DEATH OF SERGEANT JAMES KANSKI
WAS A MEMBER OF COMPANY E, THIRTEENTH REGIMENT.

Is Survived by a Wife Who Lives at Seeleyville, Wayne County—He Had Been a Member of the Guard for Eleven Years—Remains May Be Brought North for Interment. Boys Saw This Year's First Fall of Snow at Augusta Yesterday.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.
Camp MacKenzie, Augusta, Ga., Dec. 8.—The soldiers' last tattoo has been beaten for another member of the Thirteenth, Sergeant James Kanski, of Company E, passed away at half past five o'clock this morning in the Division hospital. The deceased had been troubled with Bright's disease for two years past, and this together with other troubles resulted in his death. He was taken sick at Dunn, Loring on July 15, and a month later went home on a thirty-day furlough. He returned in due time, but could not attend to his regular duties. He gradually wasted away until it became merely a question of how long he could stand it. Every care was taken of him, and it was expected that he would recover.
The deceased was well liked and well known in the regiment, having been in the guard nearly eleven years. He was 27 years of age and is survived by his wife, who lives in Seeleyville, Wayne county. His brother, Joseph Kanski, was for twelve years a member of the Regulars, and at the beginning of the war was permitted to join the Rough Riders, making a splendid record for himself. This is the first death in Company E. Captain Smith has telegraphed home for instructions, and very probably the remains will be sent north when the matter of transportation is arranged.
Regimental Adjutant L. T. Mattes, accompanied by his wife, has rejoined the regiment after a two months' leave of absence on account of sickness.

A SIGNAL HONOR.
A signal honor has been conferred on the regimental band. The mayor of Augusta, the city officials and all the prominent citizens are calling at corps headquarters, Summersville, this evening to pay their respects formally to Major General Young. The Thirteenth's musicians have been requested by the corps commander to be present.

The boys saw the first fall of snow.

A Christmas Store, To Be Sure,

But not in the accepted sense. You waste no time here searching for the exclusive and unique—all are such. The same intelligent selection that chooses "wearables" for all the days is used in the procuring of "gitty" things for the holidays. The counterpart of our display is not to be seen in this section, for many are imported for this year's holiday selling. If you'll come we think you'll be convinced that your journey has amply paid for itself. There will be an economy in shopping satisfaction that is not balanced by the mere eighty-five cent railroad fare.

The Holiday Handkerchiefs

You can buy these at home. True. You can buy handkerchiefs almost anywhere. You can buy them of peddlers. But here you buy with a positive guarantee—no matter whether the price be ten cents or ten dollars—that your purchase is ALL LINEN. That's our method—nothing but pure linen flax in each handkerchief sold as such—a method that has built up a handkerchief business so large that a thousand dozens are here for you to hunt among for the sort you wish.
Plain White, Pure Hemstitched Handkerchiefs—10c to 19c each.
Plain White, Pure Linen Initial Handkerchiefs—12½c to 50c each.
Pure White, Pure Linen, Hand and Machine Embroidered Handkerchiefs—12½c to $2.98 each.
Real Lace, Duchess, Point Lace and Lace Trimmed Handkerchiefs—98c to $15.00 each.

WILKES-BARRE, PA.

In the South at 4 o'clock this afternoon. A heavy hail storm is now in progress.
That institution known as the private canteen must go. Its death-knell has been sounded and its life in and around this camp is of short duration. The canteen is an institution, indigenous to the army, which is little understood by the outside world, but as run by private individuals for their own personal gain, it has become undesirable and a detriment to the men. Such canteens rarely observe any moderation, and not only sell prohibited intoxicants, but what they do sell is unfit, in many instances, for consumption by a human being.
This abuse is to be stopped forthwith, and in the future only regimental canteens, whose receipts shall go directly to the men for extras will be allowed to exist inside of camp lines. Their keepers shall be amenable to the strictest vigilance and military discipline.
Those persons who run canteens outside of camp lines can, of course, keep open despite this order, but there is another method of overcoming that difficulty. Through they cannot be prohibited by the military authorities from keeping such places open, the provost guards have received positive instructions to not allow any soldier to enter such institutions for any purpose whatsoever. In this way the intended result is accomplished.
The Thirteenth is at present fast regaining its heretofore enviable record on the question of health. Those who were home on sick furloughs are returning daily, and the number of patients here in the regimental hospital are very few. This morning only four out of the ten beds were occupied, and even those four men are suffering from no very serious ailment.

