The Tionesta branch of the Zuber Studio, at the City Building, is open Tuesday and Saturday of each week.

Rev. Dr. Sloaner's subjects for next Sabbath at the Presbyterian church are: Morning—"Christ's Gift of Life." Evening—"Dreams and Ideals."

Mrs. J. W. Jamieson has our thanks for a big mess of tomatoes of her own raising, the largest of which tipped the beam at two pounds. That's tomatoes.

Parties in the vicinity of Tionesta desiring water wells drilled should consult Wm. Lowman, Marienville, Pa., who is thoroughly equipped for doing such work.

The assessor for the borough will be at the court-house to-day and to-morrow for the purpose of completing the 60-day list. See that your name is placed on the list, making sure of your vote in November. Republicans, don't neglect it.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Thomas, of the township, desire to publicly acknowledge the many acts of kindness shown and the many expressions of sympathy tendered them in their bereavement attending the tragic death of their son Charles.

The Tionesta Herald says O. F. Miles, in the Fagundus field, has a rig up for a test well on the Hugh Miles farm. Hasson & Co. are drilling on the same farm and have just tapped the fourth sand, recently discovered at Tidouite. They have prospects for a producer.

Henry Brady, who is employed at teaming in the Cropp Hill oil field, got his left hand mixed up in the gearing of his wagon Monday morning, and had the third bone of the index finger broken and the skin badly lacerated. Dr. Bovard made the necessary surgical repairs.

Mrs. A. W. Stroup, wife of our worthy Republican candidate for Sheriff, seems to make a success of cucumber cultivation. In a quantity sent to this office were two that weighed 5 pounds each, and we are sure they would capture first prize at any county fair in the state.

Robert, 6-year-old son of William Ellis, had both bones of his left forearm broken Saturday by being thrown out of a small wagon. Dr. Bovard performed the painful operation of reducing the fracture, leaving the lad in as comfortable condition as possible under the circumstances.

A resident of Clarion owes his life to the trapping of a mouse. He set the trap and at 3 a. m. was awaked by hearing it snap. He got up and found the room full of gas escaping from an open jet. He would have been asphyxiated had the mouse not sprung the trap. He set the rodent free.

The Modern Woodmen and Royal Neighbors of East Hickory will serve ice cream, cake and coffee in the K. O. T. M. hall of that place next Saturday evening, and invite the patronage of the public on that occasion. The object is not only a worthy one, but the refreshments served will be first class.

The merchants of Sharon have entered into an agreement to quit advertising on programs, score cards and other "wild cat" schemes, and also to abandon the use of trading stamps. Hereafter they will confine their advertising to newspapers, recognizing this channel as the cheapest and at the same time the most valuable to themselves.

Every Republican should see to it that he is registered on or before Sept. 7 in order that he may vote at the fall election. The 7th is the last day for registration. All taxes should be paid on or before the 7th day of October. Every citizen, and especially every Republican, should take interest enough to see to it that he is registered properly and that his taxes are paid.

G. O. Geist, a resident of Cool Spring, and one of Jefferson county's leading business men and most worthy citizens, was shot by his demented stepson, Wesley Enterline, and died from his injuries some hours later on the 25th ult. There had been no words or anything in the nature of a quarrel between the men, and the shooting, which was done with a shot gun, while the victim was sitting in his dining room, was the result of an unbalanced mind. Mr. Geist was aged 65 years, and was a cousin of our townsman J. C. Geist. The demented man is detained in the insane ward of the Jefferson county home.

Mrs. Carrie W. Sisson, who has made a successful tour of the county in the cause of temperance, will lecture in the M. E. church on the evenings of Sept. 9th and 10th. She will be assisted by Prof. and Mrs. B. Lewis McKee, musicians of considerable renown. Prof. McKee has been blind from infancy. The public, generally, is cordially invited to these entertainments.

