LIVE NEWS OF THE INDUSTRIAL WORLD

STRIKE AT MT. PLEASANT COLLIERY STILL ON.

Men Refused to Accept the Scale of Wages Presented by Their Employers—Temple Iron Company Obtained an Injunction to Prevent Strikers from Interfering with Its Men—Make-up of the D. L. & W. Board—New Tobacco Company Formed by Local Men.

The miners of the Mt. Pleasant, who quit work several days ago, are still out and all overtures made by the company for a settlement have thus far been rejected. The latest terms submitted by the employers were $1.05 per car when coal is 2 feet thick, $1.15 per car when coal is less than 2 feet thick, 6 1/2 cents per inch of rock taken down, measurement to be made from top of rock to top of rail and six inches to be credited for rail and tie.

The company also offers $1.41 per lineal yard in cross-cut, coal to be loaded clean, and the cars to have 6-inch topping at the breaker black-head or boney between coal and roof to be taken down. The miners insist upon $1.05 1/2 per car, no matter what the thickness of the coal; $1.41 per lineal yard in cross-cut and $2.25 per lineal yard of rock and an allowance made for the black-head.

The men claim that if they accepted the scale offered by the company their condition would be even worse than it was before. The men expected to have a conference with Superintendent Neale on Saturday, but owing to his absence from the city nothing has been done. A committee has been appointed to wait on the officials of the company to arrange a settlement of the trouble.

Sheriff Called Out.

Judge Halsey, of Wilkes-Barre, granted a preliminary injunction, on Saturday, restraining the striking miners of the Temple Coal company from interfering with the men now at work at the Forty Fort collieries. The company, in applying for the injunction, claimed that the engineers and pump-runners had been threatened by the strikers, and that their lives were in danger. Sheriff Harvey immediately after the injunction was granted, swore in a number of deputies, who are now patrolling outside the mines.

T. H. Watkins, the general manager of the company, stated on Saturday that the statement that he had refused to confer with a committee of miners was false. He stated that he did confer with them for three hours and informed them that he had investigated the matter thoroughly, and had found that the company was paying its men more than the average price paid by other companies operating mines in the region.

He further informed the committee that he had no objection to his employees joining the United Mine Workers of America, but has objections to discussing his business with the representatives of that organization.

Meeting of Agents. The monthly meeting of the Lackawanna passenger agents was held in this city on Saturday, and was attended by General Passenger Agent V. W. Lee, Chief Clerk George W. Heyler, General Eastern Passenger Agent Howard J. Ball, Travelling Passenger Agent Guy Adams, all of New York; Division Passenger Agents Fred P. Fox, of Buffalo; W. C. Brayton, of Syracuse, and M. L. Smith, of this city. Breakfast was enjoyed at the Jersey, and several hours were devoted to discussing matters pertaining to the company's interests. The visitors were taken through the local shops, where the new rolling stock was inspected, and a run over the Bloom division on the combination car was also enjoyed.

The agents discussed the summer time tables, which are now being arranged, and which will be issued on May 15, and adjournment was made to meet in Syracuse next month.

New Tobacco Company Formed. A company has just been formed and charter of incorporation applied for by leading tobacco dealers in Northeastern Pennsylvania, to be known as "The Tri-color Cigar and Tobacco company." A meeting of the incorporators was had Saturday at the Scranton house in this city, at which meeting it was decided to capitalize the company with an authorized capital of one hundred thousand dollars.

County Treasurer M. J. Kelly was made temporary secretary; Victor Koch, of the Scranton house, temporary treasurer, and the well-known tobacco manufacturer, Adolph Starkman, was made president and manager.

This bids fair to be the largest tobacco manufacturing enterprise ever exploited in Scranton. The final organization of the incorporation will be completed on Tuesday of next week. The charter has been applied for by Attorney J. B. Republic, and the incorporation is to be under the laws of the state of Delaware.

The Coal Trade. The output of 3,136,000 tons of hard coal for March shows that month was up to the normal as a coal burner. Though the output was 280,000 tons less than March, 1899, which was a March long to be remembered. The various companies seem to have their output under good control. There is some coal accumulating at seaboard points where prices show no improvement. Coastwise freight rates are very low and the fact that the movement eastward is light is when the score was on an far from being closed up yet. In the West, as in the East, trade is quiet. Navigation is expected to open to Lake Superior points the coming week. It is doubtful if there will be much of a rush to get anthracite forward in light is when the score was on an far from being closed up yet.

At New York harbor the steam sizes continue scarce, buckwheat being very hard to get. The large sizes are not wanted. We quote for free burning anthracite f. o. b. New York: Broken, $3.63.20; egg, $3.29.35; nut, $3.62.75; stove, $3.65.35.—Engineering and Mining Journal.

MRS. O'BOYLE RECOVERING. Bullet Was Removed from Her Cheek Saturday.

Mrs. James O'Boyle, of Franklin avenue, who was shot Saturday, March 31, by her husband, who then committed suicide, is making good progress at the Lackawanna hospital. Saturday a bullet was removed from her left cheek.

It was the one which had shattered her upper jaw, and considerable difficulty was experienced in removing it. Shortly after her entry into the hospital a bullet was removed from her back, and it is thought that there is still another in her body.

Mrs. O'Boyle is kept in the greatest possible quiet and her recovery is now considered practically sure.

EASTER SERVICES IN CITY'S CHURCHES

had been rehearsing this mass for weeks past, under the able direction of Professor W. P. Schilling, and they acquitted themselves remarkably well. The "Credo" and "Benedictus" were from Lambillio's Paschal Mass. The officers of the mass were as follows: Celebrant, Right Rev. Bishop M. J. Hoban; assistant priest, Rev. D. J. MacGouldrick; deacons of honor, Rev. P. E. Lavelle and Rev. J. F. Malone; deacon, Rev. P. J. Gough; sub-deacon, Rev. Myles McManus; master of ceremonies, Rev. J. J. Loughran.

