LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

REPUBLICAN MEETING POSTPONED.

The Republican meeting which was to have been held in this place on last evening, has been postponed until next Monday evening. The meeting will be held in the Court House, and will be addressed by M. W. Tate and W. E. Lathy, Esqs. Let there be a big turnout to this, the last Republican meeting to be held in Tionesta during this campaign. The questions at issue will be discussed fully and freely.

—Rev. Elliot will preach in the Presbyterian church on Sunday next, morning and evening. Sunday School at 2:30 p. m.

—Mr. Corbett, an attorney of Clarion, is Major Wetter's opponent in the 28th district. The oilmen intend voting for Major Wetter to a unit.—Derrick.

—Democratic papers, particularly the Venango Spectator have been terribly agitated because they thought there would not be a fair vote in Philadelphia. We publish elsewhere an account of the stoppage of some of the "unfairness."

—Some of our sidewalks are in a really dangerous condition, notwithstanding the efforts of the town council during the summer. It would be well enough to have the walks of the town thoroughly overhauled before winter sets in, and thereby prevent somebody from breaking a leg and bringing a suit for damages.

—The Stave mill started up on Monday, with H. A. Adams at the helm. It has the effect of making our town appear more lively, and gives employment to a number of men. That steam whistle on the mill however, should be so arranged that it would not deceive the citizens into running to what they believe is a fire.

—It will be remembered that we published some time ago an account of Tilden's manipulation of the Brady's Bend Iron works. Mr. Dudley, the first superintendent of the works under Tilden's management told the people of Brady's Bend all about it a few evenings ago, and his account coincides with the one published. Yet there are a number of men who want to elect the old swindler to the Presidency.

—Mr. Corbett is advertised to speak in the Court House this evening. Perhaps he will condescend to explain his remarks in the Constitutional Convention in regard to Forest County. Perhaps he will even stoop to say that Forest County is not "a load and annoyance" to the other counties of the district, and to him. Perhaps he will even demean himself so much as to say that the "connection with Forest" is "a desirable one." He may even crow enough to make him qualify that assertion that Forest "is manipulated entirely by politicians." Perhaps—but we will wait, and hear what he does have to say for himself.

—The Press says that "Gen. White is a fine speaker, and spoke of many matters in an entertaining manner, but that he did not reach a single living issue of the day" etc.

Now, let us sift this assertion, and if we can find a grain of truth in it, let it be preserved and set with rubies and jewels, and placed in the centre of a diadem to be worn by Tilden, the income tax evader, the railroad wrecker, the iron works manipulator the opposer of the war, the companion of Tweed and the intimate friend of John Morrissey.

What are the living issues of the day, as embodied in the Democratic platform, and Tilden's letter of acceptance? Why, "Reform," first last, and all the time, "Reform." Didn't Gen. White touch upon that vital, living point, without which there is no point to Democracy to-day? Yes. He showed that wherever the Democracy had, for a time held possession of any department of State or National Government the expenses had been increased. He showed that the great saving which the Democratic House at Washington pretended to have made, was made by cutting down necessary expenses. And, indeed, we are not without numerous examples of the distress which this great "economy" has occasioned. Take for instance the soldiers who have lost arms or legs in the service: they are entitled to a wooden limb, or compensation for the same every three years, by law. But none of these maimed soldiers can get either limbs or compensation, now, on account of the appropriation for that purpose having been exhausted, before the crippled patriots were one-fourth supplied. How great is such economy.

Another living issue he touched upon was the currency. He showed that our currency was sound and made a strong comparison between the currency in these "hard times" and the "hard times" heretofore experienced under Democratic administrations.

He touched upon the national credit. He showed that the credit of the Government was never as good under any other administration as it is and has been under that of the Republican party. He showed that we were able to fund our debt at 4 1/2 per cent. while under Buchanan's administration, the last Democratic administration in power, it cost 14 per cent. to get money to run the government. He touched upon the "Solid South," that pride and bulwark of the Democratic party in the North, and showed that their "Solidity" depended upon terrorism, murder and fraud.

He touched upon the fact that troops had been sent into South Carolina in accordance with a requisition of Gov. Chamberlain, and conformity with a resolution introduced by Scott Lord, a Democratic member of Congress, protecting every citizen of the United States in his right of suffrage.

In short, if Gen. White missed any of the "living issues" of the day we didn't know it. He made a good impression, and his vote on next Tuesday will show it, notwithstanding the publication in the Press of a long extract from N. Y. Herald condemning the sending troops into South Carolina.

—Col. Reisinger, of the Meadville Republican was in town yesterday, on business. The Col. is doing a good work in this campaign, his political editorials being at least equal to any that appear in the city papers.

