

ENGELHARD & PRICEL, Proprietors, To whom all Letters on Business must be addressed.

Terms of Subscription. Weekly Paper, one year, invariably in advance, $3 00. Do, six months, " " " 2 00. Daily Paper, one year, invariably in advance, $10 00. Do, six months, " " " 6 00. Do, three months, " " " 3 00. Do, one month, " " " 1 00.

For the Journal. THE "RED INFANTRY." Dedicated to Lieut. Col. Jno. D. Taylor, former Commander of the 1st Battalion of N. C. Heavy Artillery and detachment 36th N. C. Regiment.

Over the breastworks to the van, Bush forward every man; And many a face grew wan, In the "Red Infantry." On, on, they wildly rush, Through thorns and tangled brush— As gallant they push— The brave "Red Infantry." And through the battle smoke, Now rapidly they broke, To deal a mighty stroke— The brave "Red Infantry." With many a lusty yell, Which oft was heard to swell, A sign they gave to push— Rush the "Red Infantry." Up to the first redoubt, They charge the enemy out, And raise a clamorous shout— The brave "Red Infantry." The enemy secure, From a second breach pour, The brave "Red Infantry." And many a gallant brave, Now found a gory grave, And none would succor, save The brave "Red Infantry." The bugle sounds retreat, And swarming missiles fleet Their gallant ranks deplete— The brave "Red Infantry." And many a cruel dart, Pierced many a manly heart; But well they bore their part— The brave "Red Infantry." They went in proud array, And bleeding came away; Their names were on our eye— The brave "Red Infantry." HARRY LIGHTHEART. (Goldsboro, N. C., June 9th, 1866.)

The 1st Battalion of Heavy Artillery were serving as infantry, and the artillery trimmings to their uniforms caused them to be designated by the South Carolinians and Georgians as the "Red Infantry." This Battalion went into the charge at Bentonville with 267 rank and file, and came out with 115. Every officer was killed, wounded or captured, except two. Capt. Rankin being among those killed. Col. Taylor, who was in command, lost an arm while gallantly leading his men up to the enemy's breastworks.

THE WASTE OF WAR. Give me the gold that war had cost, Before this peace-land, And the wasted skill, the labor lost, The mental treasure thrown away, And I will buy of you a peace-land, In every yet discovered land; Where hunters roam, where peasants toil, Where many peopled cities stand. I'll clothe each shivering wretch on earth, In needful, ay, in brave attire; Venture letting hand and foot, Which kings might envy and admire. In every vale, on every plain, A school shall gladden the child's sight, Where every poor man's child may gain Pure knowledge, free as air and light. I'll build asylums for the poor, By age or ailment made forlorn; And none shall ever be among those, Or sting with looks or words of scorn. I'll link each alien hemisphere, With honest means, and honest cheer; Art, Science, Labor, nerve and strength, Reward the poet for his song. In every free and peopled clime, A vast Walhalla hall shall stand; A marble edifice sublime, For the illustrious of the land: A Pantheon for the truly great, The wise, the beneficent and just; A place of wide and lofty state, To honor and to hold their dust. The Army of Northern Virginia.

The concluding paragraph in an article in the Crescent Monthly, entitled "General Lee and his Campaigns," by J. Quitman Moore, Esq., is the most grateful and touching tribute to the gallant Army of Northern Virginia and its last and most renowned chief that we have read: "There stood the mournful remnants of that once glorious army that had dipped its conquering banners in the crimson tide of eight and twenty sanguinary battles, and strewn its heroic slain from the feet of the Pennsylvania mountains to the gates of its own capital city; that had given manhood to the nation, and provided the fame of the Seven Pines' battle in the laurel wreath of Johnston; that had caused the waters of the Shenandoah eternally to murmur the fame of Stonewall Jackson, and stretching its right arm out to the distant West, had planted victory on the drooping banners of Bragg; that had witnessed four gigantic campaigns, and through all their shiftings and tragic scenes, and under all difficulties and dangers, had remained steadfast and faithful to the last. And after having witnessed the rise of the Southern Confederacy, as it loomed up brightly on the horizon of war, pursuing to its splendid zenith the fiery path of Mars, now beheld, not unmoved, its declining splendors, going down in the gloom of eternal night. And he, its illustrious chief, whose lofty plume was ever its rallying point in battle, and around whom its affections warmly clustered, now commended it for its past devotion, and bade it adieu forever. Slowly and sadly he rode from that mournful field, and the cause that he fought for was beneath the foot of power. Few were the eyes that grew not moist as witness that departure. It was the agony of a great cause finding expression in the sublime soul of its great defender. And though that cause be dead, yet will its memory continue to live, and ever honored will be those illustrious names that sacrificed at its altars. And on the scroll of fame no name among the list of eminent worthies will shine with a purer, sener, or more resplendent light than that of Robert Edmund Lee. His fame is monumental. His name will be placed alongside of those of the great captains of history— Marlboro' and Saxe, of Tilly and Eugene, and as long as the name of the Southern struggle shall linger in tradition and song, will his memory be cherished by the descendants of the Southern race; while his character will stand up in the twilight of history like some old grand cathedral, lifting itself in imperishable beauty above the objects of the waste, the hate, the propinquity, awful in its solemn staidness, sublime in its severe simplicity."

