," answered Mr. Edwards, in stronger words. Alderman Wright allowed Edwards $3 for the hat of long ago. MEMORIAL DAY COMMITTEE. Met Last Evening and Discussed the Observance in Scranton. The committee composed of members of the several Grand Army of the Republic posts in this city appointed to make the necessary preparations for the usual observance of Memorial Day, held a meeting last evening in Memorial hall on Washington avenue. There were present: Fred J. Amundson, chairman; A. W. Pearce, M. Morey, H. W. Loftus, J. W. Marshall, George Shultz and Adam Miller, of Post 139; P. J. McAndrew, J. W. Thompson, of Post 315. Sub-committees were appointed for the several departments of preparation and the matter of finance was discussed at length. John T. Howe was selected to purchase the flags for decoration of the graves. THREW HAND-BILLS BROADCAST. Charge on Which L. Posner Was Arrested Yesterday. L. Posner hired a boy to distribute circulars with seductive words printed thereon. The boy scattered the paper while it lasted and Posner was arrested yesterday for employing the boy to thus destroy the beauty of the streets. He was taken before Alderman Howe, where Street Commissioner Kinsley appeared as prosecutor. Posner was well scared, and on promising to advertise some other way in the future was released. ## SHAKESPEAREAN RECITALS.

E. C. Abbott, of Boston, to Give a Course for the Y. M. C. A. Edgar C. Abbott, of Boston, a distinguished reciter of Shakespearean recitals to be given under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association. Mr. Abbott comes with many personal letters of commendation from students and lovers of Shakespeare, who bear hearty testimony to his high merit. Mr. Abbott's method is to recite one play one evening. He gives them from memory, impersonating the characters and revealing by voice, gesture and attitude the spirit of the play. The course will be opened on Friday evening, May 14, with "Hamlet." The second recital, "As You Like It," will be given on Monday, May 17, and the course will close with "Julius Caesar" Friday, May 21. Mr. Abbott has been reciting these plays for years, and has the advantage of both experience and deep study. He was associated with the late James E. Murdock, America's great elocutionist in the "Murdock and Abbott school of oratory." The recitals will be given by subscription and will not cost the patronage of all lovers of Shakespeare.

THOSE EGGS AND POTATOES.

Charles Jacobs Begged Them of Philip Schnell, of Seventh Street. Before Mayor Bailey yesterday morning Charles Jacobs, who was arrested for trying to sell a bag of eggs and another of potatoes was given a hearing. Philip Schnell, the Seventh street hotel keeper, was present and identified Jacobs as a man who with a pitiful tale approached him and was generously given the eggs and potatoes to his success. Mr. Jacobs' family which Jacobs claimed was starving. Jacobs was fined $5 and in default was sent to jail.

ALTERNATIONS.

Store looks all upset, from the outside. Inside things are in fairly good order. Business going on just the same. We're going to have the nicest front in town. Always have had the best and most reliable clothing store. Now we're to have the best windows, all along the Lackawanna avenue side, with the entrance on the corner. Then along Penn avenue the whole length of the building. Such nice windows should be rightly trimmed. So we've engaged an expert window trimmer from New York, who'll try to show you something better in clothing windows than you usually see. In the meantime come in and see the suits for men we are selling At $10.00 SAMTER BROS.