Headquarters First Division,
Second Army Corps,
Camp MacKenzie, Ga., Dec. 8, 1898.
General Order, No. 28.
The division commander has observed with much satisfaction the general good conduct of the men of this command since their arrival at this camp. With very few exceptions it has been exemplary, and of a character to reflect credit upon the uniform we wear as well as upon the states represented in the division; and which has received the approbation of the public press. All officers and enlisted men are enjoined to do all in their power to merit the confidence and good will of the citizens of Augusta and vicinity.
This order will be published to each organization of the command at the first parade following its receipt.
By command of Brigadier General Gobin,
F. S. Strong,
Assistant Adjutant General.

SOLDIERS WILL LIKED.
On several occasions heretofore it has been noted with what a lively good will the boys in blue have been welcomed here by the people of the city of Augusta, and of the surrounding country. This is by no means due to mere reasons of business or of mere policy, but to an entirely higher motive. The people of Augusta, independent of any selfish interests, have nothing but good words and a warm friendship for any soldier who properly conducts himself. That the boys have been doing this is well known and is further evidenced by a letter from General Gobin which fully reflects the universal opinion entertained on this question.
The members of the Thirteenth, not without reason, feel that not a little of this praise is due them. There is certainly no other regiment in camp more talked of, or better or more favorably known in Augusta than it is.
Colonel Conson is still serving as a member of the division court-martial.
Private Peter McCrea, now a fever patient in the Lackawanna hospital, has been granted a thirty-day extension of his sick furlough.
At his own request Private Sam Richards, of D, has been returned to his company from the brigade bakery. Private Swan, of the same company, has been detailed to take his place.
The Y. M. C. A. tent is quite an accommodation to the members of Company H. It is midway between them and the Eighth regiment, and they find it quite a convenience to go there to read the latest magazines, to play different games, or to write letters.
Corporal Lewis B. Carter, of A Company, is serving this week as stenographer for the division court-martial.
Artificer Perry Bowman, of D, who returned recently from sick furlough, brought back with him a large box of choicest eatables, which he has liberally shared with his friends.

GAVE AN AT HOME.
Last night Corporal Willard Lathrop, Artificer Henry Hoffman, Regimental Clerk William Decker and Privates Harry C. Moore, Adam Nielsing and Frank Bender, the inhabitants of "Shack No. 7," on A street, gave an "at home," to which Corporal Frank Mallot, of B, and Sergeant Clarence Lathrop and Private James J. Corbett, of C, and The Tribune correspondent were invited as guests of honor. Corporal Lathrop was "mine host," and entertained the boys royally. Refreshments were served and a pleasant time was spent. Impromptu speeches were made by the host, by Sergeant Lathrop, and by Corporal Mallot.

Sergeant Scott L. Shaver has been once more appointed quartermaster of Company F in place of Sergeant William R. Newman, who resigned that position. This was Sergeant Shaver's old position, till he asked to be relieved of its exacting duties in order to be able to return to active duty with his company. His return affords much pleasure to the boys.
Private J. Donald Hull has resigned his position as chef for Company A, and his place is now filled by Private Thomas Lewis.
The name of this camp is now spelled MacKenzie.
Richard J. Bourke.

TEAM OF HORSES KILLED.

Hoof of One of the Horses Became Fast in a Crossing.
A freight train on the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad, Thursday, ran into a hay wagon belonging to G. R. Clark, the florist, of this city.
The horses were killed and the wagon was wrecked. The driver had a load of Christmas trees on, and when passing over the road at the Tillinghast crossing the hoof of one of the horses got caught between the rail and the planking.
Every effort was made to release the animal, but it was futile. One horse was carried about eight hundred feet on the engine pilot, and subsequently cut in two. The driver escaped with the least injury.

TEN YEARS AGONY FROM ECZEMA CURED BY CUTICURA
For ten years I suffered untold agonies from Eczema, my lower limbs being so swollen and broken out that I could hardly go about. My brother, a physician of thirty years' practice, and other physicians of splendid ability, tried in vain to effect a cure and signally failed. I became absolutely disheartened, and had lost all hope, when a friend induced me to give CUTICURA REMEDY a trial. I used two cakes of CUTICURA SOAP and two boxes of CUTICURA OINTMENT, and it resulted in an absolute and permanent cure.