Rev. D. J. MacGouldrick preached the sermon, in which he dwelt upon the lessons to be drawn from Easter Sunday and the joys that should possess all Christians on that occasion. He stated that the resurrection of Christ proved that he was innocent of the crimes imputed to him by his enemies. It also proved irrefutably his divinity. The resurrection, he contended, was a guarantee of man's resurrection providing he lived in the Christ. Another forcible lesson that may be derived from the resurrection is that the friends of Our Lord misunderstood Him. They did not understand how He could rise from the dead and brought spaces to preserve from corruption a body that was incorruptible.

"There are too many Christians today," said he, "who deal not with a living Christ, but with one who is dead; not with a resurrected Christ, but a Christ who is still the tenant of a tomb. Too often do we bring material gifts to Him instead of the affection of our hearts."

The sanctuary and altar of the church were beautifully decorated with Easter lilies, the altar especially being tastefully trimmed.

GRACE REFORMED. All of the special musical programme prepared for rendition at the Grace Reformed church yesterday was not singing, owing to the unfortunate illness of the choir leader, W. T. Hacker. What was given, however, was well rendered and reflected great credit on the choir. The church was handsomely decorated with lilies and cut flowers.

The pastor, Rev. G. F. Alrich, preached an appropriate sermon in the morning on "The Power of the risen Christ."

The day was appropriately observed yesterday at the Holy Trinity Lutheran church. The edifice was beautifully decorated with banks of palms and lilies. The Holy Communion was administered at the morning service and Rev. C. E. Spieker spoke on the subject of "Easter Joy." E. R. Protheroe led the choir, which rendered several appropriate selections.

In the evening a very entertaining programme was rendered by the members of the Sunday school. Several songs were sung, recitations given and short addresses made. Rev. Spieker speaking briefly on the meaning of the day and the lessons derived from it. At the conclusion of the services each child was presented with a small basket of Easter eggs.

At the Grace Lutheran church, at Madison avenue and Mulberry street, Rev. Luther Hess Waring yesterday was in charge of the services. In the morning the largest communion in several years was administered and a number of new members admitted into the congregation. Rev. Waring spoke interestingly on the subject of "The Resurrection" and the choir rendered several vocal selections in an excellent manner.

The church was handsomely decorated and presented an appearance entirely symbolical of the Easter season. In the evening the Sunday school rendered an interesting programme and Rev. Waring spoke on "Church Extension." Both services were attended by a very large congregation. The offering was very generous.

congregation of the Calvary Reformed church yesterday morning, taking his text from Romans and, spoke on the transforming power of Christ. Several children were baptized and a large number of new members admitted to the congregation. In the evening an entertaining programme was rendered by the members of the congregation and Sunday school, passages of scripture being read and Easter carols sung. A special choir consisting of the Misses Hart, Miss Du Bois, Edward Weissenfuh, F. H. Smith and the pastor rendered several selections and Rev. Firor spoke on "A Walk to Emmaus." The talk was of a descriptive nature and was much enjoyed by the congregation which filled the handsomely decorated church.

The Easter services held at All Souls' Universalist church yesterday were very impressive. The chapel was very daintily and artistically decorated with ferns and flowers. The pastor, Rev. O. R. Beardsley, preached a very helpful and inspiring sermon on "Christ in You the Hope of Glory." During the services nine were admitted to membership and two children christened.

The Easter services at the African Methodist Episcopal church at 2.30 p. m. and 7.45 p. m. were of an elaborate and inspiring character. The music was of a high order and fully in accord with the spirit of the day. The children's choir sang in the afternoon under the direction of Miss Sadie J. Morton, who prepared a special programme. The solos by Miss Mabel Wilson and Ella Rex were well rendered and gives credit to these little girls' voices.

In the evening there was special music by a large choir of selected voices. Mrs. Gilmory and Claude Smith sang the duet, "He Chose the Cross." Jack Berry sang "The Resurrection" in a fine baritone voice. "The Holy City" was sung by Mr. Nelson. "The Palms," by David Brown, and a soprano solo, "The Celestial Chord," by Mrs. Morton, were all rendered with good effect. The church was decorated with Easter lilies, potted plants and ferns.

POLICE PICKINGS. John Clark was arrested Saturday by Patrolman Lena Day on the charge of suspicion and violating the city ordinance by attempting to sell jewelry on the street without a license. He was fined $2.

Richard Murphy, a well known character in police circles, was arrested at 8.30 o'clock Saturday night by Patrolman Lena Day, who found him in A. S. Cleveland's market, on lower Lackawanna avenue, filling a bag with clams. He was taken to the Center street police station and held for court. This is the third night in succession that this place was burglarized.

John Beyer, of South Scranton, was arrested late Saturday night for creating a disturbance at the Center street. A quarrel was started, which resulted in Beyer hurling a lighted lamp at one of the women in the place. It set fire to the carpet and the police were notified. Sergeant Jones arrived and took the man to the Center street police station. He there left a deposit for his appearance at court yesterday morning, but, however, did not appear.

Auburn Physicians Claim Their Town Has Been Wronged.

Physicians at Auburn Centre, Susquehanna county, where smallpox, it was reported, are out with a claim that the disease is not smallpox, but Cuban chicken-pox, and that the papers have done a great injustice to their town.

The newspaper reports, it might be noted, were founded on the statement of the state board of health, which has an officer there to maintain a strict quarantine.
