

SOME EVENTS OF THE QUAKER CITY

The Season of Grand Opera Opens at the Academy.

DISMAL "FAUST" THE ATTRACTION.

Madame Melba Appears as Marguerite—The Performance Arouses Great Enthusiasm—Knights of Columbus Celebrate With Banquet at the Walton.

Philadelphia, Nov. 29.—The Philadelphia season of grand opera, under the direction of Walter Damrosch and C. A. Ellis, opened most auspiciously tonight at the Academy of Music, the house being packed to the roof. "Faust" was the opera chosen for the opening, and the performance, which aroused much enthusiasm, revealed the fact that the company organized by Messrs. Damrosch and Ellis is a very strong one. Madame Melba was a very strong one. Madame Melba was in fine voice. She was accorded a great reception and was recalled again and again. Melba had the support of three strong new vocalists, in Henri Abos, tenor; M. Bourdoursque, basso, and Mlle. Toronto, who is the leading French tenor of the company, and he won a distinct success as "Faust." He made a fine appearance in the role, displaying a powerful voice of beautiful quality, which he uses with skill.

Bourdoursque, the French basso, was more than satisfactory as Mephistopheles, and Campanari, who was the Valentine, gained great applause by his fine singing. Mlle. Toronto, a debutante, who sang Siebel, has a fine voice and is a handsome young woman. Every box and every seat in the house was filled and the audience was brilliant and distinguished. The chorus was particularly strong, being augmented by some of the best singers employed in the New York season of opera last year. The season is to continue for seven weeks.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS.

The first anniversary of the founding of the Knights of Columbus, in Pennsylvania, was celebrated by a banquet at the Hotel Walton this evening, when several hundred representatives of the order were present from Philadelphia, Chester and Pittsburg. The banquet was given by the Philadelphia, San Domingo, Santa Maria, San Salvador, and Marquette chapters of the order, of Chester, and the Duquesne, of Pittsburg.

Philip J. Markley, of New Britain, Conn., the national advocate of the order, spoke upon "The Knights of Columbus." The other addresses were "The American Catholic Citizen," John J. Delaney, of New York; "Progress of the Order," T. H. Cummings, of Boston; "State of Pennsylvania," A. H. Ried, Pittsburg; "City of Philadelphia," Michael J. Ryan.

FUNDS LACKING.

The State Live Stock Sanitary Board Suspend Operations.

Harrisburg, Nov. 29.—The state live stock sanitary board has suspended operations for want of funds, and the work of stamping out disease among cattle in Pennsylvania has come to a pause. State Treasurer Haywood has notified the board that there is no money available for the purpose, and until cash is forthcoming the act passed by the last legislature to take effect January 1 next will be a dead letter.

It provides the means for the prevention of disease in cattle, and its violation is punishable by fine and imprisonment.

FLAG RAISING.

Speeches Are Made by General Miles and Others.

Philadelphia, Nov. 29.—Major General Miles, commander in chief of the United States army, participated this afternoon in the exercises incident to the presentation of a handsome American flag by the nation's society of the American Institute of Civics to the boys' high school. The ceremonies were held in the presence of about 1,000 students.

Addresses were made by Major Warwick, General Miles, Colonel H. C. Adams, chairman of the committee on patriotic training for the department of New York, G. A. R., and President Thompson, of the high school. The illness of Mrs. Hastings prevented the attendance of the governor.

JUDGE SENTENCES A DOG TO DEATH

Woman Pleaded for Its Life as She Was Childless.

Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 29.—Judge J. D.

LOVE'S FLOWER GARDEN.

In Love's Flower Garden there is the full-blown rose of married happiness and the holy perfume of joyous motherhood for every woman who takes proper care of her health in a womanly way. For the weak, sickly, nervous, dependent woman, who suffers untold misery in silent weakness and disease of the delicate organs concerned in wifehood and motherhood, there are only thorns, and to pierce the perfume of motherhood in the aroma of death.

No woman is fitted for the responsibilities of wifehood and the duties of motherhood who is a sufferer from this way. Every woman may be strong and healthy in a womanly way, if she will. It lies with herself. She needs, in the first place, a little knowledge of the true physiology of women. This she can obtain by securing and reading a copy of Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. It contains 168 pages and over 300 illustrations. It tells all about all the ordinary ills of life, and how to treat them. Several chapters and illustrations are devoted to the physical make-up of women. It tells how to treat all the diseases peculiar to women. It gives the names, addresses, photographs and experiences of hundreds of women who have been snatched from the verge of the grave to live happy, healthy lives by Dr. Pierce's medicine. This book she can obtain free. It used to cost $1.50, and over seven hundred thousand copies were purchased by women at that price. Over a million women now own copies. For a paper-covered copy send at once stamps, to cover cost of mailing only, to World's Dispensary Medical Adviser, 233 N. 2nd St., N. Y. For cloth-binding, send ten cents extra, or 31 one-cent stamps.

