Mr. Whitta Recovers Boy.

The whole nation is rejoicing today with Attorney Whitta, of Sharon, over the recovery, safe and sound, of his little boy Willie, a full account of which is given in our news page today.

THE KIDNAPPERS CAUGHT.

In the arrest of a man and woman in Cleveland last night, with $9,700 in their possession, the police believe they have the kidnapers of Willie Whitta, the woman having admitted that she was one of the responsible persons.

THE WATERLOO TIMES SAYS:

"Ruth Bryan, daughter of the Presidential candidate, has secured a divorce from her husband for non-support. Mr. Bryan has the same cause of action against the Democratic party."

The President has appointed John H. Jordan to be U. S. District Attorney for Western Pennsylvania with headquarters at Pittsburgh. He succeeds John W. Dunkle, who was appointed from Warren four years ago, and who was a candidate for re-appointment.

SENATOR TILLMAN SAYS HE will not bother about the tariff bill, except to vote against it. No doubt the senator has premeditated with his pitchfork enough to find that there are a whole lot of South Carolina Democrats in favor of a protective tariff in these latter days of rapidly growing manufacturing interests in southern climes.

THE COOPERS, Col. Duncan B. and his son, Robin, were found guilty of murder in the second degree for the killing of ex-Senator Carmack, by the jury in the trial which ended in Nashville, Tenn., last Saturday. The accused men were at once sentenced to imprisonment for 20 years each. An appeal was taken pending which the prisoners were each placed under $25,000 bail. The verdict is pretty generally commended by the public, which followed the course of the trial closely.

THAT STOUT highway is encountering a rocky time of it in the legislature, and is now back in committee after passing second reading out of courtesy to its sponsor, who begged that it be allowed to pass this stage. It is doubtful if it again sees daylight. This expensive luxury carried an appropriation of $5,000,000, but would doubtless cost five times that amount before its completion, and then would be available for automobiles only. The specifications call for a fifty-foot speedway built of Macadam. What a delightful scheme for the nabobs.

AS AN argument in favor of acquittal of the Coopers during their trial for the murder of Senator Carmack at Nashville recently, Gen. Washington, one of the defense's counsel said: "You can drive a man insane with ridicule. You can send a man's son into a frenzy by ridicule. Carmack refers to Col. Cooper as 'major'; when he wrote to Col. Cooper as a friend he called him 'colonel'. When he wants to insult and degrade him he calls him 'major'. It was a gratuitous insult." It must be admitted that to call a man "Major" who was accustomed to being addressed as "Colonel" is a very serious offense, especially in the South. But yet we hardly think it justifies murder, thinks the Punxy Spirit, and so we all think.

In the death of George F. Angell at his home in Boston on the 16th inst., every living creature has lost a friend and protector. He lived to the ripe old age of 86 years, and almost the whole of his life he devoted to the education of mankind in humane work for dumb animals. "We speak for those who cannot speak for themselves," was a motto which he carried at the head of the little periodical that he published and edited, called "Our Dumb Animals," and well and faithfully did he carry out this beautiful and merciful work to the end of his life. He traveled many times throughout the United States and in scores of other countries, and was to be established more than 70,000 cards of mercy in America and England. He was a man of considerable means, practically all of which was devoted to this grand work, and we speak for those who cannot speak for themselves when we say, "God bless the efforts of this noble man."

A BEAUTIFUL EDIFICE.

The New Methodist Episcopal Church in Tionesta About Ready for Dedication.

The Methodist Episcopal church in Tionesta, erected by Messrs. G. F. Watson, T. D. Collins and F. X. Kreidler, is practically completed and no preventing providence this beautiful edifice will be dedicated to the worship of Almighty God on Easter Sunday, April 11, 1909, by Bishop Joseph F. Berry, of Buffalo, N. Y., and Rev. Charles M. Boswell, D. D., of Philadelphia, Corresponding Secretary of the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension, assisted by Rev. D. A. Platt, D. D., District Superintendent, the pastor, Rev. W. O. Calhoun, former pastors and visiting clergymen. The structure is located on the site purchased a few years ago from Charles Bonner, of Chicago, for this purpose, and is an ideal location, being very near the center of the town, and the lot having sufficient frontage to surround the building with a good sized lawn.

