HOUSE SESSION A DISMAL FAILURE

No Quorum Secured Until 3 O'clock in the Afternoon.

THE HORIZONTAL BILL IS TAKEN UP

A Spirited Debate Follows--The Simon Bill Again Brought Before the House--Mr. Mansfield Intimates That It Is a Snaky Measure and Does Not Contain One Sentence That Means What It Says.

Harrisburg, June 3--Only the house met today and its first attempt at a session was a failure. A quorum was not secured until 3 o'clock. The bill requiring social and political clubs to take out a liquor license passed second reading.

The bill horizontal bill was taken up for second reading and a spirited debate followed. Mr. Coray, of Luzerne, said he was opposed to sending the bill back to committee if it was intended that the measure taxing oleo, Chairman Bolles, of the ways and means committee, in moving to recommit the bill stated that it had never been read in committee and that it was brought out with the understanding that it was to be sent back to committee. He declared there would be no need of such a law if the senate passed the revenue bills sent to it by the house. The revenues for the next two years will be sufficient to meet the appropriations, if they do not exceed those of two years ago. Mr. Bolles' motion was adopted and the house went to work on the calendar of local and special bills on third reading.

THE SIMON BILL.

The Simon bill was again brought before the house on a motion of Mr. Moore of Butler to reconsider the vote by which it was defeated on final passage.

Mr. Mansfield appealed to the house to reconsider the bill. He said it was a "snaky" measure all the way through and that there was not a sentence in it that meant what it says. Mr. Harris, of Clearfield, was also opposed to the measure because it was in the interest of a lot of bankrupt electric light and water companies which are seeking to unload their plants upon municipalities.

The motion to reconsider carried by a vote of 92 to 61 and further consideration of the bill was postponed. A motion that all second and third reading bills be dropped from the calendar was offered by Mr. Moore, of Philadelphia, and promptly defeated, after which the house adjourned until this evening.

STEP TOWARD ADJOURNMENT.

The first step toward final adjournment was taken at the evening session by the adoption of a resolution reported from the rules committee, making the order of business at Monday night's sessions senate bills on second reading. This disposes of more than one hundred house bills on the calendar for second reading unless the committee fixes a time for their consideration. Many members voted for the resolution without knowing its meaning.

Mr. Focht, of Union, secured a special order for his bill, providing for the return of paupers and indigent persons not having a legal settlement within the Commonwealth to any other state or county to which they may belong. The bill will be read the second time Monday evening, and considered on third reading Tuesday morning. A bill was introduced by Mr. Keesler, of Philadelphia, appropriating $500,000 to improve the Philadelphia harbor and dredge the Delaware river.

FRIENDS OF SWALLOW ARE HOPEFUL

They Believe That He Will Be Elected State Treasurer--Dr. Swallow Heads a Campaign Subscription List by a Contribution of $1,000. Nominations Are Made by Acclamation--Christ Is Not Acknowledged in the Preamble.

Altoona, June 3--At the opening of the afternoon session the committee were not ready to report and the convention listened to speeches by Rev. T. M. Weaver, of Johnstown; W. R. Irvine, of Lycoming, and Quincy Lee Morrow. The latter speaker predicted Dr. Swallow's election as state treasurer. He said it was no longer a question as to whether the saloon should live or die, but whether the church should live or die. Hon. A. A. Barker followed. The finance committee then reported that $10,000 would be needed for campaign work. Rev. C. H. Moser, of New York, made an appeal for the raising of this sum. Dr. Swallow started the subscription with $1,000. A number of $100, $50, $25 and $10 subscriptions were received and when the effort was closed $1,186 has been raised. A. A. Stevens, esq., reported the platform. It acknowledges Almighty God as the ruler of the universe, pledges the party to the destruction of the legalized liquor traffic, declares for suffrage without distinction of sex, arraigns the state administration for lavish expenditures, calls for the reduction of salaries and for a rigid system of economy, demands interests on state deposits, declares against one man power in state affairs, opposes granting money for sectarian purposes, and favors arbitration between laborer and employer.

TOWN ADVERTISED FOR SALE.

Belongs to Glendon Iron Co., Whose Furnaces Have Been Long Idle.

Easton, June 3--The whole town of Brownstown, consisting of eighteen houses and three farms of 165 acres, located about two miles from here, is advertised for sale. The property belongs to the Glendon Iron company, whose furnaces at Glendon, nearly have been idle for the past few years. The houses, when the furnaces were in blast, were occupied by the Glendon company's employes, but since the furnaces have been idle the town has been uninhabited. The Glendon furnaces were among the most profitable industries in this part of the state, and employed several hundred men, whose wages were spent in this city. The abandonment of the furnaces has always been felt here, and there is no telling whether they will ever be started up again.

"CRUCIFIED" BOY RECOVERS.

