—Governor Tener on Saturday announced that Fridays, April 17 and 24, would be the Spring arbor days. State Superintendent of Public Instruction Schoeffer will urge that the days be observed in schools.

—Country roads are in about the worst condition just now that can be imagined. But it is always so at this season of the year, and a few days of April wind will tend to dry them up so they will be a trifle rough but passable.
—A baby food for baby chicks. Greatest advance in scientific chick feeding in the past century. Pratts Baby Chick Food saves chicks, money, worry. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded. For sale by first class dealers everywhere.
—We are about to appoint District Agents in this locality. Contracts direct with the Company for Life, Accident and Health Insurance. If you want a good proposition, address, with references, Philadelphia Life Insurance Co., Philadelphia, Pa.
—The flood of Saturday caused a break in the Wiburine oil line near the mouth of Hunter run and the loss of some oil. A repair crew laid a new line from the end of the river bridge around the break and had the line in working order by Monday morning.

—A meeting of the Home Missionary society of the M. E. church will be held in the church this, Wednesday, evening at 7:30 o'clock. As the annual election of officers will be held at this meeting all members are urged to be present. By order of the President.

—The Tionesta Presbyterian Sunday school elected the following officers last Sunday for the ensuing year: Supt., H. T. Klinefelter; assistant, Archie Clark; secretary, Glenn Ledebur; assistant, Robert Sigworth; treasurer, R. J. Hopkins; pianist, Mrs. Alice Swanson; assistants, Misses Hazel Fones and Martha Brown.

—The members of the Senior Class of the Mt. Jewett high school were in town this morning on their way to Washington, D. C., where they will visit the many points of interest. They also intend to make a visit to New York. The class was chaperoned by Prof. D. W. Morrison and was also accompanied by James Whalen, Sr.—Kane Republican, Saturday. A card from Prof. Morrison hints that the members of the party are having the time of their lives. They will visit Philadelphia and New York before returning.

PERSONAL.

—Mrs. W. G. Wyman was down from Erie to spend Sunday with her parents.
—Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Sibble of Oil City spent the first of the week as guests of Tionesta friends.
—Miss Gladys White of Barnes, Pa., was the guest of her brother, Prof. L. P. White, over Sunday.
—Capt. J. J. Haight of Cooper Tract was attending to business matters at the county seat last Wednesday.
—Bruce Hagerly returned to Clarington the first of the week to resume drilling for the Braden company.
—Mr. and Mrs. George Ellis of Oil City, visited the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Ellis, a few days last week.
—J. F. Proper and H. W. Horner, sojourners in the land of the Everglades during the past winter of our discontent, returned home Monday evening.
—William and Albert Lawrence returned the fore part of last week from their Florida trip, having enjoyed a month in touring the Everglade State.
—Jake Siggins, who has been drilling in the Clarington field, is going to Cleveland, O., near which city he will engage with a company that is operating for gas.
—The many friends of Mrs. Charles Hunter will be sorry to learn of her continued serious illness at her home, and will hope for a speedy turn for the better in her condition.
—J. T. Maxwell of Miola, Clarion county, is visiting his brother, Prothonotary Maxwell, while looking after an oil lease in which he is interested out near the White church, Stewart Run.
—Mrs. Mary Giening returned home last Thursday after spending the winter with her sister, Mrs. Cobb, in Clarkburg, W. Va., and is visiting Mrs. Joseph Green, in West Hickory, this week.
—DeFrance, the 13-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Canfield of West Hickory, is being treated at a Youngsville sanatorium for diabetes, and friends are very much concerned about the seriousness of her condition.
—Friends in this community of Mr. and Mrs. Ness Korb, of Pleasantville, will be interested to learn that a pretty little daughter was born to them March 21st, and that mother and daughter are doing nicely, and the happy dad is stepping high, wide and handsome over the advent.
—H. M. Robertson, a student of the University of Pittsburgh, visited friends in town the past week, returning to his place Sunday, to resume his studies at the spring term. Mr. Robertson was the engineer in charge of the erection of the Coleman bridge at the mouth of Johns run last fall.
—Harry V. Mathews, for a number of years a prominent citizen of Mayburg, this county, is moving to near Dayton, Armstrong county, where the family will reside indefinitely. Theirs has been one of the popular families of the busy town of Mayburg and will be much missed by the good people of that place.
—We find the following item, of special interest to the bride's many friends in this community, in the Warren Times of Monday: Ernest H. Harvey, of Brookton, Pa., and Miss Blanche M. Wiles of Tionesta, Pa., were married at five o'clock Saturday afternoon by Justice of the Peace J. E. Wheeler, the ceremony being performed at his office, Penna. Ave., Warren.
—Friends of A. J. Handy of Stewart Run will be sorry to learn that he is still in a critical state of health at his home and unable to leave his bed. A month or six weeks ago Mr. Handy sustained a partial stroke of paralysis from which his progress toward recovery is very slow. His youngest son, Reuben, has also been severely afflicted for some time, and has lately been removed to the home of his brother E. A. Handy, on Hunter run. He seems to be gaining slowly.
—Mr. C. A. Bryan and family were guests of the people of West Hickory at the Methodist Episcopal parsonage at that place last Tuesday evening. The Bryan family are leaving this week for their new home in Oil City. They have been honored citizens of West Hickory more than 25 years, have been faithful members of the church and will be greatly missed by the congregation. Mr. Bryan is at present a member of the board of education in the public schools of his township.
—Alex Neely of Harmony township was one of our pleasant callers Saturday, and informed us of his intention to remove soon to Buffalo, where he will be employed in the Pullman car shops, his two sons being already located in that city. Sorry to lose so good a citizen as friend Neely, but wish him all sorts of good luck in his new home. In a notice published in this issue it will be seen Mr. Neely offers a list of articles useful to farmers at private sale at his premises. If in need call on him. He will not dispose of his farm.

