

WEST SCRANTON

TWENTIETH ANNIVERSARY

OF UNITED CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR SOCIETY.

Fittingly Observed by the Society of the Washburn Street Presbyterian Church Last Evening—Officers of St. Mark's Lutheran Societies, Father Hubert's Mission Work at Holy Cross Church—Funerals Yesterday—Meeting of Welsh Baptists Tomorrow—Other Notes.

The twentieth anniversary of the United Christian Endeavor society was fittingly observed by the local society of the Washburn Street Presbyterian church last evening. The recently elected officers of the organization were duly installed, and the programme observed throughout the world was also carried out.

The services were opened with congregational singing, Scripture reading by T. A. Stone, and prayer by Dr. Moffat. "Good Courage as We Got It from the History of the Past" was the subject of a paper read by William Burrall, in which he gave a statistical review of the Christian Endeavor movement from its inception.

Dr. Moffat closed with a few brief remarks, in which he particularized on the exemplification of the work of training young people for the service of Christ. The services were interesting and instructive, and were attended by a large congregation.

A Nineteenth Century Meeting. A meeting to review the organization and progress of the Welsh Baptist churches of Northeastern Pennsylvania will be held tomorrow afternoon.

Sewing Machines

We do not talk Sewing Machines very often, the fact being that our machines do their own talking, and sales are ever on the increase. However,

Spring Sewing Time

Is near, and as inquiries for these celebrated machines of ours are more numerous than they have been in a long time, we have come to the conclusion that the people ought to know something about them.

Our Sewing Machines

Are not of the regular Department Store pattern. We are of the trade to produce a better machine, viewed from any standpoint you will, than we offer. Its cabinet work speaks for itself at a glance, but what is of more importance is

The Machine Itself

It is made by the largest and best known firm in the world, and is a duplicate of their best machine in everything except the name. Because it lacks this you get it here for about forty per cent. of what it will cost if you insist on having the name—otherwise there is no difference. If in the market for a machine, bring an expert and look ours over. Every machine sold is guaranteed by us and the makers in exactly the same way as the highest priced machine built.

D., was carried out. Rev. Dr. Robinson, of the Second church, addressed the assembly, admonishing the members to continue in their work, and to do all in their power to promote the Christian spirit.

Rev. Dr. Robert F. Y. Pierre, pastor of the Penn Avenue Baptist church, preached a special sermon last night in commemoration of the twentieth anniversary of the starting of the Christian Endeavor movement. He quoted many figures and facts to show the marvelous growth of the movement in the United States. The pastor said that he believed that if the Christian Endeavor movement had been started by the old people it would have been dead long ago. He said that the movement is being carried on by young men and women. Julia Caser, Hannah, Napoleon and Joan of Arc were all comparatively in the full vigor of their young lives when they were in the midst of their glory. "The special thing I like about Christian Endeavor work," said he in conclusion, "is the fact that it is a movement that is being carried on by young people. There are too many people who profess to be Christians but who don't work at it. It's a beautiful thing to be saved but it's a far more beautiful thing to be saved and then to save others."

The funeral of the late Mrs. Sarah Seaman took place from the home of her daughter, Mrs. H. H. Magee, of Dudley street, yesterday afternoon. A large number of old friends of the deceased were present, and many handsome floral offerings were banked about the casket.

Brief News Notes. The Ladies Aid society of the Presbyterian church will hold their regular meeting on Friday evening, Feb. 2, at 8 o'clock. The funeral of the venerable Thomas McDonald will take place from St. Mary's church this morning at 9 o'clock. There will be a solemn high mass of requiem will be celebrated.

Rev. Dr. Loman occupied the pulpit at the Presbyterian church yesterday morning. Albert Wagner is indisposed at his home on Plunkly street. Joseph Buehler, a former well-known resident, is circulating among old acquaintances in town.

Vandyke Pinkney, of Bloom street, is now employed by the Elk Hill Coal and Iron company, at their general office at Scranton, in a clerical position.

Mrs. Dr. Chamberlin, of Blakely street, is convalescent after her recent illness. One of the most enjoyable and popular social occasions of the season was held in the Washington hall, Thursday evening, by the members of the M. H. and C. C. club, a society composed of our popular young ladies. Lawrence's orchestra furnished the music for the merry crowd, which numbered about seventy couples. Dancing and other social entertainment was indulged in until midnight. A large number of out-of-town guests were present. Too much credit cannot be given the committee, who made the affair such a success, and which was composed of the following: Misses Gertrude Matthews, Edith Cronk, Mary Ponce, Beatrice Benjamin, Olive Swartz and Helen Benjamin. The patronesses were Mrs. Sidwell Matthews, Mrs. William Willam, Mrs. Richard Webber, Mrs. S. A. Benjamin, Mrs. William Howell, Mrs. Bert Haver and Mrs. Thos. Webster.

A progressive euchre party and social will be conducted tonight in Manley's hall by the St. Vincent de Paul society. The proceeds are to be devoted to charity.

The revival meetings at the Tripp Avenue Christian church have closed. The Rev. Mr. Cobb has been sick for several days, but held his audience to the end last night on the topic, "I have not failed to declare unto you the whole truth." This was the third meeting held here by this evangelist, which was the most successful of any yet. All told, there has been thirty-eight conversions. Mr. Cobb leaves today for Rochester, N. Y., where he will stay a few days before leaving for Europe. Mr. Cobb goes with the benediction of his many friends.

RELIGIOUS NEWS NOTES. Dr. Charles E. Robinson, pastor of the Second Presbyterian church, preached an eloquent last night on "The Outer Darkness."

A MAN

becomes languid, irritable and dependent, through loss of nerve vigor. Life seems a mockery. The courage, force, vigor and action which characterize full-blooded men, are lacking.

Sexine Pills

have kindled the light of hope in many a man's life. They bring vigor to the weak and ambition to the despondent.

They permanently check the weakening drains, feed the nerves, enrich the blood and make men over generally.
