—This is the longest day of the year, and the beginning of summer. Would that these long days could last longer, but ere we realize it we'll be taking tea by candle-light again.
—It is worse than useless to take any medicine internally for muscular or chronic rheumatism. All that is needed is a free application of Chamberlain's Liniment. For sale by all dealers.
—The latest in automobiles to appear on our streets is a pretty Maxwell car owned by Wm. Lawrence. Ed. has picked up the chauffeur end of the business quite readily and handles the new machine like an expert.
—Says the Evening News of Monday: A Franklin man received a communication from the War Department to-day stating that initial steps toward slack-watering the Allegheny river had been taken.
—Dr. M. W. Easton, Osteopathic Physician, of Oil City, will visit Tionesta next Wednesday. See him at the Hotel Weaver. Settling bones and the treatment of nervous and chronic diseases a specialty. Greatest success in all kinds of chronic diseases.
—Says the Derrick: "One of the most peculiar hail storms this section of the county has ever known occurred at and near Doublet pump station, in the old Pitoule district, Thursday between 10 and 11 o'clock in the morning. The hail stones were in the form of icicles, many of them from one-half to three-eighths of an inch at the base and tapering to a sharp point."
—The trial of John M. Andrews at Warren, charged with the murder of Emil Amann, will probably be prosecuted rested and the defense opened their side of the case. Their main effort are directed towards the proving of an alibi and breaking down the testimony for the commonwealth. Every inch of ground is being contested by both sides, who have able counsel engaged.

Fire at Yankee Camp.
Reports coming down yesterday state there was a big fire in the hemlock slashings at Yankee Camp, the Collins job in Howe township.
The skidding machine was badly damaged, the school house burned down, two cows belonging to the boarding-house keeper were cremated, and many logs were consumed.
The fire started about 4 o'clock in the afternoon, presumably by sparks from the locomotive of the log train. It was gotten under control before night fall.
—George Steffe, one of Oil City's well known and highly esteemed citizens and a pioneer merchant, died at his home in that city Saturday after a brief illness. Mr. Steffe is well known to many of our citizens who have dealt with him for years past. He was aged 82 years. His wife, one son and five daughters survive.
—Mrs. Weed, wife of Wm. B. Weed, of Warren, died at the family home Friday, after an illness of several months, aged 69 years, and beloved by all who knew her. Mr. Weed has held the responsible position of stenographer in our courts for more than thirty years, and his many Forest county friends will sympathize deeply with him in this heavy affliction. Besides the husband, one daughter, Miss Evelyn, survives.
—During the forest fire about the middle of May the school house at Bowmanville, Green township, was burned. No school had been held there for some time. The building was a fine one 25x35 and could not be replaced for $1,000. It was insured in the C. M. Arner & Son agency for $400. D. F. Good, of Lock Haven, special agent of the North America company, was here last week Tuesday and with Mr. Arner went up to adjust the loss.
—In the meantime, what about Mr. Carson's hundred-dollar offer for evidence sufficient to convict anyone guilty of bribery in connection with the recent election of county superintendent? We apprehend the offer still stands, and think it strange that some fellow, out of a job, has not snapped up the proposition and "helped himself to the mustard," so to speak. Surely there's none so cowardly that he wouldn't undertake a job with a nice cool hundred back of it.

—The Woman's Home Missionary Society of the M. E. church, Franklin district, convened last evening in the church at this place and will close its sessions tonight. The attendance has been large and extraordinary interest has been shown in the proceedings. The program for this evening's session is as follows: 7:30 o'clock, Quiet hour services, Mrs. C. H. Frampton, Oil City; Music, Chorus; Paper—Mormonism, Mrs. C. C. Gordon, Franklin; Duet, Misses Eva Hunter and Florence Maxwell; A visit from the Home Missionary Society, characters: Hostess, Mrs. D. W. Morrison; Chinese girl, Elsie Wolcott; German girl, Ruth Ball; Japanese girl, Beulah Amsler; Indian girl, Agnes Morrison; Negro girl, Irene Morrison; Mormon girl, Anna Mary Helling; Mexican girl, Leola Thomson; Eskimo girl, Libbie Pequinot; Highland girl, Gertrude Mellon.