—Kirt. Johnson did the square thing by us in bringing us up a parcel of leaf tobacco of his own raising. In smoking this tobacco we forget, temporarily, the hard times and the coming election. Thanks.

—A delegation consisting of some fifteen or twenty persons left here on Monday morning for the Centennial, this week being the last opportunity without interfering with the election.

—A few pheasants are brought in by our sportsmen, but we have seen no good strings. A few bird dogs would make it much easier for hunters.

—If any of our subscribers who are in arrears desire to pay in produce, a few bushels of potatoes will be taken at this office.

—Some of our sporting population have gone up the creek to do a little fine hunting. We wish them abundant success.

—A few new cases of diphtheria have broken out to town. None of them are liable to result fatally.

Lacytown Correspondence.

LACYTOWN, Oct. 30, 1876.

ED. REPUBLICAN.

In spite of our non-appearance last week, we still live among the hills; although our hearing is some what impaired by the martial music.

Jas. Flynn, an expert at finding bee-trees, extracted 100 pounds of honey from a single tree several days ago. It was of excellent quality.

Dr. Stranahan and family of Erie, passed through here Thursday last, on their way to Lacy's mills. Mrs. Stranahan spent some 12 years of her childhood in this place, which she will probably visit before returning to the city.

We suspect there will be some lively squeezing done now. Mr. Button has made a new cider press which will have no respect for apples or their inhabitants.

Had the potato crop been prolific, we might have taken our girl to the Centennial. As it is we will use our influence over the best looking Democrat, for the coming election.

Mr. Weaver showed us a specimen of his boy's writing, in the asylum, which was remarkably well done considering the short time they have been there.

L. Arner recently cut a half acre of buckwheat, threshed and carried it to the grist mill, where it was soon in a floury state, which was mixed preparatory for baking next morning—All done in one day.

John Metzgar's mother and sister, Mrs. Martin, from Bradford, are making him a visit.

We are pleased to learn that Mrs. Thompson, widow of deceased, will remain here for the present, where she will be supplied with work, for the support of her family by Holbrook & Co.

Mr. S. C. Rouse is heir prospective to several thousand dollars. We congratulate him on his good fortune.

Hallow e'en, and not a cabbage head to keep our lonely vigils.

THE LATEST. Monday morning, Simon Weaver, while in the act of greasing the edger when in full motion, received an ugly flesh wound in the arm a little above the elbow. Mr. Quinn neatly sewed up the gash. Simon was lucky in saving his arm from being taken off. A little more carelessness, and a few more accidents, in the Mill, and we will call on the Co. for an infirmary.

[The following is taken from last week's communication.]

Messrs. Collins & Holbrook spent several days of last week here, looking up old lines of their extensive property. They discovered an orchard of very good apples, on a deserted oil farm now belonging to them. John Metzgar hauled said fruit to this place measuring it out to the neighbors at low price.

Several of our citizens attended the mass meeting in Tionesta 21, were well pleased with remarks and plain statement of facts.

Miss Hattie Arner recently returned from a visit to the Centennial, where she received a formal introduction to President Grant, also attended the reception of Gov. Tilden who received his guests with a smile that naturally covers the greater part of his countenance—"He'll never smile again."

J. B. Haggerty of Elk City—home on a short visit.

A number of our citizens leave this week for Phila. As it is somewhat out of date to take note of each departure we will forbear.

As far as we can learn, the potato crop is a failure not averaging in some lots not more than 4 to 5 bushels per acre.

I DE CLARE. REPUBLICAN MEETING AT CLARINGTON.

CLARINGTON, Oct. 26, 1876.

ED. REPUBLICAN.

The Republican meeting which was advertised for this place on the 24th inst., was adjourned to the evening of the 25th.

On that evening we had a large, enthusiastic meeting; and among the auditors we noticed a few prominent Democrats, including the Democratic candidate for Legislature.

The meeting was called to order, and Hon. W. R. Coon was called to the chair, and Eugene Hillard made Secretary of the evening.

Col. J. H. Dewees, addressed the meeting in a clear, forcible argument on the issues of the campaign. He was followed by W. E. Lathy, Esq., who clearly exposed Democratic fallacies and ably defended the acts and record of the Republican party. Hon. J. B. Agnew, Republican candidate for Legislature, followed, in a brief, concise speech.

The meeting then adjourned with three rousing cheers for the whole Republican ticket, and each Republican retired to his home well pleased, and stronger than ever in his determination to work and vote for the whole ticket.

The meeting was traced with the presence of the ladies several prominent Republicans who are as strong in their Republican principle as their husbands, and who would probably apply for divorces, if the heads of their families voted any portion of the "Reform" ticket.

AJAX.

