

EVENTS OF DAY IN WEST SCRANTON

CELEBRATION AT THE HOME OF ELIAZER D. EVANS.

It Was In Honor of the Rounding Out of Fifteen Years of Service for Uncle Sam in the Postoffice—Manner in Which Hallows'en Was Observed—Deposits by the Children of the Public Schools—Coming Social in First Welsh Congregational Church.

Mailcarrier Eliazor D. Evans, of 28 North Main avenue, is today just fifteen years old in the service of Uncle Sam as a carrier in the Scranton department. His fellow-carriers thought this a fitting excuse to exhibit their esteem for him, so last evening they went to his home while he was absent and upon his return he was completely surprised.

Greetings being done with John H. Phillips in a few happy remarks made known to Mr. Evans the object of their visit, their esteem for him and their wishes for his future happiness. He also referred to the fact that there are only three other carriers and one clerk still in the service here who started about the time Mr. Evans did. These were Carriers Armit Thomas, David H. Jenkins and himself (Mr. Phillips) and Clerk Louis Schantz. Mr. Phillips then introduced Armit Thomas.

In a short address Mr. Thomas, in behalf of his fellow-carriers, presented Mr. Evans with a handsome easy chair as a small testimonial of their regard. Mr. Evans responded in accepting, but speech was difficult owing to his emotion. Mr. Thomas also handed Mr. Evans a half-dozen solid silver spoons, a gift from Postmaster Ezra H. Ripple, who could not be present. Assistant Postmaster Powell sent regrets. Chief Clerk Louis Schantz was called upon and told of the early days of the service, he having been seventeen years in various capacities in this same office. Remarks were also made by Superintendent of Carriers W. D. Roche and E. D. Jones, who is next in point of service to the four above named, also made remarks at this time. During the course of the evening other made short addresses, and solos were sung by P. H. Warren and Elias Williams.

A bountiful repast was served at a seasonable hour. Mrs. Evans being assisted by Mrs. D. B. Thomas, Mrs. W. C. Price, Mrs. Reed Sively, Mrs. P. H. Warren, Mrs. W. C. Brunning, Mrs. John Bradley, Mrs. John Evans and Miss Elizabeth A. Evans.

Bounteous Bargain-Giving in Silks and Black Dress Goods

It is but seldom that bargain giving on such broad-gauged principles as we offer today comes to the women of Scranton in the way of Black and Colored Silks and Black Dress Goods. There's a reason for this. Such goods are not of the general bargain counter order at the Globe Warehouse. In fact, we carry nothing in stock in these departments but the best staple weaves and seasonable novelties expressly designed for middle and high-class buyers. Consequently, no matter how low the price may be, the materials, shadings and styles are the very best the market of today has to offer, while the wealth of choice afforded in our limitless stocks such a special sale as the present a bargain opportunity of such surpassing excellence that shrewd buyers of limited means who feel it their duty to be in keeping with the times in the matter of dress, cannot afford to miss it.

HALLOWEEN AFFAIRS.

The annual Hallows'en celebration did not create much trouble in West Scranton last evening, in fact, but little notice was taken of it. That little was confined to the younger children who dressed themselves in all sorts of nondescript clothing and paraded about.

Of course some doors were banged, some tick-tacks were placed and some gates removed. Others would have been removed had not the owners taken care of them. There were no public affairs of any kind and few private ones. Altogether few annual celebrations of this kind have been so quiet as was last evening's observance of Hallows'en.

Miss Jennie Denike, of 126 North Bromley avenue, entertained a large party of her friends at her home last evening in honor of Hallows'en. Miss Denike arranged her affair after a unique manner. The guests were all in masque, and for several hours the greatest of fun ensued, all being in pantomime. Music was provided for dancing, and Frank Heberling gave several guitar and harmonic selections. At a seasonable hour refreshments were served.

Those present were: The Misses Della Davies, Minnie Champion, Nellie Hornbaker, Minerva Sand, Myrtle Wain, Gorder, Elizabeth Moyle, Agnes Scrin, Villa Knapp, Vera Lewis, Helen Davies, Elizabeth Fenwick, Jennie Woodbaugh, Edith and Emma Kronk; Bert Sherman, V. P. Long, Jack Shoptand, Harry Randolph, Beverly Reynolds, Bert Fern, William Stanton, George Winans, Bert Hamry, Beazell Brown. The members of the I. H. W. club of the Hampton Street Methodist church entertained their friends and patrons at a Hallows'en social held last evening at the residence of Miss Phoebe George, of 124 Luzerne street. Many amusing diversions were provided and refreshments were served.

NEW Y. M. C. A. BUILDING.

Nothing definite yet Done with Reference to It.

H. C. Shaffer, A. W. Dickson and E. L. Fuller, of the executive board of the Young Men's Christian association, met yesterday afternoon to discuss ways and means for getting a start made on the reconstruction of a building. They decided to call a meeting of the directors this evening, but afterwards concluded to have the meeting later in the week.

The sentiment is largely in favor of selling the Wyoming avenue site and selecting a suitable place on Washington avenue. Some months ago Real Estate Agent H. B. Brown was empowered to sell the site, but up to date nothing has come of it. A large amount of money is needed for the building fund. They determined to try and raise $100,000, but have succeeded only half way. Still they hope to have an organized force to accomplish the undertaking.

When they see their way clear to go ahead with rebuilding all architects who desire may send in plans, and the best set will be selected. The work of the association has been very much hampered by not having a building. As yet nothing definite has been done with reference to the Wyoming avenue site.
