 ciation will be held in the German Hill church, commencing Saturday evening, March 28, at 7:30 o'clock, Sabbath morning, March 29, at 10 o'clock, by the elder and pastor's charge. Further announcements will be made Sabbath morning.
 —James Church of East Hickory passed through town Saturday morning driving two teams of horses which he brought overland from Somerset county, a distance of nearly 200 miles. He was just a week on the way, and says he encountered more big snow drifts down near the Maryland line than on any other part of his trip.
 —There is a movement on foot to suspend or stop the killing of deer in Forest county for a period of five years, as is being done in many of the surrounding counties. Under a recent act of Assembly this can be accomplished by petition of the citizens of the county, the names of 200 being required to bring about the desired result. Surely this should be done.
 Although but few deer have been killed in this county within the past three years an entire cessation of hunting this noble game animal would help materially to increase the number within our borders.
 Jefferson and Clarion counties have taken the initiative and Forest should not be behind in the laudable effort to preserve the deer. adv

Dwelling House Burned at Starr.
 The dwelling house on the old Siebert Burbenb homestead, near Starr, and occupied by Mrs. Catherine Burbenb and her daughter, Miss Mina Burbenb, was totally destroyed by a fire which occurred between 8 and 9 o'clock last night, Tuesday. The fire is supposed to have originated from a fire in the kitchen and communicated quickly with the main portion of the dwelling. The women belong alone were able to save only a few small articles of furniture, some clothing and eatables, all from the kitchen.
 They rang a big bell on the summer kitchen to summon help but by the time some men folks had arrived the fire had gained such headway that no one could enter the building. The house was one of the old landmarks of that vicinity, having been built more than sixty years ago by a man named Eisenhood, one of the original German settlers on German Hill. The Burbenb family occupied it for more than fifty years. Mr. Eisenhood's first dwelling house near this location was also burned at that time. Mrs.
 Burbenb's loss is estimated to be about $2,000, on which there was an insurance of $700, in the Arner agency of Tionesta.

Shot Through the Hand.
 Clyde, aged 17 years, son of George Neal of Nebraska, shot himself accidentally through the left hand last Saturday at the parental home. The young man had gone up stairs and found his father's loaded revolver and proceeded at once to investigate its workings, with the result that the thing let go sending a bullet through the boy's hand about the center of the palm, making an ugly wound. Dr. Bovard was summoned and dressed the wound, removing several splinters of bone. Whether the hand will be permanently crippled depends somewhat on the progress of healing. He is getting along all right so far.

—Class C and their teacher, Russell J.
 Hopkins, of the Presbyterian Sunday school, with Rev. H. A. Bailey and Prof. L. P.
 White as their guests, enjoyed a chicken and waffle supper at the Gosh-gosh club house last Friday evening. The young men prepared their own eats, had a feast fit for a king, and had a good time in general.

—Cohen is again stocked up on all sorts of fruit and vegetables. The finest oranges and apples ever brought to Tionesta at this season of the year; cumber-s, celery, lettuce, rhubarb, cabbage, etc., fresh from the southern gardens, and a dandy display. Another consignment of fresh fish coming this week. And all at rock bottom prices.—adv —Saturday, March 21, was the first day of spring, also a cold one, thermometers registering 5 degrees below zero. But that needn't surprise you, if you just think back a little. On St. Patrick's day, March 17, 1885, the weather was also cold, 17° below zero, and three days later, March 20, it was 22° below here, and at Newtown Mills, this county, the morning opened with a temperature of 20° below zero. That year the ice in the river went out on the morning of April 23, 1885.

—The Biederwolf revival meetings closed in Oil City Sunday night after a continuous run of five weeks at the big tabernacle. During the meetings over 5000 "hit the sawdust trail," and on the last night the biggest catch of the season was made, being over 400 in number, among whom was our good natured friend Dr.
 J. B. Sigans, Oil City's reform mayor, who was cheered to the echo when he clasped the hand of Dr. Biederwolf. The free-will offering of the last night was very close to the $5,000 mark.

—Peter Galmah, residing on the Kiser farm, German Hill, has purchased the Adam Sibille farm adjoining the Kiser place in Green township. Since the death of her husband, Mrs. Sibille and son G-orge have occupied the homestead, but will give possession within a couple of weeks, and will in a few days dispose of their live stock, farm machinery implements, etc., at public sale. George has not decided on his future course, but may take a look at the western country with a view to locating if he should be suited.

