—Mrs. James Clark, aunt to James R.,

Charles and Joseph Clark of Tionesta, and who has visited them here, died at her home in Philadelphia, Monday. She was aged about eighty years. Her funeral will be held tomorrow.

—It has been decided to hold the Farmers' Institutes in Tionesta and East Hickory during the coming winter. A two-day session will be held in each place some time after the first of the new year, the dates of which will be announced later.

—The copious showers of rain with which this section of country has been treated in the past few days will do a world of good to crops and vegetation of all kinds. The rains came quietly and were taken up by the parched earth with avidity.

—The Presbyterian Sunday school is preparing a fine program for the Children's Day exercises to be given next Sunday morning. All are cordially invited to come. A special collection will be taken for Sunday school work in the United States.

—Dr. Chapin, at one time located at Sheffield Junction and Byrontown for the practice of medicine, was in town Tuesday and Wednesday. He stated that he was looking for a desirable location in which to again hang out his shingle.—

Sheffield Observer.

—The Hotel Findmore, near Titusville, and 160 acres adjoining have been sold by Dr. S. N. Burchfield to Dr. B. O. Lundgren, of Titusville, who will convert it into a sanitarium. The building, which is a four-story brick, will be completely overhauled and will probably be ready for occupancy July 1st.

—The committee or trustees in charge of the building of the new Mt. Zion Evangelical church in Tionesta township desire to sell the old church building, as well as some new lumber, windows, doors, etc. Anyone wanting some good pine lumber will find this a bargain.

Inquire of Adam Mealy.

—Without doubt the handsomest and most elaborate catalogue ever issued by any institution of the kind is the one just completed by the State Normal school of Indiana, Pa. As a work of the photographer's or the printer's art it equal has not been seen in this section, and it is said of the school itself that it is equally as fine.

—And now the days are growing shorter, and to say. Not perceptibly as yet, but still 'tis a fact that Old Sol has crossed the line again and in a month from now the difference in daylight will be quite noticeable. Sunday, the 21st, the sun was longer on the job than it has been since a year ago, having risen earlier and set later than on any other of the 365 days.

—Last Saturday night a week, while driving down the Smokey hill road with one of Livyman Hepler's rigs, Fred Lindell was thrown out of the buggy when the horse frightened and ran away.

In his fall Lindell's forehead struck some object at the side of the road and he was rendered unconscious for the moment.

After being revived he was taken to his home on Hunter run, and, aside from considerable soreness, was found not to be seriously hurt. The horse was found further down the hill tangled in the barness and unable to get up, but was not severely hurt. The buggy, a bran new rubber tired vehicle, was almost a total wreck.

—The Sheffield and Tionesta freight engine, No. 9, has been overhauled and put in first class condition. The engine looks spick and span in its new coat of paint and lettering. Engineer Weaver had charge of the repair work.—Sheffield correspondent. All the passenger coaches are also being painted and repaired.

James J. Landers being the artist.

—Dallas Reek went to Cleveland a few days ago and drove home a handsome seven-passenger Studebaker six-cylinder touring car which his father bought recently. It has all the electric appliances that go with the latest designed cars.

Merchant Sigworth is also the possessor of a new five-passenger Ford, supplied by the Mensch agency at Mariouville.

—A frost of considerable magnitude fell last Friday night, and on Saturday morning in many places throughout this section the ground was white, but the river and creek valleys were saved by heavy fog. Considerable damage is reported to corn, potatoes and garden truck, much of which is being replanted. A frost last Wednesday morning also did a lot of damage on the hills.

—M. E. Ewing, a lad of 14 years, living at Cooper Tract, was severely burned about the hands and face Wednesday.

The boy works for Capt. J. J. Haight, and secured a can of powder while doing his daily work about Mr. Haight's home.

Unluckily for him, he threw the can of powder into the fire. He suffered great pain before Dr. Mervine reached there, and was able to attend to his burns.— week at that institution.

—Prof. F. W. Gill of Tidout, who is spending much of his vacation at his Little Hickory cottage and upon which he is making a number of improvements,

Joseph Schmaeder Found Dead In Bed.

Joseph Schmaeder, one of Clarion county's most prominent and prosperous farmers, was found dead in bed at his farm near Crown, Saturday morning last.

His home was three miles south of Leeper, and he was the owner of two farmers, one of which is near Crown, to which latter he and two of his sons had gone a short time previous to do some work. Heart failure is assigned as the cause of his sudden death. Mr. Schmaeder was a strong, robust man, aged about sixty years, and had always enjoyed the best of health, and when he retired Friday evening he was feeling as well as usual, and his death was a great shock to his wife and family. The deceased was one of the best known and most prosperous farmers in the community in which he had spent the greater portion of his life, and he had a host of friends both at his home and in this county. He leaves to mourn their loss a wife and eleven