The farm barn on the F. A. Keller farm at Pigeon, Howe township, was destroyed by fire on the night of Aug. 27th. The building contained considerable hay and grain, and farm machinery, much of it the property of Mr. Hughes, who did the farming, and who had an insurance of $800 on his property. Mr. Keller had no insurance on his share of the property. The origin of the fire is unknown.

A real daughter of the Revolution has just died in Westmoreland county, Pa. Mrs. Sarah Atchison Ross was ninety-eight years old and was the daughter of Thomas Atchison, who fought under Washington at the battle of Trenton, and the widow of Thomas Ross, a veteran of the Mexican war. She was one of three women to whom were presented gold spoons by the national society because of being daughters of men who fought in the struggle of '76.

A woman using a gasoline stove, upon which was a kettle of hot lard, saw the whole enveloped in flames from an explosion. Water might not have helped matters any and she quickly seized a pan of flour and scattered it upon the flames, extinguishing it promptly and without damage. The remembering to use some such means would save many a serious loss from burning oil. Flour or meal or some similar substance is usually at hand for such emergencies.

The thriving town of Endeavor will soon be lighted with electricity, a new plant being in course of construction, and will be ready to "turn on the light" in a short time. Messrs. G. B. Evans and Paul Shoemaker are at the head of the company and the stock is all held by citizens of the town. The enterprise of the young business men is worthy of encouragement and no doubt the plant will be liberally patronized and prove a financial success from the start.

The general store of Collins & Kreidler at Nebraska had a narrow escape from what might have been a serious fire on Tuesday night of last week. A large can of turpentine, standing on the porch near the back door, caught fire in an unknown manner. It was discovered by Judge Kreidler about 12:30 o'clock, who threw the burning can from the porch before much damage was done. It was a fortunate discovery, for had the fire gone on for a few minutes it would have been beyond control.

The work of double tracking the Allegheny Valley division of the P. R. R. for a distance of ten miles north of Kittanning is being pushed forward with the intention of having it completed by November 1. This will give the company 60 miles of double track from Pittsburg north. It is the intention to continue this work next year and ultimately construct a double track between Oil City and Pittsburg, and on up the river. The improvement is due to the largely increased freight and passenger traffic between these two points.

The threatening weather kept down the attendance at the Masonic picnic at Nebraska last Wednesday, yet notwithstanding there was a goodly turnout from here and other points in the county. A rain storm coming up compelled an adjournment from the island to the Nebraska Maccabean hall, where the lunch was served. The occasion was a very enjoyable one for all who attended. As the party was going to the hall a bad runaway was narrowly averted. The tongue broke in a rig owned by Liveryman Agay of Tylersburg, and the team ran into Dr. F. J. Bovard's rig, when they were stopped. No one was injured but the doctor's buggy was somewhat damaged.

T. D. Collins, the well known lumberman, was here last week to interview and interest the citizens of Tionesta and vicinity in establishing a new cemetery on the west side of the river opposite the borough. His plan is to convert about thirty acres, taking in the hill field across the river, into a burying ground, beautifying and enclosing the same, and he and his partners at Nebraska purpose donating the land. Mr. Collins, whose ideas are usually correct on such matters, gives it as his opinion that this large plot of ground, lying as it does on a grade facing the river and town, would make an ideal "city of the dead," whose beauty would be unsurpassable. It is his hope to interest and enlist the support of all persons within a radius of several miles of Tionesta, who would be benefited in having a well-kept and beautiful burial place for their loved ones. One of the first and lasting adjuncts to be placed in the new cemetery would be a splendid mausoleum costing several thousand dollars, which has already been provided for by Mr. Collins. Very many to whom he has presented the project think well of it and have given it substantial support.

