DROGGED TO DEATH.

THE "PALE HORSE" AND ITS RIDER.

In the middle ages, men racked their brains to invent barbarous forms of punishment. Just as in Nero's time unhappy Christians were martyred as a public spectacle and the gladiators "butchered to make a Roman holiday" so in those later times of water and fire was inflicted to amuse the public, and the cruelty of the punishment often added to the pleasure of the populace. To see a man tied to the streaming tail of some untrained horse and dragged to death by the wild creature, was a rare spectacle, and was sure to draw a good turn-out and increase the popularity of the governing power which provided such cheap and harmless (to amusements for the people, can we imagine any man voluntarily submitting himself to be tied to the tail of a horse and kicked to death? Such a thing would be incredible. And yet men are standing still, unresisting, while every day time is binding them faster and faster to that "pale horse" whose rider is Death. This is the earliest thing we are taught as children, that this mightiest thing is only minute things in aggregation and combination; that "GREAT EFFORTS SPRING FROM SMALLEST CAUSES."

We sing it in the song which tells how the ocean is made up of water drops, and the Earth of sand grains. We are told of the century-living oak, springing from an acorn which a bird might destroy, and being built into ships that the wind and waves buffet in vain. We are taught that it is "the little foxes that spoil the grapes." Yet all that enchaining us apparently unimpressed with the incalculable importance of attending to the beginning of things, of that little "pale horse" which gnaw and nibble and destroy. Who cares anything about a cold? Who allows a cough to interfere with arrangements for business or pleasure? Yet that cold or cough is a seed of disease and in its final flowering often shows the best state of general consumption. Of all people who die daily, one-sixth are victims of consumption. And of that great army of victims, it is probable that hardly one need have perished had the disease been taken in time. But the victims stood still and let themselves be bound day by day a little firmer to this cruel disease, and when they awoke to their danger there was no help for them. Yet

THERE IS HELP!

For coughs however old and obstinate, for bronchitis, weak lungs, bleeding lungs, and similar ailments which if neglected, or improperly treated lead up to consumption.

It was twelve years ago that I derived so much help from Dr. Pierce's medicine," writes Mrs. Olive Stevens, of North Harvey Cook Co., Ill. "I was afflicted with a scrofulous tumor in the left side of my neck. It was fully as large as a large sized walnut, and so painful that I could not get any sleep at night. I doctored with several physicians but received no benefit. The tumor grew rapidly and became inflamed and my general health became impaired.

"I grew very weak. One physician said I would die in consumption in a very short time. Our home physician said I would have to have the tumor removed, but afterwards told my husband that I had better trouble and he would not dare to give me chloroform or ether, so he told me to get some Dr. Pierce's medicine. It did me no good. I went to Michigan, and there three months, and while there took Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and used Lingo's Solution, as directed in your pamphlet. While away I gained sixteen pounds. The tumor is now smaller and less painful, and today there is not a sign of it. I feel confident that I shall never be troubled with it again. We think there is no medicine like Dr. R. V. Pierce's and we have recommended it to a great many who have taken it with very favorable results.

"The 'Golden Medical Discovery' cured my neck entirely. There are thousands of men and women alive today and in the full enjoyment of perfect health, who owe their very life to Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. After trying all available medicines, being losing all hope of recovering themselves, they have begun the use of "Golden Medical Discovery" and persisted in it until a perfect cure was effected.

"I will write you what Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has done for me," says George H. Belcher, Esq., of Dorton, Pike Co., Ky. "Thirteen years ago I was wounded by a ball passing through my lung. I have had a bad cough almost ever since with shortness of breath, and it was very easy to take cold; the slightest change of weather would cause the cold to be so bad that I would have to sit up in bed all night. Could not run or sleep at times; was all run down; could not work at all. A few months ago I began using Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Have not used more than two bottles and now can eat, sleep and work and feel like a new man. I cannot find words to sufficiently recommend Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, or tell the good it has done me."

"My wife had hemorrhage of the lungs," writes W. A. Sanders, Esq., of Horn, Mason Co., W. Va. "She had ten hemorrhages, and the people all around here said she would never be well again. But she began to take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and she soon began to gain strength and health. After taking ten bottles she was entirely well. Should you think this will do you any good to publish, just use it, and if any one disputes the merits of this almost omnipotent medicine, they may consult self-addressed envelopes with stamps, and I will answer, the same as written in this letter."

THERE IS NO DISPUTING THESE CURES.

