SUMMER HOME AT LAKE ARIEL.

Efforts Being Made to Purchase One of the Cottages.

Over sixty girls have so far enjoyed their vacations this summer at the Summer Home for Young Women at Lake Ariel, which is under the direct charge of Miss Elizabeth Doersam and Miss Maud M. Mickle. Now an effort is being made by some of the prominent cottagers and guests at Hotel Pines to purchase the Conway cottage, next to the one now occupied and provide a permanent home for working girls every summer.

At a meeting recently held Charles Schadt, C. D. Jones and John Simpson were elected as trustees to take charge of the purchasing fund, which is now being raised by private donations and by the holding of entertainments.

Over half the required sum has already been collected, and the promoters of the idea feel confident that they will secure the remainder before the end of the season.

LOOKING FOR HER BOY.

An Anxious Mother Suffers Grief and Disappointment.

Mrs. Daniel Owens, of Olyphant, whose husband died recently, was making inquiries at the Lackawanna railroad station yesterday relative to the troops which are booked over the road. It seems a son of the woman is a member of the Fifth United States Infantry, which was doing duty in Cuba, and since the regiment was ordered to China she has been unable to locate her boy.

Meantime the remains of the father have been kept pending the son's arrival. Congressman Connelley and others have been appealed to in order to locate young Owens and his whereabouts may soon be determined. Another consignment of soldiers are expected through this city on Thursday of this week.

Seven County Veteran Association.

Trains for the reunion at Lake Ariel will leave the Erie and Wyoming Valley station, Scranton, Wednesday, August 16th, at 8.45 and 11 a. m., and 2.25 p. m. Fare 60 cents, children half price.

The new catalogue of the First Pennsylvania State Normal School at Millersville is an interesting, illustrated book of 107 pages, filled with valuable information of this great school. It will be sent free on application.

SPECIAL ELECTION TODAY.

Voters of the Eighth Ward Will Elect a Councilman.

The voters of the Eighth ward will today elect a common councilman to succeed F. W. Ziehlman, who has become chief of the fire department. Jacob Harris is the Republican candidate, and T. J. Roche has been nominated by the Democrats.

Mr. Harris is a well-known merchant, and is one of the solid, substantial citizens of the ward. He has been an active worker for party success for years, and this is the first time he has aspired to public office. He is a man who will make an excellent councilman. The shrewdness with which he has managed his own affairs is the best evidence of his ability to give valuable assistance in managing the affairs of the city.

Judge Edwards yesterday appointed W. A. Raub majority inspector in the First district to succeed Jacob Harris, who is disqualified by being a candidate, and C. C. Ferber to the same position in the Second district, where he is disqualified by resignation.

Joseph Greenberger and T. F. Carroll were named as overseers in the First district, and Nathan Weiss and J. H. Collins in the Second district.

BOY DROWNED IN THE ROARING BROOK

He Was Charles Ridgeway, the 12-Year-Old Son of Mrs. L. M. Ridgeway of Adams Avenue.

Charles Ridgeway, the twelve-year-old son of Mrs. L. M. Ridgeway, who conducts the Aldine, at 429 Adams avenue, was drowned yesterday morning in the Lackawanna Iron and Steel company's dam, on the Roaring Brook, just below Nay Aug Falls.

Eddie Devers and Clarence Foster, two young lads, were walking near the dam in the morning about 10 o'clock, when they noticed a pile of boy's clothing lying on the bank, but no sign of the boy. Some little distance away they saw two boys in a state of nudity, picking berries.

They called to these lads and asked them where the other boy was, and were told that he was in swimming. They thought, but when they saw that there was no trace of him, said he must be drowned. The two boys explained that they had been in bathing with the Ridgeway boy and that they had quit the water to pick berries, leaving him still bathing.

They had not seen him drown, they explained, and the first they knew that anything was wrong was when Foster and Devers called to them.

All four dived after the body, but failed to secure it, whereupon Foster and Devers came down town and notified the boy's mother and the police. The names of the two boys who were in bathing with Ridgeway are not known, but that they were friends of his is evidenced by the fact that they knew his name.

Patrolman Bloch and Schmitz were dispatched to the scene and recovered the boy's body shortly after 4 o'clock. Deputy Coroner Paine was notified and departed after viewing the remains that an inquest was unnecessary. The body was removed to the home of the boy's mother. The funeral arrangements have not yet been made.

ARRANGED FOR LABOR DAY.

