

West Side and City Suburban

TIN WEDDING CELEBRATION.

Observed at Residence of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Jones. To say that Patrolman and Mrs. Thomas W. Jones, of 217 North Summer avenue, were surprised last night in putting it mildly, Mr. Jones is on duty on the West Side and was quietly spending the evening at home when in a company of friends and despoiling several handsome gifts in the parlor, made themselves at home. The occasion of this surprise was the celebration of the happy termination of the first ten years of Mr. and Mrs. Jones' wedded life.

This period is known in wedding anniversary affairs as the "tin" anniversary, but there were no tin articles apparent. Among the many choice presents was a beautiful cherry centre table and a handsome jardiniere and stand.

After the surprise was over and congratulations offered to Mr. and Mrs. Jones, the evening was delightfully spent in conversation and impromptu diversions. Master Clarence Phillips, Benjamin Phillips and William Gifford furnished music with piano, cornet and autoharp. William Griffiths sang several selections. At a seasonable hour light refreshments were served.

Those in attendance at this pleasant affair were: Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Layshon, Mr. and Mrs. John Loucks, Mr. and Mrs. George Eastery, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Bruning, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. George Fields, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Layshon, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Bamford, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. James Layshon, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Moore, Mr. and Mrs. William Parsons, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph B. Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. Williams Dawkins, Mrs. George T. Griffiths, Mrs. Ann Layshon, Mrs. Mary Pittchard, Mrs. Gifford, Mrs. Hezekiah Peters and Mrs. William Watkins. The Misses Lizzie Stetter, Hattie Brown, and William Gifford, William V. Griffiths, Jr., Clarence Phillips, P. W. Tague, Reesa Pritchard.

REPUBLICAN CLUB MEETS.

The Bellevue Republican club held an interesting meeting in Jones' hall, Bellevue, last evening and after the regular business was over a social time was had. There were about fifty members and friends in attendance and they heartily enjoyed the impromptu exercises. George Roemer, superintendent of the Hillside Home, was the principal speaker and his remarks were well received.

BRAKEMAN INJURED.

Russell Schumard, of Washburn street, was badly injured yesterday morning by having a rail fall upon his foot at the instep. The injured man is a brakeman on one of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western milk trains and was injured while performing his duties. He is resting quite easily at his home, but will be prevented from working for several weeks.

POLICE COURT.

James Roberts, of Bangor, Pa., came to this city on Monday and looked about for a housekeeper to accompany him back home. Early yesterday morning he was picked up, together with the person of his choice, by Lieutenant Williams and Patrolman Hart, and taken to the West Side station house. The woman had taken him into a vacant lot on Ninth street and was deliberately robbing him when the police came upon them. The woman was Maggie O'Rourke. The alderman fined them each five dollars for drunkenness and disorderly conduct. The fines were paid.

FIRST BUSINESS MEETING.

The Electric City Wheelmen held their first business meeting since organization in their new club house last evening. Fifteen new members were proposed and two honorary members taken in. The honorary members were George Benore and Dr. George B. Reynolds. An application for a charter has been made through the law firm of Beers & Grambs. Everything so far as furnishing is concerned will soon be completed and a house-warming will then be held.

PERSONAL MENTION.

PROVIDENCE.

Class 14 of the Providence Presbyterian Sunday school will run their excursion to Lake Ariel on Tuesday, June 22. A full orchestra has been engaged for the occasion. The young men of the class have arranged for numerous attractions during the day, among which will be a ball game in the morning, and boat and bicycle races in the afternoon. Tickets may be had at the low rates of adults, 75c., and children, 45c.

THE FUNERAL OF JOHN SANDS ANDERSON

took place yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home of his brother, W. H. Anderson, of 3026 North Main avenue. The Rev. Mr. Edgar, of the Methodist Episcopal church, preached an impressive and sermonizing funeral service. The coffin was bedecked with choice flowers of which the deceased was a great admirer. The pallbearers were selected from the surveyors corps of the Delaware and Hudson company, of which the deceased was a member. They were: S. F. Silkman, J. H. Thomas, E. W. Scharrer, and Joseph Mulley. Interment was made in the Dunmore cemetery.

Mrs. Michael Anderson of Oak Street

went before Alderman Roberts yesterday and swore out a warrant for the arrest of her husband, whom she alleges, assaulted her. He will be given a hearing today.