After Long Delirium He Is Well and His Tormentors Go Free.

Norristown, June 3--Isaac Markley, William Hough and Frank Chambers, who nearly frightened to death Thos. Sablosky the other evening by successive threats of death by crucifixion, drowning and hanging, were again before Magistrate Lenhardt today, and Mrs. Sablosky settled the case and the boys went free. Young Sablosky has almost recovered from the ordeal of having dice thrown on his head, when he thought his life depended on the turn of the cubes. For more than a week, however, the persecuted boy was in a terrible plight. He was in delirium almost constantly.

AN ALDERMAN'S ODD MANIA.

Thought He Owed Everybody, and Settled Up, Too.

Pittsburg, June 3--Alderman Edward Klotz, of the Twelfth ward, Allegheny City, was confined to the insane ward of St. Francis' hospital today. He has always been an unique character and the leading spiritualist in the two cities. He heard all his cases with his spirits and mediums around him. He appointed his daughter, a beautiful young woman, his constable, and had her serve subpoenas wearing bloomers and riding a bike. His latest idiosyncrasy was the belief that he owed everyone money and wanted to pay off his debts, which he did in cash and checks.

THE MEDICAL CONGRESS.

Relief Association for Poor and Disabled Physicians--Dr. Keen's Paper on the Advance in Surgery.

Philadelphia, June 3--The medical congress, under the auspices of the American Medical association, began the third day of its session this morning with the formal jubilee exercises, commemorating the semi-centennial of the association. The particular attention was given to a description of the modern hospital, the great growth and advance of American text books and American systems of surgery. The establishment of laboratories of research was vigorously urged, and merchants, the speaker continued, should be made to understand that from a business point of view, as well as from that of a humanitarian, there is necessity of assisting in such a step rather than being the loss of millions in case of an epidemic.

Dr. Keen paid a glowing tribute to American medical libraries, and particularly that of the surgeon general of the United States army. This, he said, it without an equal in the world, and it is always a pleasure to the humblest practitioner. The remainder of the paper dealt specifically with the introduction of the modern aids to surgery, and a strong protest was made against the passage of the Anti-Vivisection bill now pending in congress. This was enthusiastically applauded.

At the conclusion of Dr. Keen's address, the jubilee exercises were begun. The presidents of all the State Medical societies and the presidents of the board of medical examiners stood in a double line extending from the Green room of the Academy of Music to the center of the stage. Each wore a yellow ribbon. At a given moment, escorted by Dr. John Roberts, of Philadelphia, N. S. Davis, of Illinois, the aged founder of the association, walked between the two lines to the front of the stage. The delegates, their wives and daughters, rose to their feet and gave the veteran doctor a rousing reception.

SALVATIONIST SENT TO JAIL.

The Army's Doings in a Pennsylvania Town Declared Disorderly.

Phoenixville, June 3--A large crowd was attracted to the office of Justice Howell yesterday to hear the case of William De Garis, commander of the Salvation Army. The accused had refused to obey the orders of the police to cease their meetings and parades, which were alleged to be disorderly in their character, and he was placed under arrest. Some citizens had petitioned the burgess to suppress the meetings. About a dozen witnesses testified at the hearing in behalf of the prosecution that the army was a nuisance and a disturber of the peace of the borough. Some of their horses being frightened and running away; another of the distress the noise of the horns and drums caused the sick and aged.

him. The witnesses were business and professional men, many of them leading citizens. The pastors of the different churches also protested against the noise of the army. The defense offered very little testimony. After the attorneys had made their plea, an effort was made to compromise, but Captain De Garis refused to do it. He would go to jail first. Justice Howell found him guilty and sentenced him to pay a fine of $5 and all costs in the case or be imprisoned for fifteen days. Captain De Garis refused to pay, and was turned over to an officer to be taken to the county jail at West Chester.

Men's Suits. Prices Almost Cut in Two. $6.98, $8.97, $9.98. Thus far this season has been one of backwardness. The cool weather has affected the clothing trade all over the country, and Summer Suits that should have long since found their way to wearers, are still on the counters. However, we can't complain, for we have suffered less than many others. But we have too much stock--and there is too little time left to risk selling at a profit. This is the result: We have taken some eight or nine hundred Suits--the very cream of the stock--the newest, noblest patterns, and cut off every cent of profit, and now hand them to you at the same prices the manufacturers charged us. You will find them on the two front tables, divided into three lots at these low prices: $6.98, $8.97, $9.98. A Glance at the window facing Lackawanna avenue will bring before you more forcibly the magnitude of the values that we are offering. There is no other time--no other place--like now--at Samters, to buy high cost, ready-to-wear clothing, at a mere shadow of the customary cost. SAMTER BROS. CLOTHIERS, HATTERS, FURNISHERS.
