

EVENTS OF DAY IN WEST SCRANTON

REV. L. R. FOSTER HAS RE-SIGNED HIS TWO CHARGES.

Will Become Assistant to Rev. I. J. Lansing at the Green Ridge Presbyterian Church—Michael Hart Died from His Injuries—Photographer Barlow Has Disappeared. Weekly School Deposits—Several Funerals and Other News Notes and Personal Paragraphs.

Rev. L. R. Foster, pastor of the Sumner Avenue and Taylor Presbyterian churches, has tendered his resignation of both charges, to take effect on Feb. 1. The communication bearing upon that fact was read to both congregations Sunday evening, and, while it was known to a few of the officers, the parishioners were taken totally by surprise.

In severing his relations with the churches Rev. Foster does so with the utmost good will and sympathy of the members, and it is only because of a feeling that he has been called to a higher place in the religious world that the step was decided upon. He will become assistant pastor to Rev. I. J. Lansing at the Green Ridge Presbyterian church, one of the most influential charges in the Lackawanna Presbytery.

Rev. Foster is a young man and graduated from the Auburn Theological seminary in 1897. Shortly after completing his studies he was called to the Sumner Avenue church. The ordination services were held in the Providence Presbyterian church on March 22, 1897, and on April 10 of the same year he assumed charge of the work here. The installation ceremony was conducted on May 15 and since then he has been actively engaged at both churches.

Over one hundred members have been enrolled in the Sumner Avenue church on profession of faith since Rev. Foster became its pastor, and among that number are some of the best known families in West Scranton. His resignation will be formally read at a congregational meeting next Sunday evening, when some definite action will be taken by the members of the church.

Shortly after Rev. Foster became pastor of the church he was married and has since resided at 123 North Lincoln Avenue. Mrs. Foster has been an active worker in the church and is a vocalist and musician of exceptional ability. For some time Mr. Foster has been confined to the house by a severe attack of illness and is still unable to leave his bed. He expects to take up his work in Green Ridge upon his recovery.

No. 22—Miss Vaughan, $3.25; Miss Knapp, 45; Miss Freeman, $1.65; Miss Ruddy, 55; Miss Mullen, $1.32; total, $17.26.

YESTERDAY'S FUNERALS.

Rev. E. J. McHenry, rector of St. David's Episcopal church, conducted the funeral of the late Mrs. E. H. Williams yesterday afternoon. A large number of relatives and friends attended the services. The remains were interred in the Washburn street cemetery.

Services over the remains of the late Thomas Kelly were conducted in St. Patrick's church yesterday morning by Rev. J. P. Lavallee. The interment was made in Cathedral cemetery.

The remains of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Rowlands' 2-year-old child was buried in the Washburn street cemetery yesterday afternoon.

The body of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Donohue's child was taken from the home on Railroad Avenue yesterday morning to the hospital, where interment was made in the afternoon.

An infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Reese Anthony, of Bellevue, was buried in the Washburn street cemetery yesterday afternoon.

SUDDEN DISAPPEARANCE. Mr. and Mrs. David Barlow, who resided and conducted the West Side photographic parlors at the corner of Main Avenue and Jackson street, have left the city, and also left several creditors to mourn their sudden disappearance.

For several months the casual observer has been watching the couple, and rumor had it that they were in straightened circumstances, but nothing was positively known until an official of the poor board intervened a few days ago and helped them to defray their railroad expenses to Reading, where it is said Mrs. Barlow has relatives.

The couple were very mysterious in their actions, but it was evident to the police and others that they were without the necessities of life, and when they disappeared nothing but a few pieces of furniture were found in their rooms.

DEATH IN THE MINES.

Michael Hart, of South Filmore Avenue, employed as a miner in the Hampton mine, was so badly injured by a fall of roof while at work yesterday that he died shortly after being removed to his home.

The accident occurred at noon and fellow workmen hastened to his rescue and released the unfortunate man as soon as possible, but death was only a question of time. Deceased is survived by his wife and seven children. The funeral announcement will be made later.

HOSTETTER'S BITTERS. If every one realized how absolutely health depends upon a vigorous stomach, they would keep the Bitters constantly on hand. As a medicine it is invaluable. An occasional dose will keep the bowels regular. Try it.

Mr. Hart was 45 years of age and had been a resident of West Scranton for many years. He was a member of Division, No. 1, Ancient Order of Hibernians, of the Hampton Mine Accidental fund.