Hopkin Alexander leaves this morning for New York from where he will sail on the steamer Lucania for a prolonged visit to the old country. Alderman Roberts made a business trip to Wilkes-Barre yesterday.

David James returned yesterday from a week's visit at Taylor. Monday morning Rev. Emrick Hartinger, of Olyphant, caused a warrant to be issued for the arrest of Samuel Van Wert on a charge of reckless driving. As a result of Van Wert's reckless driving, Rev. Mr. Hartinger says that his carriage was wrecked.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Presbyterian church tended their friends a reception in the parlors of the church last evening. Local instrumental selections were given and during intermission ice cream and cake were served to their guests. The intention of the society is to give a number of such entertainments in the future as a means of creating great interest in the church work.

Thomas Laird, employed as a miner in the Dickson mine, was severely injured yesterday morning by a premature blast. The commencement exercises of the kindergarten were held last evening in the Court Street Methodist Episcopal church. In anticipation of the event a large number of friends and relatives of the pupils attended to witness the progress of the children. Their hopes were exemplified by the good showing the pupils made under the excellent care of their teachers, who were the recipients of many congratulations for the marked impression of the children. The exercises were enhanced by a program of rare excellence, in which the children acquitted themselves in fine style.

Mailcarrier John McDonough

of West Market street, is improving rapidly from his recent illness.

GREEN RIDGE.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Williams, of Jefferson avenue, entertained a few of their friends at a euchre party Monday evening. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Dunn, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dunn, Mr. and Mrs. Wurster, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Alvord and Mr. and Mrs. Johnson.

Chicago Borough Attorney T. J. Duggan is visiting her mother in Taylor. Mr. Frount, of Prompton, is the guest of C. T. Bellamy, of Delaware street. Miss Ethel Jackson, of Penn avenue, is in New York city visiting her grandmother.

Louis Smith, who for some time has kept a bakery on Capoue avenue near Marion street, is moving it to Dunmore, near his residence.

Arch Johnson, accompanied by W. E. Smith, of the South Side, were fishing at Unlondale yesterday.

MINOOKA.

Thomas, the 14-year-old son of Mrs. Michael Walsh, of Gilmore avenue, was seriously injured in the No. 3 shaft of the Greenwood Coal company while at work yesterday afternoon.

The boy was crushed as a door tender and in some unaccountable manner he fell under the moving car. His left leg was badly bruised and lacerated. He was taken to the hospital. Fears are entertained that the member will have to be amputated.

The remains of a 10-year-old daughter of John Wallace was interred in Minooka Catholic cemetery yesterday afternoon. A child of Llewellyn Evans, of Greenwood, was burned in the Forest Home cemetery yesterday.

DUNMORE.

Michael Marlon, of Center street, returned home yesterday from a hard day's work, and having been under the boiling sun all day, he was completely exhausted with the heat and dust. After supper he lay down upon a lounge to rest, falling into a deep sleep. In a short while he was violently disturbed by a loud crash followed by a shower of broken glass. He stood for a few moments completely unnerved, being unable to understand what had taken place. A tour of the premises resulted in the discovery of a broken window pane, through which a large stone had gone, passing a few inches above Mr. Marlon's head. Last night he had Thomas Dougherty, a neighbor of his, arrested for the offence. At the hearing before Squire Cooney, Marlon was given until this evening to furnish more evidence.

Miss Jessie Swartz, of Electric avenue, has returned from a few months' visit with relatives in Talpa, Arizona. Miss Elizabeth Wert will be married to Sudler Hopkins tomorrow evening.

The class of '96 met in No. 1 building last night and completed arrangements for their banquet, which is to be held next Friday evening, June 25. All committees reported progress.

The supper given by Mrs. A. D. Blackington to the congregation of the Presbyterian church last night was a most brilliant social function. The evening's entertainment was in charge of the following ladies: Mrs. A. D. Blackington, Mrs. G. W. B. Allen, Mrs. Henry Beyer, Mrs. Elmer Vickers, Mrs. Joseph Comerstock, Mrs. J. E. Close, Mrs. Lydia Parver, Mrs. Anna Bryden, Mrs. Phoebe Brown, Mrs. Huggitt, Mrs. Charles Farrer, Mrs. John Moffat, Mrs. Martha Chamberlain and Miss Belle Barton. The tables were presided over by the following: Mrs. Charles Farrer, Mrs. Charles A. Barr, Mrs. J. E. Close and Miss Belle Barton. The tables were prettily decorated with roses, peonias and ferns, while large bunches of laurels, daisies, ferns and potted plants adorned the reception room. During the evening solos were rendered by Miss Anna Boyd, Mrs. George Dimmick and A. J. Harber. The young ladies who assisted at the various tables were: The Misses Mabel Christ, Ruth Gibbons, Estle Close, Kate Bryden, Lydia Parver, Anna Bryden, Bessie Bone, Cornelia Galpin, Marion Bryden, Emma Bone, Lucy Decker, Edith Ripley, Edith Wort, Maud Saver, Lottie Ripley, Blanche Bloes, Anna Hilsop, Ida Doty, Lily Wardell, Helen Foster, Mrs. J. E. A. etc. A silver collection was taken up, the proceeds of which were placed toward the Ladies' Home and Foreign Missionary society.

