Plantation for Sale.
IN BRUNSWICK COUNTY, 12 miles from Wilmington, immediately on the Northwest River, the well known place CLARKMOUNT, is offered for sale. It contains about 300 acres of Upland, and 300 or 400 acres of Swamp Lands adjoining; 70 or 80 acres is under cultivation and well adapted to raising Corn, Ground Peas, &c. The place has a commodious dwelling with two brick chimneys, erected last year, with out-houses, &c. The Upland, not cleared, is well timbered with Pine and Hoopoles, and has 10,000 Turpentine boxes, cut and the present season. It is a very eligible site for Manufacturing, being immediately on the river, between this and Fayetteville a factory would have the advantage of both markets, and be sufficiently removed from intemperance as to insure health to the operatives.—The water power is ample, a bold stream passes through the place to the river, with a handsome bluff half a mile in length, just the height for a wharf.

The swamp lands afford good winter pasturage for stock, and an abundance of Ashe and Oak wood, very handy to the water. Seven or eight Negroes with stock of Cattle and Hogs, &c., will be sold with the place, if desirable. Apply on the premises to H. J. WILLIAMS, or J. I. BRYAN, April 10, 1846. [30-4f] Wilmington.

INTERESTING DEBATE.
SCENE—Small room lighted by three penny candles, with four and twenty young men sitting round a table.—President raps his hammer on the table and speaks.

Gentlemen of the Universal Eagle-winged Debatin' Society the President begs leave to renounce himself in the cheer.—The question for debate are:—Which are the most nourishin' to the human race—greens or taters?

Mr. Brown has the floor.
Mr. Brown—Mr. President. I argues taters! decidedly taters! Dout you know that Alexander the Great fit his most serumpitious battles arter eatin' a peck of taters? Didnt Napoleon Bony party eat a bushel of taters afore he fit his last battle with St Helena on the prarie, west of the Allegeny mountains? Therefore, I induce the fact that taters is the most nourishin'. Let Mr. Smith stiflecate that if he can! [Sits down in a heat.]

Mr. Smith—Mr. President, the gentlemen says taters—I say greens.—What was it that gave such delightful moments of rural ease to Mary Queen of Scots, when she was put in prison by George the II. for not reading the Bible? History answers—greens? Where would General Washington have been afore the battle of Waterloo, without a pot of boiled greens? Ask history? What is it makes Bob Tyler sich a great poet? Ask his father and his father will answer—greens! Mr. President, I have done.

President—Gentlemen of the Universal Eagle-winged Intellectual Debatin' Society, I puts the question to vote—which is the most nourishin' to the human race, taters or greens!

(15 voices)—Greens!
(8 voices)—Taters!
(1 voice)—Both!

President—Here's a division, I have the casting vote. I say that greens and taters is the most nourishin' to the human race? Gentlemen the next question for the next Monday evening is—What becomes of a tadpole's tale when he turns to a frog?

The meeting is adjourned.

Reproof.—Reprove mildly and sweetly, in the calmest manner, in the gentlest terms, not in a haughty or imperious way, not hastily or fiercely, not with sour looks or bitter language, for these ways do beget all the evils, and hinder the best effects of reproof; they do certainly inflame and disturb the person reprov'd; they breed wrath, disdain and hatred against the re-prover, but do not so well enlighten the man to see his error, or affect him with a kindly sense of miscarriage, or dispose him to correct his fault. Such reproofs look rather like the wounds and persecutions of enmity, than remedies by a friendly hand; they harden men with rage, and scorn to mend on such an occasion. If reproof doth not savor of humanity, it signifieth nothing; it must be like a bitter pill wrapped in gold, and tempered with sugar; otherwise it will not go down, or act effectually.—Barrow.

Honor thy Father and Mother.—None love you so well as they; none are so much interested in fitting you to act well your part, and none so anxious that you should be kept from the evil of the world in which you are and in which you are to live. If you leave their roof and go out from their counsels and advice, who will you find to fill their places? Who will love you with a purer or more tender affection? Who will nurse you more gently, or watch over you more constantly when you are sick? You may hear honied words and fair speeches as you pass along in the sunshine and by pleasant places, but who among all the herd will pity, and befriend, and comfort, and sympathize with you when the sun has withdrawn his shining, and the days of darkness have come, as an affectionate mother or a kind father? Let no distance hinder you from giving them a permanent and large place in your affections. No mighty continents, though they lie between you, should hide from the mind's eye their forms and their familiar countenances. No rolling oceans should blot out the memory of their worth, or the remembrance of their kindness.

N. O. Protestant.
Be of good cheer when your enemies are divided among themselves; but fear when they are united and of one mind.

Great Emigration to Europe.—A correspondent of the New York Gazette and Times, after stating that the emigration to this country from Europe, this year, will probably exceed 250,000 souls, adds:—

All Ireland is in commotion. The distress in that country is not to be discredited; a correspondent writes, 'Every man who can leave it will do so. At Cork, Limerick, Kilarnes, and all along the banks of the Shannon, the people are moving to the ports to embark. The harbors are crowded with emigrants. From the north of Ireland thousands are about leaving for America. Twenty-eight vessels, which lately arrived in Ireland with bread stuffs, are preparing to take in passengers. All the packet ships from Liverpool are filling up; and every ship that leaves that port, from now to the first of August, will go out crowded.'