Capt. Peter Grace Passes Away.

Captain Peter Grace, well and most favorably known throughout oildom, and especially well remembered by many people in this community, died at his home in Robinson Illinois, Friday, Mar. 27, 1914, after a brief illness of pneumonia.

Capt. Judson's History of the Eighty-Third Reg't., Pa. Vol., contains the following brief reference to Capt. Grace's splendid war record:
Captain Peter Grace, Sergeant, enlisted at Tionesta, Pa., Aug. 19, 1861. Wounded and taken prisoner at Gaines' Mill; wounded at Fredericksburg. Re-enlisted Dec. 26, 1863. Promoted to 2d Lieut. Co. E. in the new organization, Nov. 1, and to 1st Lieut. Dec. 28, 1864. Taken prisoner at Laurel Hill and re-captured by Sheridan's cavalry. Promoted to Captain, Feb. 17, 1865.

A pioneer of the oil regions of Pennsylvania, one of the first to answer the call of his country for the preservation of the Union, a veteran who stayed in the field to see the end of the war, then returned to again take up the work of developing the vast resources of a great oil field, a splendid specimen of manhood has passed to his long home. Captain Grace entered the oil business a brief period following the Col. Drake's discovery, his first activity being as a driller near Lineville, Clarion county, where he first heard the call to arms, when a hack passed the oil rig, in which were a life and drum and the following persons now all passed to their reward: Capt. D. S. Knox, Samuel H. Haslet, Hamilton Stow and one other whose name we do not recall, who were recruiting a company of soldiers for the war. Peter Grace and his companion, Moses Corey, hailed the recruiting party and asked to be enrolled. They could not leave their work immediately but said they would come later, and they did, joining the company at Erie. Both were promoted to the captaincy of their company, Capt. Corey remaining to the end of his three years' enlistment, and Capt. Grace staying to see the end of hostilities, and was mustered out with his command June 28, 1865.

At the close of the war he returned to Forest county, again engaging in the oil business, following it with varying success in the various local developments until the early part of 1882 when, in company with Geo. Dimmick, he drilled in one of the historic wells of the oil country, designated as "646," located in Cherry Grove township, Warren county. It had an initial production of 2,500 barrels a day. Other large wells were brought in in the same district, the production of the pool attaining enormous proportions, with a resultant decline in the speculative prices paid for crude oil to 55 cents a barrel.

Captain Grace followed the trend of developments into the different fields, including Bradford, West Virginia and Southeastern Ohio, and at the time of his death was operating in the Illinois field, making his home at Robinson. Possibly no man had so wide an acquaintance or so many friends among the oil fraternity as one stood higher for integrity or character.
During his activities in the Forest county field he was married to Miss Anna Siggins, daughter of Nathaniel Siggins, of Stewart Run, Forest county. She survives him, with two children, Mrs. Richard Wright, of New York city, and Chas. N. Grace, of Robinson. For many years the home of the family was in Jamestown N. Y., where they have a wide circle of friends.
Captain Grace was one of the most prominent members of the Legion of Honor. The body will be taken to Washington, D. C., where the interment will be made in the Arlington cemetery.

Kellettville.

