PROSPECTUS OF THE REPUBLICAN; A Weekly Democratic Newspaper, to be published at Newbern, N. C.

THE REPUBLICAN will be devoted to Politics, to Foreign, Domestic, and Commercial News, and to Literature generally. The POLITICAL PRINCIPLES of the "Republican" will be those of the Democratic Party. Its object is the dissemination and advocacy of those principles.

THE FOREIGN and DOMESTIC COMMERCIAL News will receive our particular attention. We shall give such an exhibit of the state of the markets at home and abroad, as to enable our country subscribers and others to take advantage of the most favorable markets and sell their produce at the highest prices.

The news from the army we shall lay before our readers at the earliest opportunity. In the editorial department, we shall endeavor to give such only as shall confer useful information. The Literary department of the "Republican" will be devoted to political and miscellaneous essays, comprising such articles as will be pleasant reading for the Fireside, and instructive to the Family Circle.

In conclusion, we hope to make "The Republican" a useful Political, Commercial and Family newspaper, suited to the wants of this part of the State. The Democratic party have no paper without this Congressional District. They have no means of promulgating their own views, or of correcting errors and misstatements made by our political opponents. By the establishment of such a paper we shall be possessed of equal advantages with them.

The first number will be issued as soon as the necessary arrangements can be made, about the first of April. The terms of subscription are: For six months, $2.50 per year, in advance. The price of a single copy is 10 cents. The paper is published every Wednesday morning, and sent to mail subscribers by the first of each month. It will be printed on our united support. Newbern is the best location for such a paper, being near the center of the present district, and the point from which the greatest political influence can be exerted.