GLEANERS' UNDERTAKING. A "Colonial Tea" will be given by the Gleaners of the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church on Thursday evening, Feb. 22 for the benefit of the mortgage fund. The above society has taken the responsibility of trying to raise the mortgage and are endeavoring in every way to meet it.

As the object is a worthy one, we hope that they will meet with good success, and that a large number of people will avail themselves of this opportunity and will be in attendance on the above date.

LINCOLN HEIGHTS CHURCH. Architect Lewis Hancock has submitted plans for the proposed new church in Lincoln Heights, which will be erected the coming spring. The building will be 28x42, with a stone basement and frame structure. It will be heated by steam and illuminated with electric lights.

Rev. James Benninger, of the Hampton Street Methodist Episcopal church, will be the pastor of the new church. A substantial sum has already been contributed towards the edifice.

NOTES AND PERSONALS. Morris Thomas, one of the keepers at the Hillside Home, is spending a week's vacation at his home in Bellevue.

The Sisters of Bethany, of St. David's Episcopal church, will conduct an entertainment and social in the Sunday school room of the church this evening.

"St. Peter" is the title of the sacred cantata which will be produced at the First Welsh Congregational church on February 14 and 15, under the direction of Chorister William J. Davis.

The Christian Endeavor society of the Plymouth Congregational church will meet this evening and hold their quarterly missionary meeting. Miss Sarah Hughes will be in charge.

Mrs. Newhouse, of Philadelphia, is visiting Miss Mame Burlingame, of South Hyde Park Avenue.

A slight-reading musical competition was held last evening at the meeting of Dewey Street Lodge of Leawards. Alton Chase, of South Sumner Avenue, is confined to the house by illness.

Mrs. George Shoemaker, of Elmira, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Corless, of South Main Avenue.

J. L. Payne, of Diamond Avenue, was held last evening at the meeting of the Twenty-first ward last evening for select council.

The Chi Upsilon society of the Washburn Street Presbyterian church held a regular meeting last evening, and elected officers for the ensuing term.

A musicale will be given at the Sumner Avenue Presbyterian church on Tuesday evening of next week.

Traffic on the Washburn street line of the traction company was delayed a short time last evening by the spreading of the rails, which threw one of the cars off the tracks.

An initial supper will be served at the Plymouth Congregational church tomorrow evening from 4 to 6 o'clock. Agnes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Karkian, of North Hyde Park Avenue, is recovering from an operation performed by Doctors Grant and Hall at the Scranton Private Hospital.

The new Traders' Building and Loan Association, $5 per month for about nine years, will net $1,000. Money paid in can be withdrawn any time with 6 per cent. interest. Money to build, on easy terms. First pay night, Thursday evening, January 25, at Co-Operative hall. Invest at home and know what is being done with your money.

DUNMORE DOINGS.

Hose Company Will Go to Moosic This Evening—Benefit Dance for Frederick Hartnoll.

HAPPENINGS OF NORTH SCRANTON

RESOLUTIONS ON THE DEATH OF REES WATKINS.

Read at the Presbyterian Sunday School—Horse Case Before Alderman Fidler—Employee at the Cayuga Mine Will Resume Work Tomorrow—Entertainment and Supper at Court Street Church—Wedding and Funeral Announcements. Other News Notes.

The committee from the Providence Presbyterian church appointed to present resolutions to the Sunday school on the death of Rees Watkins, submitted the following at the session Sunday afternoon:

Whereas, In the dispensation of the Father of Life and Death He has seen in the fullness of His time to call our honored chorister, teacher, friend and neighbor to the home celestial and to the choir of heaven. Be it Resolved, That the loss of his presence and example is to us less indeed. In his life, service for the Master was dignified and faithfully rendered. "Always ready" is a tribute to lay up to his memory. "Always cheerful" is the other tribute we can honestly pay him.

Resolved, That we take this means to express our sympathy to his wife, that a copy of these resolutions be presented to her that they be given to the press of the city and that they be entered in the minutes of the school in full.

Clarence Steele, Ida Christmas, Minnie Moore, Margaret Bentley, committee.

BEFORE ALDERMAN FIDLER. Frank Singer was prosecutor and Charles Chapland defendant in a horse case before Alderman Fidler yesterday afternoon. Both parties to the proceedings live on West Court street. It appears from the statements before the alderman that Chapland had hired a team of horses, and the latter had kept the payments on the contract until all but $50 had been paid.

