HOSSTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. IT'S GOOD FOR EVERYBODY. CURES ALL THE STOMACH BILLS. DUNMORE DOINGS. School Directors Made Their Annual Inspection of the Schools Yesterday—Pleasing Entertainment Last Evening.

The school directors made their annual visit to the schools yesterday and found them in excellent condition. The board went into session in the morning and continued throughout the day, adjourning at No. 1 building in the evening. This allowed them to transact much business during the day.

They will next meet on Monday evening, June 26, when janitors for the coming term will be elected. All bids must be in before that date. In view of the fact that the directors were to visit the schools, many clever sketches were drawn on the blackboards for inspection.

The most of these were found in Professor Gray's room in No. 4 building, which consisted of an American flag, beautifully colored; girls at play, and a large Newfoundland dog. These were the work of Professor Gray and displayed much skill.

The work of the scholars was also well done and was pleasing in every respect. All the work will be for public inspection for some time. PLEASING ENTERTAINMENT. The Junior Epworth league, connected with the Methodist Episcopal church, held a pleasing entertainment in the church parlors last evening.

The programme consisted of vocal and instrumental music and recitations, which were rendered in an excellent manner. The members of the Senior league were intricated in the best with a stone thrown by Yerkas, hence the arrest. They, too, will be given a hearing this morning.

Hugo A. Weirich, of 1318 South Washington avenue, was arrested late Sunday night on complaint of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Weirich. They alleged that he flashed a 38-caliber revolver at the supper table and threatened to shoot them.

The young defendant, in default of $300 bail, was committed to the county jail to await the action of the grand jury. OTHER ARRESTS. Patrolman George Jones and a citizen arrested Anthony Yorkas, of Pottsville, and Joseph Salomski, of this side, about noon yesterday.

The men were much intoxicated and decidedly bent on making trouble. A South Scranton man named Hafner was forcibly hit on the head with a stone thrown by Yerkas, hence the arrest. They, too, will be given a hearing this morning.

GATHERED IN SOUTH SCRANTON. JACOB LANGE ARRESTED AFTER AN EXCITING CHASE. His Brother and Another Man Created Considerable Excitement in Searching for an Officer—Anthony Yerkas Arrested—Hugo A. Weirich Locked Up on Complaint of His Parents—Scranton Athletic Club Open Their New Hotel—Other News Items and Personals.

Jacob Lange, of Birch street, was arrested last night by Patrolman Schmidt and Sartor, after an exciting struggle. The arrest of Lange was the most exciting South Scranton has witnessed in many years. A forerunner of the arrest was the dashing up and down and across the streets of the Eleventh and Nineteenth wards of Lange's brother and another fellow. Their maddened chase was inspired by their desire to locate a patrolman. Finally, after exciting the populace to the highest pitch, the excited Mr. Lange met Lieutenant of Police Zang and Patrolmen George Jones, Flaherty, Geschidde, Schmidt and Sartor near the intersection of Alder street and Pittston avenue. After listening to the story told in an excited fashion, the officers repaired to a barn nearby and arrested the much wanted Jacob. When searched at the station house, two Spanish knives and a full box of cartridges were found in the pockets of the prisoner.

It was a member of the Eleventh United States infantry during the late war, and has been in the city but three weeks. The prisoner will be arraigned for a hearing this morning before Alderman Sartor. OTHER ARRESTS. Patrolman George Jones and a citizen arrested Anthony Yorkas, of Pottsville, and Joseph Salomski, of this side, about noon yesterday. The men were much intoxicated and decidedly bent on making trouble.

A South Scranton man named Hafner was forcibly hit on the head with a stone thrown by Yerkas, hence the arrest. They, too, will be given a hearing this morning. Hugo A. Weirich, of 1318 South Washington avenue, was arrested late Sunday night on complaint of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Weirich. They alleged that he flashed a 38-caliber revolver at the supper table and threatened to shoot them.

The young defendant, in default of $300 bail, was committed to the county jail to await the action of the grand jury. CHILDREN'S DAY EXERCISES. First Legislative District. Notice is hereby given to the Republican voters of the First legislative district that a primary election will be held on Saturday, June 24, 1899, between the hours of 4 and 7 o'clock, for the purpose of electing a delegate and alternate to represent said legislative district at the Republican state convention to be held in Harrisburg. The convention to compute the vote will be held on Tuesday afternoon, June 27, at 3 o'clock. The Republican state convention will be held in Harrisburg. In accordance with the rules adopted at the last district convention the candidates for delegates to the state convention will be voted for directly by the voters with the district chairman his full name and postoffice address and shall pay his assessment ten days before the election or his name will not be printed on the official ballot. The regular vigilance in connection with the return judge to be appointed by the chairman will conduct the election. W. A. Paine, Chairman. Scranton, Pa., June 8, 1899.

Second Legislative District. Notice is hereby given to the Republican voters of the Second legislative district that a primary election will be held on Saturday, July 1, 1899, between the hours of 4 and 7 o'clock, for the purpose of electing a delegate to represent said legislative district in the coming Republican state convention to be held in Harrisburg. On account of the following Tuesday being a legal holiday, the convention to compute the vote will be held on Monday, July 3, 1899, at 3 o'clock. In accordance with a resolution adopted by the last district convention the candidates for delegates to the state convention will be voted for directly by the voters at the polls. Each candidate must register with the district chairman his full name and postoffice address, and shall pay his assessment ten days before the election or his name will not be placed on the official ballot, neither will any votes cast for him be counted. The regular vigilance committee, together with the return judge to be appointed by the chairman, will conduct the election, and the result will be reported by the return judge to the district convention, which will be composed of the return judges of the various districts. Attest: F. W. Lowry, Secretary. June 12, 1899.

Third Legislative District. Pursuant to a resolution of the standing committee of the Republican party of the Third legislative district of Lackawanna county, held on Saturday, June 23, 1899, the district convention will be held on Tuesday, June 27, 1899, at 3 o'clock p. m. in the Arbitration room, court house, Scranton, at 2 o'clock p. m. for the purpose of electing one person as delegate to the state convention. It was unanimously resolved by the committee to submit to the convention for adoption or rejection, a new code of rules commonly known as the "Crawford County Rules." Vigilance committees will hold delegate elections at the regular polling places on Saturday, the 25th day of June, 1899, between the hours of 4 and 7 p. m. They will give at least two days notice