GEN. FITZGERALD LEE.—We have just seen an article strongly praising General Fitzgibbon Lee, son of General Robert E. Lee. Most heartily do we endorse everything in favor of that officer, extending his participation in the rebellion. It is very little that he was the handsomest officer in the Southern armies, but it is very much that he possessed unsurpassed military skill and science, and nobleness of feeling. We were his guest in his humble tent, open to the winds of winter, but for some loosely entwined pine boughs, yet for a worthy of a Paladin. In military science, we think him the first man of the South—his father excepted.—Louisville Journal.

The Maine Conference of the M. E. Church North, passed the usual resolutions against rebel traitors, and the sum of all villanous, endorsed Congress and denounced the President.

Wilmington Journal

WILMINGTON, N. C., THURSDAY MORNING, JUNE 21, 1866. NO. 20.

STATE NEWS.

LAWYERS.—The following gentlemen obtained License to practice in the Superior Courts of law in this State: L. M. Mattee, Cleveland county, N. C. S. E. Hines, Chowan. Wm. M. Coker, Buncombe. R. F. Lehman, Craven. John A. Seymour, Craven. James C. Gilmer, Surry. J. Cassin L. Gudgeon, Haywood. John A. Gilmer, Jr., Guilford. James G. Martin, Buncombe. Jos. B. Cherry, Bertie. B. P. Simmons, Montgomery. Elias Hurley, Montgomery. John J. Landell, Granville. Charles C. Pool, Pasquotank. James D. McVey, Moore. Richard W. Nixon, New Hanover. Alphonso C. Avery, Burke. Richard C. Badger, Wake.

CONFEDERATE DEAD.—The Index furnishes additional lists of Confederate dead near the city of Petersburg. Among those published are the following from this State: J. A. Robertson, Co. I, 24th N. C. Henry Toler, Co. B, 24th N. C. Michael Sullivan, Co. G, 24th N. C. J. A. McCarter, Co. H, 49th N. C. A. M. Snyder, Co. G, 24th N. C. D. B. Elington, Co. K, 1st N. C. Finckley S. Sides, Co. K, 35th N. C. Inf. W. G. Bates, Co. G, 24th N. C. Tom Nuby, N. C.

FORWARD COTTON.—We have received from Mrs. Mahala Barnes, at Stantonburg, a cotton button, gathered on Tuesday the 5th inst., which considering the backwardness of Spring, we think remarkably early.—Wilson Carolinian.

NOMINATION CONFIRMED.—Among the nominations confirmed by the Senate in executive session on the 17th, was Elijah H. Willis to be Collector of Customs, at Plymouth, N. C.

CONFEDERATE DEAD.—The ladies of Charlotte propose to hold a Faneuil Hall Concert, about the last of this month, the proceeds to be applied to the preservation of the remains of the Confederate soldiers now lying in the suburbs of that city.

BEARS ABOUT.—A gentleman living in the vicinity of Auburn, in this county, states that a huge bear was discovered in that neighborhood last Saturday evening. Where brum came from was not known, but his pursuers did not capture the black bear, which is still at large, the young men do not give the required permission to furnish transportation.

THE FEMINIA ARRESTED AT ST. LOUIS.—St. Louis, June 11th.—The Fenian war having ended, Judge Treat has dismissed the case of A. L. Moran in the District Court. It is probable that all other arrested parties will also be discharged.