This the prosecutor had in hand ready to pay on schedule time, but on the night of the day before his barn was entered and the team taken away. Singer blames Chapland for this, and traced the horses to the latter. An explanation not being forthcoming he caused a warrant to be issued accusing him of stealing the horses and also with a violation of contract. The defendant was held in $500 bail to answer at court.

WILL RESUME WORK. The strike of the breaker and driver boys at the Cayuga mine for an increase in wages, enough to cover the extra time they claim they have been obliged to work, will most likely terminate amicably today.

District Superintendent Reese Phillips was at the breaker yesterday afternoon and arranged a conference with a committee representing the boys. In consequence of the strike there was no work at the mine yesterday.

ENTERTAINMENT AND SUPPER. An entertainment and supper will be given at the Court Street Methodist Episcopal church on Thursday evening next, which promises to be a delightful occasion. This event is known as the pastor's affair, as all the solicitation for it was done by Rev. Mr. Lyman himself, and the result has been most gratifying to him.

He expects one of the largest attendances yet had at any of the social events of the church since beginning his pastorate there.

SMALLER PARAGRAPHS. The funeral of the little daughter of Policeman W. S. Hockenberry will take place this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home of the parents on Providence road. The interment will be at Forest Hill cemetery.

Through a misapprehension in the dates it was announced yesterday that the marriage of Miss Amy Decker and Dr. Adam Stenger would occur last evening. The happy event, however, does not transpire until this evening.

The newly organized clerks' union had another meeting at Leonard's hall last evening. One of the gratifying results of the movement was an announcement that Mully's big stores would close at 6:30 o'clock, beginning February 10 next, excepting the first ten nights of the month and Saturday evenings.

Miss Catherine Moran, of Oak street, is entertaining Miss Mary Brennan, of New York.

Martin S. Nolan, the West Market street barber, and Miss Katherine Peel, of Oak street, will be married at Holy Rosary church tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. John Casey, of Brick Avenue, are mourning the death of their little daughter, seven years old, which occurred on Sunday. The funeral will take place this afternoon, with interment at Dunmore Catholic cemetery.

The funeral of the late Thomas James was held from the residence on West Market street yesterday afternoon and was largely attended. Services were conducted at the house by Rev. W. F. Davis, and also at the Taylor Congregational church, after which interment was made in the Forest Home cemetery at Taylor.

SOUTH SCRANTON NOTES.

Funeral of Miss Mame Clearwater. Drama in St. John's Hall.—Successful Masquerade.—Notes.

The funeral of the late Miss Mame Clearwater, of Pear street, who died last Thursday, was held Sunday afternoon from the home.

A quartette from the Green Ridge Presbyterian church composed of Misses Edith Martin and Whitman and Mrs. Charles Warkie and Albert Pilling sang at the residence.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY. Robert Driscoll was yesterday afternoon arraigned before Alderman Ruddy on the charge of assault and battery, preferred by his wife.

Driscoll is a man of about 30 years of age, and is somewhat of a boxer, offered to put on the gloves with Frisco and give him a chance to fight a man instead of a woman, but Driscoll begged to be excused on the grounds that he was too old. He was held under $500 bail to appear at court.

Mrs. Driscoll has begun a crusade against three or four saloonkeepers in the upper part of the Twentieth ward, who she claims sell liquor to her husband. A few of the offenders will be arraigned before Alderman Ruddy this evening and a very interesting hearing is anticipated.

NUBS OF NEWS. Tomorrow evening the Welcome dancing class will conduct a country dance at Snover's hall and a very pleasant evening is anticipated.

The new No. 5 school building was yesterday morning disinfected. On last Friday the school was closed by order of Dr. Allen of the board of health and will probably remain closed for the balance of this week.

Peter Judge, of Cedar Avenue, left yesterday morning for Philadelphia. William Nathan, of Troop street, who was confined to the house for the past week, with illness, is again at his post in the Jersey.

BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY.

Mrs. Joseph Kramer, of Prospect Avenue, celebrated the sixtieth anniversary of her birth on Saturday and in the evening the Kingold band surprised and honored her with a serenade.

Mrs. Kramer, although very much surprised, was equal to the occasion, and invited the members of the band to partake of her hospitality which they did, and with a number of friends of Mrs. Kramer's repaired to Kingold's hall where a very pleasant evening was spent.

Games and dancing were indulged in and supper was served at a seasonable hour. What pleased Mrs. Kramer most of all was a letter from her aged parents who are both alive and living in Germany, congratulating her on the happy event.