The friends of Charles Griffin, of the Delaware and Hudson company, of Kim Sing, the laundryman, deny that he is the ring leader of a gang of toughs. The truth of the matter is they say that he was led into the trouble by young men many years his senior. His arrest has had the effect of opening his eyes to the error of his way by showing him the gravity of what he thought was mischievous fun.

Michael J. McDonald, the popular mercant on Chestnut street, will be married this evening to Miss Helen McDonald, of Moscow.

The funeral of Mary G. Dandrea, aged 1 year, took place yesterday afternoon from her parents' home on Main street. Interment was made in the St. Mary's Catholic cemetery.

From today, June 16, until Oct. 19, guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Dewey, of Blakely street.

Matthew Gettins, of Franklin street, sustained several body bruises at No. 1 colliery yesterday, where he is employed as a miner.

Miss Lizzie Wilson is ill at her home on Spencer street.

A black steer, having white spot on forehead, also with no horns, wandered into the yard of John Schuler, of Brook street, yesterday afternoon. Owner can have same by applying at above residence.

George Polaski, of Prospect Park, swore out warrants last night for the arrest of Joe Burke, charging him with the larceny of a watch. The case will be heard before Squire Cooney.

A good deal of important business was transacted at the school board meeting last night. Members present were: Wilson, Bronson, Glinley, Swift and Glynne. Mr. Boland asked the board to change the date of the closing of his school. After much discussion the board finally agreed to close all the borough schools upon the same date, June 23. The tax levy was made the same as last year, seventeen mills. Nine mills for tuition; four and one-half for building and three and one-half for redemption of bonds. Glinley was appointed a committee on Nos. 5 and 9 schools; Swift, No. 1 building; Bronson, Nos. 2 and 3; Glynne, Nos. 4 and 8; Murray, Nos. 7 and 8. Tuesday, June 21, was fixed for the annual visit of inspection through the various school buildings. The members will meet at No. 1 building at 9 o'clock. A motion was made and seconded to hold an examination for teachers between July 12 and 15. The following sent in their application for the position of teacher: Mary Early, Nellie Wilson, Edith Masters and Bertha G. Wall. Walter A. Sanford and H. H. Burroughs sent in application for the position of superintendent of schools. Miss Margaret Reardon asked the board for an increase in her salary of $3 per month. The matter was laid over for consideration on Wednesday, June 24, was appointed to view the list of exonerations. The bill of Messrs. Feeney and Williams for $143.75 was ordered paid. A motion was carried to engage Borough Attorney T. J. Duggan to act as legal adviser regarding the issuing of bonds. The board then adjourned to meet Thursday evening, June 24.

SOUTH SIDE.

The Scranton Athletic club's annual excursion to Mountain Park will take place tomorrow. Last night Bauer's band paraded the streets and advertised the excursion.

Adam, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Burch, of 621 Orchard street, died Sunday. The funeral was held yesterday.

Nancy's hall has been renovated.

Among the improvements is a new stage. St. Mary's parochial school closes June 25. The annual school entertain-

INTENSE SUFFERING

From Dyspepsia and Stomach Trouble. Instantly Relieved and Permanently Cured by Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. A New Discovery, but Not a Patent Medicine.

Dr. Redwell relates an interesting account of what he considers a remarkable cure of acute stomach trouble and chronic dyspepsia by the use of the new discovery, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

He says: "The patient was a man who had suffered to my knowledge for years with dyspepsia. Everything he ate seemed to sour and create acid and gases in the stomach, he had pains like rheumatism in the back, shoulder blades and limbs, fullness and distress after eating, poor appetite and loss of flesh; the face was yellow, his eyes were watery and sleepless at night."

