CARBONDALE.

FUNERAL OF ALBIC BERRY.

The funeral of Albic Berry was held yesterday at 1 o'clock, Presiding Elder Rev. F. W. A. F. Chaffee, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, at which deceased was a regular attendant. The home on Terrace street was crowded with friends of the deceased while the services were being conducted. A number of members of the Methodist church, Misses Butler and Bailey and Messrs. Dix and Clark, sang several selections. Many went to Peckville, where interment was made. The pallbearers were: Messrs. D. Humphrey, H. H. Huch, Richard Lee, E. M. Peck and William Harper.

WATER ORDINANCE ADVANCED.

Councils are pushing along lively the ordinance providing for a special election on the water question. Common council passed it on third reading last night and turned it over to the Selectmen. They all voted for it on two readings, except Chairman Fletcher, who did not vote either way. He said he certainly would not vote against it, but couldn't vote for it now, as he hadn't seen the proposed site and was not familiar with the work done by the committee. Councils adjourned to meet in joint session Tuesday evening, to elect a city engineer.

UNION SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC.

The Protestant Sunday schools of the city have decided to picnic at Lake Lodore, July 20. Representatives of the several schools elected E. C. Hartman, of Trinity, chairman; A. S. Levensley, of the Borean Baptist, secretary, and M. D. Lathrop, of the First Presbyterian, treasurer. Committees have been appointed to make arrangements. The Mozart band will be in attendance. There will be forty cents for adults and twenty-five cents for children between 5 and 12 years.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Miss Kathryn V. Farrell, of Price street, and Miss Loretta Coleman, of Second street, spent yesterday in Scranton. Robert Copeland, of Belmont street, is laid up with a sprained ankle. Miss Teresa McHale is spending a month with Pittston friends. L. Zeigler and family have returned from a week's outing at Crystal lake. J. G. Rose was confined to the house yesterday, as the result of a fall from his bicycle. The Cycle club will have a club run to Archbald Friday evening. Martin Larkin, of Schenectady, N. Y., is visiting his mother, Mrs. Mary Larkin, of Brooklyn street. Mrs. A. W. Reynolds and daughter have gone to Ocean Grove for the summer. Attorneys George Horan and M. P. Conroy and Deputy County Treasurer John Gaffney, of Scranton, were business callers here yesterday. Professor W. A. E. Scott is training a boys' choir for the new Trinity church.

JERMYN AND MAYFIELD.

Heated Session of the School Board.

Band Concert at Mayfield Tomorrow Night—Personal News. At Tuesday night's meeting of the school board our report closed at 10 o'clock, when all but two of the teachers were elected, as stated in yesterday's Tribune. The two new teachers appointed were J. P. Wilson, of Green Grove, and J. P. Wilson, of Green Grove. The rest of the session was devoted to assigning the teachers to their various rooms, and this proved such a task that after remaining in session four hours and a half they adjourned at midnight without completing the task. The teachers who were assigned were: Miss Grace Vall, room 1; Arthur Fowler, room 10; John Jenkins, room 9; Miss Sara Mullen, room 8; J. P. Wilson, room 7. For room 6 the board could not agree, Miss Cora Davis, Miss Maggie Mather and Miss Carrie Murray were nominated and the vote was 4 for Miss Mulhern, who was supported by Loughney, Grant Edmunds and Pritchard. Miss Davis was supported by Hunter, Morcom and DeWitt, and Miss Murray by Pritchard. Seventy-five ballots were taken, the result being practically as above stated, when Secretary Hunter said he did not propose being kept out of bed all night, proceeded to gather up the books and papers preparatory to leaving. The other members followed and outside some one asked when the board would meet again, to which the secretary replied "at the call of the president." President Pritchard here interposed saying he would never call the board together. The meeting throughout the evening was quite heated and Pritchard at one time threatened to resign. If the president should fall to call another meeting, the members can do so themselves. The Mayfield band will give the third of their series of concerts on the lawn of J. J. Place, Mayfield, Friday evening, the 13th, when they will render the following programme: "March, 'The Man Behind the Gun,'" Sousa; grand selection from "Martha" Flotow; reverie, "The Wayside Chapel," Wilson; Postillon waltz, Southern postillon; Meyer; medley overture, "Off and On," DeWitt, "Star Spangled Banner." The funeral of the late Harry Williams, whose life was so cruelly crushed out by a fall of rock while at work in the Glenwood shaft, will take place tomorrow afternoon.

Miss Grace Driesbach, of Hyde Park, is spending the week with her sister, Mrs. Bert Mason, of Second street.

Miss Bradley, of Buffalo, is the guest of Rev. Maynard R. and Mrs. Thompson, of Bacon street. Merton Wheeler, Henry Maxwell, Arthur Winter, Thomas Gavin, George Battenberg, Willie Parks and Frank Collins have rented Dr. Graves' cottage at Crystal lake, and will take possession on Friday. They have hired a generally last for a day or two, but the last time I had it lasted over two weeks, and was terribly bad. My wife bought a bottle of Peruna, and the first dose I took helped me. I have only had it since that time, and that was last spring and I took about two-thirds of a bottle of Peruna to effect a cure." Mrs. George W. Taylor, Lex, Tenn., says: "I had had chronic diarrhoea for six years. I tried everything I could hear of and had consulted several physicians without avail. My husband bought me a bottle of Peruna, and began to take it. I got a bottle of Peruna and began to feel better after the first dose. I believe if it had not been for Peruna I would have died. Everyone said I was going to die and I believed it. To those who are suffering with catarrh, take pleasure in recommending your medicine to them." A book entitled "Summer Catarrh," sent free by the Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, Ohio.
