

SENATORIAL CANDIDATE.

Mr. Editor: Dear Sir—I have the pleasure to inform you that the Democratic party have at length obtained the consent of Mr. Richard Wooten, of Columbus County, to run as a candidate for a seat in our next Legislature, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Mr. Melvin, Esq.

Mr. W. is a man of unblemished character, eminent for the virtues of private life, well qualified to fill the important post, and will surely receive a large majority at the approaching election.

Yours, very respectfully, B.

October 15th, 1846.

THE SOUTH IN DANGER.

Foiled a the attempt to execute a general panic in consequence of the passage of the Revenue Tariff, the Whigs are now uniting with the Abolitionists of the North. At a recent convention of the Whig party, held in the town of Liberty, at Boston, for the purpose of nominating candidates for Governor and Lieutenant Governor, we find them resolving to oppose the whole institution of slavery, to promote all constitutional measures for its overthrow, and inviting the Abolitionist faction to remain united with the Whig party, assuring them that they hold opinions altogether in common, particularly on all questions touching human freedom!

The aristocratic party in Federal Massachusetts, must indeed be in danger, when, to strengthen their ranks, they feel compelled, thus openly and boldly, to proclaim opinions, so utterly subversive of our constitutional rights, and fraught with so much danger to the public peace of the South. But though, this is the first occasion upon which they have publicly avowed their active sympathies with these miserable fanatics, the whig party of Massachusetts have long exhibited in all their public acts, their entire concurrence in the efforts that are constantly made to excite among us, civil discord, attended by all the horrors of servile insurrection. The daring attempt to introduce into the heart of the slave population of some of our Southern cities, resident agents for the purpose of embarrassing our legislation and destroying our domestic security, will be long and fatally remembered; nor shall we soon forget the violent remarks made use of on that occasion, in the Legislature of Massachusetts, by prominent members of the Whig party. We repose no confidence in the integrity of their constitutional scruples. We believe the whole population of Massachusetts tainted with the leaven of Abolitionism, and were it not for the presence of the powerful opposition of the Democratic party in that State, we hesitate not to say, that they would readily join too, in the efforts now made, for the dissolution of the Federal Union.

There was a time within the memory of the youngest, when the fathers of the Republic, acting upon the solemn injunction of Washington, taught their children to view with detestation, any and every attempt to dissolve the Union of these States. How struck with horror would they be, if now rising from their graves, they should witness the coalition of respectable citizens of America, and misguided fanatics in England, for the purpose of invading rights guarded and protected by the provisions of the Constitution. They would scarcely believe that associations have actually been organized in England by American citizens, for the purpose of dissolving that Union which they fancied their patriotic labors had made eternal. And when the whole nation should rise as one man, and proclaim their indignation at a compact so unnatural and treasonable, Whigs of Massachusetts are found openly concurring in the movement, and assuring its leaders that they sympathize in their efforts, and will aid in its consummation!

The Whigs of North Carolina cannot be prepared to lend their countenance and support to measures so dangerous and unwholesome. On the question of slavery, we should be as one man. Its agitation strikes a chord which vibrates in every heart, and awakens a community of danger in which mere party distinctions are forgotten. Looking at the conduct of both, we confidently put the question, to which party, in the present emergency, can the South look best for protection?

THE PRECISE VOTE.

Official returns have, at length, been received from all the Counties of the State, of the late election for Governor. The following is the result: For Graham, (Federalist,) 43,486 For Shepard, (Democrat,) 35,627 Federal majority, 7,859

MARYLAND.—The Federal organs are boasting over the late election in this State, because they (the Feds,) have carried the Legislature by about the same majority they did at the previous State election.

N. A. L. D.—The title conferred by Yale on Professor Morse, with these initials, is said by a Memphis paper to mean North American Lightning Director.

THE DESTINY OF CANADA.—The Courier des Etats Unis has been involved in a discussion of Canadian affairs, in which he has had occasion to defend himself from the charge of counselling the Canadians to revolt. The Courier repels this with some spirit, but avows in the following terms its opinions of the destiny of Canada: "The separation of Canada from England and its incorporation with the United States are, we solemnly believe, inevitable; they tend themselves by availing this conviction and pointing out the advantages which, in our opinion, will accrue therefrom to the French Canadians. But the more convinced we are that this great act of emancipation is written in the book of fate, the more imprudent would it seem to us for the French Canadians to attempt to obtain by revolt or purchase with their blood that which the inevitable course of human events will one day give them with little or no cost. The Canadians will never be sufficiently powerful to throw off the yoke of England; that yoke will fall of itself, or the Americans will break it for them. Let them wait then with resignation, and allow the justice of God to take its course; such has ever been our advice to them, and such we give them still."