SCHOONER WITH THE FENIAN FLAG FLYING.—DETROIT, June 10.—The schooner Dickinson, from Chicago, called at the river five days ago, flying the Fenian flag. She was brought to, boarded and examined by the cutter Sherman. None but the crew were found aboard.

PROPOSED TAXES ON WOOL AND COTTON.—The House Committee on Ways and Means will report an increased duty on foreign wool competing with American. The Senate Committee on Finance is expected to reduce the rate from five cents a pound on cotton, or fix it upon a sliding scale, according to the average cost of its production of market price. The remonstrances from all quarters against the five cent tax are overpowering.

SEVERAL SPEECHES WERE MADE AND MEMORIALS PRESENTED IN THE HOUSE ON SATURDAY, ASKING aid in the reconstruction of the levees on the Mississippi.

A SPECIAL OGDENSBURG DISPATCH says the American sloop Creole was fired into by some drunken Irish water drinkers, who thought she was loaded with Fenians.

THE CONGRESSIONAL INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE REPORT nearly two hundred different crimes committed in Memphis during the riots. No arrests have been made.

THE MARINE HOSPITAL of South Carolina has been transformed into a freedmen's school.

WHITE EDITOR OF A NEGRO NEWSPAPER ARRESTED FOR SWINDLING NEGROES.—Augusta, June 12.—J. E. Bryant, editor of the Loyal Georgian, the freedmen's organ, was arrested by the civil authority this afternoon, for attempting to defraud negroes out of money borrowed of them when he (Bryant) was an officer of the government or there was released, a colored man becoming his security.

COULD NOT TAKE THE OATH.—CHARLESTON, June 12.—Edgar M. Lazarus and J. F. W. Walter, United States collectors, have resigned, as they could not take the oath.

A MAN MISSING.—PHILADELPHIA, June 12.—A reward of one thousand dollars has been offered for information of Henry J. Batchelor, of Boston, who has been missing since the 29th ultimo, when he left the Eagle Hotel, in this city, and it is feared has been foully dealt with. He was about forty years of age, five feet nine inches high, slender build, black curly hair and moustache, and dark complexion. He had on his person about one hundred dollars, a gold watch and chain and diamond ring, and provided with a trunk for his formation, if the missing man is found living, or for his remains, if dead, by Benjamin Franklin, chief of the Philadelphia detective police.

THE TAX BILL.—The Senate Finance Committee will not complete the revision and examination of the tax bill before the last of the week.

Admiral Wilkes, of the Trent notoriety, has bought large landed property in the heart of this State.

CHERRYLAND COUNTY COURT.—This Court was in session last week. The news says: On Thursday, the magistrates met, and ordered that a jail be built, that the Graham Baker farm be purchased for a Poor Farm, and that a committee be appointed to confer with a committee from the county concerning the building of a bridge over Little River, at Jno. C. Williams. The Fayetteville & Raleigh Plank road was taken in charge by the county.

NEWBORN MATTERS.—Several shade trees were blown down in Newborn on the 14th inst. During the storm the schooner Delmar was struck by lightning and much injured.

"LOYALTY" IN SALISBURY.—The Salisbury Banner makes complaint that a street in that town is named "in honor of the illiterate, dogmatical, bombastic Brigadier General Cooper, who lorded it over our heart-broken and defenceless people so handsomely after the surrender of Gen. Johnston." Such fawning is ridiculous and contemptible.

CONVICTION OF A MURDERER.—CINCINNATI, June 10.—The second trial of Samuel Covert, for the murder of the Roosa family, at Lebanon, Ohio, yesterday resulted in a verdict of guilty, and the first degree. Harrison McNeal, a brother-in-law of Covert, is to be tried as an accessory.

EXAMINATION OF COLONEL ROBERTS, PRESIDENT OF THE FEMINIA.—NEW YORK, June 11.—The examination of Colonel Roberts before the United States Commissioner was commenced to-day. A very little information was elicited from the witness, Messrs. Gillen, Cuff and O'Rourke. General W. R. Strong is dangerously ill from a paralytic shock.

BUFFALO, June 11.—General Barry has received an answer from General Meade regarding the transportation of the Fenians now congregated here to a large number. General Meade says that the United States does not feel called upon to stand the expense of sending these men home, and does not give the required permission to furnish transportation.

THE FEMINIA ARRESTED AT ST. LOUIS.—St. Louis, June 11th.—The Fenian war having ended, Judge Treat has dismissed the case of A. L. Moran in the District Court. It is probable that all other arrested parties will also be discharged.