—Contractor A. F. Ledebur finished the well on the Conrad Paul farm, near Newtown Mills last week, having gone to a depth of 1604 feet, or below the Baltown sand. In what is called the grey sand, supposed to conform to the Clarendon sand, 1215 feet, a 60-foot vein of sand was found and a fair showing of oil. The operators, Messrs. Blatt, McCauly & Wagner, of Freedom, Pa., were encouraged to "shoot" this sand; but the showing was not greatly increased by the shot.
 However, they do not expect to abandon the territory, but will put down another well not far from the same location.

—Melvin E. Sibille, the affable clerk at the Collins & Krotter store, Nebraska, also gives some attention to raising a good strain of chickens, his favorite breed being the Rhode Island Red. One of these lusty hens produced something in the nature of a freak one day last week, it being an egg measuring 7x8½ inches, and containing a perfectly formed egg, shell and all on the inside. The freak was discovered when a small hole was bored in either end of the larger shell and allowing the "meat" to run out. The curiosity is on exhibition at the store where it may be seen by any one interested in freaks.

—County Treasurer Brazee this week publishes his list of lands which will be sold in June for arrears of taxes, unless the same, with costs, etc., are paid before the day of sale. The lists seem to grow smaller and beautifully less as the year goes by, there being scarcely more than 150 tracts to dispose of this year, and many of these being merely oil or gas privileges, which have been assessed separately. Time was when the list embraced six to seven hundred tracts and thus comprising often a whole warrant of a thousand acres or more, and often these large bodies were sold for the taxes and costs, amounting to one or two hundred dollars at most, and often a sale was allowed to pass the period of redemption, thus becoming the bidder's property absolutely. As the tracts were mostly heavily timbered the lucky purchaser often reaped a small fortune by a meagre investment. Those were the halcyon days of the "land shark," but they have fled, probably never to return, surely not in this day and generation.

—Big, husky, lively chicks! Yours will be if you use Pratts Baby Chick Food and Pratts White Diarrhoea Remedy.
 Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded. For sale by first class dealers everywhere. adv

PERSONAL.

—Mrs. J. A. Small of Nebraska was a guest of Tionesta friends Saturday.

—Roy Copeland of Pineville, Pa., was a business visitor in town yesterday.

—A daughter was born to Mrs. Bertha Emert at the county home last Thursday.

—Misses Ethel and Hazel Clark were home from Meadville during the past week.

—Mrs. Anna Osgood returned Friday after a visit of five weeks with relatives in Pittsburgh.

—T. D. Collins of Nebraska returned last week from an extended business trip to San Diego, Cal.

—Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Blum were up from Oil City and spent Sunday at the home of his parents.

—Mrs. D. K. Ramsey of Utica, Pa., is here for a few weeks' visit with her daughter, Mrs. G. G. Gaston.

—B. L. Grover of Tunesassa, N. Y., spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Thomson.

—Mrs. Vernah Watson Showman and Mrs. Harry Watson, of Tionesta, are visitors in Warren today.—Times, 23d.

—J. F. Jones of East Hickory was a business visitor in town Monday and gave the REPUBLICAN a friendly call while here.

—Mrs. J. J. Connelly, who spent the past winter with her husband in Toronto, Ontario, is a guest at the home of her father G. W. Robinson.

—Jake Siggins and Bruce Hagerty, drilling in the Barnett township field with headquarters at Clarington, were over Sunday visitors at their homes here.

—Elias Albaugh of Albaugh Hill, one of Hickory township's oldest citizens, has been critically ill for several days past, but at latest accounts was somewhat improved.

—Mrs. Henry A. Zuendel of Starr, one of German Hill's oldest residents, is critically ill from heart affection. Mrs. Zuendel is upward of 83 years of age, but is making brave fight for recovery.

—S. J. Sigel is moving his family from Harmony, Butler county, to Tionesta, and will occupy the Shira house on Vine street. Mr. Sigel will follow junk dealing having his headquarters here.

—Mrs. J. P. Grove returned from Rochester, Pa., Monday where she attended the funeral of her brother. She was accompanied by her sister, Mrs.
 Emma Hamilton of Philadelphia, who will be her guest for a short time.

—W. S. Hendricks, a former resident of Kellettville, where he conducted a flourizing mill for a number of years, writes to have the address of his paper changed from Cochran to Reynoldsville, Pa., after April first, he having decided to change locations at that time.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McMillan of Nebraska were called to Fink Ridge, Crawford county, Monday, by news of the critical illness of the former's mother, Mrs. Wm. McMillan. The mother suffered a stroke of paralysis and being over eighty years in age her recovery is doubtful.