Shafer yesterday sentenced to death the pet pup of Mrs. Emil Gabour, of East Pittsburg. Mrs. Gabour, through her lawyer, H. L. Castle, made a plea for the life of the dog on the ground that she is childless and that the dog took the place of a baby in her love.

The animal had torn the clothing of several women, who sued the Gabours for keeping a ferocious dog. Judge Shafer said: "I am of the opinion that the dog ought to be killed. It would not live long anyhow. A child might outlive the woman, but the dog would not."

BEAT A PURE FOOD LAW.

A Conflict of Laws Exercised in the Prisoners' Healt.

Stroudsburg, Pa., Nov. 29.—A second knock-out has been given to the Pure Food State commission of this state. The commission brought suit against Charles Brown and Learn & Wasas for selling impure vitamins. The attorney for the dealers asked that the indictments be quashed, on the grounds that an act of assembly passed in 1897, subsequent to the time of the defendant's arrest, repealed the acts under which they were taken up.

MAN SURVIVES 5560 VOLTS.

His Standing on Glass and Preventing a Circuit Saved Him.

Chester, Pa., Nov. 29.—While fixing an arc light at Twenty-fourth and Crosby streets tonight, John Harrison, an electrician in the employ of the Beacon Electric Light company, received 5,560 volts through a hole in the rubber glove on his left hand, and had burned his finger, elbow and the back of his neck and also scorched his forehead.

POSTAL CLERKS ORGANIZE.

First and Second Class Men Would Better Themselves.

Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 29.—Delegates representing the first and second-class postoffice clerks of the country met here today and formed a permanent organization, with the object in view of bettering their condition. A bill was framed looking to this end, which will be submitted to congress.

TOO OLD TO WORK.

Richard Reddick, Colored, Applies to the Pittsburg Almshouse.

Pittsburg, Nov. 29.—Richard Reddick, colored, who claims to have been born July 5, 1777, near Richmond, Va., applied to the department of charities for admission to the home, stating that he is now too old to work and cannot support himself. He was accompanied by his wife who is 78 years old and his daughter who is also well up in years.

PENNSYLVANIA EARNINGS.

Philadelphia, Nov. 29.—A statement of comparison of earnings and expenses of the Pennsylvania Railroad company for the month of October and ten months of 1897, with the same periods of 1896, follows: Lines directly operated—Gross earnings, $1,000,000; increase, $299,900; net earnings, $811,600; net earnings increase, $118,300. For ten months—Gross earnings increase, $1,127,800; net earnings increase, $1,010,200; net earnings increase, $2,157,700. Lines west of Pittsburg—Gross earnings, $1,000,000; increase, $171,620.58, an increase of $101,101.74 compared with the same period of 1896.

DEATH'S HARVEST.

Collegeville, Pa., Nov. 29.—Rev. Dr. Henry W. Spier, retired professor of church history and homiletics in the theological school of Ursinus college, is dead at the age of 73 years. He was a graduate of Marshall college, Mercersville, Pa., and for some years occupied the pulpit at Waynesboro, Pa. He served as professor at Ursinus from 1870 to 1892, when he resigned.

GOVERNOR'S APPOINTMENT.

Harrisburg, Nov. 29.—J. N. Davidson, of Allegheny, was today appointed by Governor Hastings a trustee of the Home for the Feeble Minded at Polk, Mercer county, Pa., and for some years occupied the pulpit at Waynesboro, Pa. He served as professor at Ursinus from 1870 to 1892, when he resigned.

KILLED BY THE CURS.

Pittsburg, Nov. 29.—Jerry Welsh was instantly killed and August Holman was fatally injured by being struck by a Pittsburg and Lake Erie railroad passenger train near Painter's Mills this morning. Both men were married and had families.

PENNSYLVANIA PENSIONS.

Washington, Nov. 29.—These Pennsylvania pensions have been issued: Original widow, etc., Gweny Davis, Scranton; Constance Ritter, Hawley, Wayne.