SCHOONER WITH THE FENIAN FLAG FLYING.—DETROIT, June 10.—The schooner Dickinson, from Chicago, called at the river five days ago, flying the Fenian flag. She was brought to, boarded and examined by the cutter Sherman. None but the crew were found aboard.

PROPOSED TAXES ON WOOL AND COTTON.—The House Committee on Ways and Means will report an increased duty on foreign wool competing with American. The Senate Committee on Finance is expected to reduce the rate from five cents a pound on cotton, or fix it upon a sliding scale, according to the average cost of its production of market price. The remonstrances from all quarters against the five cent tax are overpowering.

SEVERAL SPEECHES WERE MADE AND MEMORIALS PRESENTED IN THE HOUSE ON SATURDAY, ASKING aid in the reconstruction of the levees on the Mississippi.

A SPECIAL OGDENSBURG DISPATCH says the American sloop Creole was fired into by some drunken Irish water drinkers, who thought she was loaded with Fenians.

THE CONGRESSIONAL INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE REPORT nearly two hundred different crimes committed in Memphis during the riots. No arrests have been made.

THE MARINE HOSPITAL of South Carolina has been transformed into a freedmen's school.

WHITE EDITOR OF A NEGRO NEWSPAPER ARRESTED FOR SWINDLING NEGROES.—Augusta, June 12.—J. E. Bryant, editor of the Loyal Georgian, the freedmen's organ, was arrested by the civil authority this afternoon, for attempting to defraud negroes out of money borrowed of them when he (Bryant) was an officer of the government or there was released, a colored man becoming his security.

COULD NOT TAKE THE OATH.—CHARLESTON, June 12.—Edgar M. Lazarus and J. F. W. Walter, United States collectors, have resigned, as they could not take the oath.

A MAN MISSING.—PHILADELPHIA, June 12.—A reward of one thousand dollars has been offered for information of Henry J. Batchelor, of Boston, who has been missing since the 29th ultimo, when he left the Eagle Hotel, in this city, and it is feared has been foully dealt with. He was about forty years of age, five feet nine inches high, slender build, black curly hair and moustache, and dark complexion. He had on his person about one hundred dollars, a gold watch and chain and diamond ring, and provided with a trunk for his formation, if the missing man is found living, or for his remains, if dead, by Benjamin Franklin, chief of the Philadelphia detective police.

THE TAX BILL.—The Senate Finance Committee will not complete the revision and examination of the tax bill before the last of the week.

DARBY AND THE RAM.

"'Twas one of those days when the sun in its perpendicular altitude looks at two sides of the hedge at once—alovely midsummerday—when nature was laughing till her sides ached, and mother earth, in her gayest mood, was lavishing her promises and her smiles to her often ungrateful children, the lambs were shipping to and fro within their enclosed pastures, and the cows, with grave and matron aspect, were loling in the sun, and ruminating their already gathered repast—everything seemed happy except the shepherd Darby.

"'Twas one of those days when the sun in its perpendicular altitude looks at two sides of the hedge at once—alovely midsummerday—when nature was laughing till her sides ached, and mother earth, in her gayest mood, was lavishing her promises and her smiles to her often ungrateful children, the lambs were shipping to and fro within their enclosed pastures, and the cows, with grave and matron aspect, were loling in the sun, and ruminating their already gathered repast—everything seemed happy except the shepherd Darby.

"'Twas one of those days when the sun in its perpendicular altitude looks at two sides of the hedge at once—alovely midsummerday—when nature was laughing till her sides ached, and mother earth, in her gayest mood, was lavishing her promises and her smiles to her often ungrateful children, the lambs were shipping to and fro within their enclosed pastures, and the cows, with grave and matron aspect, were loling in the sun, and ruminating their already gathered repast—everything seemed happy except the shepherd Darby.

"'Twas one of those days when the sun in its perpendicular altitude looks at two sides of the hedge at once—alovely midsummerday—when nature was laughing till her sides ached, and mother earth, in her gayest mood, was lavishing her promises and her smiles to her often ungrateful children, the lambs were shipping to and fro within their enclosed pastures, and the cows, with grave and matron aspect, were loling in the sun, and ruminating their already gathered repast—everything seemed happy except the shepherd Darby.