Recent Weddings.
MUENZENBERGER-MONTPETIT.
The following account of the marriage of a former Tionesta boy will be read with much pleasure by many of his friends here, who will join the REPUBLICAN in extending best wishes to the young man and his fair bride. The item is from last week's issue of the Chicago Heights (Ill.) Signal:
"Miss Clara Montpetit, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Montpetit, and Otto L. Muenzenberger, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. John Muenzenberger, were united in marriage last Thursday morning at 8 o'clock at St. Agnes church. Father Welsh performed the ceremony in the presence of only the immediate families. Miss Martha Muenzenberger, sister of the groom, acted as bridesmaid, and Henry Krantz attended the groom. The bride wore a beautiful white silk gown. After the ceremony the bridal party repaired to the home of the bride, where a delightful wedding breakfast was served. At noon Mr. and Mrs. Muenzenberger left for a short wedding trip. They returned Saturday evening and have gone to housekeeping at 1223 Ohio boulevard. Many handsome wedding presents were received, among them a chest of silver from the bride's brother in Japan. The bride is a charming young lady and has lived in the Heights for a number of years. The groom is a young man of sterling character and good habits. He is employed at the Hamilton Piano Co. The young couple have a host of friends who wish them much happiness and prosperity."
MURPHY-JOHNSON.
Mr. Harry Ellsworth Murphy, book-keeper of the Salmon Tannery, and Miss Ednah Fannie Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. R. Johnson, of Kellestville, Pa., were married at the M. E. church in that place, Wednesday morning, June 14, 1911, at eleven o'clock, by the pastor, Rev. W. E. Frampton. The bride wore a handsome gown of white satin and veil, with wedding crown of orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of white roses. She was attended by the maid of honor, Mrs. Joseph Cunningham, sister of the bride, and six bridesmaids, namely, Miss Minnie Beer, of Johnsonburg, cousin of the bride, Miss Mary Sizie, Miss Olive Wolfe, Miss Julia Lohmeyer, Miss Margaret Gillooly and Miss Anna Leese. The bridesmaids were dressed in white embroidered gowns. The groomsmen were George Lawrence Johnson, of Harrison Valley, nephew of the bride, M. H. Wilson, Ralph Whitehill, Dr. W. W. Serrill, R. C. Spangler and Nathaniel Johnson. The flower girls were Luella Johnson, of Harrison Valley, a niece of the bride, and Mary Sigalins, of West Hickory, a cousin of the groom. The wedding procession entered the church to the wedding march played by Mrs. W. F. Jones. The church was artistically decorated with ferns. A large audience witnessed the ceremony. At the collation which followed at the home of the bride, about one hundred and twenty guests were present. Covers were laid for seven at the bride's table. The prevailing decorations were white sweet peas and ferns. The bride and groom left in the afternoon for Jamestown, N. Y., and will visit a number of places of interest before returning home. They expect to be gone about a month. Mr. and Mrs. Murphy are both highly respected young people, and we all join in wishing them a happy and prosperous married life.

The ceremony was presided by Rev. Victor Boucher of the Presbyterian church. The young couple will reside in Titusville, where the groom is a member of the grocery firm of Fenton Bros.

—Many Tionesta friends of Prof. and Mrs. T. E. Armstrong of Avalon, a suburb of Pittsburgh, will be interested to learn that their twin children, Martha and Arthur, born in Tionesta, are members of the graduating class of 1911, Slippery Normal school. Miss Martha is named by the faculty as one of the honor students and will deliver an oration at "commencement," which takes place next Wednesday, 28th inst. We congratulate these young people upon their rapid progress in educational lines, as it seems but yesterday that the REPUBLICAN heralded their advent into this glorious but turbulent old world, Nov. 10, 1891.
—Dean Allen J. Smith of the Medical School of the University of Pennsylvania announced recently the names of the sixteen honor men of the graduating class of the Medical Department. One of the fortunate men was our own young citizen, Edward Glenn Henry, who passed as one of the top-notchers. The honor men are those whose average for their senior year or for the entire four years of their medical course has been above 90 per cent. There are 154 men in the class, which goes to show that one must be a good student to become an honor man. Mrs. S. M. Henry and Miss Clara Henry, mother and sister of Dr. Henry, have gone to Philadelphia to be present at the graduating exercises, which will be held today.

