SPECIAL SERVICES AT ST. PATRICK'S

SERMON LAST NIGHT BY REV. J. B. MOYLAN.

Devotions Will Be Continued Until Wednesday Morning at 9 O'Clock. Rev. J. J. Jordan, of Rendham, Will Preach This Evening—Jackson Street Baptist Church Will Be Re-opened—Funeral of Mrs. Annie Daniels Yesterday Afternoon. News Notes and Personal Paragraphs.

Forty Hours devotions were begun at St. Patrick's Catholic church at 10.30 o'clock mass yesterday morning. With a large attendance, Rev. Long celebrated the mass. The devotions will be continued until Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock, with masses on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday mornings at 6, 7 and 8 o'clock. A sermon will be preached each evening and there will be benedictions of the blessed sacrament each evening. Confessions will be heard each afternoon and evening. The sacrament will be exposed and all the faithful are expected to visit the church during the devotions. Several priests from other parishes will be here to assist in hearing confessions. At last evening's service, Rev. J. B. Moylan, of Holy Rosary church, North Scranton, preached the sermon and pronounced benediction. He took his text from the 10th Psalm, "He hath made memoriam of all his works, being a merciful and gracious lord. He hath given food to them that feared him." The speaker petitioned his hearers to keep alive the memory of the Savior, and defined the sacrament of the blessed Eucharist, advising the congregation to make the forty hours devotions beneficial to their daily life.

The church was crowded at the evening service and the sermon was attentively listened to by all present. Rev. J. J. Jordan, of Rendham, will preach the sermon this evening.

Jackson Street Baptist Church. The remodeled Jackson Street Baptist church will be reopened this evening, and a pleasing surprise awaits all who attend the services. MANY IMPORTANT CASES TO BE TRIED Second Week of Criminal Court Opens This Morning—Sentences That Were Imposed Saturday.

The second week of the term of criminal court will begin this morning. Judge H. M. Edwards will preside in the main court room, Judge H. H. McClure, of Lewisburg, in No. 2, and Judge H. M. Weand, of Montgomery, in No. 3.

There are a large number of important cases on the list, among them those against councilmen charged with accepting bribes, which are being prosecuted by the Men's union. The union is also prosecuting a number of persons alleged violators of the liquor laws. It will be a very busy week in court.

Dr. Charles Knapp, of Forest City, who was convicted of adultery last week, was arraigned for sentence Saturday, but upon learning that one of the doctor's children had just died, court suspended sentence until next Saturday.

The far-famed "yellow kid" gang, consisting of Francis Winwood, Harry Hill, Charles or "Slaughter" Graham and Harry Allen, convicted of burglary, were arraigned to the House of Refuge. Judge Archibald, in sentencing them, expressed the belief that they could be reformed, though they are already pretty thoroughly steeped in crime. He said the boys would have advantages at the House of Refuge, which they would not have at home.

James Gettings, of West Scranton, who pleaded guilty early in the week, to selling liquor without a license, was given at that time the minimum sentence, $500 fine and three months in jail. Judge Archibald, in sentencing him, expressed the belief that he had been reformed, though they are already pretty thoroughly steeped in crime. He said the boys would have advantages at the House of Refuge, which they would not have at home.

Scranton Appreciates Always When Promises Are Kept.

Every time you read about Doan's Kidney Pills, you are told they cure every form of kidney ail, from back-ache to urinary disorders. How are our promises kept? Ask any citizen who has tried the treatment. Ask the man who makes the following statement.

Mr. A. L. Bryant, of 1384 Washington avenue, bricklayer by trade, says: "I suffered all kinds of pain across my back both day and night for eighteen years, and I tried all kinds of kidney medicines and got very little or no relief. I had about made up my mind that my case could not be cured when I read about people living right here in Scranton who were cured by Doan's Kidney Pills. This induced me to get them at Matthews' drug store, and before I had used one box I saw they were helping me. The pain in my back was not so severe, and I was feeling better otherwise. I used six or seven boxes and they gave me more comfort and relief than I experienced for years."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S. Remember the name, Doan's, and take no substitute.