"'Twas one of those days when the sun in its perpendicular altitude looks at two sides of the hedge at once—alovely midsummerday—when nature was laughing till her sides ached, and mother earth, in her gayest mood, was lavishing her promises and her smiles to her often ungrateful children, the lambs were shipping to and fro within their enclosed pastures, and the cows, with grave and matron aspect, were loling in the sun, and ruminating their already gathered repast—everything seemed happy except the shepherd Darby.

"'Twas one of those days when the sun in its perpendicular altitude looks at two sides of the hedge at once—alovely midsummerday—when nature was laughing till her sides ached, and mother earth, in her gayest mood, was lavishing her promises and her smiles to her often ungrateful children, the lambs were shipping to and fro within their enclosed pastures, and the cows, with grave and matron aspect, were loling in the sun, and ruminating their already gathered repast—everything seemed happy except the shepherd Darby.

"'Twas one of those days when the sun in its perpendicular altitude looks at two sides of the hedge at once—alovely midsummerday—when nature was laughing till her sides ached, and mother earth, in her gayest mood, was lavishing her promises and her smiles to her often ungrateful children, the lambs were shipping to and fro within their enclosed pastures, and the cows, with grave and matron aspect, were loling in the sun, and ruminating their already gathered repast—everything seemed happy except the shepherd Darby.

"'Twas one of those days when the sun in its perpendicular altitude looks at two sides of the hedge at once—alovely midsummerday—when nature was laughing till her sides ached, and mother earth, in her gayest mood, was lavishing her promises and her smiles to her often ungrateful children, the lambs were shipping to and fro within their enclosed pastures, and the cows, with grave and matron aspect, were loling in the sun, and ruminating their already gathered repast—everything seemed happy except the shepherd Darby.

"'Twas one of those days when the sun in its perpendicular altitude looks at two sides of the hedge at once—alovely midsummerday—when nature was laughing till her sides ached, and mother earth, in her gayest mood, was lavishing her promises and her smiles to her often ungrateful children, the lambs were shipping to and fro within their enclosed pastures, and the cows, with grave and matron aspect, were loling in the sun, and ruminating their already gathered repast—everything seemed happy except the shepherd Darby.

"'Twas one of those days when the sun in its perpendicular altitude looks at two sides of the hedge at once—alovely midsummerday—when nature was laughing till her sides ached, and mother earth, in her gayest mood, was lavishing her promises and her smiles to her often ungrateful children, the lambs were shipping to and fro within their enclosed pastures, and the cows, with grave and matron aspect, were loling in the sun, and ruminating their already gathered repast—everything seemed happy except the shepherd Darby.

"'Twas one of those days when the sun in its perpendicular altitude looks at two sides of the hedge at once—alovely midsummerday—when nature was laughing till her sides ached, and mother earth, in her gayest mood, was lavishing her promises and her smiles to her often ungrateful children, the lambs were shipping to and fro within their enclosed pastures, and the cows, with grave and matron aspect, were loling in the sun, and ruminating their already gathered repast—everything seemed happy except the shepherd Darby.

"'Twas one of those days when the sun in its perpendicular altitude looks at two sides of the hedge at once—alovely midsummerday—when nature was laughing till her sides ached, and mother earth, in her gayest mood, was lavishing her promises and her smiles to her often ungrateful children, the lambs were shipping to and fro within their enclosed pastures, and the cows, with grave and matron aspect, were loling in the sun, and ruminating their already gathered repast—everything seemed happy except the shepherd Darby.

"'Twas one of those days when the sun in its perpendicular altitude looks at two sides of the hedge at once—alovely midsummerday—when nature was laughing till her sides ached, and mother earth, in her gayest mood, was lavishing her promises and her smiles to her often ungrateful children, the lambs were shipping to and fro within their enclosed pastures, and the cows, with grave and matron aspect, were loling in the sun, and ruminating their already gathered repast—everything seemed happy except the shepherd Darby.

"'Twas one of those days when the sun in its perpendicular altitude looks at two sides of the hedge at once—alovely midsummerday—when nature was laughing till her sides ached, and mother earth, in her gayest mood, was lavishing her promises and her smiles to her often ungrateful children, the lambs were shipping to and fro within their enclosed pastures, and the cows, with grave and matron aspect, were loling in the sun, and ruminating their already gathered repast—everything seemed happy except the shepherd Darby.

