VERY BUSY DAY IN CRIMINAL COURT

LIBEL CASE CONTINUED UNTIL NEXT WEEK.

It Will Be Placed at the Head of the List—Attorney John T. Lenahan Informed the Court That He Will Not Be Able to Try the Case on Monday or Tuesday—A Steinbaugh Given a Heavy Sentence for Stealing Chickens—Sentence Imposed on Him Monday Recalled.

The case of the Commonwealth against Richard Little and M. J. O'Toole, editors of the Scrantonian, who are charged with libel by Colonel E. H. Hippie, was yesterday continued until next week. There is a very heavy list this term and it was the intention to have three courts in operation, but the illness of Judge F. W. Gunster, who was to have presided in No. 2, has seriously interfered with the disposition of cases. Until Judge Levy, of Bellefonte, arrives on the bench in the superior court room yesterday morning Judge Archbald was the only one presiding.

After court opened yesterday afternoon the district attorney called Messrs. Little and O'Toole before the court and explained that owing to the length of time it would take to try the libel case he felt that it would very seriously interfere with the work of the court to put such a long case on trial this week with only two courts running. He suggested that the case go over until next week.

Judge Archbald asked Attorney Nathan Vidaver and Cornelius Smith, who were with the defendants, if they had any objections to the continuance. Mr. Vidaver replied that they had not but would like to consult with Attorney John T. Lenahan, of Wilkes-Barre, who is associated with them in the case before the court. He said that Mr. Lenahan was not in court at the time and Judge Archbald said he would allow the case to go over until next Monday and directed that it be placed at the head of the list.

Later in the afternoon Mr. Lenahan came into court and said he would not be able to try the case Monday as he will be engaged in the trial of cases at Wilkes-Barre on Monday and Tuesday. He asked that the case be continued until Wednesday or Thursday. The district attorney said he feared the case could not be tried next week if not taken up before Wednesday or Thursday as it will take some time to hear it. Judge Archbald refused to set on the request of Mr. Lenahan. He will not preside in the main court room next week and said he would prefer to sit in the judge then presiding pass upon the matter as the judge in the main court room has the management of the trial list in his hands.

The motion for a continuance will be renewed by Mr. Lenahan next Monday morning.

Sentence Recalled.
On Monday A. Steinbaugh, an old man more than 60 years of age, pleaded guilty to stealing chickens from J. P. Leno, of Newton township, and was sentenced to pay a fine of $1, costs and spend thirty days in the county jail. Yesterday afternoon Attorney B. F. Akery appeared before the court and asked that the sentence in the case of Steinbaugh be recalled. He said that the prisoner is a professional chicken thief and some time before the commission of the offense to which he pleaded guilty he was convicted of chicken stealing in Luzerne county and sentenced to a term in the penitentiary.

Soon after he secured his liberty from the chicken owned by the farmers of Ramson and Newton townships began and continued without interruption until Steinbaugh's arrest. Mr. Akery produced a bag especially designed for carrying chickens and an instrument for drawing staples from barn doors which were found on Steinbaugh's person at the time of his arrest. Mr. Akery said he thought the prisoner ought to be given a term of imprisonment sufficiently long to enable him to see the error of his way.

Judge Archbald said he would recall the sentence of Monday and resented Steinbaugh to three years in the Eastern penitentiary. The old man was much affected when he heard the words of the judge and went back to the prisoner's box with a weak and faltering step.

Heavy Sentence for Moon.
Monday Charles H. Moon pleaded guilty to stealing bicycles owned by John Harvey and Ollie Benedict. In extenuation of his conduct he said he was drunk at the time and did not know what he was doing. Judge Archbald, when the plea of guilty was entered, said he would postpone sentence until Monday and resented Moon to two years in the Eastern penitentiary. The terms of imprisonment are to run concurrently. Moon lives at Green Ridge and has heretofore been arrested for the theft of bicycles and other articles.

Before Judge Archbald.

When court opened yesterday morning the case of George Reese, charged with larceny and receiving by Oliver Harris, was resumed. A verdict of not guilty was returned.

