CITY NOTES

BOY DROWNED.—Coroner Roberts was notified last night that a boy had been drowned at Throop yesterday. He will investigate the case today.

DOUGHERTY FUNERAL.—The funeral of the late Anthony Dougherty, of 624 Irving avenue, will be held tomorrow morning. Interment will be in the Catholic cemetery.

HEADQUARTERS OPENED.—The Democratic county committee has opened headquarters in Liberty hall, Washington avenue, from which several successful campaigns have already been conducted.

MEETING OF CLERKS.—The Scranton Clerks association, No. 211, will hold their regular meeting tonight at 8 o'clock at Industrial hall, 415 Spruce street. All members are requested to be present.

PITCHFORD ENTERED BAIL.—Before Alderman Bailey, of the Thirteenth ward, Monday evening, Reese Pitchford entered bail to answer at court a charge preferred by Miss Florence Simon, of Marion street.

CIRKESKY ARRESTED.—Frank Cirkesky, of Old Forge, was held in $500 bail by Alderman Miller, last night on the charge of assaulting Mary Antonietti, who was fined an additional $10 for disorderly conduct.

TWO TOPICS.—The attention of the public is called to the morning topics at the Universalist church September 9 and 16, September 9, the subject, "Almost Persuaded." September 16, the subject, "Fully Persuaded."

CAR STRUCK COW.—Car No. 121, on the Moccasin line of the Scranton Railway company, collided with a cow late Monday night. The cow was thrown onto the tracks and killed, while the car's tender was badly damaged.

LEFT THE HOSPITAL.—George Grabner, of the South Scranton young man who tried to kill himself a week ago because he was jealous of Miss Alice Baird, of Port Jervis, N. Y., was discharged from the Lackawanna hospital yesterday.

SPECIAL NUMBER.—The Labor Day issue of Every Saturday, the paper devoted to the interests of labor, which is issued by James J. Coleman and P. G. Moran, was perhaps the handsomest number ever issued by the enterprising firm. It is printed in colors and nicely illustrated.

BIICYCLIST INJURED.—Milled Slack, of the central city, while riding his bicycle yesterday afternoon collided with a wagon at the corner of Wyoming avenue and Mulberry street and was thrown off the wheel. One of his legs was badly bruised and he was taken to the Moses Taylor hospital.

PAY-DAYS.—The Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company paid yesterday at the Sloan, Hampton and Archbald mines. Today the employees of the Pine, Taylor and Holden will be paid. The Delaware and Hudson paid yesterday at the Marvins shaft and Leggett's Creek mine, North Scranton.

OLD PORCH MAN ARRESTED.—Frank Setkabay, of Old Forge, was arrested last night and taken to the Center street police station by Special Officer Greenberger on a warrant issued at the instance of Anthony Glivitz, who accused him of assault and battery. Alderman Miller issued the warrant.

LARCENY AND ASSAULT.—James Lee, a Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad employee, was yesterday arrested before Alderman Miller, charged with the larceny of fruit from the fruitstand of Thomas Morosini, at the corner of Franklin and Lackawanna avenues, and with assaulting Mrs. Morosini. He was held in $500 bail, $300 on each charge.

PRIVATE LESSONS IN COOKING.—During September Miss Kate L. Smith, teacher of domestic science in the Young Women's Christian association, will give private lessons at the homes of pupils. After September the instruction will be given in the kitchen of the Young Women's Christian association. Arrangements may be made at the office, 325 Washington avenue.

HELD IN $500 BAIL.—Louis Angle was yesterday given a hearing before Mayor Moir and fined $100 on the charge of the larceny of a horse and carriage belonging to Liverman Joseph Kelly. Angle hired the rig from Kelly, drove with it to Bloomsburg and then sold both animal and carriage. Angle was arrested Sunday and the police recovered the stolen property Monday. Angle received $25 at Bloomsburg for the outfit.

BUSY DAY.—Yesterday was an exceedingly busy day in police court and twenty prisoners were arraigned before Mayor Moir. Fines amounting to $30 were collected and several of those arrested were fortunate enough to be discharged. Of all the prisoners Joseph Butka was probably the most unlucky. Butka was one of the parties in a South Washington avenue fight and was badly manled, his head being badly cut. Special Officer Firestone put an end to the fight and after Butka's wounds were dressed placed him under arrest. The patrol wagon was summoned and Butka taken to the central police station. Mayor Moir fined him $5 yesterday.