"'Twas one of those days when the sun in its perpendicular altitude looks at two sides of the hedge at once—alovely midsummerday—when nature was laughing till her sides ached, and mother earth, in her gayest mood, was lavishing her promises and her smiles to her often ungrateful children, the lambs were shipping to and fro within their enclosed pastures, and the cows, with grave and matron aspect, were loling in the sun, and ruminating their already gathered repast—everything seemed happy except the shepherd Darby.

"'Twas one of those days when the sun in its perpendicular altitude looks at two sides of the hedge at once—alovely midsummerday—when nature was laughing till her sides ached, and mother earth, in her gayest mood, was lavishing her promises and her smiles to her often ungrateful children, the lambs were shipping to and fro within their enclosed pastures, and the cows, with grave and matron aspect, were loling in the sun, and ruminating their already gathered repast—everything seemed happy except the shepherd Darby.

"'Twas one of those days when the sun in its perpendicular altitude looks at two sides of the hedge at once—alovely midsummerday—when nature was laughing till her sides ached, and mother earth, in her gayest mood, was lavishing her promises and her smiles to her often ungrateful children, the lambs were shipping to and fro within their enclosed pastures, and the cows, with grave and matron aspect, were loling in the sun, and ruminating their already gathered repast—everything seemed happy except the shepherd Darby.

"'Twas one of those days when the sun in its perpendicular altitude looks at two sides of the hedge at once—alovely midsummerday—when nature was laughing till her sides ached, and mother earth, in her gayest mood, was lavishing her promises and her smiles to her often ungrateful children, the lambs were shipping to and fro within their enclosed pastures, and the cows, with grave and matron aspect, were loling in the sun, and ruminating their already gathered repast—everything seemed happy except the shepherd Darby.

"'Twas one of those days when the sun in its perpendicular altitude looks at two sides of the hedge at once—alovely midsummerday—when nature was laughing till her sides ached, and mother earth, in her gayest mood, was lavishing her promises and her smiles to her often ungrateful children, the lambs were shipping to and fro within their enclosed pastures, and the cows, with grave and matron aspect, were loling in the sun, and ruminating their already gathered repast—everything seemed happy except the shepherd Darby.

"'Twas one of those days when the sun in its perpendicular altitude looks at two sides of the hedge at once—alovely midsummerday—when nature was laughing till her sides ached, and mother earth, in her gayest mood, was lavishing her promises and her smiles to her often ungrateful children, the lambs were shipping to and fro within their enclosed pastures, and the cows, with grave and matron aspect, were loling in the sun, and ruminating their already gathered repast—everything seemed happy except the shepherd Darby.

AN ORDINANCE.

AN ORDINANCE in relation to taxation by the County Court. WHEREAS, conflicting opinions are entertained in regard to the power and duty of the County of Pleas and Quarter Sessions in levying taxes for county purposes, and

WHEREAS, taxes have been imposed in various counties on different constructions of the law;

