BOY KICKED BY A HORSE.

Lip of Little Phillips Crutenden Was Badly Split.

Phillips Crutenden, only three and a half years old, and the only son of Professor and Mrs. E. A. Crutenden, of 1122 Washburn street. Last evening the little fellow met with an accident which easily could have resulted in death.

He and his mamma had been driving during the afternoon with Miss Jennie Howell, of Scranton street, and had accompanied Miss Howell home. Shortly after tea Phillips wandered out of the house and going into the barn was kicked by one of the horses. The little fellow said he only wanted to pet the horse. He was taken across the street to Dr. Heerman's and it was found that he only suffered a split upper lip and the resulting shock. The lip was sewn up, requiring five stitches.

ENJOYABLE EVENING.

Hyde Park lodge, No. 339, Free and Accepted Masons, enlivened the regular business by having a short programme of exercises last evening. The regular business was made as short as possible and then the large number of Masons present enjoyed the interesting lecture upon "South Africa" made by Rev. James Hughes, of Kintner, S. A. The reverend gentleman is a mark master at his home and being thoroughly in touch with affairs gives a very entertaining lecture. The Glee club rendered several selections and ex-Sheriff A. B. Stevens also spoke. The other speakers, Rev. Thomas De Gruchy and District Deputy Thomas Wells were unavoidably absent. Several visiting brethren made some short remarks.

IS NO LONGER PASTOR.

The Plymouth Congregational church is now without a pastor. The connection of Rev. Thomas Bell with the church as pastor ceased Sunday. The Rev. Mr. Bell has held this charge for over two years and has served his flock capably and faithfully. As to who his successor will be is not yet known. Up to the present time Rev. Mr. Bell has not made any statements as to what pastorate he will accept now that he has resigned from this one. He has, however, stated to the Tribune reporter that he has several invitations to those from and it is known already that he has refused the pastorate of a church at Summit Hill, Pa.

The members of Keystone lodge, No. 37, Loyal Knights of America, will attend a district meeting of the order to be held at Olyphant on Thursday evening. The meeting is held to consider vital questions to be brought before the grand lodge meeting in September. A special car has been chartered for the occasion.

St. Brendan council, Young Men's Institute, threw open their cosy council room last evening in honor of the presence of many of their lady friends. Music, singing, recitations and other pleasant diversions helped to spend the evening. Refreshments were served and at an early hour the young ladies departed heartily agreeing that St. Brendan "boys" are good entertainers.

Dr. E. Y. Harrison, Dentist, Mears Hall, 113 S. Main avenue.

Edward Stock, of Tenth street, has announced himself a candidate for the prothonotaryship.

The young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard McHale, of Price street, was bitten by a dog Sunday afternoon, while playing near her home. The dog has disappeared. Dr. F. C. Hall treated the child's wounds which are not serious.

Verna, the infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Price, of Snyder avenue, was buried yesterday afternoon from the parental home. Interment was made at the Washburn street cemetery.

Another novelty has appeared upon the West Side cars. Car No. 134 had a new headlight attached to both platforms last evening. The frame of the light sets into the dashboard about eight inches above the floor level. The light is furnished by a sixteen-candle power incandescent and is much more brilliant than the ordinary oil headlight. This is its first trial and has worked splendidly.

OBITUARY.

The sad news was received here today of the death at Atlantic City, this morning of Richard Lawrence Brenton, son of Frank and Elizabeth Brenton. Lawrence went to the sea shore some two weeks ago, in the hope of improving his health. At first it was thought that his illness was due to a cold, but his physicians decided that the trouble was nervous prostration. Brain fever finally resulted, and from Monday last he was unconscious. Mrs. Brenton was with him during his illness. His father was apprised of the alarming turn in his sickness last week and hastened to Atlantic City to do all that loving hands and the best medical skill could do in vain. Lawrence was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church and was greatly beloved by all who knew him. He was born and reared in Pittston, but for the past six years was a resident of the city of Philadelphia. He was a bookkeeper with the wholesale flour house of C. P. Matthews, Sons & Co., at Scranton. He had recently taken up outside work for the firm, thinking it would agree with him better. His untimely death, just as he was entering upon a promising manhood, is a great affliction to his family, and they have the sincerest sympathy of the community in their deep affliction. The remains were brought home this afternoon, and will be held here at the home, 118 Parke street, West Pittston, Wednesday afternoon at 2:30.

Chester R. Patterson, a well known architect of Pittston, died at his home at 1 o'clock Sunday morning of stomach and liver trouble, aged 64 years. He is survived by his wife and son, Edward B., one brother, J. E. Patterson, of Wilkes-Barre, and one sister, Mrs. E. B. Patterson, of Newark Valley. The deceased was one of Pittston's best known residents. He was a man of active, practical and prominent local affairs, commercial and religious. He was born in New York, in 1833, and for thirty years he has been a resident of this city. Upon his arrival there the superintendency of J. E. Patterson & Co.'s planing mill. This position he filled until two years ago, when he embarked in the architectural business with his son, Ed. E. Patterson. The funeral will be held at 2 o'clock at the home on Parsonage street, Pittston, the services to be conducted by Rev. J. Bradshaw. At 1:52 the remains will be taken to Newark Valley, N. Y., for interment.

Mrs. Mary Smith, of Bynon street, died early Sunday morning. She was a life long resident of this city and is survived by her husband. She was well known, and is 28 years of age. The funeral services will be held at the late residence this afternoon at 2 p. m. Interment will be made in the Washburn street cemetery.

DISPUTE OVER EXTRA WORK.

S. N. Callender Refuses to Pay Bill Presented by Charles Sivius.

An action of Charles Sivius against S. N. Callender to recover $466 was heard before Arbitrators C. A. Battenberg, Horace E. Hand and George E. Fryer yesterday. Attorneys C. Comings and C. Reynolds Bedford appeared for the plaintiff and Attorney W. S. Diehl for the defendant.

Mr. Sivius erected a house on Quincy avenue in this city for Mr. Callender and claims $466 for extra work. Mr. Callender disputes the correctness of the bill on the ground that some of the alleged extras were not extra and that much of the work was so improperly done that it will have to be torn out. All of the testimony was not heard yesterday and the arbitrators adjourned to meet Saturday morning at 10 o'clock.