On Easter Sunday, 1908, the pastor announced to his congregation the plans of the above named gentlemen, to make this magnificent gift to the society. At once Winkler & Macdonald, architects, of Pittsburgh, were engaged to draw plans and specifications, and on June 27th the contract was awarded to the Building and Construction Company of Franklin, Pa., for the sum of $23,980, which did not include the windows or furnishing. Ground was broken July 6th, and from that date the work was pushed as rapidly as possible to completion. The edifice is a gothic structure, the extreme dimensions being seventy by seventy-five feet. Native stone was used for the basement and Hummelstown brown stone above the water table. The basement is eleven feet high, well lighted and contains a large room for social meetings, cloak room, storage room, the steam heating plant, lavatories, etc. The auditorium has a bowled floor with circular pews seating 325. Directly in the rear and separated from it by rolling partitions is the Epworth League room with 100 chairs and over it a gallery seated with pews which will accommodate 125 people. The basement has an outside entrance. There is also a rear entrance to the auditorium, which opens into a waiting room for the choir and pastor. The inside wood-work in the basement is yellow pine, finished natural. All the rooms above this are finished in golden oak. The memorial windows were furnished by individuals and purchased from the Haskins Art Glass Co., of Rochester, N. Y., and cost about $1,400. The pews, pulpit and pulpits were manufactured by the Kittanning Seating Company and are finished in golden oak to correspond with the inside finish. The floors of all rooms above the basement are carpeted with a two-tone red Brussels carpet, with the exception of the vestibule, which has a tile floor with a marble base. As soon as can be arranged for a pipe organ will be installed, which will make the building complete. The total cost of the church, including the lot and furnishing but not the organ, will be about $33,000.00. The members of the congregation are busily engaged in raising money to furnish the church, which they are expected to do with the exception of the pews. It is not expected that it will be necessary to raise a large amount on the day of dedication.

THE MEMORIAL WINDOWS.

Representatives of The Haskins Glass Company, Rochester, N. Y., have just completed the work of setting the beautiful memorial windows, (the work of their Rochester studio), and already they have been the object of many complimentary remarks and will surely make many friends for the house that made them. The glass used in the construction of these windows is what is known to the trade as first quality American opalescent and the prevailing colors throughout are amber and green. These colors, while giving a most beautiful effect under a strong light, are easy to the eyes and have none of the glare which is so objectionable in old style stained glass windows.

While in most churches the size of the one in Tionesta there is one large window known as the "great" window, in this case there are three of equal size, one each on the West, North and South. All three of these would have had some figure of Christ or a Bible character, but the one on the South being cut in two by the gallery has a bust of Hofmann's "Christ at Twelve," showing above the gallery. This window is the gift of G. F. Watson and bears the following inscription: At the base of the center section, "George F. and Anna Watson and family"; on the two side sections, at the base, "A. B. and Eva Elizabeth Root," and "Frank and Cordelia Watson."

The large window on the West side of the building, opening into the Sunday school room, is the gift of Truman Doud Collins and bears the names of the donor, his wife, Mary Stanton Collins, and his son, Everett Stanton Collins. The center one of its three panels shows Plochthor's figure of "Christ the Good Shepherd," with the lamb in his arms and sheep at his side, and will preach its sermon as long as the church stands. The figure section, as well as the balance of the window, is worked out in the natural glass, with the exception of the flesh, which it has been found impossible to reproduce true to life without the use of paints. The painted portions of all these windows are thoroughly and repeatedly fired in a special kiln, which burns the paint into the glass, so that there is no danger of its scaling. The name plates are similarly treated.

The large window in the North side of the building is the gift of Hon. Frank X. Kreidler and bears the names of his parents, Bernhard and Maria Kreidler, and Rev. C. C. Rumberger. In the center section is a figure of "Christ Blessing the Children," a reproduction of the famous painting by Hofmann. It shows the Christ seated, with a child in his arms and a second one at his side, and is a most creditable piece of work.

Facing the street and at either side of the Collins window are two given by O. W. Propper and Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Dunt, one with a cluster of Easter lilies worked into the background and the other with a corresponding cluster of passion flowers. On the Propper window is the inscription "Sarah A. Propper," and on the Dunt window "Joseph and Jane B. Grove."

The children of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Hill have given the window to the right of the North large window, the emblem being a dove and the inscription "Charles A. and Mary J. Hill." To the left of the North large window is the Grove and Hunter window, with a cluster of Easter lilies as an emblem and the inscription "W. A. Grove, W. F. Hunter, M. D., and family." This is the gift of Mrs. Minnie Hunter Grove, Nettie E. Hunter and Dr. Frank S. Hunter.

The Commissioners of Crawford County have authorized the Chief of the Fire Department at Meadville to purchase a pair of bloodhounds to be used for tracking criminals.

Miss Jessica Reed of Titusville was fined last week in the sum of $100 for writing contemptuous letters to Judge Prather of Crawford county. She admitted writing letters in the name of "James H. Brown" just before the last license court in which she made allegations in regard to certain Titusville liquor dealers and also made contemptuous remarks about the Judge. The whole amount of fine and costs ran up to $117.50.

At Clearfield, after hearing in open court, five young girls of that town, ranging in age from 12 to 19 years were sent to the house of refuge at Fallside-apt, seven young men were each fined $100 and cost, another was fined $100 and given six months in jail, and four others were held in $1,000 bail for trial at May court on serious charges. The testimony showed that a deplorable moral condition prevails among a number of the youths of Clearfield.

Forty Days and Nights Of suffering from a broken neck in my thumb and hand, to which I applied flexed poultices for over a week with no benefit. A friend told me that San-Cura Ointment would draw it out. I applied it as thick as a poultice. My hand was swollen to twice its natural size. San-Cura reduced the inflammation and pain and drew out the broken needle, over an inch long. I never felt so thankful. I took the needle to Mr. Thompson, who has it with other specimens of what San-Cura has done. I recommend San-Cura as an absorbent to draw poison and pain from any suffering being, (man or beast.) 25c, 50c, $1.00 and $2.00.
