SOFT COAL MINERS STILL DETERMINED

Will Not Go Back on the Terms Offered.

THE ACTION OF COL. REND'S MEN

Will Accept No Rate Except 69 Cents and Will Not Work for That Price Unless All Other Mines Do the Same --- Excitement at Chestnut Ridge Mine.

back at the terms offered by him yesterday. The committee appointed to present this ultimatum to the men reported today that meetings were held last night and it was decided to accept no rate except 69 cents and not their committee were unanimous in work on any other basis is useless.

Nothing has yet been received here from Columbus and both operators and miners are at sea. There seems to be great doubt of settlement on account of the stand by the miners' officials. The operators say they will not pay the 65 cent rate and will go ahead with their arrangements to start the mines with new men.

excitement was caused here yesterday from the foot board of a street car by the report that Poles employed to fill the striking miners' places at the juries consisting of a fractured skull Chestnut Eidge mine were being held bad brulses and several deep cuts. He there against their will and were compelled to work at the point of a rifle and were threatened with death if they priempted to leave. One of the Poles managed to clude the vigilance of the guards, and tells a tale that is causing great deal of indignation among the strikers, among other things saying turning that the accident occurred. that up to the time of his escape yesterday he had received nothing to eat but one slice of bread. He was taken in charge by the strikers who took him to Mercer today and entered proceedings against the manager of the mine. Strikers numbering between 200 and 400, and headed by the Golden Eagle band, last night marched to the Chestnut Ridge mine and made a demonstration,

Another march is billed for tonight, Dubois, Sept. 3 .- The striking miners' meeting here today was uneventful and for one day neither operators nor miners have made any important movement. Beech Tree, the only mine of the Jefferson and Clearfield company that is working, will not be disturbed by the strikers. It is said to be well worked out and only about twenty cars per day are shipped from that mine.
