SECOND QUARTERLY CONFERENCE.

Resolutions of Condolence Adopted on Death of J. Plummer Acker.

The second quarterly conference of the Wyoming conference district was held at the Simpson Methodist church last evening. Rev. J. G. Eckman, presiding elder, presided. Routine affairs were discussed and resolutions of condolence in memory of the late J. Plummer Acker were presented and adopted. The resolutions had been previously drawn up by a committee selected for that purpose by the church officials. The resolutions are as follows:

Whereas, It has pleased Almighty God in His wise providence to take from us our beloved brother, J. Plummer Acker, who for fourteen years has been a member of our church, and during the past eight years a member of the official board, in the capacity of trustee, and as we have valued his services highly, and respected his Christian manhood; therefore be it Resolved, That we, the official board of the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church, do express to the bereaved wife and fatherless children our most sincere and heartfelt sympathy, commending them to the grace of our heavenly father, whose promise is "never to leave us nor forsake us." That to the mother, so long associated with our church, and to the brothers and sisters of our deceased brother, our assurance of prayerful helplessness, praying that He who can truly comfort, may be their solace in this their time of sorrow.

Resolved, That as our church having sustained so severe a loss, feeling intensely the force of this bereavement, we, the officers thereof, obligate ourselves to renewed energy, consecrated zeal and prayer that our loss may be raised up to take, as far as possible, the place left vacant by the death of our dear brother.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be presented to Sister Acker, be published in the press, and that this our present action be spread upon the minutes of the board.

(Signed) W. W. Davis, George Saxe, H. D. Jones, J. F. Handolph, John Fern, committee.

BURIAL OF WILLIAM B. STEVENS.

The funeral of the late William B. Stevens occurred from the residence, 504 South Main avenue yesterday afternoon. There was a large attendance of friends who gathered at the home to pay this last sad tribute of respect. The floral offerings were profuse and beautiful. Rev. David Jones, pastor of the First Welsh Congregational church, officiated and preached an eloquent funeral sermon. At the close of the services the remains were viewed and were then borne to the Taylor cemetery where interment was made. The funeral cortege was very large. The pallbearers were: Thomas Williams, Thomas Jeffreys, John Evans and John Edwards.

HELD IN HEAVY RAIL.

The hearing of the case of John Greshok against Mike Kutchka took place before Alderman Kelly last evening. During the hearing Kutchka, the prosecutor, signified his desire to have his wound healed with a salve of gold. He wanted too much and the result was that Greshok was held in bail in the sum of $500 on the charge of feloniously wounding, and $300 on the charge of assault and battery. The affray took place near the Brisban patch on Saturday, an account of which appeared in yesterday's issue of this paper. Kutchka was also held in $100 bail to guarantee his appearance at the higher court.

BLIND POETESS ENTERTAINS.

The Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor of the Washburn Street Presbyterian church provided a very fine entertainment for those who attended the exercises at the church last evening. The lecture room proved inadequate and the main auditorium was thrown open to seat the large and select audience. Rev. J. P. Moffatt, pastor of the church, presided. Solos were rendered by Miss Smith and A. J. Harber. The Misses Mabel Jayne and Edith Morgans gave a duet. The choir rendered several pleasing selections, and the remainder of the exercises were given by Miss Fanny Crosby, the blind poetess and hymn writer. Her selections were diverse in character and proved very pleasing. Miss Edith Swingle, organist, acted as accompanist.

THE FRONT WHEEL BLOCKED.

Bicyclist Knapp Was Thrown by the Fall of a Lamp.
James C. Knapp, of 523 East Market Street, while riding his bicycle near Tohyanna Sunday met with an accident in a peculiar way. Mr. Knapp was riding down a steep hill when the lamp of his bicycle fell to the end of the forks and blocked the front wheel. The rider was thrown over the handle bars, landing upon the hard road with terrific force. Mr. Knapp's chin was cut to the bone, four stitches being required to close the wound. He reached Scranton Sunday night by the milk train.