Now, therefore, To settle all difficulties in regard to said taxes, and to extend to the County of Pleas and Quarter Sessions the powers, regulations and penalties authorized and prescribed to enforce the payment of State taxes, and to secure a better government for the insane asylum, the courts of said counties (seven Justices being present) do hereby enact, that the County Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of any county have failed to levy taxes for the support of their insane, as prescribed in the act of the 10th day of March, 1865, that they do hereby secure a better government for the insane asylum, the courts of said counties (seven Justices being present) do hereby enact, that the County Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of any county have failed to levy taxes for the support of their insane, as prescribed in the act of the 10th day of March, 1865, that they do hereby secure a better government for the insane asylum, the courts of said counties (seven Justices being present) do hereby enact, that the County Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of any county have failed to levy taxes for the support of their insane, as prescribed in the act of the 10th day of March, 1865, that they do hereby secure a better government for the insane asylum, the courts of said counties (seven Justices being present) do hereby enact, that the County Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of any county have failed to levy taxes for the support of their insane, as prescribed in the act of the 10th day of March, 1865, that they do hereby secure a better government for the insane asylum, the courts of said counties (seven Justices being present) do hereby enact, that the County Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of any county have failed to levy taxes for the support of their insane, as prescribed in the act of the 10th day of March, 1865, that they do hereby secure a better government for the insane asylum, the courts of said counties (seven Justices being present) do hereby enact, that the County Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of any county have failed to levy taxes for the support of their insane, as prescribed in the act of the 10th day of March, 1865, that they do hereby secure a better government for the insane asylum, the courts of said counties (seven Justices being present) do hereby enact, that the County Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of any county have failed to levy taxes for the support of their insane, as prescribed in the act of the 10th day of March, 1865, that they do hereby secure a better government for the insane asylum, the courts of said counties (seven Justices being present) do hereby enact, that the County Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of any county have failed to levy taxes for the support of their insane, as prescribed in the act of the 10th day of March, 1865, that they do hereby secure a better government for the insane asylum, the courts of said counties (seven Justices being present) do hereby enact, that the County Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of any county have failed to levy taxes for the support of their insane, as prescribed in the act of the 10th day of March, 1865, that they do hereby secure a better government for the insane asylum, the courts of said counties (seven Justices being present) do hereby enact, that the County Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of any county have failed to levy taxes for the support of their insane, as prescribed in the act of the 10th day of March, 1865, that they do hereby secure a better government for the insane asylum, the courts of said counties (seven Justices being present) do hereby enact, that the County Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of any county have failed to levy taxes for the support of their insane, as prescribed in the act of the 10th day of March, 1865, that they do hereby secure a better government for the insane asylum, the courts of said counties (seven Justices being present) do hereby enact, that the County Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of any county have failed to levy taxes for the support of their insane, as prescribed in the act of the 10th day of March, 1865, that they do hereby secure a better government for the insane asylum, the courts of said counties (seven Justices being present) do hereby enact, that the County Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of any county have failed to levy taxes for the support of their insane, as prescribed in the act of the 10th day of March, 1865, that they do hereby secure a better government for the insane asylum, the courts of said counties (seven Justices being present) do hereby enact, that the County Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of any county have failed to levy taxes for the support of their insane, as prescribed in the act of the 10th day of March, 1865, that they do hereby secure a better government for the insane asylum, the courts of said counties (seven Justices being present) do hereby enact, that the County Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of any county have failed to levy taxes for the support of their insane, as prescribed in the act of the 10th day of March, 1865, that they do hereby secure a better government for the insane asylum, the courts of said counties (seven Justices being present) do hereby enact, that the County Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of any county have failed to levy taxes for the support of their insane, as prescribed in the act of the 10th day of March, 1865, that they do hereby secure a better government for the insane asylum, the courts of said counties (seven Justices being present) do hereby enact, that the County Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of any county have failed to levy taxes for the support of their insane, as prescribed in the act of the 10th day of March, 1865, that they do hereby secure a better government for the insane asylum, the courts of said counties (seven Justices being present) do hereby enact, that the County Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of any county have failed to levy taxes for the support of their insane, as prescribed in the act of the 10th day of March, 1865, that they do hereby secure a better government for the insane asylum, the courts of said counties (seven Justices being present) do hereby enact, that the County Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of any county have failed to levy taxes for the support of their insane, as prescribed in the act of the 10th day of March, 1865, that they do hereby secure a better government for the insane asylum, the courts of said counties (seven Justices being present) do hereby enact, that the County Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of any county have failed to levy taxes for the support of their insane, as prescribed in the act of the 10th day of March, 1865, that they do hereby secure a better government for the insane asylum, the courts of said counties (seven Justices being present) do hereby enact, that the County Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of any county have failed to levy taxes for the support of their insane, as prescribed in the act of the 10th day of March, 1865, that they do hereby secure a better government for the insane asylum, the courts of said counties (seven Justices being present) do hereby enact, that the County Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of any county have failed to levy taxes for the support of their insane, as prescribed in the act of the 10th day of March, 1865, that they do hereby secure a better government for the insane asylum, the courts of said counties (seven Justices being present) do hereby enact, that the County Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of any county have failed to levy taxes for the support of their insane, as prescribed in the act of the 10th day of March, 1865, that they do hereby secure