Season 1900-1901
Of the Hardenbergh School of Music and Art opens Monday, Sept. 10th. Most approved system of class and private teaching. Piano, organ, voice, sight-singing, theory and art. Carter building, Adams avenue and Linden street.

Miss Torry's Private School, No. 412 Adams avenue, will reopen September 10, 1900.

DRINKING GOES RIGHT ON.
Revenue from Beer Stamps Last Month Unusually Large.

Although the Men's union, Mayor Moir, County Detective Leysnon and others have done much towards decreasing the number of drinking places in and about Scranton during the past year, the returns to the office of Internal Revenue Collector T. F. Penman show that there has been not only no falling off in the consumption of beer, but a very decided increase.

The revenue from beer stamps last month was $131,757.97. In August, 1899, it was only $119,737.59. Collector Penman says the increase—against odds as it assuredly was—is due to the fact that last month was the hottest August in many years.

The collections for the month from all sources were as follows:

Collection on lists	$ 456.47
Beer stamps	131,757.97
Spirits stamps	4,280.07
Cigar stamps	9,869.88
Tobacco stamps	9,600.39
Spices stamps	2,994.09
Documentary stamps	9,905.72
Proprietary stamps	483.12
Total	$169,046.33

GAMBLING PLACE
RAIDED BY OFFICERS
Work Was Done at the Instigation of the Men's Union—Number of Gambling Devises Seized.

At 8:30 o'clock last night a raid was made on the gambling place conducted at 227 Wyoming avenue by Francis Treon and Martin Young.

Treon and six other men were arrested and arraigned before Alderman Kasson.

The Men's union of Green Ridge, which has resumed its crusading work, conducted the raid.

Deputy W. S. Bartlett, of Alderman Kasson's court, served the writ, and Agent Robert Wilson and a corps of men in the union's employ, rounded up the persons in the establishment, and removed the gambling apparatus, which is valued at $300.

Martin Young, one of the proprietors of the place, was not in when the raid was made, but his partner, Treon, was captured, and entered $500 bail for his appearance in court.

The other men arrested gave their names as J. Smith, E. Henn, Harry Furst, Gus Rocks and Evan Van Acken, all of which titles are thought to be fictitious. They were released on their own recognizance to appear at a further hearing before Alderman Kasson, as the prosecutors in the case were busy last night with the disposition of the gambling furniture and could not appear to testify.

The apparatus will be held as evidence against the place. Among the spoils gathered in were a poker table, roulette wheel, faro bank, about half a bushel of poker chips, a large number of packs of poker cards, and a large amount of other gambling devices, all of which were taken to the central police station.

Bondsman Asks to Have Forfeited Bail Remitted.

Judge John P. Kelley has granted a rule, taken up at argument, court, to show cause why the forfeited recognizance should not be remitted in the case of the commonwealth against Joseph Killnaski.

Jacob Suravitz, who is Killnaski's bondsman in the sum of $500, made his application for the rule. He says the defendants was charged with desertion and non-support by his wife. The case was for trial April 21, 1900, and when Killnaski heard his name called he went out to look up a lawyer. When he returned the case had been tried over and the bail forfeited. Before a capias could be served, Killnaski and his wife eloped and made up and together departed for their old home in Austro-Hungary.

Mr. Suravitz believes that in view of all the circumstances in the case he should not be compelled to pay over the $500 which he pledged to the commonwealth.

CANDIDATES FOR THE LEGISLATURE
NOMINATED AT CONVENTIONS HELD YESTERDAY.

At Clark's Summit, the Democrats of the Third, Named Attorney John H. Bonner, of Old Forge, as Their Standard Bearer, and at Dickson City Their Brethren of the Fourth Placed Hon. P. E. Timlin Again in Nomination—Resolutions of the Convention.

The Democrats of the Third and Fourth legislative districts held conventions yesterday and nominated candidates for the legislature. Attorney John H. Bonner was named in the Third district and Hon. P. E. Timlin in the Fourth.

The Democrats of the Fourth legislative district convened in Fadden's hall, at Dickson City, yesterday and renominated for the legislature Hon. P. E. Timlin, of Jermyn, who has represented the district during the last session. The convention was a very quiet one, there being no demonstration of any nature, until the close of the afternoon at the end of the balloting, when Candidate Timlin and Thomas Mooney, of Carbondale, who opposed him for the nomination, shook hands cordially, and the defeated candidate assured his successful opponent of his hearty support.

Mooney made a strong run for the nomination, as did also T. A. Hendricks, of Jermyn, but Timlin was elected on the first ballot, the vote standing as follows: Timlin, 295; Mooney, 18; Hendricks, 9.