Many of our townspeople will remember a rather amusing episode that took place in Tionesta about three months ago, in which a Farmington township, Clarion county, constable and a belligerent citizen of McDonald's corners were the principal actors. The constable had traced the young fellow to this place and had got sight of his man, but being somewhat on the corpulent order was not sufficiently fleet of foot to make the capture. The capture was finally effected, however, by the aid of some of our citizens, and the man was taken back home where he was bound over to court on the charge of mayhem, chewing up a fellow mortal, as it were. Last week in the Clarion courts the case came up and a good share of Farmington township's geography was in attendance as witnesses. The prosecutor was Joseph Heppinger, a hotel keeper, and the defendant, Andy McDonald. Counter charges of illegal liquor selling were preferred against Landlord Heppinger, and after about half a day of the court's time had been taken up in hearing the mayhem case a truce was patched up somehow and the case was dropped. Likewise the cases against Heppinger were ignored by the grand jury, and doubtless by this time all is again serene and hilarious about McDonald's corners.

The grape season is here and the White Star Grocery will have almost daily consignments while they last. It

Osgood Family Reunion. What was unanimously voted the most enjoyable and highly successful reunion of the Osgood family was held at the pleasant home of George W. Osgood, in Tionesta, last Saturday. Members of the family and invited guests began to arrive early in the forenoon, and by midday over fifty had gathered for the day's pleasure. Ample preparation for the reception and entertainment of all had been made by Mr. Osgood and his estimable wife. A table over fifty feet in length and symmetrically and substantially built, had been erected on the lawn where all could be comfortably seated. This was covered with snow-white cloths on which were spread the huge baskets of delicious viands. And such a spread! There was enough and to spare for twice as many, and the "cookery" was of a sort to tickle the palate of the finest epicurean cast. The decorations were also of the prettiest and most dainty imaginable. When all had been comfortably seated the venerable Mrs. A. B. Root, who has had the great satisfaction of being able to attend a number of these functions, offered a fervent prayer, and the bountiful repast was eaten amidst greatest jollity and good cheer.

After dinner a number of pleasant speeches were listened to and then the business meeting was called to order by the President, Mr. L. E. Osgood, and the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, E. J. Behrens; secretary, W. F. Jones; treasurer, W. L. Osgood; recording secretary, G. W. Osgood. It was noted with pleasure that there had been no deaths in the family connection during the year. One birth was noted. Of the family present there were 39, as follows: Mrs. Christina Osgood, the aged mother; G. W. Osgood and family; 5; W. B. Osgood and family; 4; E. J. Behrens and family; 5; W. L. Osgood; L. J. Osgood and family; 2; L. E. Osgood and family; 7; W. F. Jones and family; 3; Otto Rudolph and family; 7; Mrs. John Pryor and son Wallace; Mrs. Katie Burdick, and Mrs. Flora Shoemaker. One of the happy incidents of the occasion was the meeting of Mrs. A. B. Root, of Seattle, Wash., and Mrs. John Pryor, of Rockland, Pa., their first in over 40 years. They were young people when last they had met. The invited guests present were: Mrs. A. B. Root, Seattle, Wash.; Milo Manross and son, Washington; Mrs. G. F. Watson, Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Grove and daughter, Harry Bankhead, Miss Mand Overlander, J. W. Jamieson, J. R. Chadwick, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hill, Mrs. Ella Hill, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Geist and children, and John Thomas, Tionesta; Miss May Weller and Ralph Beatty, Endeavor; Mrs. J. B. Carpenter, Newtown Mills, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kiser and son, Starr.

At a late hour in the afternoon the guests began their leave taking, but not until a rising vote of thanks had been given to the genial host and hostess of the day, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Osgood, for the splendid hospitality provided on this happy occasion. It was voted to hold the ninth annual reunion at the home of E. J. Behrens, near Starr postoffice, on the first Saturday in September.

W. C. T. U. County Convention. The nineteenth annual convention of Forest County Woman's Christian Temperance Union will be held in the Presbyterian church, Marienville, Sept. 18 and 19, and promises to be one of the most interesting of any ever held in the county. The program is as follows:

Tionesta Township Boy Killed.