—A. H. Hunter of Nebraska returned home Sunday from a week's vacation spent in Pittsburgh, Wheeling and Steubenville. He was accompanied by his daughter, Miss Rachel, who for a month has been taking in millinery styles in Pittsburgh and for the coming season will be the trimmer in Miss Olive Wolfe's millinery store in Kellettville.

—Lawrence Klinefister of Sheffield, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Klinefister, was operated upon last Friday for appendicitis at the Emergency hospital, Warren. The operation was successful and the young man's friends will be glad to learn that he is getting along well, and will soon be able to resume his duties as teacher in one of the schools of his township.

—Mrs. B. F. Fogle of Newtown this county was very pleasantly surprised Tuesday, March 17, when twenty-five of her friends and neighbors gathered to help celebrate the sixtieth anniversary of her birth. The day was ideal for the occasion, and dinner was served at 1 o'clock.
 Mrs. Fogle was presented with many beautiful presents as remembrances, and her guests before departing wished her many more birthdays to come.

—Dr. E. G. Henry, who has been identified with Dr. J. B. Siggins for about two years, recently returned to Oil City from his home in Tionesta, where he had been giving his entire attention to the care of his brother, who had been very ill for the past six or eight months, and who is now well on the road to recovery. The doctor has decided to open offices in this city in the near future, though he has not yet decided on the location.—Blizzard, Thursday.

—Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Sibille of Oil City were guests of the former's mother here for a few days of the past week, and were enjoying a short honeymoon vacation after their marriage which was consummated at Pittsburg on the 17th inst.
 The bride was formerly Miss Glenora McCullum of Oil City, where the happy couple will make their home for a time at least. The REPUBLICAN joins Frank's many friends in this community in extending best wishes for the prosperity and happiness of him and his.

—Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Robbins of Kel-lettville received word Tuesday of the serious injury of their son, John Robbins, who is a medical student in the medical school connected with Union College, Albany, N. Y. In company with thirty of his fellow students he went up to Amsterdam, N. Y., last Friday to attend the funeral of the president of the sophomore class and in riding out to the country home the carriage in which John was riding was overturned in some manner. He was the only one of the party to suffer any injury. For a number of hours he was unconscious and it was feared he had sustained internal injuries as well as some broken bones. He was promptly taken to the hospital at Amsterdam and on Sunday was removed to Albany, where he was resting easier, according to a letter received from their second son, June Robbins, and it is hoped his injuries may not be as serious as at first reported.

Horse Owners Notice.
 Are your horse's teeth in good shape this spring? I will be in Tionesta, Saturday, March 28th,
 adv J. M. NUGENT, Vet. Dentist.

Celebrated Their Golden Wedding.
 Mr. and Mrs. Henry Glassner celebrated their golden wedding Saturday, March 21, 1914, at their comfortable home on German Hill, Tionesta township, a large number of relatives and friends being present to assist them in observing this happy event. Many useful presents were received by and quite a number of gold pieces and other money. The wedding cake was baked by one of their grandsons, Glenn Rudolph. Many and very heartfelt good wishes were extended to the well mated couple, who have passed so many years in the companionship of a happy wedded life. The guests left at a late hour, all reporting a very enjoyable time. Those present were: William Blum and wife, M. Wert and wife, James Smith and wife, Wm. F. Blum and wife, Ernest Sibille and wife, Chas. Bush and wife, Elias Emert and family, Frank Rudolph and family, Wm. Walters and wife, Mrs. H. O. Davis, Fred Ledebur and wife, Fred Rudolph and family, Fred Glassner and family, Mrs. J. P. Kelley, Mrs. Cal. Nichols, Fred Weingard and wife, Henry Weingard and wife, Mrs.
 Adam Sibille, Mrs. Wm. Shellhouse and family, Robert Weingard, Mrs. C. Bur-benb, Peter Galmah and family, Fred Dickraeger and wife.