The convention was called to order by James Pigeon, of Carbondale, chairman of the standing committee of the Fourth district. He appointed Joseph Brennan, of Carbondale, temporary secretary of the convention, and Richard Kirwin and Stephen Evans as assistants. A permanent chairman was then elected. Mr. Pigeon and James O'Horo both being nominated for the chair. The vote resulted as follows: Pigeon, 37; O'Horo, 18.

THANKED THE DELEGATES.
After thanking the delegates for the honor conferred, Chairman Pigeon called for nominations for a permanent secretary, and John Rogan, of Olyphant, was unanimously chosen, after which the chairman appointed the following committee: William J. Brennan, of Carbondale; Thomas Quinn, John Hart, John Rogan, Thomas Grady, Resolutions—Thomas Coughlin, Carbondale; William Sullivan, Carbondale; Thomas Padden, Dickson; Michael Raddy, Mayfield; Edward Mc Dade, Elmhorst.

Organization—Joseph E. Brennan, Carbondale; John Gaffney, Michael Brennan, John P. Gaffney, James O'Hara.

The committee on resolutions drew up the following resolutions, endorsing the Kansas City platform:

We the delegates representing the Democrats of the Fourth legislative district of Lackawanna county, in convention assembled, do hereby approve of the declaration of principles adopted at Kansas City.

We renew our allegiance and devotion to the party which has always upheld the constitutional government and has ever sympathized with and encouraged the best aspirations of the masses.

In the person of William J. Bryan we recognize the ablest and sincerest champion of the people that this generation has ever known. We regard his running mate, A. E. Stevenson, as a Democrat who has been tried and found not wanting.

Resolved, That we do hereby endorse the candidates of W. J. Bryan and A. E. Stevenson and pledge them our most loyal support.

Resolved, That we pledge our sincerest support to our party's excellent county ticket.

Resolved, That we pledge our earnest support to the nominee of this convention.

CANDIDATES NAMED.
These proceedings occupied the entire morning, and in the afternoon, when the fifty-seven delegates were called to order, the chairman announced that nominations were in order for a candidate for the legislature. John Mearon, of Archbald, arose and nominated "the successful young man, who won the last contest, P. E. Timlin."

Joseph Brennan, of Carbondale, nominated Thomas Mooney, whom he described as an able, upright man, who would splendidly represent the district. Martin White, of Jermyn, then arose, and put before the convention the name of his fellow-townsmen, T. A. Hendricks.

After Timlin's nomination there were loud cries for a speech, and Candidate Timlin advanced to the platform, and expressed his deep thanks to the delegates for the honor they conferred upon him, and the trust and reliance they showed by renominating him. He pledged his untiring support to the party, and made a few remarks in the Kansas City convention and the platform they adopted.

He then walked over to Mr. Mooney, who extended his hand, and assured him that in the coming campaign he can depend upon him and the Carbondale Democrats for their unwavering support.

BONNER THE CANDIDATE.
At Clark's Summit yesterday the Democrats of the Third legislative district held a convention and nominated Attorney John H. Bonner, of Old Forge, for the legislature, and administered a few punches to former United States Senator Quay.

Mr. Bonner was unopposed. The district is strongly Republican and Mr. Bonner will have as his opponent Select Councilman Edward James, Jr.

Money-wasters

Let us know how much you spend on the whiskey, on drink and snacks in the crowd, on needless nicknacks in the line of lunches and the like, and we'll tell you—a few cents just the way it will be for you to start a SAVINGS FUND account. Perhaps you never figured up what you start "trifle."

Suppose you start in with one day's expenses, using the "savings" outfit. "Hook"—you say? No, wiser heads than yours' build success on reckoning with the penny—a mixture of cents with some, makes dollars. But go on—carefully jot down the items, day by day, till a week is gone; and then a month. What have you?

More money-wasters pay the $5 cent monthly, than remain below it, so we'll pass you. But we'll show you how to save the dollar, in a day or two.

How Mrs. Pinkham Helped Mrs. Gooden.

[LETTER TO MRS. PINKHAM NO. 12,732]

"I am very grateful to you for your kindness and the interest you have taken in me, and truly believe your medicines and advice are worth more to a woman than all the doctors in the world. For years I had female troubles and did nothing for them. Of course I became no better and finally broke down entirely. My troubles began with inflammation and hemorrhages from the kidneys, then inflammation, congestion and falling of the womb and inflammation of ovaries.

