WOMEN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

Gave an Entertainment in the Simpson M. E. Church.

A very enjoyable evening was spent by those who attended the social and entertainment given by the Women's Home Missionary Society of the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church last evening. The entertaining programme opened by those present singing "America." The pastor offered prayer and a piano solo was efficiently rendered by Miss Sadie Edwards, Miss Jennie Paff recited and Miss Eva Kettle sang.

The particular feature of the evening was an address on "Home Missions," by Wallace G. Moser, of the Republican. It was an eloquent effort, and was highly appreciated by its interested audience.

At the conclusion of the programme refreshments, cake and lemonade were served to all.

FUNERAL OF MISS HAMMOND.

The remains of Miss Harriet A. Hammond, were borne from her late residence at the home of S. T. Doyce, 301 North Rebecca avenue, to the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church yesterday afternoon, where the funeral services were held. Rev. J. B. Sweet, pastor of the church, presided at a touching sermon. He outlined the deceased's character, her genial disposition, her patience in time of illness and her resignation to the change. The auditorium contained a large number of friends of the deceased and the bereaved mother and sister. The floral tributes were beautiful, being simple in design, though profuse in numbers. A quartette sang several selections. Following the services the remains were borne to the Washburn street cemetery, where they were placed at final rest. The Misses Toke, Hughes and Weber were flower-bearers and Alex Wesley, Bert Meyers, Lawson Britton, William Clark, Harry Hartman and Will Long acted as pall-bearers.

BOY'S ARM FRACTURED.

Tommy, the 10-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Davis, of 310 Sweetland street, was severely injured yesterday afternoon. The boy was playing ball with some of his friends and in attempting to catch a ball he was thrown to the ground by being run against by one of the other boys. His injuries consist of a fracture of the left fore arm and shock to the nervous system. The fracture was a very bad one, and was set by Drs. Heckwith and Hall.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Hen. W. G. Ward, of North Sumner avenue, is still confined to his bed. His condition is still unimproved. Miss Mary Hoffman, of Twenty-second street, visited friends in Elmhurst this week. Miss Hoffman was accompanied by her brother, Arthur Hoffman. They made the trip both ways on their wheels and while there enjoyed some good fishing.

MISS C. FLORENCE LESH, OF SQUARE TOP, IS VISITING THIS WEEK WITH WEST SIDE FRIENDS.

Miss Minnie Champion, of Jackson street, entertained a few friends at her home on Thursday evening. The hours were spent in the usual social way and at a seasonable hour refreshments were served by the charming hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. George T. Jones, and Mr. and Mrs. William N. Chase, of this side, went to Wilkes-Barre yesterday to spend Decoration day. They made the trip upon their wheels.

S. M. Reese, of North Hyde Park avenue, is confined to his residence by a serious attack of appendicitis.

Mrs. Elizabeth Knapp is very ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Martin Decker, of Price street. Fears are entertained for her recovery on account of her advanced age.

Miss Jennie Jones is visiting her parents for a few days. Miss Jones is studying in a Philadelphia hospital with a view to becoming a trained nurse.

Mrs. Thomas Albert, of Carbondale, was a West Side visitor this week.

MINOR NEWS NOTES.

The funeral services of the infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Walther, Jr., of North Bromley avenue, will occur this afternoon from the residence, instead of Sunday afternoon, as previously given out.

PROVIDENCE.

By special dispensation the Welsh Baptist people, the recently organized congregation that conducts services in Winton's hall on Wayne avenue, has been allowed the privilege of a regularly ordained church of the Baptist conference. Rev. W. F. Davis will preach tomorrow morning and evening. At the evening service the report of the investigation committee which reported the results of their labors at the Baptist conference held in Mahanoy City the forepart of the week, will be read in both the English and Welsh languages. Bible school at 2 p. m. All are cordially invited to attend.

William McAndrew, a huckster, secured employment from William Coburn, a commission merchant of the central city. McAndrew started out Thursday morning with a wagon load of vegetables and when evening came on Coburn waited patiently for his return, but as McAndrew did not put in an appearance Coburn grew impatient and instituted a search for the missing man. He located him in Harrington's hotel on Main avenue and swore out a warrant for his arrest. The warrant was placed in the hands of Constable Smith who brought McAndrew before Alderman Fidler. The accused was intoxicated and the Alderman ordered him to be locked up until he became sober. When the constable was about to take McAndrew to the station house he made a dash for the constable and resisted desperately but he was finally overpowered and locked up. Last evening he was sufficiently sober to be given a hearing. The prosecutor expressed leniency and allowed McAndrew his freedom upon signing a pledge to abstain from intoxicants for the next six months. He was given until Wednesday to settle for the goods he failed to return.

The following societies of this place will participate in the parade tomorrow afternoon that is to be held in the central city: Divisions 6 and 16, Ancient Order Hibernians, Board of America; St. Joseph's and St. Mary's societies. All other societies of the Holy Rosary parish are requested to take part in the parade as requested to meet at St. Mary's hall at 12 o'clock sharp. Prior to their departure for the central city the above societies will parade the principal streets of this end, headed by the Forest band.

The clerks of the North End will do battle with the Clarke's store clerks of the West Side for base ball supremacy on Monday. The rounds tomorrow morning at 8.30 o'clock.

All stores in this section will be closed today.