I gave him powerful nerve tonics and blood remedies, but to no purpose. As an experiment, I finally bought a fifty-cent package of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at a drug store and gave them to him. Almost immediate relief was given and after he had used four boxes he was to all appearances fully cured.

There was more acidity or sour watery risings, no bloating after meals, the appetite was vigorous and he gained between 10 and 12 pounds in weight of solid, healthy flesh.

Although Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are advertised and sold in drug stores yet I consider them a most valuable addition to any physician's line of remedies, as they are perfectly harmless and can be given to children or invalids or in any case where the stomach is suffering from acidity, being harmless and containing nothing but vegetable and fruit essences, pure pepsin and Golden Seal.

Without any question, they are the safest, most effective cure for indigestion, biliousness, constipation and all derangements of the stomach however slight or severe.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are made by the Stuart Co. of Marshall, Mich., and sold by druggists everywhere at fifty cents per package.

Little book on stomach diseases mailed free, address Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.

ment will be held on the evenings of June 29 and 30 in St. Mary's hall. Rev. T. Farr and P. H. Harnetrick, of the Redemptionist and Miss Bezzie Conroy will be married next Tuesday.

Patrolman Haggerty, of Fig street, on his way to the office, was arrested by M. J. Gallagher, of Ohio, has returned home after a visit with M. P. Judge, of Cedar avenue.

There will be an entertainment in Callery's hall, June 21, for the benefit of James Kelly.

QUEEN ESTHER'S ROCK.

Interesting Exercises at the Historic Spot in Wyoming. From the Pittston Gazette.

Queen Esther's Rock, the historic spot at Wyoming, recently passed into the hands of the Wyoming Valley chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, of Wilkes-Barre. A neat iron fence has been built around the rock and a bronze tablet, suitably inscribed, erected. Yesterday—Flag day—the chapter took formal possession of the historic spot, with appropriate exercises.

The exercises were conducted beneath a spreading oak. The officers and invited guests occupied a platform and read the address of the Daughters of the American Revolution and members of the patriotic societies, the Wyoming Historical society and the Wyoming Commemorative association. Alexander's band played patriotic airs.

The opening prayer was made by Rev. H. W. Welles, D. D., Colonel G. M. Reynolds presented the deed of the monument lot, which cost $87, minus the coal. It is in the name of Madame Katherine Searle McCartney, regent. In trust for the Wyoming Valley chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution. The address was by Mrs. Catherine S. McCartney, who, after devoting some attention to the adoption of the stars and stripes, commemorated on this occasion, gave an account of the rock, its tragic history and the evidence for believing that this is the identical boulder where the Indian fury performed her work of desperate revenge. C. I. A. Chapman also made a brief address. The statement of Elisha Harding, reciting the drawing up of the prisoners round the rock for torture, in accordance with Indian custom, was read by Rev. H. E. Hayden, of the Sons of the Revolution.

Found in the Cellar.

A telephone message reached police headquarters at 12:30 o'clock this morning with the information that a man was concealed in the cellar of Mrs. W. B. Duggan's residence on Gibson street, near St. Mary's church, in the city. The man was taken out by Patrolman Rodham and quietly entered the basement. Here they found James Hassett, a young man, and arrested him.

STOPPING POLYGAMY.

Indians Must Be Content with One Wife Apiece. Perty, Okla., June 15.—The Cheyenne and Arapahoe Indians are very much excited over the new law which goes into effect on July 1, relating to polygamy. After that time the Indians who have more than one wife will have to choose between the two, three, or five wives, as the case may be, and take only one of the wives with them when they go back to their relatives.

The excitement among the squaws, who have become enlightened as to their situation, is great. Every squaw who wants to remain with her husband is doing her best to please him, so that she may be the lucky wife. There are forty of these polygamists, and in all they have over 100 squaws.

Rheumatism Cured in 24 Hours.

T. J. Blackmore, of Haller & Blackmore, Pittsburgh, Pa., says: "A short time since I procured a bottle of 'MYSTIC CURE'. It got me out of the house in twenty-four hours. I took to my bed with rheumatism nine months ago and the 'MYSTIC CURE' is the only medicine that did me any good. I had five of the best physicians in the city, but I received very little relief from them. I know the 'MYSTIC CURE' to be what it is represented and take pleasure in recommending it to other poor sufferers. Sold by Carl Lorenz, druggist, 415 Lackawanna ave., Scranton."