"I underwent local treatment every day for some time; then after nearly two months the doctor gave me permission to go back to work. I went back, but in less than a week was compelled to give up and go to bed. On breaking down the second time, I decided to let doctors and their medicine alone and try your remedies. Before the first bottle was gone I felt the effects of it. Three bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and a package of her Sensitive Wash did me more good than all the doctors' treatments and medicine.

"The first remark that greets me now is 'How much better you look!' and you may be sure I never hesitate to tell the cause of my health."—Mrs. E. J. GOODEN, ACKLEY, IA.

of this city, who was nominated by the Republicans several months ago.

The convention organized yesterday morning by electing John J. Coyne, of Minooka, as permanent chairman, and A. Nicholas, of Clark's Summit, as permanent secretary. Mr. Bonner's name was placed before the convention by P. F. Coyne, of Old Forge, and the nomination was made by acclamation. The resolutions adopted follow:

The Democrats of the Third Legislative district of Lackawanna county confidently renew their pledge of allegiance to the principles of their party as embodied in the magnificent platform adopted at Kansas City, and enthusiastically endorse the candidates there nominated for president of the United States, William J. Bryan and Adlai E. Stevenson; and they earnestly follow the lead of the majority of those two splendid types of American manhood and citizenship at the dawn of the twentieth century, who mark the beginning of a new and auspicious epoch in American economic and political history—an epoch which will have the distinction of being the most important of all that is contained in the history of our nation, and the one in which all men are created equal.

They appeal to the pride, honor, decency, and common sense of the citizenry of this state to elect the nominees of this convention for the state legislature. It should be the unflinching duty of every citizen to support the nominees of the Democratic party. The Democratic party is the only party in this state that stands for the perpetuation of the principles of political liberty. This is the first time in the history of this state that the issue of the perpetuation of the principles of political liberty is being waged in which the issue is the perpetuation or extermination of the degrading Quaker doctrine of the continuation of political despotism or the regeneration and redemption of this great state. It is the duty of every citizen who desires an unbiased and untrammeled judiciary, and who wishes to preserve civil and industrial liberty to the people.

Mr. Bonner in accepting the nomination said he was aware of the difficult task he had before him, in endeavoring to be elected in the Third district. "But," he continued, "I am not daunted, nor discouraged, for with the burning issues of this campaign understood by the masses and with a thorough and complete organization we will march triumphantly to victory under the leadership of that matchless and peerless leader, William Jennings Bryan."

After a bitter attack on Matthew Stanley Quay and his methods, Mr. Bonner concluded as follows: "In conclusion, gentlemen, I again thank you for this signal honor, and will promise that my untiring energy will be thrown into this campaign for the success of our whole ticket, and, if elected, will register my vote against M. S. Quay until his successor is elected."

Mr. Bonner was born in Providence and is 31 years of age. He was admitted to the Lackawanna bar in 1898 and subsequently took a course at the Dickinson Law school, at Carlisle, from which he was graduated in 1895.

EVERHART CASE WILL BE PUSHED
Father Has Resolved to Let the Law Take Its Course—Attorneys Preparing for the Trial.

Reconciliation is no longer a probability in the case of Dr. Everhart and his son Edwin, whom he accuses of having entered into a conspiracy against his life. The case is to go before a grand jury today, and if Young Everhart is complaining bitterly against his father, because of the latter's refusal to withdraw the prosecution, as the son was given to understand he would.

Only one meeting has taken place between father and son. That meeting, it is said, decided the father in the course he would pursue. It is claimed the father can not bring himself to be content to have the young man at liberty.

Joseph O'Brien and W. W. Baylor, attorneys for the prosecution, are at work on the case, preparing for its presentation to the grand jury and its subsequent trial in quarter sessions.

INTIMIDATION IS CHARGED.
Residents of Old Forge Arrested at Instance of Joseph Jermyn.

Benjamin Lewis, Carlo Sivario, Mrs. William Evans and Miss Celia Jenkins, of Old Forge, were arrested yesterday, at the instance of Joseph J. Jermyn, one of the proprietors of the Jermyn mines at Rendham, and were arraigned before Alderman Miller, charged with assaulting and intimidating the men who are working at the shaft.

The men are both striking miners, while the women are in sympathy with them. On several occasions last week they threatened the men working at the mines, calling them "scabs."

While they were going to work last Wednesday, the accused threw stones at them, several of which struck the workmen and inflicted severe injuries. The four women were arrested at 5:30 ball space for their appearance at court.

REFEREES SUGGEST SOME AMENDMENTS
REVIEW OF THE NATIONAL CONVENTION AT SARATOGA.

