

EVENTS OF DAY IN WEST SCRANTON

ELECTRIC CITY WHEELMEN ENTERTAIN MANY FRIENDS.

Stag Social Attracted a Large Crowd to the Club House on Jackson Street—Attended by a Number of Guests from Out of Town—Snow-Bedell and Browning-Williams Weddings—Another Candidate for Recorder of Deeds—Other News Notes and Personals.

Another of the now famous stag events was given at the Electric City Wheelmen's club house last evening and was attended by upwards of two hundred members and their friends.

The card included solos by Fred Weins, Walter Dickelniek, Charles Bertine, Fred Soffley, Albert Davis and Caleb Evans; selections by the Lawrence orchestra, Prof. Ott, leader; Roger quartette, Elmer Hughes, Frank Jones, Richard Hawley and Wesley Jones; clog dancing, P. J. Walsh and Frank McDonough; Big Four quartette, Cateh Evans, John H. Jones, J. McNulty and Reese G. Reese; sketches by M. Berger, four-round boxing bout, Costello and Ford; lark and soft shoe dancing, Tom Mack and P. J. Walsh, and an hypnotic exhibition by Rudolph Kunz.

All of the specialties were cleverly given and received merited recognition. Among the guests were S. G. Shemmer, of Entom, and the following members of the Olyphant schoolmen: A. B. Stever, Edward Matthews, Daniel Matthews, Arthur Widdowfield, William Widdowfield, E. W. Freeman, C. W. Houser, W. H. Winter and J. Ginsburg.

ANOTHER CANDIDATE.

J. Archie Jones is the latest aspirant for political honors and last evening announced himself as a candidate for the nomination for recorder of deeds on the Republican ticket. He was for many years a foreman at the Staunton mill and is at present identified with the Prudential Life Insurance company.

Mr. Jones is a member of Camp 178, Patriotic Order Sons of America, Order of Heptasophis, Sons of Veterans, Knights of Pythias and several other fraternal organizations, and will make a formidable candidate.

WEDDING ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Eugene A. Snover, of Newton Centre, and Miss Temperance L. Bedell, of Square Top, were married yesterday at the residence of J. S. Snover, 128 North Hyde Park avenue. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. B. Sweet, pastor of the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church. Earl Browning, of Corbett avenue, and Miss Louise Williams, of Taylor, were married at the parsonage of the Hampton Street Methodist Episcopal church Wednesday evening by Rev. James Benninger. Charles Williams and Miss Julie Browning were the attendants. Mr. and Mrs. Browning will reside in Taylor for the present, but later will establish their home in this city.

CHILD'S NARROW ESCAPE.

Emery, the two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Bous, of Stratford avenue, Lincoln Heights, fell into a pool of water in an open cellarway, near his home, on Tuesday afternoon and was rescued by Mrs. D. P. Denner after considerable difficulty. The child was throwing stones into the water and lost his balance, falling in the water, a depth of four feet. The little fellow swallowed some water but soon recovered from the effects.

GENERAL NEWS NOTES.

Alfred Rundle, John H. Williams and Fred Reynolds have been selected as a committee to arrange a petition to present to council for the annexation of Lincoln Heights to the city. Mrs. Sarah J. Antrim will be conducted at 8 o'clock this morning at the house, 119 South Hyde Park avenue. The remains will be taken to Danville for interment.

A false alarm was turned in from Box 22, corner of Hampton street and South Main avenue, shortly after 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Smoke issuing from a chimney in John Horne's house, on South Hyde Park avenue and Rock street, caused the alarm.

John H. Williams, of the well-known firm Williams & Co., of South Main avenue, has purchased the old company store building on North Main avenue from the Merrifield estate, and will remodel the structure, putting in a new plate glass front on a level with the sidewalk and making other needed improvements. The purchase includes seventy-one feet of frontage.

A new Republican club has been organized in the Fifteenth ward with the following officers: President, John Lewis; secretary, Ezra Davis; treasurer, John R. Jones.

John Larkin, aged thirteen years, was bitten by a dog Wednesday afternoon, while playing near his home on Lafayette street. Dr. Brennan cauterized the wound. Private John Stephens, of Company Ceremony Performed Last Night by Several Visiting Clergymen—Excellent Concert Given by Bauer's Band—Marriage of George Williams and Miss Mary T. Powell. Richards-Simons Nuptials—W. F. Finn Elected Second Lieutenant of Company H.

