On motion the matter of contested seats was referred to a Committee, consisting of Dr. G. B. Weiser, James Eckman, John Houghavout, Benj. Katterman and Hugh H. Teats.

On motion the Convention adjourned to 2 o'clock, P. M. At 2 o'clock, P. M., Convention met. The Committee on contested seats reported as follows: "Your Committee beg leave to submit that upon an examination of the claims, and mature consideration, they have decided to admit E. Y. Bright and J. B. Masser, both to seats from the Borough of Sunbury, and Geo. Garmann and R. W. Zartman, from Jackson township, to be admitted, to vote as instructed. This report is made for the harmony of the democratic party in this County."

G. B. WEISER, Chairman. James Eckman moved that the Convention proceed to ballot for a Senatorial and a Representative delegate, to attend the 4th of March Convention. Mr. Dewart moved to amend by striking out the words "and representative," which was not agreed to. Mr. Cameron's motion then passed and the Convention proceeded to ballot which resulted as follows: For Senatorial Delegate, John B. Packer, 25 votes, Joseph Nicely, 14 " For Representative Delegate, Philip Billmeyer, 25 votes, Isaac D. Raker, 12 " Whereupon, Mr. Packer and Mr. Billmeyer, having a majority of all the votes polled, were declared elected.

On motion of Mr. Clark, the following resolutions were adopted: Resolved, That the democracy of Pennsylvania are firm and unwavering in their attachment to the Constitution of their country, and fast and abiding in their adherence to the spirit of compromise in which it was adopted. They go for the Union as it is and desire no higher principle of construction for the instrument that formed it than such as will be calculated to ensure its perpetuity. Resolved, That the democracy of old Northumberland have always regarded with just feelings of pride and admiration, the illustrious course of that noble man, enlightened statesman, and pure patriot, Gen. Lewis Cass, and now take much pleasure in re-asserting what they have never failed on all proper occasions heretofore to express,—their decided preference for him as their candidate for the Presidency in 1852. Knowing that with him as their standard bearer the democracy must be victorious. Resolved, That the delegates this day elected to the State Convention, be and they are hereby instructed to vote for no person or persons as delegates to the National Convention, who are not the open and avowed friends of Gen. Cass, and who will not pledge themselves to use all honorable efforts to have him nominated. Resolved, That in Col. Wm. Bigler, our Governor elect, we have a democrat of the true Jeffersonian School, of whom the democratic party of the old Keystone state may well be proud;—himself a living commentary upon the happy workings of our free institutions of which he is the fearless defender, which opens the way to preferment as well to the poor and humble as the rich and powerful. He was the first choice of this County for Governor in 1848 when his delegates voted for him from first to last, and we have now ratified his unanimous nomination by a majority worthy of our old democratic county.

On motion of Wm. L. Dewart, Esq., it was unanimously Resolved, That the democratic people of Northumberland county in Convention assembled, recommend to Congress a speedy modification of the Tariff of 1846 so as to give adequate protection to the great interests of Pennsylvania. On motion of Wm. L. Dewart, Esq., it was unanimously Resolved, That this Convention have a high sense of the value to the democratic party, of the services of Francis W. Hughes, Esq., of Schuylkill county, in the late campaign; he labored fearlessly, devotedly and successfully in the noble work, and deserves distinguished consideration at the hands of the democracy of this Commonwealth.

On motion of Dr. G. B. Weiser, Resolved, That the proceedings of this Convention be published in the democratic papers of this County. On motion of Mr. Baker, Convention adjourned sine die. (Signed by the Officers.) PARSON BROWNLOW, of the Knoxville, (Tenn.) Whig, thus advertises: "WANTED—Fifteen able bodied loafers to sit in the editor's office from sunrise to sunset. None need apply except those who can smoke all the time, and swear loud enough to prevent the editor from transacting any business whatever. They will of course be expected to read all the editor's private letters and manuscripts in his absence. We don't want all the fools in town to come in once, but the business of the place should suffer."

MICHIGAN is fast becoming, and perhaps is one of the most prosperous States in the Union, though but about twenty five years of age as a settlement of any agricultural growth, and much less than this as a State. Her real and personal property is valued at one hundred thousand dollars, while she raises two million of pounds of wool, five million of bushels of wheat, ten millions worth of manufactures, has thirty-five thousand farms, and nearly two hundred and one million of acres of improved land.

THE London Times has been unable to create any feeling against Kossuth in England. It is up and down for the Times. It might as well try to convince the public that there is no economy or prudence in patronizing the cheap and fashionable clothing store of Rockhill & Watson, No. 111 Chestnut street, Corner of Franklin Place. The public would never believe it. PROSPECTUS FOR THE GLOBE. The prospectus of a new paper is the result of a very liberal and judicious course, which has been pursued by the Globe. The paper is published weekly, and contains all the news of the day, and is published at a price which is very low. It is published at No. 111 Chestnut street, Corner of Franklin Place. The public would never believe it.

On motion of Wm. L. Dewart, Esq., it was unanimously Resolved, That the democratic people of Northumberland county in Convention assembled, recommend to Congress a speedy modification of the Tariff of 1846 so as to give adequate protection to the great interests of Pennsylvania.
