ROSSER-MORGANS NUPTIALS.

Ceremony Performed at the Residence on Washburn Street.

The wedding of Miss Elizabeth B. Rosser, daughter of Mrs. Thomas B. Williams, of 1528 Washburn street, to William J. Morgans took place last evening at the Jackson Street church. Shortly after 8 o'clock, as the strains of the march from Lohengrin was being executed by Miss Elizabeth J. Owens, the bridal party proceeded down the aisle and were met at the altar railing by Rev. Thomas De Gruchy, the pastor, and the groom.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. De Gruchy in the manner prescribed by the Baptist church. The bride was given away by her father. During the ceremony Miss Owens played the intermezzo from the Cavallera Rusticana. The bride was costumed in a neat fitting gown of cream silk, with pearl trimmings. The bridesmaid was Miss Mary Williams, her sister, and who wore a pretty costume of white organdie over cream silk and carried roses. Miss Elizabeth May Harris acted as flower-girl and looked charming in a gown of white silk. Philip Morgan, a brother of the groom, was best man.

Immediately after the ceremony the bridal party repaired to the newly-furnished residence at 126 South Rebecca avenue, where Mr. and Mrs. Morgans will reside. A bountiful repast was served to the immediate relatives and friends of the contracting parties and congratulations received. Mrs. Morgans is very favorably known on this side, having lived here all her life. Mr. Morgans is a trusted employe of Protheroe & Co., furniture dealers, on Washington avenue. The gentlemen who acted as ushers were H. Reese Griffiths, W. H. Morgan, Peter Lewis, W. G. Thomas, W. J. Thomas, George Nichols, Charles Holley, Edward Collins.

MISCHIEVOUS BOYS.
The extent of the mischief of some boys seems too unlimited. For some time past several boys whose ages range from 10 to 15 years, have perpetrated all sorts of mischief about the premises of David Thomas, who keeps a small grocery store on Archibald street. On a recent evening, however, the boys carried their pranks to a dangerous point. While Mr. Thomas was stabling his horse in the barn for the night he was surprised, and narrowly escaped being struck, by a shower of stones which were hurled through the open door. Mr. Thomas picked up several of the missiles, each of which was as large as a man's hand, and is keeping them as mementoes. Had Mr. Thomas, who is well on in years, been struck, serious results might easily have resulted. Some of the boys are known to Mr. Thomas and if their seemingly malicious mischief does not cease, legal steps will be taken.

ENTERTAINMENT AND SOCIAL.

By Young People of the German Presbyterian Church.

A very successful entertainment and social was held at the Chestnut Street German Presbyterian church last evening. The programme consisted of recitations by Misses Lena Schumann, Katie Huffer, Louise Hirschell, Jennie V. Lewis, Nettie Reidenand and Kate Steinicke; vocal selections by Miss Rhoda Clarke and selections by the Village quartette. A series of tableaux were given by ten young lady members of the society. Whelan, rector, and the beautiful marriage ceremony was performed. The bride, prettily gowned in a suit of changeable brown, trimmed with lace, was attended by Miss Margaret Gallagher, similarly attired. Both ladies wore Gainsborough hats. Thomas Grace, of Pittston, acted as best man. They left the church while a march from Lohengrin was being played and repaired to the residence of Mr. and Mrs. P. Gallagher, of Jackson street, when a post-nuptial repast was served. Only the immediate relatives of the contracting parties were present. Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy departed on their wedding tour via the 12:55 Delaware, Lackawanna and Western train. They will visit New York city, Philadelphia and Washington before their return will be at home on Butler street, Pittston. Mrs. Kennedy is well known here, having been a teacher at Public school No. 16 for several years. Mr. Kennedy is a progressive citizen and holds the position of foreman at the Pittston stove works. BUNCOERS ABROAD: BEWARE!

It is the trick of the Bryanized Democracy this fall to make false charges against Republican methods, raise a big dust, hire Republican malcontents to organize Republican bolts and then encourage individual Republicans to desert their party on the representation that "party ties needn't count for anything in an off year." By this trick, if it shall work, the Bryanites will get a foothold for a hopeful fight in national campaigns, and make just so much more trouble for McKinley, the Republican congress and the cause of sound money.

You now see through this trick. Are you going to let it work?

GLIB SOLICITORS ARRESTED.

Were Taken Into Custody at Wilkes-Barre Yesterday.

D. J. Stead and H. McMullen were arrested in Wilkes-Barre yesterday and held under $1,000 bail each on charges of swindling Scranton and Wilkes-Barre merchants. The arrests were directed by the police of this city. The scheme of the two men had the virtue of novelty. In the city several weeks ago they visited leading business men in the guise of agents for the local labor union, which they said were making preparations for a great state convention of the organization, to be held in this city in the near future. All they wanted of the business men was to purchase a space "ad" in the official programme. They had with them a bogus blank pamphlet, inscribed in certain places which sold for certain prices. The scheme worked most successfully.

The police say that the two secured about $100 in this city in a few days. The local unions heard of the fake, and twice "warnings" were printed in the papers.

The arrest at Wilkes-Barre was affected through descriptions given by the local police. Down there the fakirs heralded a supposed state convention of the Brotherhood of Engineers. Both men are middle aged. They were placed in the Luzerne county jail in default of bail.

The New York Journal of September 30, under the caption of "Tea Drinkers' Health in Peril" had an article which said that the impure product of Japan had been smuggled into this country, and although the customs officials at San Francisco had turned it back it had reached the East in bond. The dispatch in question was dated San Francisco, September 29, and was as follows:

"The first public announcement of what promises to be a big scandal, in which the health of tea drinkers in the United States is jeopardized, was made today. A meeting of leading tea merchants of San Francisco was held in the Appraiser's building to discuss the action of the board of general appraisers in New York in reversing a decision of the tea inspector at this port. On August 6 the steamer Belgic brought in a cargo of tea which C. Toohy, the inspector here, adjudged was unfit for human use, besides being below the government standard on account of the excessive coloring matter and greasy scum. Therefore he refused it admittance. An appeal was taken to the board in New York and his decision overruled.
