FOUR EXCELLENT ARTISTS.

Tomorrow Night's Big Musical Event an Assured Success.

The Schumann-Heink concert, from present indications, is to be an unprecedented success. It is on everybody's tongue; every body seems to be going; most all the boxes and loges are disposed of. The gallery is open for advance sale, entrance to which, to those holding reserved seat tickets, will be through the main entrance, which will be opened at 7 o'clock. There is an hour's rest after the concert, at 10 o'clock, at an extremely low price, the very best songs and arias produced by artists of fame and a world-wide reputation. All classes will be out in force. It will also be a society event, as the subscription list shows.

Last year when Scrantonians desired to hear Nordica and Mantelli, they had to go to Wilkes-Barre's Ninth regiment armory, but it has been made possible this year for us to enjoy a similar treat at home.

The star combination, including Madam Schumann-Heink, Miss Maud Powell, Frangone Davies and Mr. Isaac Luckstone, is held in such high esteem by their manager, Henry Wolfson, of New York city, that he arranges here temporary afternoon to detail of the whole show, insuring the Scranton public a smooth and uninterrupted evening of music.

PROF. GRANT'S FUNERAL.

Services Conducted at the Family Home Yesterday Afternoon—His Favorite Poem Read.

The funeral services over the remains of the late Prof. Willard W. Grant, principal of the Scranton High school, were conducted yesterday afternoon at the family residence, on Madison avenue, in the presence of only a few of the intimate friends of the deceased instructor.

The coffin was banked high with the floral offerings contributed by the pupils of the High school, the teachers of the board of control, and many friends of the family and the room was heavy with the fragrant perfume of the flowers. Prayer was offered by Rev. Dr. James McLeod, pastor of the First Presbyterian church. Rev. Dr. Robert E. Y. Pierce read the following poem, which was a favorite of Prof. Grant, during his lifetime, and which had a special application, because he, himself, died at his post:

There are countless heroes who live and die of whom we have never heard!

For the great, big, brawling world goes by like a flash, and a look or a word, and one of the bravest and best of all of whom the list can boast.

Is the man who falls on duty's call, the man who dies at his post.

While his cheek is mantled with manhood's bloom, and the pathway of life looks bright, he is thought in a moment to face the gloom surrounding the final night.

He bravely sails o'er the sunset sea, and is dashed on an unseen coast—Till the ship goes down, at the helm stands he, the man who dies at his post.

Who knows the glorious title of war? And knows that the honor will hover o'er? And ever his name with light, but he passes, unnamed, unknown, who hears no applauding host, goes down in the dark to his late, alone, the man who dies at his post.

Who bears with disease while draws draws near, who faces his fate, and dies, yet strives to comfort and help and cheer, his comrades along the way.

Who follows his work while he yet may do, and smiles while he suffers most, it seems to me a hero true—the man who dies at his post.

There are plenty to lead and crown with bays the hero who falls in strife, but few who offer a word of praise to the crowning hero of life.

He does his duty and makes no claim; too ready to step or beart; this silent martyr unknown to fame, the man who dies at his post.

THE SCRANTON TRIBUNE—MONDAY, MAY 20, 1901.

ANSWERS WERE UNFAVORABLE

THREE REPLIES TO NINE HOUR DAY DEMAND RECEIVED.

President W. D. Zehnder Met His Men Saturday Night with Unsatisfactory Results—Superintendent McLaren, of Dickson Shops, of Allis-Chalmers Company, Willing to Grant Nine Hour Day and Have Wage Question Adjusted by Arbitration—Strikers Send Away Imports.

Unless unexpected developments take place today, not a man employed by the large local metal working concerns will be at work, with the exception of those employed by the Dunmore Iron and Steel company, in the Erie shops at No. 6, in whose case a cessation of labor has been indefinitely postponed.

A meeting of the council was held Saturday night and in view of the general feverish conditions which will prevail today, it was decided not to have any meeting until tomorrow, when a general mass meeting will be held.

The strike movement has met with a stumbling block at Richmond, Va., where the Richmond Locomotive works are refusing to grant the men's demand for a nine hour day. The men met after the company's answer was received and decided to return to work this morning under the old conditions.