Mrs. Wm. Watson was a business visitor in Sheffield, Wednesday, going over to have some dental work done.
Fred McNaughton was up from Nebraska Monday and took dinner with Dr. and Mrs. C. Y. Datar.
Already some of our people are at house cleaning. Mrs. Lyle has most completely her spring cleaning. The paper hangers were down from Sheffield and put up four or five ceilings for Mrs. W. L. Watson. They also did some work for Mrs. George Klinefelter.
Olive Wolfe has announced her Easter opening of spring millinery for April 2, 3 and 4.
Kribbs & Ray delivered a car load of coal to the school during the week.
Two new cars have been ordered in town. F. J. Henderson gets a five passenger Overland and Dr. W. W. Serrill has ordered a Buick Roadster.
Lee Atkins has been confined to his home for the past week with tonsillitis.
Glenn Barnes is suffering with pneumonia but is improving.
The ice went out Thursday morning without any discomfort to any one, but the rain and melting snows caused such high water that cellars were flooded. It also caused delay in the railroad service. The S. & T. passenger train was unable to get through to Sheffield Saturday but the mail was taken overland and returned about ten o'clock in the evening with a full day's supply.
The Willing Workers Sunday school class of the M. E. church met with James Flynn, Friday evening, and spent a very pleasant social hour, a dainty lunch being one of the pleasures of the evening. Read Datar and Roland Carbaugh are said to have furnished one of the attractive features of the entertainment but as they have not yet secured the patent and their fear others will copy, we will not mention the stunt. The teacher, Mrs. E. E. Carbaugh, not being present, the business session was postponed until Tuesday night.
Rev. Wm. Brynston, District Elder of the F. M. church, was in town during the week assisting with the meetings which closed with quarterly meeting services Sunday. He was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Barrett while in town.
Emmett Grubbs and daughter of East Hickory were guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Blum, Sunday.
Rachel Hunter, who is employed as a trimmer at the millinery store, spent Sunday with her parents at Nebraska.
Mrs. C. Y. Datar entertained the Gleasons Friday evening.
Mrs. Maude Berlin entertained the Silent Six at a chicken supper Saturday evening.
E. E. Daubenspeck is at Tylersburg this week looking after some work on the farm.
Ivan Carbaugh was up from Oil City and visited his parents during the week.
Roland Harmon has purchased a valuable hunting dog.
James Blyler is again confined to the house with a severe cold.
Harry Wilson's baby is suffering with bowel trouble caused by cold.
Olive Wolfe was a business visitor in Warren Monday.
Mrs. Lorom went to Warren Monday to meet her husband, who is coming home from Pittsburgh, where he has been in a hospital for treatment. We are sorry to note that he did not receive much benefit from his stay in Pittsburgh. He expects to remain in the hospital at Warren for a short time before returning home.
Rev. A. H. Wiershinski was in town Sunday and conducted services at the Catholic church morning and evening.
Mrs. Robert Watson is visiting friends in Erie this week.
A number of people from Mayburg and Beaver Valley attended services at the F. M. church Sunday.
Mrs. W. L. Watson's class met at the church Tuesday evening and organized with twenty-five charter members. The following officers were elected: President, Frank Watson; vice president, Leon Siggins; secretary, Esther Smullenberger; treasurer, Floyd Watson. They have planned for a social evening in the near future.
The Helping Hand class will entertain the Men's Adult class at the hall, Friday evening.
It is time to clean up your back yard and plant your sweet peas. Get busy.

A Correction.

Kellettville, Pa., March 27, '14

ED. REPUBLICAN: You will notice in the FOREST REPUBLICAN, Wednesday, 25, 1914, Kellettville items, these words: "Rev. and Mrs. Bryan are making their headquarters at the home of Mrs. Harrington while in town. That they might not be called upon to face a modern issue of 'Old Mother Hubbard,' the neighbors were called upon Saturday to help fill up the cupboard, and in consequence a good supply of oats were provided." It is my desire to inform the readers of the REPUBLICAN that the conditions implied in this item are false. The Rev. and Mrs. Bryan have provided for themselves and have been no expense to Mrs. Harrington nor the community. The donations referred to was a complete surprise to Mrs. Harrington and in no way was it a necessity.

Will you please rectify the item referred to, I am, Yours for fair play, REV. G. S. BRYAN.

[We are positive that our correspondent whom we know to be exceptionally careful in reporting the news from Kellettville, intended not the least reflection in the item referred to, and we are sorry that Rev. Mr. Bryan so construed it. We stand corrected and gladly make the amende honorable.—Ed.]