Bankruptcy Referee C. A. Van Wormer Talks Enthusiastically of the Work of the Convention and the Call of Men Composing It. Suggestions to the Judiciary Committee of Congress as to How the Objections to Some Features of the Bankruptcy Law Can Be Met.

Attorney C. A. Van Wormer, referee in bankruptcy, returned yesterday from Saratoga, where he last week attended the sessions of the Association of Referees in Bankruptcy and the National Bar association.

Mr. Van Wormer spoke enthusiastically of the work of the referees' convention and the calibre of the men composing it.

"After two years' practical administration of the bankruptcy law," said he, "its defects are probably better understood by the referees than any other class, with the possible exception of certain commercial lawyers, who have given the law especial consideration. The meeting of the referees was for the purpose of discussing those provisions of the act, which have been criticized, and to suggest to the judiciary committee of congress, such amendments as will meet the imperfections complained of."

MANY ABLE REFEREES.

"This meeting was attended by many of the ablest referees in the country, and the discussion concerning the construction to be put upon certain sections of the law would convince any one, at all familiar with law, of the fine legal ability of those who participated in the discussions."

"In this connection it is proper to mention Mr. Hotchkiss, of Buffalo, who, by the way, is a brother of Mrs. H. B. Ware of this city; Mr. Eastman, of Chicago; Mr. Darock, of Detroit; Messrs. Wise and Amb. of New York; and Mr. Olmstead, of Boston. After listening to the legal arguments of these gentlemen, one can readily understand the surprise which many of the Judges of the United States courts have expressed in obtaining the referees' men of such pronounced ability, for the very meagre compensation provided by the law."

"E. C. Brandenburg, assistant attorney general of the United States, made an able address upon 'The Practical Administration of the Bankruptcy Law,' and William C. Sprague, of Detroit, editor of the National Bankruptcy News, read a paper upon 'Bankruptcy and Credits,' which was ordered to be printed in pamphlet form for general circulation."

APPROVE OF THE LAW.
"Mr. Sprague has been in correspondence with all the credit associations, commercial organizations and leading wholesale houses of the United States, and the unanimity with which they all approved of a bankruptcy law was a revelation to most of those present. Mr. Brandenburg and Mr. Sprague are very able young men."

"Several proposed amendments were submitted to the executive committee, which will shortly make a report. The amendments proposed by the referees is simply by way of suggestion to congress, and seeks to remedy the defects of the law as disclosed by judicial construction. People generally, including the legal profession, have given little attention to the bankruptcy act, but the law should be carefully studied, as the credit system and the commerce of the country is largely dependent upon this law."

DYNAMITE UNDER A BARN.
Structure Was Badly Damaged by the Explosion.

At about 9 o'clock Monday evening a loud explosion was heard in the vicinity of the Sterrick Creek patch on the east side of the river, near Peckville, and upon investigation it was learned that a quantity of dynamite had been exploded under a barn, owned by Joseph Philip. The structure was badly wrecked. A horse, owned by Philip, was in the barn at the time and was stunned by the force of the explosion, but escaped serious injury.

Philip is at a loss to account for the explosion, as there was no explosives kept in the barn. Philip thinks that some evil minded person wished to do him an injury and used the dynamite. The force of the explosion was great, and a large crowd quickly gathered. A hole several feet deep was made in the ground, and the roof of the barn blown off. People living in the vicinity were badly scared.

HEART FAILURE CAUSED HIS SUDDEN DEMISE AT HIS FATHER'S HOME.
Marion Stuart Cann, son of the Rev. Thomas M. Cann, LL. D., died last evening at his father's house, of heart failure.

He retired to rest early and was found quite dead, apparently sleeping, in the ground, and the roof of the barn blown off. People living in the vicinity were badly scared.

Mr. Cann was born at Wilmington, Del., April 25, 1859.

The Last Cut in Prices

Has been made. Carpets, Rugs, and the many etceteras that go to make the home beautiful, may be picked up at this sale for a fraction of their real value. You know the reason why. The greater part of our fine stock was destroyed instantly in the Merchants' and Mechanics' Bank explosion, and what we are now selling is simply the balance. The goods are not damaged to any appreciable extent, but prices are cut in two, and sometimes even more than that.

The damage done to this portion of this stock saved from the ruins, is very slight and consists merely of a little lime or sand which the force of the explosion drove into the goods, but which can be cleaned off and the carpets, draperies, rugs, etc., restored to absolute perfection. There's an immense chance here to save money.