Benjamin Passauer, the fourth son of Mr. and Mrs. John Passauer, of Tionesta township, who went to the Indian Territory last spring to work at the oil business, was almost instantly killed last Wednesday morning at about six o'clock, while working on a drilling well near the town of Chelsea. He seems to have been engaged as a tool dresser, and the bailer or sand pump was being let into the hole, when the rope kinked and caught the boy around the neck, injuring him so severely that he lived less than three quarters of an hour. A letter from his brother Lester to his father written last Wednesday from Chelsea, says: "They started to bail out and had dropped the bailer in the hole, when Ben stooped over to take some mud off the bit. The bailer run slack and wrapped around his neck. He caught the rope with his hands and held on or it would have taken his head off. He only lived about three quarters of an hour." The extent of his injuries are not known, but it is believed his neck was broken and he was badly bruised about the body. The remains arrived here on Saturday morning, and were at once conveyed to the cemetery at Wolf's Corners, where the interment took place, Rev. B. F. Feit conducting the funeral services. The deceased, who was a young man of good habits, had a bright and promising future before him, was born and reared in Tionesta township, this county. Besides his parents he is survived by nine brothers and two sisters, all of whom reside in this vicinity, excepting one brother, Lester, at present residing in the Indian Territory. Benjamin was aged 21 years, one month and ten days. The grief-stricken family have the sympathy of many friends in their bereavement.

Alleged Horse Thief Arrested. Sherman Cook, a travelling optician, was arrested by Constable R. O. Whitton last Thursday morning at East Hickory, on suspicion of being a man wanted in Clarion county for running off with and selling a hired horse. The circumstances leading up to his arrest are these: On Aug. 19, 1934, a man hired a horse and buggy from B. F. Sloughley, a liveryman of New Bethlehem, and failing to return, officers were put on his trail. He was traced up into New York state, where it was found he had sold the outfit and disappeared. The property was recovered. The anti-horse thief association of Clarion county issued a circular giving a description of the man, and this tallies with Cook, who, it is said, has been under suspicion for some time. Constable Whitton had one of these circulars and when Cook showed up there Wednesday night, the officer remained up all night and caught his man as he was preparing to make an early morning start. He brought him here, turned him over to Sheriff Noblit, and he was placed in jail. Friday morning, Constable John Betts, of Marienville, who was deputized by Sheriff Bowman, of Clarion county, appeared here with a warrant for Cook's arrest, which he had been holding for some time, expecting that he might show up in this neighborhood. He started immediately with his prisoner and landed him in the Clarion jail.

Should Cook be convicted Constable Whitton will come in for the reward of $50 which the association offers for the arrest and conviction of every thief who steals a horse from one of its members.

Base Ball. The Bruin ball team, in the game on the Tionesta grounds Friday afternoon, rubbed a coat of whitewash all over our own, winning a rather easy victory. The visitors showed that they are heavy hitters, getting 14 hits off McMillan, who was not in good form. Ten of these hits were bunched in the fourth and eighth innings, netting them eight runs. They also put up a clean fielding game. On the other hand, Tionesta could not bunt their hits on Jackson, who pitched a steady game all through. Tionesta was also guilty of several misplays which figured largely in the score. It was the first game for our boys since Bruin's former visit and so they are to be excused for being out of form. We'll hope for better results next time. The score:

An act of the last legislature made it a misdemeanor to sell or give cigarettes to any person under 21 years of age; but nobody seems to be enforcing the law. An exchange says there is more cigarette smoking among the boys generally since the act was passed than before and there is certainly no diminution in the habit, though the fine imposed for violation of the law is not less than $100. No boy under the age of 21 can possibly get possession of a cigarette inside the state unless some one has subjected himself to this penalty, and if the proper authorities would, for even a short time, busy themselves with the enforcement of a provision made for the benefit of the public health, the evil aimed at would soon be greatly reduced.
