

South Carolina Legislature.

IN SENATE, Dec. 2, 1844.

Resolutions in reference to a Special Agency sent from the State of Massachusetts, submitted by Mr. DE TREVILLE.

Whereas, information has been received, that the State of Massachusetts, has recently appointed and sent to the city of Charleston a Special Agent, with instructions and authority to institute proceedings at her expense in the Courts of the United States, for the purpose of testing the constitutionality of a certain Act of this State, passed on the 19th day of December, Anno Domini 1835, entitled "An Act more effectually to prevent Free Negroes and other persons of color from entering into this State, and for other purposes."

And, whereas, we have always regarded the aforesaid law as a necessary measure for the security of our property, and the peace and good order of society; and recent indications have not only proved that we were not mistaken, but that nothing short of the most rigid enforcement of the said law to its very letter, can save us from the insidious policy and practice of the abolitionists:

Resolved, That while we admit the right of the State of Massachusetts to elect to the rank and status of free white persons, and to confer on them all the rights and immunities which the most favored of her citizens enjoy within her own limits, we deny that she has any right to require us to extend to such persons as may enter our limits, the immunities and privileges which are secured by the Constitution of the United States, to her free white citizens alone.

Resolved, That the State of South Carolina ought not to submit to any dictation, either from a sister State or from the Supreme Court of the United States, on a subject of such vital importance to herself as the government of her colored population; and should the aforesaid Act be declared unconstitutional and invalid by the Federal Courts, the principle of self-preservation will nevertheless compel her citizens, at every expense of life and property, to uphold and maintain the due and rigid enforcement of the said law, according to its very letter and spirit.

Resolved, That the conduct of the State of Massachusetts, in attempting to procure by Federal Judicial Legislation, the repeal of a law, which was intended to be and is a barrier between the slave and the emissaries of the Abolitionists, is an unwarrantable and gross insult to the people of this State.

The Massachusetts Special Mission.

We published yesterday a preamble and resolutions introduced by Mr. DE TREVILLE into the Senate touching this matter. The first resolution together with the Governor's Message on the same matter, was on Tuesday referred to the Judiciary Committee; the rest to the Committee on Federal Relations. The following are the documents:

GOVERNOR'S MESSAGE, NO. III.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, } Columbia, 30th Nov., 1844. }
Gentlemen of the Senate,

And House of Representatives: The accompanying communication was received by the last mail, and I deem it proper that it should be laid before you for your information. It will be seen that the State of Massachusetts has appointed a Special Agent to reside in this State, for the purpose of contesting, by a series of law suits, a long standing law of a peculiar character, which is deemed of vital importance to the security of our property, and the peace of our citizens.

She has also appropriated a fund for the purpose of defraying the expenses of the litigation. These facts I gather only from the communication of her Agent, which is transmitted to you. I have received no notification from the Authorities of the State. It is for you to determine, whether any, and what measures should be taken to maintain the police regulations of this State within her limits.

J. H. HAMMOND.

CHARLESTON, Nov. 28, 1844.

Sir:—Your Excellency is already informed of some measures made by the Commonwealth of Massachusetts against the arrest and imprisonment of her citizens in South Carolina, against whom the commission of no crime is alleged. The Legislature of Massachusetts has recently passed a resolve, authorizing the Governor of that State to appoint an Agent for the purpose of collecting and transmitting accurate information respecting the number and the names of citizens of Massachusetts who have heretofore been, or may be, during the period of the engagement of the Agent, imprisoned without the allegation of any crime. The Agent is also authorized to bring and prosecute one or more suits in behalf of any citizen that may be so imprisoned, at the expense of Massachusetts, for the purpose of having the legality of such imprisonment tried and determined in the Supreme Court of the United States.

The Governor of Massachusetts has appointed me Agent of that State, to execute the purposes above mentioned; and I arrived in this city this morning, for that purpose. I do not know that your Excellency will consider it proper in any way to notice this subject, yet properly seemed to require this communication.

With great respect,
Your Excellency's ob. servt.,
SAMUEL HOAR.

To His Excellency, J. H. HAMMOND,
Governor of South Carolina.

Report of the Committee on Federal Relations upon the communication of the Governor transmitting a letter from Samuel Hoar, an agent from the State of Massachusetts.

The Committee on Federal Relations to whom was referred the communication of his Excellency, the Governor, transmitting a letter addressed to him by Samuel Hoar, an Agent of the State of Massachusetts, for certain purposes, submitted the following report:

By an Act passed on the 19th day of December, 1835, the General Assembly endeavored to guard against the introduction of free negroes and persons of color into this State upon principles of public policy affecting her safety and her moral interests. The right of excluding from her Territories, conspirators against the public peace, and disaffected persons whose presence may be dangerous to her safety is essential to every government. It is every where exercised by independent States, and there is nothing in the Constitution of the United States which forbids to South Carolina the right, or relieves this Legislature of the duty of providing for the public safety.