—Harold A. Ross, who has held a responsible clerical position at the State hospital at North Warren for several years, and Miss Maud M. Connelly, a graduate nurse from the same institution, were united in marriage at the home of the officiating clergyman, Rev. A. C. Ellis, Oil City, pastor of Trinity M. E. church, Wednesday afternoon, June 14, 1911. Shortly after the ceremony they departed on a wedding trip and after July 15th will be "at home" at 104 Cayuga avenue, Warren, Pa. The bride is a former Forest county girl and one of its brightest and most accomplished young ladies, being a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Connelly, former residents of East Hickory, but now of Ludlow, Pa. She is pleasantly remembered by many friends in the community who will be much interested in and will extend happy felicitations on this announcement. Mr. Ross is the efficient and trusted secretary to the superintendent of the hospital and a popular gentleman in the community. The REPUBLICAN joins their many friends in extending best wishes for the future happiness and prosperity of the young couple.

Whig Hill.
Mr. Stufflebeam and family of Grand Valley visited the former's mother, Mrs. E. Smith, over the Sabbath.
Elias Emert and family of Emlenton, also Jas. W. Johnson and family of Forest Valley, are on the hill for a week's visit with their parents and brother, Adam and Will Emert, and also with a sister, Mrs. Wm. Weingard.
Mrs. Emma Ward of Pittsburgh left for her home last Thursday, after several days' visit with her son Thomas, who is living with his grandparents here, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Ward.
Several members of the Sabbath school here will be in attendance at the Sabbath school convention to be held at Kellestville this Tuesday and Wednesday.
Mrs. Chas. Price is very seriously ill at her home here, and her many friends are hoping for her speedy recovery to perfect health.
The Forest Gas Co. are doing some repairing on their leases in this vicinity and also pumping their wells at Town Line.
The fellow who hasn't a good supply of the famous old hard shelled potato bugs on hand isn't in it this season, by any means.
Thanks.
We wish to thank our friends and neighbors for their kindness to us in our bereavement and for the beautiful flowers contributed; also for the music and the minister's service.
MRS. M. N. GILBERT.
MARGARET BERMAN.
West Hickory, June 15, 1911.
—There is one medicine that every family should be provided with and especially during the summer months; viz., Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It is almost certain to be needed. It costs but a quarter. Can you afford to be without it? For sale by all dealers.