They are facts. They are not unauthentic cases. They are only specimens of thousands of similar cures. It is not believed that consumption in its ultimate stage is curable. But the greatest part of the consumption is to give up, to submit passively, because the local physician has said—"nothing more can be done for you." It is just such cases as these which have been cured by "Golden Medical Discovery." Were they cases of consumption? We know only what is said of them. The local physicians said it was consumption. There was weakness, emaciation, hemorrhage, night-sweats, cough. The doctors said "Nothing more can be done. It is a hopeless case." And after this passing sentence on the victim, somebody suggested Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and the "incurable" case was "cured."

The action of the "Discovery" is entirely philosophic. Life begins and ends with the blood. The independent life of the child begins with the first heart beat. When the "golden host is broken" life is ended. The difference between health and disease may be stated as the difference between poor blood and pure blood. It is the blood which gives strength to the vital organs. When the blood grows weak the body must grow weak with it. Weak lungs mean inevitably weak blood; weak in quality, weak in quantity.

Sick people are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter, absolutely free of charge. Every letter is read in private, answered in private and its contents guarded as a sacred confidence. No third party need know of the nature of the correspondence as all answers are sent in plain envelopes, closely sealed and without printing or other advertising upon them. Dr. Pierce has nearly a score of skilled specialists in chronic diseases to assist him in his practice. Write without fear and without fee to Dr. R. V. Pierce, chief consulting physician for the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y. Substitutes are dangerous. When a substitute is offered in place of Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, remember that if it were "just as good" as Dr. Pierce's medicine there could be no objection for substituting it. Why not get what you have chosen instead of letting somebody else force on you what you do not choose. The whole secret lies in the fact that the substitute costs the dealer less because there's no responsibility behind it. He makes a better profit on the substitute, and he makes it out of you. Don't let him.

WRECKED UPON ROCKS AND SHOALS.

The government marks the rocks and shoals which are a peril to navigators by certain buoys and bells which warn the mariner away. No man can be a pilot until he knows the location of every one of these marks, and just what they signify. Nature marks the shoals and rocks of the sea of life when her men may be shipwrecked. Every man who is to pilot the frail vessel, his body, over this sea should know these marks and signs. This knowledge plain and clear is only a part of the information given in Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Advertiser. Its 1066 pages are full of wisdom and of counsel, and many a life would be saved if this book were in the hands of every man and woman. ABBOTT-WEAVER NUPTIALS.

Ceremony Performed at Bride's Residence by Her Father.

At noon yesterday the handsome new residence of Rev. and Mrs. B. H. Abbott, of Spring street, was the scene of a pretty nuptialistic event. Their daughter, Miss Mary Elizabeth Abbott, was wedded to William G. Weaver, M. D., of Wilkes-Barre. The bride's father performed the ceremony, assisted by Rev. R. A. Sawyer, of Trinity Episcopal church.

Potted chrysanthemums and cut flowers formed a beautiful border of the bay window in which the couple stood unattended during the ceremony. The bride was attired in a traveling gown of blue and carried pink roses.

A wedding repast was served and Dr. and Mrs. Weaver left on the 1:42 o'clock train for an extended tour. Only a few of the most intimate friends were present at the wedding. Among them were: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hubbard, Mrs. N. L. Moon, Mrs. T. G. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Wheeler and Mrs. R. A. Sawyer. These from out of town were: Miss Weaver, sister-in-law of the bride; Charles Weaver, nephew of Wilkes-Barre; Miss Rankin, of Plymouth; Louis Abbott, of Lehigh university and John Abbott, of Wilkes-Barre.

Dr. Weaver, who occupies a prominent position professionally in Luzerne's capital, has married a wife of admirable qualities. Her heroic work as nurse among the soldiers of our late war merited the high praise bestowed upon her by the press. While helping suffering humanity she contracted typhoid fever from which she only recently recovered.

FUNERAL OF DAVID DAVIES.

Remains of the Unfortunate Fireman Laid to Rest.

Deeply impressive services were conducted yesterday afternoon over the remains of David Davies, who met an untimely death in the Ontario and Western wreck at Pockville Sunday evening. Rev. T. E. He pronounced a fitting eulogy on him whose chief delight was the pleasures of home.

A large concourse of friends indicated the measure in which deceased was esteemed. Among those who paid their final respects were the Knights of Pythias, who had charge of the funeral, and the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen. The pallbearers were chosen from these organizations, and were: James Williams, G. B. Van Gender and David Orr, of the former, and Reuben Lewis, Owen Lewis and John Hopkins, of the latter.

A large number of barouches and three extra street cars were employed in conveying the cortege to Broadside cemetery, where the remains were laid at rest.