The machinists of the Lehigh railroad company's shops at Wilkes-Barre struck Saturday morning and to-day the men at the North Wilkes-Barre shops of the Lehigh, the Dickson works at Wilkes-Barre, which employ about two hundred men, the Lehigh Iron works at Lehigh, and the Lehigh Iron works at Lehigh, have all gone out on strike. The men at the Lehigh Iron works at Lehigh, and the Lehigh Iron works at Lehigh, have all gone out on strike. The men at the Lehigh Iron works at Lehigh, and the Lehigh Iron works at Lehigh, have all gone out on strike.

MISSIONARY WORK TO BEGIN.

Today the men expect to hear from Hoboken and the other places along the coast. They will be in the city to inaugurate their scheme of missionary work among the imports. The large force surrounding the paint shop, in which they are quartered, and their guard of one hundred and fifty men, are but slight obstacles to the men's declaration they will fly their flag in the New Yorkers, bearing at their tails union literature and documents expressive of the local situation, which will be liberally by a string attached when the kite is floating over the city.

It is reported yesterday that thirty-six out of forty bridge builders employed by the company resigned rather than be pressed into service as specialists, as requested Saturday night.

Today is the crucial period of the strike. If at this last moment the big manufacturers post positive granting the strikers' demands, there is no doubt that the smaller firms such as the Finch Manufacturing company, and McLaughlin & Brooks, will follow suit. There seems to be little likelihood of this, however, and all parties concerned are at present girding themselves for what looks like a long and hard fight.

LEAGUE AGENTS IN NEW ROLE

Noisy Love-Makers on North Washington Avenue Arrested and Penalized—Residents Complain.

Three girls, employed by families residing in Green Ridge, and their three respective "fellows," who hail from Providence, were arrested last night by Agent Robert Wilson and Detective William Limney, of the Municipal league, for disorderly conduct on the street.

They were taken into custody at the corner of Washington street and Delaware street. This particular neighborhood has been the rendezvous for young people for years, and lately their boisterous conduct has become intolerable to the nearby residents and they determined upon heroic measures to break it up.

One of the young men got away. The other two and the three girls were taken before Alderman Bailey and each subjected to a penalty of $3 fine and costs. Later, the alderman remitted the fine of the three girls and one of the youths. The other young man was recognized as an old offender and denied any leniency. All settled and were released.

It is claimed that women have been frequently insulted by the youths who have made it a practice of loitering about this corner.

COL. HITCHCOCK DENIES.

Says That Reed and West Have Not Been Dismissed.

The statement was circulated on Saturday as coming from Recorder Mott, that James Reed and George West, the two special officers who were charged with exceeding their instructions by sending the boy detective into a saloon with a forged order for beer, had been dismissed by Director of Public Safety Hitchcock.

Director Hitchcock, when seen yesterday by a Tribune reporter, said that the statement was absolutely unfounded and that the men would continue their connection with the department of public safety.

THE LEADER UNCHANGED

HENRY SCHWENKER STILL ON TOP IN THE CONTEST.

The Other Contestants Are All Hard at Work, as Well as Mr. Schwenger. The Contest Begins Its Second Week Today—There Are Many Who Should Enter, and at Once Friends of Ambitious Young People Should Send Us Their Names.

Standing of the Leading Contestants

1. Henry Schwenger, South Scranton,	48
2. August Brunner, Jr., Carbondale	17
3. Meyer Lewis, Scranton	10
4. Frank Kemmerer, Factoryville	9
5. R. Leo Huber, Scranton	3

The end of the first week of the contest showed five contestants who have returned points. The three leaders who were ahead on Saturday morning are still in their relative positions, although Mr. Schwenger and Mr. Brunner both gained on Mr. Meyer, who did not bring in any additional points. Mr. Schwenger, of South Scranton, brought in 17; Mr. Brunner, of Carbondale, added to his score by 3, and Mr. Kemmerer, of Factoryville, returned 7, going from fifth place to fourth, and he is now but one point behind Mr. Meyer.

The coming week will undoubtedly be an interesting one, for there will be some new names among the list of leaders. The scores are made up at 5 o'clock each afternoon and all who have not reported by then must wait an extra day to have their revised totals printed.

The first week of the contest demonstrated the fact that there are a large number of young men and women who are really in earnest in a desire to improve themselves intellectually. Of this ambitious portion of the community some have taken the first step in the right direction by entering their names as participants in "The Tribune's Educational Contest," and you will receive a prompt reply giving you full information of the contest.