ED. REPUBLICAN.—In the Forest Press of 28th is a communication purporting to give a report of the meeting at East Hickory, on the Friday evenings, previous, written by Jonathan Alabaugh, who lampoons the speakers, (myself among the number) in regular "Checkmate style." The piece is remarkable, only for its misrepresentations and glaring inaccuracies. Mr. Alabaugh ought to be careful; "they that live in glass houses ought not to throw stones." A person to read the piece, would suppose that Col. Dewees "swore like a pirate," while every body who was there, knows he did not swear once. Mr. A. evidently mistook earnestness for oaths, from some defect in his preceptions. He next goes for Lathy, ostensibly because he "never smelled gunpowder," but principally "out of pure cussedness." He next makes a dive at me on an incidental remark I made about a Saturday night meeting at Hickory in 1859. Now all this is surprising—especially as we took them for converts to the Republican faith; Col Dewees converting Charles Alabaugh, while Jonathan was supposed to be one of Lathy's converts. I claimed the credit of the job of converting the old man. That Jonathan claimed before the meeting to be under conviction as he acknowledged afterwards Lathy converted him and Dewees and myself pronounced it "a good job, well jobbed." This we can substantiate by more than a score of citizens of Hickory Twp. But we never supposed that they were going to stop in the Republican race course so ingloriously "and turn tail and run." But such is the fallacy of human prospects and hopes. Appearances as well as words are often false lights to go by.

SAMUEL D. IRWIN.

—The Premium Engraving, issued by Peterson's Magazine for 1877 is of rare value. It is a first-class line and stipple engraving, executed in the highest style of art. The artists are Hlman & Brothers, and they have engraved it, (size, 27 inches by 20," expressly for "Peterson's Magazine." It is such a plate as would sell, at retail, for five dollars. The picture represents that proudest event in our national history, the "Surrender of Cornwallis." It is full of authentic portraits—Washington, Rochambeau, Lincoln, Knox, O'Hara, Laumain, etc.—The artist is Dumaresq, and it took a prize at the Paris Salon of 1875. Any person may get this valuable historical picture, gratis, by raising a club for "Peterson" for 1877, or by remitting $2.50 for it and for the magazine, the magazine alone being two dollars. Grateful Thousands proclaim WALKER'S BITTERS the most wonderful purgative that ever sustained the human system.

No Person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain unwell, provided their bowels are not clogged by mineral poison or other means, and vital organs wasted by repair.

Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, which are so prevalent in the valleys of our great river throughout the United States, especially those of the Mississippi, Ohio, Missouri, Illinois, Tennessee, Cumberland, Arkansas, Red, Colorado, Brazos, Rio Grande, Pearl, Alabama, Mobile, Savannah, Anchoke, James, and many others, their vast tributaries, throughout entire country during the Summer Autumn, and remarkably so during seasons of unusual heat and dryness, invariably accompanied by extensive rancements of the stomach and liver and other abdominal viscera. In treatment, a purgative, exerting a powerful influence upon these various organs, is essentially necessary. It is no cathartic for the purpose equalled by WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS as they will speedily remove the discolored viscid matter with which the bowels are loaded, at the same time stimulating the secretions of the liver and generally restoring the healthy functions of the digestive organs.

Fortify the body against disease by purifying all its fluids with WALKER'S BITTERS. No epidemic can take of a system thus fore-armed.

Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Constipation of the Chest, Dizziness, Eruptions of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the region of the kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offspring of Dyspepsia. One bottle will prove a better guaranty of its merits than a lengthy advertisement.

Serofula, or King's Evil, Wounds, Swellings, Ulcers, Erysipelas, Swelled Glands, Scrofulous Inflammations, Indigestions, Mercurial Affections, Sore Throat, Eruptions of the Skin, Sore Eyes, In those, as in all other constitutional cases, WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS is shown these great curative powers in most obstinate and intractable cases.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism, Gout, Bilious, Renal and Intermittent Fevers, Disease of the Blood, Hives, Kidney and Bladder, these Bitters have no equal. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood.

Mechanical Diseases.—Persons engaged in Paints and Minerals, such as Plumbers, Type-setters, Gold-beaters, Miners, as they advance in life, are subject to paralysis of the Bowels. To guard against this, take a dose of WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS occasionally.

For Skin Diseases, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt-Rheum, Blisters, Spots, Pimples, Pastules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-worm, Scald-head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin of whatever origin or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters.

Pin, Tape, and other Worms lurking in the system of so many thousands are effectually destroyed and removed. A system of medicine, no vermifuge, or cathartic will free the system from worms like these Bitters.

For Female Complaints, in you or old, married or single, at the dawn of manhood, or the turn of life, these Bitters display so decided an influence that improvement is soon perceptible.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood through ever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions, or Sores, cleanse it when you find it obstructed & sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul; your feelings will tell you when the blood is pure, and the health of the system will follow.