a better government for the insane asylum, the courts of said counties (seven Justices being present) do hereby enact, that the County Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of any county have failed to levy taxes for the support of their insane, as prescribed in the act of the 10th day of March, 1865, that they do hereby secure a better government for the insane asylum, the courts of said counties (seven Justices being present) do hereby enact, that the County Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of any county have failed to levy taxes for the support of their insane, as prescribed in the act of the 10th day of March, 1865, that they do hereby secure a better government for the insane asylum, the courts of said counties (seven Justices being present) do hereby enact, that the County Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of any county have failed to levy taxes for the support of their insane, as prescribed in the act of the 10th day of March, 1865, that they do hereby secure a better government for the insane asylum, the courts of said counties (seven Justices being present) do hereby enact, that the County Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of any county have failed to levy taxes for the support of their insane, as prescribed in the act of the 10th day of March, 1865, that they do hereby secure a better government for the insane asylum, the courts of said counties (seven Justices being present) do hereby enact, that the County Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of any county have failed to levy taxes for the support of their insane, as prescribed in the act of the 10th day of March, 1865, that they do hereby secure a better government for the insane asylum, the courts of said counties (seven Justices being present) do hereby enact, that the County Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of any county have failed to levy taxes for the support of their insane, as prescribed in the act of the 10th day of March, 1865, that they do hereby secure a better government for the insane asylum, the courts of said counties (seven Justices being present) do hereby enact, that the County Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of any county have failed to levy taxes for the support of their insane, as prescribed in the act of the 10th day of March, 1865, that they do hereby secure a better government for the insane asylum, the courts of said counties (seven Justices being present) do hereby enact, that the County Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of any county have failed to levy taxes for the support of their insane, as prescribed in the act of the 10th day of March, 1865, that they do hereby secure a better government for the insane asylum, the courts of said counties (seven Justices being present) do hereby enact, that the County Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of any county have failed to levy taxes for the support of their insane, as prescribed in the act of the 10th day of March, 1865, that they do hereby secure a better government for the insane asylum, the courts of said counties (seven Justices being present) do hereby enact, that the County Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of any county have failed to levy taxes for the support of their insane, as prescribed in the act of the 10th day of March, 1865, that they do hereby secure a better government for the insane asylum, the courts of said counties (seven Justices being present) do hereby enact, that the County Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of any county have failed to levy taxes for the support of their insane, as prescribed in the act of the 10th day of March, 1865, that they do hereby secure a better government for the insane asylum, the courts of said counties (seven Justices being present) do hereby enact, that the County Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of any county have failed to levy taxes for the support of their insane, as prescribed in the act of the 10th day of March, 1865, that they do hereby secure a better government for the insane asylum, the courts of said counties (seven Justices being present) do hereby enact, that the County Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of any county have failed to levy taxes for the support of their insane, as prescribed in the act of the 10th day of March, 1865, that they do hereby secure a better government for the insane asylum, the courts of said counties (seven Justices being present) do hereby enact, that the County Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of any county have failed to levy taxes for the support of their insane, as prescribed in the act of the 10th day of March, 1865, that they do hereby secure a better government for the insane asylum, the courts of said counties (seven Justices being present) do hereby enact, that the County Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of any county have failed to levy taxes for the support of their insane, as prescribed in the act of the 10th day of March, 1865, that they do hereby secure a better government for the insane asylum, the courts of said counties (seven Justices being present) do hereby enact, that the County Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of any county have failed to levy taxes for the support of their insane, as prescribed in the act of the 10th day of March, 1865, that they do hereby secure a better government for the insane asylum, the courts of said counties (seven Justices being present) do hereby enact, that the County Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of any county have failed to levy taxes for the support of their insane, as prescribed in the act of the 10th day of March, 1865, that they do hereby secure a better government for the insane asylum, the courts of said counties (seven Justices being present) do hereby enact, that the County Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of any county have failed to levy taxes for the support of their insane, as prescribed in the act of the 10th day of March, 1865, that they do hereby secure a better government for the insane asylum, the courts of said counties (seven Justices being present) do hereby enact, that the County Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of any county have failed to levy taxes for the support of their insane, as prescribed in the act of the 10th day of March, 1865, that they do hereby secure a better government for the insane asylum, the courts of said counties (seven Justices being present) do hereby enact, that the County Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of any county have failed to levy taxes for the support of their insane, as prescribed in the act of the 10th day of March, 1865, that they do hereby secure a better government for the insane asylum, the courts of said counties (seven Justices being present) do hereby enact, that the County Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of any county have failed to levy taxes for the support of their insane, as prescribed in the act of the 10th day of March, 1865, that they do hereby secure a better government for the insane asylum, the courts of said counties (seven Justices being present) do hereby enact, that the County Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of any county have failed to levy taxes for the support of their insane, as prescribed in the act of the 10th day of March, 1865, that they do hereby secure a better government for the insane asylum, the courts of said counties (seven Justices being present) do hereby enact, that the County Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of any county have failed to levy taxes for the support of their insane, as prescribed in the act of the 10th day of March, 1865, that they do hereby secure a better government for the insane asylum, the courts of said counties (seven Justices being present) do hereby enact, that the County Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of any county have failed to levy taxes for the support