A HEALTHY WIFE

Is a Husband's Inspiration.

A sickly, half-dend-and-alive woman, especially when she is the mother of a family, is a damper to all joyousness in the home. I sometimes marvel at the patience of some husbands.

It is woman finds that her energies are flagging and that everything tires her, her sleep is disturbed by horrible dreams, and that she often wakes suddenly in the night with a feeling of suffocation and alarm, she must at once regain her strength.

It matters not where she lives, she can write a letter. Mrs. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., will reply promptly and without charge. The following shows the power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, accompanied with a letter of advice.

"Dear Mrs. Pinkham—I have suffered for over two years with falling, enlargement and ulceration of the womb, and this spring, being in such a weakened condition, caused me to flow for nearly six months. Some time ago, urged by friends, I wrote to you for advice. After using the treatment which you advised for a short time, that terrible flow stopped. I am now gaining strength and flesh and have better health than I have had for the past ten years.

I wish to say that I am now suffering women, do not suffer longer, when there is one so kind and willing to aid you.—Mrs. F. S. DENNETT, Wea-pahia, Kans.

THE THREE NEW OFFICERS. They Are All Good Sized Men and Youthful.

The three new patrolmen appointed by Mayor Bailey Thursday night will be expected to be confirmed next Thursday night and in that case will be put on duty one week from Monday. All three of them are good-sized men and none of them are over 25 years of age.

John J. Feuster lives in the Ninth ward and is employed as a driver for the Scranton Beef company. He is 35 years of age and married. In height he is 5 feet 11 inches and weighs about 175 pounds. He will be remembered as having once been a debtor for the Hook and Ladder company. He is a Republican but at the mayoralty election was a Bailey adherent.

Thomas Watkins lives in the First ward and works as a minor at the Leggett creek colliery. He is 33 years of age and married. He stands 5 feet 10 inches and weighs about 200 pounds. In politics he is a Wade Finn Republican.

James J. Quinnan, the only Democrat of the trio, is a brother of Hon. John P. Quinnan. He lives in the Twelfth ward, is a motorman by occupation. He is 26 years of age, 5 feet, 10 1/2 inches in height and weighs in the neighborhood of 200 pounds. He is the most likely looking policeman of the lot. For the information of the "idolists" who like uniforms it might be mentioned that Quinnan is unmarried.

Validity of the Proceedings Before the Alderman Questioned.

Benjamin Allgood, who was fined $15 on thirty days in the county jail by Alderman Davis Wednesday night for hugging Mrs. Louise Harmer, of Oxford street, was released from the county jail yesterday on bail. He refused to pay his fine, saying that it would be a confession of guilt, and he was assuredly said he was not. He therefore went to jail.

Yesterday his attorney made an effort in court to take an appeal from the alderman's decision on the merits of the case, but this the court would not allow as nothing was shown to warrant them in allowing such an appeal. Mr. Allgood's attorney then took out a writ of certiorari, which attacks the validity of the proceedings.

Pending the disposition of this writ Mr. Allgood was released on $200 bail. B. J. Neville became his bondsman.

Bad Heart—Could Not Lie Down for Eighteen Months.

"I was unable to lie down in bed for eighteen months, owing to smothering spells caused by heart disease. One bottle of Dr. J. C. JUDGMENT NOTE ALTERED

Given for Four Dollars But It Was Raised to Nine Hundred It Is Alleged.

John W. Hollenback was arrested Thursday night in a warrant sworn out before Alderman John J. Ruddy, of the Twentieth ward, by Mrs. Antonina Zofoskie, of Old Forge, charging Hollenback with having "conspired illegally and fraudulently to represent a Baltimore Insurance company with intent to cheat and defraud said company."

This is the form of the charge on the warrant that was issued, but the real startling part of the case is that Hollenback prevailed upon Mrs. Zofoskie to sign a judgment note for $4, telling her that she could collect $250 from the insurance company on the death of her husband.

It is alleged that Hollenback afterward raised the judgment note to $900 and had it recorded in the recorder's office of this county.

Hollenback was arrested Thursday night, but owing to the lateness of the hour he was placed in the central police station to await a hearing.

Yesterday he was taken before Alderman Ruddy and after a hearing was held in $900 bail to appear in court. In default Hollenback was committed to the county jail.

Mrs. Zofoskie also swore out a warrant for the arrest of John W. Williams, who was one of Hollenback's witnesses at the hearing, charging him with perjury. The warrant has not yet been served.

NEW CHEMICAL COMPANY.

Transacted Business at a Meeting in the City Hall Last Night.

The Scranton Chemical and Hose company held an enthusiastic meeting last evening in the patrolmen's room in the city hall. The attendance was better than at any previous meeting.

The board of trustees were empowered to secure at once the lease of a piece of ground on the hill on which a temporary hose house will be built. According to the present plans the lot will be secured and the erection of a house begun before the close of two weeks.

Dr. C. E. Laubach is chairman of the board of trustees. The board was also empowered to purchase coats, helmets, etc., for the company. Three agents were present at the meeting. It was announced that as soon as the temporary building is erected the fire department will allow the company the use of a wagon. The finance committee reported that the company had been solicited up to this time but a nice sum had been voluntarily given to the company.

In the absence of President Guy Schmitt, John Cochet was elected chairman of the meeting.
