EVENTS OF DAY IN WEST SCRANTON

CONCERT BY THE BELLEVUE C. M. CONGREGATION.

Judge H. M. Edwards Presided Over the Affair, in Which a Splendid Array of Musical Talent Participated—Annual Social of St. Brendan Council, No. 243, Y. M. I. in Mear's Hall—Robert Williams, Late of the Thirteenth Regiment, Will Soon Go to the Philippines.

A concert was held last evening in the Bellevue Calvinistic Methodist church, under the auspices of the church. Judge H. M. Edwards presided as chairman of the evening. The opening number was a bass solo by John W. Jones, followed by an address by the chairman. Miss Eva Kittle rendered a pretty soprano solo. Messrs. Jones and Davies interpreted a duet with much intelligence, followed by a recitation selected by Thomas James, which received an encore. Thomas Abrams sang a tenor solo, and returned to the platform with a rousing encore and sang with much fervor.

The second part opened with a selection by a quartette comprising Prof. W. W. Jones and party and received the usual recognition. Miss Margaret Jones, whose rich voice is always of good service, rendered a solo in an admirable style. John W. Jones sang "I Cannot Do Without Her," in a faultless rendering, his voice being full of the richness that is required from a singer. Miss Lizzie Hughes-Brundage, whose profound soprano voice has been heard on many occasions, responded to an encore and sang "When the Heart is Young." Prof. Robert Stenner, the well-known conductor of the West Side band and cornetist, rendered a solo, which received a warm compliment and he responded to an encore. The quartette sang "The Deep" was a coupling link to his first selection. Philip Warren, whose magnificent voice has earned him many laurels on such occasions, responded to an encore and sang "Till I Die in Your Arms."

The committee, which consisted of the following, Thomas Samuel, Ivan Jones, Thomas Price, Thomas O. Jones and Isaac T. Davies, deserve a compliment for their excellent success.

ANNUAL SOCIAL. Mear's hall was well filled last evening by well known West Side young people, the occasion being the fifth annual social of St. Brendan council, No. 243, Young Men's Institute. The hall was prettily decorated. The Lawrence orchestra, which furnished excellent music, was hidden behind a bowler of ferns and palms. John E. Durkin made an excellent master of ceremonies. Over one hundred couples participated in the dances. It was a grand success both socially and financially, and reflects great credit upon the committees in charge.

The committees having charge of the affair were: Committee of arrangements, D. J. McCaffrey, chairman; Joseph S. Carey, secretary; John McFadden, treasurer; M. J. Fitzgibbon, chairman; J. J. Durkin, Frank McClain, Charles Canavan, George Orr, Thomas Fleming, Michael Burke, Edward O'Malley. Conductor of dances, Michael Cullin.

GOES TO THE PHILIPPINES. Ebenezer Williams, of Chestnut street, has received a letter from his son, Robert, who is stationed at Augusta, Ga., stating that he would sail on Sunday from New York for the Philippines. Mr. Williams left here with the Thirteenth regiment as a private, for Mount Gretna. He was promoted, until now he is mounted corporal or sergeant on General Young's staff. He made application for admission to the army and was accepted, and on Sunday he will sail for the Philippines. Mr. Williams is a well known young man and his many friends will be glad to hear of his success.

A NARROW ESCAPE. Three young men, while walking down Main avenue at 11 o'clock Monday evening, had a narrow escape from injury. An arch of bricks protrudes over the window of the front of Mear's hall. While dancing was in progress the vibration jarred the bricks and they fell to the sidewalk, just in front of the young men, sadly frightening them. Luckily, the bricks didn't fall after the social had closed; if they had many would no doubt have been injured. The building is a substantial structure and there are no other defects to condemn it.

to make these sermons sensational in any sense of the word, but he will speak in a plain, practical way. INCIDENTALLY THE OUTRIDER IS ON THE lookout for defects in the railroad that might play havoc with the royal train, but this is not the primary object of his preceding the imperial party. He is an inconspicuous object on his curious wheel, and it is not likely that his swift progress along the road will be observed until he is too near a scoundrel assassin for the latter to accomplish his purpose.

A long experience with the Nihilist gangs of Russia has taught the police of that country that the bomb is the favorite weapon with these ill-fated king. Should one of these be left on the track in such a position that the wheels of the imperial train would explode it, it must surely be discovered by the outrider, or if he were unfortunate enough to overlook it, the czar's life at least would be saved, for the railway bicycle would cause the bomb to blow up, the rider's life alone being sacrificed. Hence the importance of the outrider.

He is continually in the proud position of offering his life for his master.