Newtown Mills.
 John Zuendel of Starr was a business visitor in town a couple of days last week.
 Rob. Blum came home Thursday from Mayburg, where he was employed.
 Hart Albaugh of Pine Camp was visiting his cousin, Wm. Blausser, a few days last week.
 Mrs. C. Paul has been on the sick list but is better at this writing.
 Mrs. Coy was a Kellettville visitor one day last week.
 Henry Grubbs is the guest of his daughter, Mrs. C. Jones.
 Frank Freelove and wife of Ross run visited at the home of Herman Blum last Wednesday.
 John Carpenter and sisters, Hazel and Florence, attended F. M. meeting at Kellettville, Saturday evening.
 Abigail Spencer of Ross run visited his aunt, Mrs. J. B. Carpenter, Sunday.
 Miss Florence Blum, who has been at Freedom for the past three months, returned home Friday.
 H. Lusher of Tionesta was a business visitor in town Wednesday.
 Mrs. W. F. Jones, Mrs. J. B. Carpenter and Mrs. W. O. Blausser attended the W. C. T. U. du social at Kellettville, Wednesday.
 Miss Emma Rudolph visited her sister, Mrs. Wm. Watson, at Kellettville, Monday.
 Miss Huldah Coy is visiting at Tionesta.
 Miss Golda Smith, accompanied by Hart Albaugh, spent Friday afternoon in Kellettville, returning home on the evening train.
 Mrs. Al. Smith and little daughter Leota were on the sick list last week but are better at this writing.
 Misses Hazel and Florence Carpenter, who have rooms at Kellettville, had an uninvited guest with a ravenous appetite for dinner one day last week, eating up all the dainties and taking potato parings dessert. The girls heard a commotion in the kitchen, opened the dining room door and to their surprise discovered a cow had taken possession.

Porkey.
 We are again glad that while the earthquake, floods and storm visits were hitting other places we have been exempt, since our last letter. The ice does not look as though it would do any damage when it goes. The creek is clear from Sheffield to Lynch and below the latter place there is a small gorge showing that the ice was badly worn out before it came down.
 Mrs. Wm. Burch, who has been the guest of her sister Mrs. J. W. Daukie, left on Thursday for Falconer, N. Y.
 Mrs. Geo. Shay of Wellers went to Jamestown Wednesday for a short visit and will have medical attention while away, as her health has not been the best lately.
 The freight had a mixup at Duck Eddy the first of the week and caused a lot of extra work for the railroad men. The passenger train was compelled to make a trip backwards.
 The singing at the church was well attended last Sunday evening. They expect to purchase new books and learn the new songs beginning at the first one.
 Mrs. Wm. Stroup and two boys went to Sheffield, Wednesday, shopping and visited relatives.
 Barrett Stroup, who is working at Potter's Camp, was severely injured when crossing the railroad track. In some manner the load rolled onto him breaking one of his legs. He was attended by Dr. Mervine of Sheffield.
 Wm. Ledebur of Tionesta was the guest of the Blum family Sunday and a very welcome visitor to our village.
 The offers for the old school building are not coming in very fast on account of the location of the same.
 Mrs. Geo. Fink of Millers Mill visited her brother's family, Chas. Barber, at Epstein's last week for a couple days.
 Mrs. J. T. Miller was at Kellettville Saturday, shopping.
 Mrs. Jones of Newtown was up Friday to meet her music class and has taken more pupils at Sheriff. She is also shipping in some very fine poultry to our natives that are about the best layers that have been in this part since John Lore moved away. John certainly had the best laying chickens that ever happened.
 There were 48 at Sunday school last Sunday showing an increase. We expect a large Sunday school here when the weather gets wrapped up in warmer packages, especially on Sundays.
 Mrs. L. R. Brennan of Minster was a visitor at the E. T. Downey home Sunday.
 E. T. Downey expects to take his daughter, Eloise, out for treatment of throat trouble this week.
 Jerry McDonald had his knee cut with a cross-cut ax last week and will be on the "dry dock" for a couple of weeks on this account, for which we are sorry.
 The S & T. Railway Co. picked up the wrecked cars at Henry's Mill on Sunday, and will not be held for this as it was necessary to do it. It was a case of the "mule" in the pit.

Here's Your Chance.
 The Traymore Tailoring Company of Philadelphia, will have a man at Hopkins' Store on the 8th and 9th of April, with a complete line of samples for Men's Suits, Ladies' Tailored Suits, Coats, Jackets and Skirts. Fit and workmanship guaranteed. You are invited

Kellettville.

Mrs. H. E. Murphy came down from Ridgway Tuesday and spent the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. R.
 Johnson. Harry came down Friday and remained over Sunday.