It is better to take Hood's Sarsaparilla than to experiment with unknown and untried preparations. We know Hood's Sarsaparilla actually and permanently cures.

THE MYSTERIOUS WOMAN IN BLACK

Miss Lizzie DeKalb Makes Another Confession.

SEEKS TO EXCULPATE HERSELF

Admits That She Was Out Riding on the Evening That Mrs. Kaiser Was Killed—But Denies All Knowledge of the Crime that Was Contemplated.

Norristown, Pa., Nov. 29.—Lizzie DeKalb, the mysterious "woman in black" of the Kaiser murder case, made a statement at the court this morning in the presence of J. P. Hale Jenkins, her counsel; District Attorney Jacob A. Strassburger, Attorney James B. Holland and Chief of Police Rodenbaugh, admitting that she was out riding with James A. Clemens on the night of October 28, 1894, when Mrs. Charles O. Kaiser, Jr., was murdered, but denying that she had any foreknowledge that the crime was to be committed, or that she knew anything whatever about it until the fact of the murder was known to all the world.

The woman's statement will be made public in due course of time. From those who heard it made, however, it has been learned that in it she seeks out to exculpate herself from knowledge of or participation in the murder and that she implicates no one. Her counsel says it is merely a statement of what will be claimed in her defense, and that with it or despite it, he expects to see his client eventually go free.

MEN WANT MORE WAGES.

The Affairs at Hazleton Have Not Been Adjusted Satisfactorily.

Hazleton, Pa., Nov. 29.—At the time of the settlement of the late strike at the Lehigh and Wilkes-Barre Coal company's collieries, on the south side, all contract miners, who had not yet received an advance in wages. The company miners, or those who work by the day, were not classed, neither did they receive a raise.

Mysterious Death.

Phoenixville, Pa., Nov. 29.—William C. Godschall, a well-known citizen, was found in his yard this morning with his back broken. He died without regaining consciousness. Godschall had entered his house about midnight and that was the last known of his movements. The window of his bedroom was open, and the window of the window to his death. He was 38 years of age and married.

Pottstown Dashed With Red Paint.

Pottstown, Pa., Nov. 29.—During the past few nights some party has with a can of paint been painting the town a bright red. Fences, buildings, steps and display windows have been daubed with the paint.

Historical Society Librarian.

Philadelphia, Nov. 29.—Gregory B. Keen, librarian of the University of Pennsylvania, has been appointed librarian of the Historical society of Pennsylvania, to succeed Frederick D. Stone who died last summer.

STORIES ABOUT PEOPLE.

Conflicting Legal Styles.

From the San Francisco Wave. A good anecdote is told of the two celebrated barristers, Balfour and Erskine. Balfour's style was gorgeously verbose, Erskine's, on the contrary, was crisp and vigorous. Coming into court one day Erskine noticed that Balfour's ankle was bandaged.

Pullman's Giant Passenger.

From the Pittsburg Dispatch. There was one story of his career that Mr. Pullman used to tell with manifest delight. One night, going out of Chicago, a long, lean, ugly man, with a wart on his cheek came into the depot. He paid George M. Pullman 25 cents, and half a hour was assigned to him. Then he kicked off his boots which were of surprising length, turned into the berth, and, having an easy conscience, was sleeping like a healthy baby before the car left the depot. Along came another passenger and paid his 30 cents. In two minutes he was back at George Pullman's.

Raising the Wind.

From the Philadelphia Times. The ship had lain becalmed in a tropical sea for three days. Not a breath of air stirred the rickety-like surface of the sea or the limp sails that hung from the yards like limp drapery carved in stone.

FACTORYVILLE.

Tomorrow evening from 5 o'clock to 7:30 the ladies of the Baptist church will serve chicken supper for the small sum of ten cents. However, if any one feels generous to give more it will be thankfully received.

Our genial merchant Fred L. Foster wears a "sonny" smile for the past few days.

Next Sunday at the M. E. Church occurs the third quarterly meeting of this year.

The Women's Christian Temperance Union will hold a dime social next Friday evening at the residence of Mrs. C. H. Mathewson on Main street.

The case in court last week between our townsman Mr. Solomon Turner and Fred Jayne of Trumbull, resulted in a victory for Mr. Turner. The jury brought in a verdict of guilty as indicted against Mr. Jayne.

Mr. David Bidleman is on the street again. He has been confined to the house for several months by illness, but is quite smart now for a man over 80 years of age.

The mail train that has been leaving here at 9:38 in the morning now leaves about 15 minutes earlier.