Massachusetts has seen fit to contest this right, and has sent an agent to reside in the midst of us, whose avowed object is to defeat a police regulation essential to our peace. This agent comes here, not as a citizen of the United States, but as the emissary of a foreign government, hostile to our domestic institutions, and with the sole purpose of subverting our internal police. We should be insensible to every dictate of prudence, if we consented to the residence of such a missionary, or shut our eyes to the consequences of this interference with our domestic concerns. The union of these States was formed for the purpose, among other things, of ensuring domestic tranquility, and providing for the common defence, and in consideration thereof, this State yielded the right to keep troops or ships of war in time of peace, without the consent of Congress, but while thus consenting to be disarmed, she has in no part of the constitutional compact surrendered her right of internal government and police, and on the contrary thereof, has expressly reserved all powers not delegated to the United States, nor prohibited by it to the States.

The State of Massachusetts denominates as citizens those persons for whose protection her tender solicitude has devised this extraordinary mission. Yet if it were admitted that they are citizens of that State, your Committee cannot suppose that she will challenge for their greater rights, immunities and privileges within our territories than are enjoyed by persons of the same class in South Carolina.

But your Committee deny that they are citizens within the meaning of the Constitution, nor did Massachusetts herself treat as citizens persons of this class residing within her limits, either at the adoption of the Constitution or since; but on the contrary, they were subjected to various disabilities from which her other inhabitants were exempt.

Your Committee cannot but regard this extraordinary movement as part of a deliberate and concerted scheme to subvert the domestic institutions of the Southern States, in plain violation of the terms of the national compact, and of the good faith which ought to subsist between the parties thereto, and to which they stand solemnly pledged.

Your Committee recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, That the right to exclude from their territories seditious persons or others, whose presence may be dangerous to their peace, is essential to every independent State.

Resolved, That free Negroes and persons of color are not citizens of the United States within the meaning of the Constitution which confers upon the citizens of one State the privileges and immunities of citizens in the several States.

Resolved, That the emissary sent by the State of Massachusetts to the State of South Carolina, with the avowed purpose of interfering with her institutions and disturbing her peace, is to be regarded in the character he has assumed and to be treated accordingly.

Resolved, That his Excellency the Governor, be requested to expel from our Territory the said Agent after due notice to depart, and that the Legislature will sustain the Executive Authority in any measures it may adopt for the purpose aforesaid.

WM. F. DE SAUSSURE,
Dec. 4th, 1844. Chairman.

The foregoing report and resolutions were this day agreed to by the House of Representatives and were concurred in by the Senate.

WM. E. MARTIN,
Dec. 5th, 1844. Clerk of the Senate.

CHARLESTON MARKET, Nov. 7.

Cotton.—The receipts of the week are 13,152 bales, and the aggregate sales in the same time reach 7,900 bales, at 4 a 6 cents.

Rice.—There has been a good demand during the week just closed for such qualities of this article as would suit for coastwise shipment and the West India market, which have commanded very full prices, while the better qualities have been neglected, and the partial decline noticed in them the previous week has been fully established, viz: 1/4 of a dollar per hundred. The operations of the week foot up 2,900 tierces, and the receipts in the same time are 3096 tierces. The transactions comprise 53 tierces at 2 1/2; 100 at 2 9-16; 614 at 2 1/2; 514 at 2 11-16; 731 at 2 1/2; 85 at 2 13-16; 700 at 2 1/2 per hundred; and 53 tierces at prices not made public.

Rough Rice.—The receipts of the week are 51,500 bushels, and the transaction in the same time 38,600 bushels, at 69 a 77 cents per bushel.

Grain.—The corn market has been freely supplied during the week, the receipts of N. Carolina having reached fully 18,000 bushels; and of Maryland 6,600 bushels. The former has been taken by dealers at prices ranging from 55 to 61 cents, and the latter at 51 and 56 cents per bushel, according to quality.

Sugars.—There has been but a limited demand for Sugar this week; as the operations have been confined to the retail trade, and the filling of small orders for the country. The inquiry has been confined almost exclusively to Louisiana. A lot of 20 hhds. of the new crop, inferior, sold yesterday at auction, at 5 and 5 1/2.

Molasses.—There seems to be no disposition at present to operate to any extent in any description of this article. There is very little Moscovado in the market. Common Cuba is selling from store at prices ranging from 23 to 24 cents.

Flour.—There is very little animation in the Flour market, and as there is no demand for any description of the article, to force sales, low prices must be submitted. Several small lots Baltimore, have changed hands at 4 1/2 per barrel.