J. T. Morrison admitted having received a pair of shoes stolen from the store of A. P. Cohen, of North Scranton. He was sentenced to pay a fine of $1, costs and spend thirty days in the county jail.

James J. Walsh and Robert Seline, boys aged 12 and 14 years respectively, pleaded guilty to stealing a camera and camera supplies and some lead and brass pipe from Marion Stuart Cann, of Jefferson avenue. They will be sent to the house of refuge. The boys have been before under arrest for the John Simmons, Cleo Williams and Samuel Smith were tried before Judge Archbald in the main court room for robbing and assaulting Joseph Cross, sr., and Joseph Cross, jr., on the Linden street bridge on the night of August 12. On the afternoon of that day the three defendants, who are colored, and John Reynolds, also colored, were visiting friends in West Scranton and on the way home went to the central city by way of the Linden street bridge.

Cross and his son who live near Eighth street, were on the way home when they met the colored men on the bridge. Young Cross was riding a bicycle. Cross, father and son, alleged that the colored men without provocation attacked them, knocked them down and relieved the father of $12 and the son of $10. Both of the men were severely beaten and the elder Cross had several ribs broken. The three men on trial yesterday were arrested soon after the occurrence in Raymond court and on the way to the station house Smith escaped and was not recaptured until a week later.

The defendants absolutely denied the robbery but Smith admitted having slapped young Cross in the face and inflicted blows on the person of the elder Cross. Smith said he was induced to strike the blows because young Cross grossly insulted him and that he (Smith) chastised him for it. The elder Cross interfered and struck him. Smith denied that the blows he delivered would have broken Cross' ribs or inflicted any serious injury. The accused were defended by Attorneys H. L. Taylor, B. F. Tinkham and M. J. Healy. At 2:30 the case was given to the jury.

A verdict of not guilty as to Simmons and Williams was returned and Smith was found guilty of assault. Judge Archbald in passing sentence said he believed Smith was not only guilty of assault but of robbery as well. He directed the convict to pay a fine of $25 and costs and spend thirty days in the county jail.

Edward Marchurskie and Frank Frenuzky were tried for the theft of a satchel containing a revolver, two pairs of handkerchiefs and a night shirt from Deputy United States Marshal Clark Lowry on August 12 last. The defense was that some unknown person gave them the satchel. The jury went out just before adjournment.

Michael Olanage, of Mayfield, was arraigned on a charge of malicious mischief. The prosecutor, Steve Perko, did not appear and a verdict of not guilty was taken and the prosecutor directed to pay the costs.

Charles Smith pleaded guilty to carrying concealed weapons and was sentenced to pay a fine of $1, costs and spend thirty days in the county jail, as well as the case of Edward Enriver, who was charged with assault and battery; a non pros was entered upon payment of costs.

P. A. Bender did not respond when called to answer a charge of assault and battery preferred by Philip Hoffman and a capias was issued for him.

Before Judge Love.
Judge Love, of Bellefonte, arrived in town Monday night and is presiding in the superior court room. A number of cases were tried before him yesterday.

man was abusing his prisoner who was handcuffed and he (Dennis) entered a protest whereupon Eilman struck him with a club. He retaliated by striking the constable and knocking him down. He denied stabbing the officer or having any desire to secure the release of the prisoner who was in Eilman's charge. The case was given to the jury just before the noon recess. A verdict of guilty was returned early in the afternoon and Dennis was sentenced to pay a fine of $1 and costs and spend one year in the penitentiary.

Owen Thatcher, of Moscow, was tried on a charge of assault and battery preferred by his wife, Mary Thatcher, who stated that her husband has persistently abused her for the last seventeen years, or almost from the time of their marriage. He has also refused to contribute to the support of her and their children. Thatcher denied the charges made against him. He was convicted and sentenced to pay a fine of $15 and costs.

Just before court adjourned the jury went out to decide whether or not Fred Rudge stole a drill, stades and pick from Mrs. A. L. Tibbitts, of the West Side, with whom he at one time boarded. There was also a case of defrauding boarding housekeeper against Rudge in which Mrs. Tibbitts was prosecutor. But the judge took it from the consideration of the jury. Rudge was defended by Attorneys R. J. Bourke and C. E. Daniels.