Committee of Central Labor Union Met Last Night.

The committee of the Central Labor union in charge of the Labor day demonstration held a meeting last night and perfected arrangements for the celebration of the day. A great parade will take place in the morning at 10 o'clock and in the afternoon a great demonstration will be made at Laurel Hill park. Last night the following officers were appointed to take charge of the parade:

Grand marshal, George Gother, cigar maker; chief of staff, L. W. Lotan, miner; aides to grand marshal, John J. Clark, cigar maker; John Dempsey, miner; marshal of the building trades division, Peter Holton; marshal of industrial union, W. S. Brain, Amalgamated Association of Railway Employees of America. All locals are requested to appoint their own marshals. The following invitation is extended the business men of the city:

We, the Labor Day committee, do extend a hearty invitation to the various business firms of the city to participate in our parade on Labor Day, Sept. 3, displaying their business on floats or otherwise. First come, best dressed, and applications to W. E. Brain, 109 Elder street, chief secretary.

There will be a meeting of the Central Labor union next Sunday, at which important business will be transacted.

DIFFICULTIES OF SLATE MAKING

ENCOUNTERED BY THE DEMOCRATIC LEADERS.

At An Early Hour This Morning the Work of Selecting a Ticket Had Been Completed and It Will Be Presented to the Convention Today for Ratification—Considerable Difficulty in Getting Candidates for Some of the Offices—Slate as Decided Upon.

With a question mark after the jury commissioner the following is the ticket that will be nominated at today's Democratic convention:

Congress—M. F. Conry, Scranton. Judge—Hon. John P. Kelly, Scranton. District Attorney—James J. O'Malley, Olyphant. Treasurer—C. G. Boland, Scranton. Prothonotary—Matthew F. Norton, Carbondale. Clerk of the Courts—Thomas Law, Archbald. Recorder—Fred W. Warnke, Scranton. Register—William Koch, Jr., Scranton. Jury Commissioner—Andrew Healey, Dunmore.

It was 1 o'clock this morning before the ticket was completed. The leaders got together early in the night at the St. Charles, and proceeded to fill in the three vacant places—district attorney, prothonotary and clerk of the courts.

When it was seen that neither John J. Murphy nor Hon. John P. Quinnan would take the nomination for district attorney, Mr. O'Malley was picked upon as a likely candidate, and shortly after midnight agreed to go into the fight.

Frank Thompson, P. J. Hickey, Benson Davis and E. J. Robinson, who were the possibilities for clerk of the courts, did not come up to the requirements, and after a good deal of filling it was decided to let Thomas Law, of Archbald, have another try for the place. There was no one else looking for prothonotary, and Mr. Norton was put on the slate.

There was no one slated for jury commissioner, the slate-makers said, and this was probably true, but the general trend of opinion was that Mr. Healey would win out from the big list of seekers for this place. In an open fight, however, such as it is claimed this will be, any one of a half-dozen other candidates especially M. E. O'Malley, John Flynn or William M. Kane, is liable to carry the day.

Mr. Conry was at the headquarters for a few minutes, but did not evince any desire to participate in the making up of the ticket. He seemed content that he would head it, slate-makers and no slate-makers, and employed his time in intensifying this contentment by circulating among the delegates on the outside, rather than hobnobbing with the leaders.

Ex-Mayor James J. O'Neill, of Carbondale, was agreed upon for chairman.

SHIRT WAIST MAN HAS COME TO STAY

So Mr. White Believes and He Has Designed a Shirt Waist for the Special Benefit of Men.

Theodore A. White, of this city, president of the Theodore A. White Manufacturing company, manufacturer of men's shirts, having realized that the shirt waist man has come to stay, has designed what is undoubtedly the first really truly men's shirt waist seen in the east. There have been rumors of something of this sort having been designed in some of the big eastern cities, but Mr. White avers that they are only rumors and that he is the first to design this article of dress.

The shirt waist men who have so far appeared here have been simply wearing their ordinary outing shirts without a coat, but Mr. White appeared on the streets yesterday in his new waist, which is not an ordinary outing shirt, by any manner of means.

It closely resembles the shirt waists worn by the small boy, being equipped with a row of buttons around the waist to which the trousers are buttoned. The belt can then be placed around the waist and if the wearer has not got this especially large embossed instead of pulling his belt until it nearly squeezes him to death all that will be necessary will be to pull it just tight enough to keep it on.

