Davies-Freeman Nuptials—Boy Run Down by a Farmer's Team—Other News Notes and Personals.

Yesterday morning at 7 o'clock, Miss Jane Freeman, one of West Scranton's most charming young ladies, was united in marriage to Gomer C. Davies, of North Garfield avenue, in the parlor, prettily decorated with cut roses, the contracting parties were united in marriage by Rev. Hugh Davies, pastor of the Welsh Calvinistic Methodist church. The bride was attired in a dreamy creation of lace, over fawn-colored silk. She was unattended.

At the conclusion of the ceremony, congratulations and a bountiful wedding breakfast were served. At 9 o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Davies left for an extended wedding trip to New York city, points of interest on the Hudson and Ithaca, N. Y. On their return they will reside in a newly furnished home on the West Side.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Freeman, of South Main avenue, while the groom is one of the West Side's most popular young men. The best wishes of a host of friends go with them as they enter married life. Owing to a death in the family of the groom, less than a year ago, the wedding was a very quiet affair, being attended only by the immediate friends and relatives.

Fire of Yesterday.

At 10:30 yesterday morning, the West Side companies were called out by an alarm of fire from Box 13, at the corner of Ninth and Robinson streets. A fire was in the attic of Peter Ross' hotel, and was caused by burning sulphur used for fumigation. The damage was slight, the fire being put out with chemicals by the Hook and Ladder company.

Shortly after the alarm was turned in, a farmer from Mountain Valley got excited and started to race his horses to the fire. As he was dashing down Ninth street his wagon collided with Walter Woodbridge, a 14-year-old boy, of Hennessy court. The lad was severely cut and bruised, and was picked up by passersby and removed to his home. The farmer expressed much sorrow at the accident, but drove away before his name could be learned.

Admitted to the Bar.

W. Henry Davis, of Jackson street, was admitted to practice in the courts of Luzerne county on Monday. Mr. Davis graduated with honors from the Harry Hillman academy, class of '99, taking a prominent part in oratory and debate. He took the entrance exam-

Nuptials of Martin and Miss Mary Gerrity—Collision Between a Car and Wagon—Notes.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at Holy Rosary church Tuesday afternoon at 5 o'clock, when Miss Mary Gerrity, of West Market street, sister of Martin Gerrity, manager of Howard & King's brewery, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Martin Martin, of Texas.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. N. J. McManus, in the presence of many friends of the contracting parties. The bride party entered the church to the strains of the "Magnificat" wedding march, played by Miss Mary Gerrity, a niece of the bride. The bride was attended by her niece, Miss Mary Loftus, of West Market street, Waterbury, Conn., a nephew of the groom, was best man. The bride was attired in a beautiful gown of white mousseline de soie, trimmed with lace. Her maid wore a gown of lawn. After the wedding ceremony, a dainty wedding repast was served at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Thomas Loftus, of West Market street.

The bride was chief operator for the Central Pennsylvania Telephone company in Green Ridge. They received many beautiful and useful presents from their friends. After a brief wedding tour, they will take up their residence in Texas.

A Delightful Surprise.

Half a hundred friends met and tendered Miss Mary Davies, of New York city, a reception at her William street home last evening. M. M. Fichtel, violinist, and Miss Martin Mills, pianist, rendered a number of pleasing selections. Miss Davies sang several songs, to the delight of her friends, who have been most interested in her vocal work under Mrs. Blauvelt, in New York city.

Those present were: Misses Lloyd, Benton, Thomas, Williams, Thomas, Fichter, Morris, Lees, Payne, Dawson, Mills, Wilcox, Davies, Stone, Stoff, Hazel Davies, Margaret Williams, and Messrs. Williams, Lees, Lee, Davies, Wilcox, Fikes, Dawson, Singer, Kizer, Whaley, Hubler, Dawson, Davis, Stone, Wilcox, Davies, Kemmerling, Geddes, Fichtel, Williams.

Collided with a Wagon.

While a Providence car, No. 992, was south-bound last evening, it collided with a heavy coal wagon driven by William O'Horo, of Green Ridge, on North Main avenue, near Watkin street. O'Horo was driving along on the car track and did not hear the approaching car until it was upon him, and when it was too late to get out of the way. Near this spot it is very dark and a motorman on the car is unable to see any distance ahead.

The fender and front vestibule of the car was badly damaged, but the wagon escaped without damage.

Entertained Friends.

Mrs. Thomas Lowe, of Park street, gave a delightful and merry Tuesday evening in honor of her son, Oswald's, birthday. Games and music, with the usual party diversions, were in dulged in. Dainty refreshments were served on the lawn by Mrs. Lowe, who was the recipient of many beautiful presents.

Among those present were: Misses Edna Fry, Elizabeth Nankirell, Lillian Wilson, Lillian Loughran, Alice and Louise Raine, Jennie Shotto, Blanche Miller, Ethel Rodham, May Conrad, Bessie Nankirell, Louise Davy, Messrs. William and Charles Harte, George Rodham, Charles Raine, Fred Hignet, Victor and George Ditty, William Nankirell, John Conrad, Ralph and Frank Eldred, Albert Loughran, Albert Lowe, Stanley and Ray Miller and Oswald Lowe.

TOLD IN A FEW LINES.

Tonight occurs the closing exhibition of the Scranton Institute gymnasium. Sixty performers will take part in the various drills and exercises. The show will present some clever work on the heavy apparatus. One of the leading features of the programme will be a comedy boxing match in burlesque. Dr. Young, the instructor, will juggle and swing clubs. A large audience is expected, as a great number of tickets have been sold.

FUNERALS.

The funeral of the late William J. Price will take place this afternoon. Services will be held at the home on West Locust street at 2:30 o'clock. Rev. E. J. Morris, of Wilkes-Barre, will officiate. Interment will be made in the Washburn street cemetery.
