ACTION OF LIBRARY TRUSTEES. Adopt Resolutions on the Death of Judge Gunster.

The Public Library Board at its last regular meeting adopted these resolutions:

The board of trustees of the Scranton Public Library—Arlight Memorial building—places on its records the following minute relating to the death of Judge Frederick William Gunster, which occurred January 29, 1900.

We shall miss our lamented associate from the membership and meetings of this board; where his courteous demeanor, sound judgment, and zeal in the welfare of the library, coupled with cheerfulness, were marked characteristics that lent a charm to our official gatherings. He willingly gave his time, and the weight of his private personality and public support, to every measure tending to enlarge and extend the influence of this institution.

We tender to his family our deepest sympathy in their sad bereavement.

A Sale of Turkish Towels

A noiseless Turkish shuttle, a rattling Yankee loom, and lengths on lengths of fluffy frizziness falling feather-like to the floor. This is what we saw in a factory where these Turkish Bath Towels were being manufactured. The tedious toil of the Turk and the Jacquard loom's swift sweep alike throw out this tidy, tasteful toweling. "Click-ety-click!" Hear it? Turkish Towel looms rattling out yards and yards of the best bathroom weaves in the world
