NEW STORE BUILDING.

McCann's New Store on North Main Avenue Will Cost $23,000—Nearly Ready for Occupancy.

The handsome three-story building being erected on North Main avenue, near the head of West Linden street, is fast nearing completion. Its owner, P. J. McCann, who is personally supervising the construction, intends using the entire building for a department store. He will remove his business from its present location on West Linden street to the new building during the latter part of November.

The stone and brick work was done by Contractor John Calligan; the woodwork, etc., is being done by T. W. Mansfield; the plumbing by James B. Doyle & Co., and the steam fitting by Thomas F. Mullen.

The building has an interior limestone front. The first floor show windows are unique in design and construction. The entrances are two in number and the central space is allotted entirely to one large show space. There are also lateral show windows and a smaller central show window placed between the two doors. This entrance will be tiled in mosaic style.

The first floor will be for the retail sales department, on the left to the rear, the general offices will be located and immediately behind these is the shipping place and elevator shaft. All floors will be reached by the elevator or ample stairways. The upper floors will be used for storing and wholesale purposes. A commodious basement extends the full depth of the building, 150 feet.

The total cost of the building will be about $23,000. One iron alone will be $2,000, this being the plate glass used for the front windows on all floors and furnished by J. B. Woolsey & Son.

BUNCOERS ABOARD: BEWARE!

It is the trick of the Bryanized Democracy, this fall to make false charges against Republican methods, raise a big dust, hire Republican malcontents to organize Republican bolts and then coax individual Republicans to desert their party on the representation that "party ties needn't count for anything in an off year." By this trick, if it shall work, the Bryanites will get a foothold for a hopeful fight in national campaigns, and make just so much more trouble for McKinley, the Republican congress and the cause of sound money.

$1,000 FOR JIM JUDGE.

Purse Offered for Him and Charlie McKeever.

The Greenpoint Sporting club, of Brooklyn, of which Jack Skelly is manager, has offered a purse of $1,000 for a 20-round boxing contest between Jim Judge and Charlie McKeever, of Philadelphia. Judge has accepted the preliminary terms. The club is waiting to hear from McKeever.

By the way, Skelly is offering a twenty-dollar gold piece as a prize for a name for his new club. His Scranton friends are not barred out. The proposition is explained as follows in the New York Evening Journal:

Jack Skelly makes an offer which, at least, has the character of novelty. He wants a striking and unique name for his A. C., and admits his inability to choose it to his own satisfaction, so he offers a $20 gold piece to the man who will send him the most fitting and original title and mystery. A sporting resort above all else, and those who work their brains in counting up the name, must bear this in mind."
