

THE TWILIGHT STAR. BY HERBERT C. REED. The twilight star, the twilight star, The first that peeps out on our high; There gleams not one in heaven afar, So sweet, so lovely to the eye.

Oh! how I loved, when life was new, To gaze on it, so bright to see; I know not what hath dimmed its hue, Since manhood's lot has come to me.

Although less bright it now appears, I love to gaze upon it yet; It speaks to me of other years, Of friends I would not e'er forget.

I've sometimes thought, when life is o'er, It would be sweet to plume the wing, And high through realms of space to soar, And dwell in that sweet glittering thing.

Major Noah, by request of a friend, gives a "reminiscence" of the President in his New York Messenger of Sunday. "In 1843," says the Major, "Mr. Polk was in our city, and while quietly, as a private citizen, looking at the various novelties and improvements, he strolled into the Court of Sessions. Seeing him among the crowd, I went up to him to shake a seat on the bench, which, after some importunity and an unwillingness to interrupt the business, he consented to."

"Don't let me interfere, sir, with your duties." "You do not, sir. We are trying a poor devil for larceny, and the jury has got his case in hand. Come, let us have some chat on matters and things in general."

"I meant politics, but it is not proper to say so in court, so we had quite a pleasant talk of the past and future; and by Moses and all the Prophets, had I had a suspicion at that time that he would have been our next President, I would have made him up a cabinet on the spot, and laid down an entire plan of administration, as I used to do, and he, who he left us grateful, no doubt, at the honor I had conferred on him, and returned to the city in triumph as President on Friday, cordially welcomed by the whole people; and I, in turn, felt honored at his kind inquiries and friendly recognition. In a couple of years, when, according to his own determination, he returns to the dull pursuit of the law, I may drop into my little cottage and take a glass of I. C. Champagne and a pipe, and talk over freely, as private citizens, all the measures of the past."

Store and Dwelling House FOR SALE. THE UNDERSIGNED is desirous of closing up his business at Strickland's Depot, Duplin county, N. C., and therefore offers his premises for sale. It is well known to be an excellent location—the very best on the Wilmington and Raleigh Railroad, and offers a desirable opportunity for any person wishing to engage in a safe and profitable business. The Store is 25 by 40 feet, well arranged internally, and fronts on both the County Road and the Rail Road. The Dwelling House is new and well finished, one story, 26 by 32 feet, built in the Cottage style, containing five rooms; there is all the out-houses and improvements needed on the lot, which contains one and three-quarter acres. I deem this slight description sufficient, as those desirous of purchasing, it is hoped, will view the premises themselves. It is the most healthy location in this section of the State, and presents, in all respects, a most desirable opportunity for investment and a permanent profitable business. All persons indebted to me by note or book account, are requested to settle without delay. The Stock of Goods now on hand will be sold at greatly reduced prices, for CASH. A. M. G. WYER, Strickland's Depot, Duplin Co., N. C., July 7th, 1847. 52-4f

Spring and Summer Medicine.

Dr. Townsend's Sarsaparilla. THE MOST EXTRAORDINARY MEDICINE in the world. This extract is put up in quart bottles, for six times cheaper, pleasanter, and warranted to cure, or to do any good, without any vomiting, purging, or cleaning, or debilitating the patient. The most beautiful and efficacious Sarsaparilla over all other remedies is, while it eradicates disease, it invigorates the body. 1,000 cures of Rheumatism. 1,000 cures of Dropsy. 2,000 cures of Scald Head, and want of nervous energy. Female complaints and ovary. 7,000 cures of diseases of the blood, viz: Ziehr, Scrofula, Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Pimples on the face, and all other venereal diseases of consumption, Liver Complaint, Spinal Affections, &c. This, we are aware, induces many persons to purchase from other physicians and our Agents from all parts of the United States, informing us of extraordinary cures. It is the most efficacious of the most respectable Druggists in Newark, New Jersey, informs us that he can refer to more than one hundred and fifty cases in this place alone. It is a true statement of fact in the City of New York, which we will refer to with pleasure in any other case. UNITED STATES OFFICE.—Capt. G. W. McLean, member of the New Jersey Legislature, late of the United States Navy, has kindly sent us the following certificate. It tells its own story: Rahway, January 25, 1847. A year since I was taken with the indolent and my whole system left in a debilitated state. I was induced to try Dr. Townsend's Sarsaparilla, and after using one or three bottles I was very much relieved, and attributed it entirely to the said Sarsaparilla. I have continued taking it, and find that it has cured me of all my ailments. I feel myself in a better state of health, and I feel myself in a better state of health, and I feel myself in a better state of health.