GENERAL KEARNEY'S PROCLAMATION.—We find in the LEXINGTON (Mo.) Express, the following proclamation:

PROCLAMATION

To the inhabitants of New Mexico, by Brigadier General S. W. Kearney, commanding the troops of the United States in the same. As by treaty of the Republic of Mexico, a State of war exist, between that Government and the United States, and as the undersigned, at the head of his troops on the 18th inst., took possession of New Mexico, he now announces his intention to hold the Department with its original boundaries (on both sides of the Del Norte) as a part of the United States, and under the name and Territory of New Mexico.

The undersigned has come to New Mexico with a strong military force, and an equally strong moral force. He has more troops than necessary to put down any opposition that can possibly be brought against him, and therefore it would be folly or madness for any dissatisfied or discontented persons to think of resisting him.

The undersigned has instructions from his Government to respect the religious institutions of New Mexico, to protect the property of the Church, to cause the worship of those belonging to it to be undisturbed, and their religious rights in the amplest manner preserved to them. Also to protect the persons and property of all quiet and peaceable inhabitants within its boundaries, against their enemies, the Eutaws, Navahoes, and others, and while he assures all that it will be his pleasure as well as his duty to comply with these instructions, he calls upon them to exert their influence in the same order, in promoting concord, and in maintaining the authority and efficiency of the laws; and to require of those who have left their homes and taken up arms against the troops of the United States, to return forthwith to them, or else they will be considered as enemies and traitors, subjecting their persons to punishment and their property to seizure and confiscation, for the benefit of the public treasury. It is his wish and intention of the United States to provide for New Mexico a free government with the least possible delay, similar to those in the United States, and the People of New Mexico will then be called on to exercise the rights of the freemen in electing their own Representatives to the Territorial Legislature, until such time as the laws hitherto in existence be continued until changed or modified by competent authority, and those persons holding office will continue in the same for the present, provided they will consider themselves good citizens and willing to take the oath of allegiance to the United States.

The undersigned hereby advises all persons residing within the boundary of New Mexico, from further allegiance to the Republic of Mexico, and thereby claims them as citizens of the United States. Those who remain quiet and peaceable will be considered as good citizens, and receive protection. Those who are found in arms, or investigating others against the United States, will be considered as traitors, and treated accordingly. Don Manuel Armijo, the late Governor of this department, has fled from it.

The undersigned has taken possession of it without firing a gun, or spilling a drop of blood, in which he most truly rejoices, and for the present will be considered as Governor of the Territory.

Given at Santa Fe, the Capital of the Territory of New Mexico, this 22d day of August, 1846, and in the 71st year of the independence of the United States.

S. W. KEARNEY, Brig. Gen.

LOOK OUT FOR COUNTERFEITS!

A gentleman from Granville has placed in our hands a counterfeit four dollar bill of the Bank of the State of North Carolina, which was passed off on him; and we learn that a number of such notes are in circulation in various portions of the State. We have before us the counterfeit and the genuine note of the same denomination. The four dollar counterfeit has no dot under the No., and no dot over the i in "Promises," as the genuine note has; and the word "North-Carolina," in the counterfeit, is roughly and badly executed. In addition to this, the paper of the counterfeit is quite ordinary, and the note itself is longer than the genuine bill; and though the signature of Mr. Heysey, the Cashier, is pretty well done, that of Judge Cameron, the President of the Bank, is a very imperfect imitation.

We learn that the Bank of the State has made the most commendable exertions to ferret out this nest of counterfeiters, and has to some extent succeeded; but it seems impossible for the law to reach this band of scoundrels, as it is more than probable, we learn, that they carry on their work either in Canada or in the extreme north-western portion of the United States. The public would do well to look out constantly for counterfeiters. The last Mecklenburg Jeffersonian says: "It is said that large numbers of four dollar and ten dollar bills on the Bank of the State of North Carolina, are in circulation. The bills are represented as so skillfully executed that the best judges of the genuine bills would have difficulty in detecting the counterfeit."

"Spurious twenty dollar bills on the Bank of Charleston, S. C., are also in circulation.—They have a vignette representing a rail road and mountain scenery. No such plate was ever used by the Bank."