Council convened for the examination of Rev. R. E. Reese, the new pastor of Puritan Congregational church, yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock and the following officers were appointed: Moderator, Rev. E. J. Morris, of Wilkes-Barre; scribe, Rev. O. L. Davis, of Williamstown, Pa. The council was well pleased with the credentials furnished by the candidate and he was therefore accepted.

In the evening the following programme was rendered: Reading of Scripture, Rev. E. A. Boyd, of Scranton; prayer of invocation, Rev. E. S. Jones, D. D.; right hand of fellowship, Rev. J. C. Luske, of Coaldeale; charge to pastor, Rev. T. D. Henshaw, of Bloomsburg, Pa.; charge to church, Rev. J. J. Jenkins, of Rendham.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Henshaw, who said: "People are asking, 'Has he a message?' To be successful the pastor must feel that his message is true."

In the charge to the church, Rev. J. J. Jenkins, of Rendham, said that Christ uses the weary church only twice. Church does not mean the same as the kingdom of Heaven. Many church members will never see the kingdom of Heaven.

Bauer's Band Concert. Prof. Robert Bauer and his excellent band gave a grand concert at the Court Street Methodist Episcopal church last night. The large auditorium was filled with lovers of music. Thomas H. Miles gave the cornet solo, "Columbia" in a pleasing manner and was compelled to respond to an encore.

Barbara Friday was then given by the band. This was followed by the series, "Cavalry," "Infantry," "Artillery" and "In Battle." This was listened to with intent interest and was most vigorously applauded. The concert was closed by the rendering of "The Star Spangled Banner."

Williams-Powell. The marriage of George Williams, of Wayne avenue, and Miss Mary A. Powell was quietly solemnized Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock, at the home of the bride's mother on Edna avenue. The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. E. Reese, pastor of the Puritan Congregational church in the presence of relatives only.

Immediately after the nuptials, Mr. and Mrs. Williams left on a wedding tour, which will embrace New York City and other points. Upon their return will commence housekeeping in a handsomely furnished house on Wayne avenue. Both young people are well and favorably known. The groom was formerly a member of Bauer's band, and is a musician of some prominence.

Married at Binghamton. Osborne Richards, of School street, and Miss Bertha Simmons, of Parker street, went to Binghamton on Wednesday last, and were united in marriage unawares, save to their relatives and a few intimate friends, who were apprised previously of their intention.

Mr. and Mrs. Richards are among the most prominent and widely known young people of the North End, and enjoy the esteem and well wishes of a legion of friends in their matrimonial adventure. Mr. Richards is a member of the Delaware and Hudson machine works. The couple for the present will reside with Mrs. Richards' parents on Parker street.

Mentioned in Brief. On Wednesday afternoon, Miss Elizabeth Hill, of Summit avenue, and P. R. Lewis, of Chinchilla, were married at the home of Rev. S. G. Rowing, pastor of the North Main Avenue Baptist church, of which the bride has been an active member for some time. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis left on the 6.10 train for Chinchilla, where they will go to housekeeping in a newly furnished home.

Major Roblin conducted an election at the Auditorium, Wednesday evening, for the second lieutenant of Company H. The candidates were Sergeants Jennie Reading, of Williamsport, is the guest of her parents, on Church avenue, Misses Florence Linck and Hannah Kissinger, also of Williamsport, are the guests of Rev. and Mrs. Reading.

A grand entertainment and social will be held in the Auditorium, Friday evening, April 20, for the purpose of purchasing an artificial limb for Francis Jones, who was badly injured several months ago.

The Keystone Literary and Dramatic club will give an entertainment at the Auditorium, Monday evening, April 16.

PERSONAL NOTES. Mrs. Howell Davis, of Ferdinand street, has as her guest Miss Bertha Simmons, of Pittston.

Mrs. David Jones, of Plymouth, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Jones, of Hill street.

T. B. Dunn, of Block street, is entertaining his niece, Miss Mabel Bassett, of Segoe county, N. Y.

Thomas Dunn has returned from Chesham, N. Y., where he attended the funeral of his father.

All news matter for The Tribune will receive prompt attention if left at Davis' drug store.