C. O. THOMAS AGAIN IN TROUBLE.
With J. W. Noble, of Tylersburg, He is Arrested for Stealing a Team of Horses at Cooksburg.
Charles O. Thomas, of Clarion county, was arrested near Nebraska, Green township, last Wednesday night, June 14th, charged with stealing a team of horses from S. C. Agnew, the hotel keeper at Cooksburg, Barnett township. Not being able to furnish bail he is now confined in the Forest county jail. The stolen team and outfit was found in possession of Thomas.
Jacob W. Noble, who lives on what was formerly the Heck Smith farm, a mile this side of Tylersburg, was arrested Thursday night near his home, under the same charge and was released under bail.
The team is a nicely matched pair of sorrel ponies four years old and weighing about 850 pounds each. With the team the thief took a good top buggy, harness, rubber spread, curry comb, two bushels of oats,—in fact the whole outfit connected with the team,—to the value of $350. According to Mr. Agnew's story he was working extra time on Tuesday night helping to load a flat boat and on coming home his wife mentioned hearing a noise at the barn. He investigated and found the horses all right, it being then a little after twelve o'clock. He thinks the thief was concealed in the barn and got away with the outfit shortly after he had gone to bed, as his wife heard another noise at the barn. He discovered his loss about 5:30 Wednesday morning and found the hatters in the stable yard. He telephoned his loss to all the surrounding towns and with his nephew, O. A. Lewis, a boy of 15 years, took up the trail. They tracked the rig to Scotch Hill, then to Leeper, where Mr. Agnew's brother George joined them in the search. The trail led over the macadam road to Tylersburg, then to Joseph Keveline's near Crown, where his spring house was robbed that morning of honey and butter, which was found in the buggy when it was taken from Thomas. The trail led up to Robert Hagerty's, back to James Tingley's, past the old Haskell mill and by way of the Hagen church to Golinza, where the rig was seen by a resident, it being then daylight. The man driving the rig at that time was not Thomas, but a large man with a heavy mustache. The stolen outfit was taken out the Gultonville road, where two sons of C. S. Hoover saw and described it. It was also seen by a number of others. It is supposed to have been taken down the Fox creek road to Little Conon creek and then down to a rendezvous on Hall ridge back of E. L. DeWoody's house, just above Nebraska. The rig had left the public road at the stone watering trough and the horses forced to go up a bank so steep that nothing but a goat would be supposed to climb it. It was in these woods and after many twists and turns that the Agnews finally ran the gang to cover just about dark. Leaving Lewis, and Roy McCanna, of Nebraska, guarding the public road, both the Agnews went up into the woods and soon returned out three men and the team. Two of these men, said by Thomas to be David Trainor and Frank Moyer, or Myers, started to run and were called on to surrender. George Agnew fired eight shots after them and thinks he wounded Moyer, as he was seen to hold his left side as he ran. Both men escaped and no trace has been found of them since. While this was going on Thomas drove off with the rig, coming out near DeWoody's barn and going up the Kellestville road. Lewis and McCanna drove up behind him and forced him to surrender at the point of a Winchester rifle. He was unarmed. Sheriff S. R. Maxwell was notified and went up and brought Thomas to jail. The Agnew party came to town and the owner made information against him. At a hearing Thursday afternoon before C. A. Randall, J. P., Thomas pleaded guilty, waived a hearing and was held under $500 bail for his appearance at September court. Thomas is aged 44 years. He is a cripple and goes about on crutches, having a tubercular trouble of the right hip. He admits to serving three or four terms in the penitentiary. His last sentence was for stealing the team of Amos Shotts, at Tylersburg, five years ago. He drew a long sentence for this crime, but was pardoned March 15th on account of poor health.
Jacob W. Noble, who is an uncle to Thomas, was arrested Thursday night by Sheriff Maxwell and Constable Charles Clark, of the Boro, the information being sworn to by S. C. Agnew. Noble was brought to jail the same night and after a hearing Friday night before C. A. Randall, J. P., was released under $500 bail for his appearance at the September term of court. The chief witness against him was Thomas, who told a story to the effect that the stealing was planned by Noble and Trainor at the former's home. Trainor stole the horses and Thomas' part in the affair was to help him run them out of the county. Thomas' story condensed is as follows: He met Trainor Tuesday forenoon in the woods near Leeper and went over the plans for the stealing. Went to Scotch Hill and back to Noble's arriving there about 9 o'clock in the evening. Talked over the plans with him and an hour or more later Noble hitched a horse to a buggy and took him to a bridge on the road above Golinza, the place where he was to meet Trainor. Trainor came along about daylight with the stolen team. The three drove to the Flynn school house. The plan was for Thomas to drive the horses through Nebraska but it being daylight he refused. Went back to Golinza and Trainor took the team out the Gultonville road. Noble took Thomas back to the school house and started home, Thomas walking to Nebraska by the road and to the rendezvous through the woods. Arrived there about 10 o'clock and acted as lookout to see if they were followed. Trainor came in about 12 o'clock. Moyer appeared about two o'clock, saying he had a horse and buggy back in the woods. Trainor is aged about 24 years, and took him to a bridge on the road above Golinza, the place where he was to meet Trainor. Trainor came along about daylight with the stolen team.