The cuffs are made exactly like ordinary link cuffs, but are, of course, far more especially large and heavy. Thus the disadvantage of having to put on detachable cuffs is done away with. Mr. White says the company will not manufacture any of the waists until next season and he expects that they will then have a very large sale.

HEAVY MORTALITY RATE.

There Were Fifty-three Deaths, Twenty-six Being Children.

That the hot weather last week played sad havoc with the lives of the little children in the city was evidenced, yesterday, when the secretary of the board of health's weekly report was given out. This showed that twenty-six children under five years of age had died last week from various complaints, superinduced by the heat.

There were fifty-three deaths altogether, which just equals this year's highest weekly record. There were ten deaths from typhoid fever, six from six being diptheria and four scarlet fever.

CLEANING OUT CENTRE STREET.

All Disorderly Houses Must Be Closed by September 2.

Mayor Moir stated to a Tribune man yesterday that he has served notice upon all the disorderly house keepers in Centre street, between Penn and Franklin avenues, that they must remove from that block before September 2. If they do not, his honor will arrest them daily, and will also proceed against the landlords for renting their buildings for immoral purposes.

This is in line with the mayor's plan of keeping Centre street entirely free from all disorderly resorts. He has succeeded in thoroughly cleaning out the block between Wyoming and Penn avenues, and is determined to do the same for the other block.

JEALOUS HUSBAND'S ACT.

He Murders His Wife and Fatally Shoots Himself.

Toledo, O., Aug. 13.—Inmate with jealousy, S. C. Reichard, 124 Camden street, at his wife's at the confectionery store she was keeping in East Broadway, then walked to the family home and shot himself through the breast.

The woman expired in less than five minutes. He was promptly arrested and taken to the hospital, and will die before morning. He was insanely jealous of her, and left letters indicating that he had planned the murder and suicide.

DIED.

KANE—In Scranton, Pa., Aug. 13, 1900, Elizabeth Kane, age 6 years and 4 months, daughter of Mrs. John A. Kane. Funeral Wednesday, Aug. 15, at 2.30 p. m., from the residence, Irving avenue. Interment in the Cathedral cemetery.

SAYS HE WILL ROOT OUT SPEAKEASIES

FIRST ARRESTS UNDER THE NEW ORDINANCE.

Four Men and a Woman Were Taken Into Custody and at Hearings Yesterday Had Fines of $50 and $75 Imposed Upon Them by Mayor Moir—Testimony That Was Offered in the Cases—Mayor Well Satisfied with the First Days Work—Other Arrests to Follow.

"We are in earnest, about exterminating this speakeasy evil, and will not rest until we have cleared the city of them," remarked Mayor Moir to a Tribune man yesterday, and the record of the day was strong testimony to the truth of his assertion. Five proprietors of tipping houses were arrested and all fined heavily.

Frank Hasselawski, of River street; Mrs. Bridget Ruane, of 324 Larch street, and John Dube, of Fourth street, were each fined $50, with the alternative of spending thirty days in the county jail. Stephen Flanagan, of 1719 Luzerne street, was fined $75, and in the case of Edward Rush, of 113 Seventh street, sentence was postponed until 3 o'clock Monday, August 20. Rush's attorney, ex-Judge Knapp, went before Mayor Moir and told him that an application for a license to be granted to Rush has already been filed. Until he secures it, his place will be closed.

The arrested parties were all given their hearings yesterday afternoon, with the exception of Hasselawski, who was arrested by Special Officer Greenburger in the morning, and arranged before Mayor Moir. Several persons testified to having purchased intoxicating liquors in his place, and Mayor Moir then imposed a $50 fine.

SHE BATTERED HER AUNT WITH A CLUB

Miss Julia Sullivan, of Ninth Street, Inflicted Serious Injury on Her Aunt—Was Greatly Enraged.

A woman named Mrs. Sullivan, residing on Ninth street, near Jackson, was the victim of an assault at noon yesterday, and as a result she is in a dangerous condition.

It seems that her niece, Miss Julia Sullivan, who resides nearby, took exception to some remarks made by her aunt, and to demonstrate the force of her objection picked up a club and proceeded to batter her aunt's head.

The girl would probably have battered Mrs. Sullivan's brains out, but for the timely interference of several spectators. As it was, the woman is so badly injured that the police, a physician and a priest were called.

The police failed to make an arrest and Dr. J. J. Carroll, who was called, stated that the woman's injuries are not necessarily fatal.