The National Home Guards and invited guests to the number of about 200 met in Andrews hall Tuesday evening and held a very enjoyable banquet. The hall was decorated with the National colors, the work of Mr. Carlson. The first of the evening was spent in a social way. When all had gathered the assembly to order and announced the program, opened by the singing of America. Mrs. Detar presided at the piano and all joined in the National air, after which J. W. Neilly of Warren gave an interesting address on Lessons in Insurance. This was followed by several choice selections from F. E.
 Harkless' Victrola. Rev. H. I. Stewart, pastor of the first Baptist church of Warren, was introduced and gave a very pleasing address. His theme was "We must put something into this life if we wish to get anything out of it," and very cleverly applied it to the securing of protection by insurance. His talk was very humorous and put the guests in trim for the sumptuous repast which followed. All were seated at tables around three sides of the hall. The committee in charge consisted of Mesdames Geo. Parker, Roland Butler, John Merchant, Asa Barnes and Clyde Welsler, and the Misses Verna Miller, Loretta Dunkle, Edith Gayley, Twila Butler, Laura Kelly, Nell Miller and Ruth Watson acted as waitresses. A three course supper was served to which all did ample justice. Mr. Carlson thanked all who helped in making the evening pleasant and successful and announced his willingness to write up any insurance desired. Gold lodge pins were presented to Mesdames Geo. Parker and Roland Butler for their faithful work in making the supper the successful event at Tylersburg the last of the week.

The high school inspector was in town Thursday and spent the day at the school.
 The W. C. T. U. held their annual du-social at the home of Mrs. Flynn Wednesday. Although the day was stormy a goodly number of the ladies were present and a profitable hour was spent in the discussion of scientific temperance, after which a tempting lunch was served. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs.
 Luella Smallenberger, April 1st.
 Mr. and Mrs. Clemer Wolfe of New Kensington, Pa., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Babcock and other relatives during the week.
 Wm. Detar drove to Tionesta Thursday taking the dentist over to the train. He left for good and our town is again without a dentist.

Mrs. McMichael of Sheffield is visiting her aunt, Mrs. John Sizle and other relatives this week.

The Y. P. B's. met at the home of Ethel Rich Saturday evening.
 Mrs. John Mc Donald and son of Endeavor were callers in town Friday.

Harry Wilson the bustling fireman on No. 3 log train, is the possessor of a full blooded rabbit dog which he received from New York during the week.
 Mrs. B. J. Weljer and son Harold of Starr visited her sister-in-law, Mrs.
 Maude Berlin, over Sunday.
 Ora Kinch has been on the sick list for the past few days.
 Alta Jensen came home from Corry for a few weeks' rest.
 Rev. Hoover of Barnes was here last week and assisted Rev. Bryan with revival meetings at the F. M. church. He was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Peterson while in town.

Willis Dunkle and cousin Harry Smith of Mayburg, left for Pittsburg Saturday for a few days' visit.
 Rev. and Mrs. Bryan are making their headquarters at the home of Mrs. Harrington while in town. That they might not be called upon to face a modern issue of "Old Mother Hubbard," the neighbors were called upon Saturday to help fill up the cupboard and in consequence a good supply of eats were provided.
 Reed Detar left Thursday for Philadelphia where he met his father and returned some with him Saturday. The doctor has completed his course at the University and expressed himself as glad to get back to the woods again.
 Word has come from the hospital at Pittsburg, where Floyd Price is confined on account of an accident, that he is in danger of losing his eyes. His mother was with him during the week.
 Mesdames Geo. Klinefister and R. W.
 Whitehill, and Miss Edith Gayley were Warren visitors Saturday.
 Bertha Spangler was down from Four-Mile camp over Sunday.
 Frank Klinefister and Miss Josephine Porch of Sheffield spent Sunday with the former's sister, Mrs. R. W. Whitehill.
 Engine No. 3, was sent up the creek Sunday to pick up a car wrecked by the freight some time ago. The wreck was in such condition that it was impossible to pick it up while returning other trains.
 Miss Pearl Detar returned to Meadville Monday after a week's visit with her father. She is employed by the Spirella corset works and may be sent to one of their western branches soon.
 Spring had a very chilly reception when she was ushered in Saturday morning with a temperature of 10 below. The snow which followed Monday almost looks as if it was a new winter that was ushered in. There never has been a year but that we have had spring. So here's hoping.

Rev. H. Smallenberger preached a very interesting sermon at the M. E. church Sunday evening on God's words to Abram, "I am the Almighty." Geo. Parker and Chas. Daubenspeck were business visitors in Tionesta Monday.
 James Byler was laid off the first of the week with a severe cold.

Spring Footwear Styles
 In Brief.

Button effects again in Ladies' Boots even for very dressy wear—in low cuts, Colonial with many varieties of ornaments, shiny leathers, dull calf and white. The foot is given slenderness by the recede toe and dainty heel in French Louis, Cuban or Kidney varieties, yet the vogue for lasts with rounded toe is quite alive.