Bacon.—A fair article is readily taken. A lot of 25 tes. new Baltimore Hams sold at 9 and 9 1/2 cents per lb.

Lard.—Nothing has been done in the article this week.

Salt.—Upwards of 2600 sacks Liverpool, the balance of the 3500 sacks, the receipts of the previous week, has changed hands within the range of our quotations, viz: $1 20 a $1 25, and a portion of 2800 sacks received this week, have been taken within the same range.

FAYETTEVILLE MARKET.—Dec. 7

Trade has continued active. Cotton has been firm during the week, and sales somewhat better, 4 1/2 and 5 has been generally paid. The quotations for flour remain unchanged; $3 75 to $4 25 for cross, fine and superior. A few hhds. of Tobacco has been offered and brought from 2 1/2 to 3. But little Domestic Liquors coming in, and very steady at quotations.

Merchants have large supplies and are anxious to buy produce. River in good boating order.

Carolinian.

Texas.—The Governor of Missouri recommends the Legislature of that State to memorialize Congress on the annexation of Texas.

The Wreck of the Missouri.—Capt. Townsend, of the ship Douglass, at New York, states that preparation for raising the Missouri had been completed when a gale came on, driving an English brig against the apparatus, totally destroying it. In consequence of this disaster, the contractors for raising the steamer have now wholly abandoned the job, sacrificing all they have spent in their efforts.

FROM AFRICA.—The Pennsylvania Enquirer has received a file of the Monrovia Luminary to September 5th. The affairs of the Colony were in a prosperous condition. A four day's religious meeting had been held, and with the best results. The ship Virginia had arrived from Norfolk, with 58 emigrants, all in good health.

At a meeting of many citizens of Wilmington in the Presbyterian Church on last Friday evening, a "Seaman's Friend Society" was organized, a Constitution adopted, and officers for the Society chosen. The officers consist of Gilbert Potter President; L. H. Marsteller, 1st. James Owen, 2d. Owen Fennell, 3d. Jas. T. Miller, 4th Vice President; G. R. French, Treasurer; Henry Nutt, Corresponding, and Wm. Shaw, Recording Secretary. Managers, P. K. Dickinson, E. P. Hall, R. W. Brown, C. D. Ellis, John McRae, H. R. Savage, Alfred Bryant, John Griffith, C. B. Miller, O. G. Parsley, M. V. Jones, James Cassidy, George W. Davis, John A. Taylor, Isaac Northrop.

We will publish the proceedings of the meeting in full, together with the Constitution of the Society, in our next paper.—Chron.

THE LATE THOMAS CAMPBELL.

It is well known that Campbell's own favorite poem, of all his compositions, was his "Gertrude." I once heard him say, "I never like to see my name before the 'Pleasures of Hope'; why, I cannot tell you, unless it was that, when young, I was always greeted among my friends as Mr. Campbell, author of the 'Pleasures of Hope.' "Good morning to you, Mr. Campbell, author of the 'Pleasures of Hope.'—When I got married I was married as the author of the 'Pleasures of Hope,' and when I became a father my son was the son of the author of the 'Pleasures of Hope.'"

A kind of grim smile, ill subdued, we are afraid, stole over our features, when, standing by the poet's grave, we read the inscription: "Thomas Campbell, L. L. D., Author of 'The Pleasures of Hope.'—Died June 15, 1844. Aged 67."

Saturday Courier.

A black fellow, who was disposed to walk uprightly, took his child to be christened, and when the minister asked him what name should be given to it, he seriously said, a "Scripture name by all means—call my son Belzebub."

"I am a broken man," said a poet, one day. "So I should think," was the answer, "for I have seen your pieces."

Opening a Store.—A fellow taken up as a vagrant, declared that he was not "a man without any visible means of subsistence," he had just opened a store. It was found, on inquiry that he had opened it with a crow-bar in the night, and unfortunately the store belonged to another man.

On the 30th of Nov., at his residence in this county, after a long and painful illness, Mr. John R. Moore.

Few men have ever passed away from among the living more generally esteemed, strictly honest in all his dealing, and punctual in his engagements; he united a benevolent and charitable disposition by which he was enabled to practice a commendable course of conduct with all those who came within his sphere of intercourse. No man was better beloved in his neighborhood; for he practised virtue, benevolence, hospitality and charity. He was a consistent member of the Baptist Church, and died exulting in the triumphs of the faith of Christ: "Whom to know aright is life everlasting." He has left a widow and five children to mourn his loss; but his loss is felt by his neighbors, friends and acquaintances, with a poignancy that cannot be described. When we record the death of such men, it is pleasing to have our hearts revived by this cheering scriptural promise, that all the faithful abide with our Heavenly Parent, at whose right hand there are pleasures forever more.
