Helen Connor at Rest.

A large number of friends attended the funeral services of Helen Connor yesterday morning at St. Rose church. The members of the Blessed Virgin's sodality and the Ladies' Catholic Benevolent association were present, of which association she was an esteemed member. Requiem mass was celebrated by Rev. W. A. Nealon. Among the many beautiful floral tributes was a broken column, presented by the contributors of the Leader, her former associates in her work as a compositor. A handsome pillar of flowers was given by the Blessed Virgin's sodality. The flower bearers were: James Foxe, James Lynady, John J. Farrell and Frank B. Clifford. The pallbearers were: James Boland, Thomas Holmes, John Barber, John Hannon, Andrew Hensen and M. E. McDonald.

Child Fatally Burned.

A number of little children at Simpson were amusing themselves on Saturday around a fire in the field. A little boy, 3 years old, the son of John Hychko, attempted to jump over the fire when he was quickly enveloped in the flames which caught his clothing. The mother heard his screams and hurried to the spot. His clothing was torn away from his body but he was dreadfully and fatally burned so that he lived only a few hours. In attempting to rescue her child Mrs. Hychko's arms and hands received very painful injuries.
